KAFFEE KLATCH (KOFFEE/COFFEE)

Comes from the German words, Kaffee Klatch which translates to coffee (kaffee) and gossip (klatch). It refers to a group of friends getting together over a cup of coffee.

In Amber Glades we enjoy coffee and banter about anything that comes to mind.

Eons ago here in the park it became a Kaffee Klatch.

Soooo, please wake up a little early on Wednesday and join us. We meet at 8am.

For the time being, bring your own goodies. Toaster, butter and jelly provided and coffee is free. 8:30am, time to eat. We end around 9am after we've enjoyed each other's company and hopefully met new park residents and friends.

Veterans Day Brunch

The Veterans Day Brunch was Held on Nov. 10th. I want to Thank Jim Ohr for the beautiful flag ceremony. I also want to thank Patti Peterman for the patriotic music she provided before and during the flag ceremony, and also before the serving of the brunch. She did a really great selection of music for everyone's enjoyment. The Poem "The Life of A Soldier" Patti read was so touching. Thank you Ann for finding it for me.. I appreciate it!!

I cannot thank my friends enough for the help they provided. I cannot call them helpers, as they were as large a part of the brunch preparation as I was. A huge thank you to Jim and Ann Ohr, Cyndi and Bill Conley, Liz Johnson as without them. it would not have been a success. I call this a success as I feel it was, and hope all who attended feel the same. We served about 70 residents, 13 of which were verterans from our very own Amber Glades. Thank you and your families for your service. Of course I had help with the cleanup which is also a large part of the day. So thank you to Lori Richards, Patti and Bill Peterman, Ann and Jim Ohr, Bill and Cindi Conley, Barb Johnson and all who helped. If I have forgotten anyone, I do apologize.

Thank you all!!! You made it an absolute great Veterans Day event for all to enjoy!!!

Thank you all who attended and hope to see you again next year!!!

Barb King

Creative thought starts in bed

Creativity is a vital skill that can enhance your career success. You can't always summon it out of the blue, so this advice from the Study Finds website should help: A survey of 2,000 British residents commissioned by Microsoft Surface found many of people's best ideas tend to occur as they're dozing off, when they first wake up in the morning, and sometimes in the middle of the night. Pay attention to your thoughts in bed, write them down when ideas and solutions come to you, and keep rolling through problems before and after you sleep. You might discover some surprising answers.

Got an idea? Run with it

Randall Munson studied computer programming in college, then went to work for IBM, where he spent the better part of his career. Yet in his heart of hearts, what he really wanted to be was a clown.

This had been a childhood dream that would take years for him to realize. With his parents' encouragement, young Munson learned ventriloquism, then moved on to magic tricks. It wasn't until his adult years when he actually began to study the art of clowning.

As a program manager for IBM, Munson developed complex operating systems that he trained others to use. He soon realized clowning around was the best way to win over his audience, keep their attention, and explain abstract technical concepts. Following these presentations, he would bring out an old man puppet who would ask the sorts of questions that everyone was thinking about, but too embarrassed to ask.

Since that time, Munson has become a professional speaker. He entertains audiences around the world with humor and magic, imploring them to laugh more and nurture their creativity.

Randall Munson is credited with declaring January International Creativity Month. There's no better time than the present to try something you've been promising yourself you'd get around to but haven't.

Take an art class. Reengage with an old hobby. Finish an abandoned project from long ago. Try anything that will unleash your creative energy, and see where it leads you. Your only limitations are the ones you impose on yourself.

January Days

New Year's Day, Jan. 1. London marks the start of the year with its largest parade, a handful of nations commemorate their independence on this day, and some people may take a plunge in frigid waters as a symbolic awakening. No matter how you celebrate this day, be safe and of good cheer.

National Joy Germ Day, Jan. 8. It's OK to be contagious when you're spreading joy. Let the good vibes flow.

National Use Your Gift Card Day, Jan. 18. Don't start out the year hoarding and forgetting about the gifts you've been given. Gather your unused gift cards, and do a bit of shopping for yourself and others.

Belly Laugh Day, Jan. 24. At 1:24 pm, wherever you are, stop and laugh out loud and give those around you a reason to do the same. Visit bellylaughday.com to be a part of this worldwide wave of merriment.

Bubble Wrap Appreciation Day, Jan. 27. It's not just for wrapping up breakables; it also doubles as a stress relieving tool. Who hasn't felt better after pop-pop-popping through a piece of bubble wrap?

Online privacy threat a crisis, many say

We're more worried than ever about the threat to our privacy online, the Axios website reports. A survey of adults 18 and older found that 59% don't feel confident that their personal information is adequately protected by the companies and organizations they do business with online, and 58% consider the threat to online privacy a crisis. Just 38% believe that online services are essential to modern life, and "we all have to accept some risk to personal data."

Companies' asking for personal information has become increasingly common these days so they can offer more personalized products and services, but 43% of people in the survey said they feel this is inappropriate. Twenty-six percent are fine with it, and the other 26% are neutral.

Simple tips for a healthier heart

Close to 2,200 people die each day in the United States because of cardiovascular problems. That's one every 40 seconds.

Here's some advice from the WMC Action News website on how to keep your heart healthy:

- Laugh a lot. Laughter dilates your blood vessels, increases blood flow, and lowers your blood pressure.
- Snuggle. Hugging releases oxytocin, a hormone that relieves stress and can reduce blood pressure.
- Get a pet. A University of Maryland study found that survivors of a heart attack who had a dog were eight times more likely to be alive a year after their attack.
- Get the right amount of sleep. Both oversleeping and getting less than six hours of sleep a night raises your heart attack risk. Aim for about eight hours every night.
- Drink coffee. Studies suggest that caffeine can stabilize your heart rhythm if you have an abnormal heart rate. Check with your doctor.
- Move around. Standing and moving around one hour per day can reduce cardiovascular disease risk in women by 25%, according to a University of California, San Diego, study.

Seniors struggle with out-of-pocket medical expenses

Health care is expensive, particularly so for senior citizens who depend on Medicare for their treatments, medications, and other medical needs, but who have to pay out-of-pocket costs as well. The Axios website reports that the average overall yearly out-of-pocket cost for Medicare beneficiaries is $3,166. Here's how it breaks down by condition:

Arthritis	$2,808
Diabetes	$3,035
Stroke	$3,072
Hypertension	$3,308
Non-skin cancer	$3,388
Heart disease	$3,445
Mental condition	$3,663
Parkinson's	$7,346
Alzheimer's/dementia	$13,269
