CELEBRATE THE FOURTH OF JULY

At the 4th of July Picnic @ Amber Glades

We are hoping you celebrate the Fourth of July with all your friends from Amber Glades. We will be having a big party commemorating the birth of our great nation. For just $3 for members and $4 for non-members you will be treated to chicken, homemade potato salad, homemade coleslaw, slow cooked baked beans and dessert. The picnic will be held inside the clubhouse starting at 1pm. Fireworks will be immediately following the meal on the back lawn. Tickets are available the entire month of June. If you aren't at BINGO, BUNCO or Koffee Klatch to get your tickets, you can get them from ML Faiola #13 410-610-9648 or Randi Sandford #397 419-261-6518. Tickets will also be sold at the Father's Day Breakfast and Saturday, June 27th from 10-12 at the clubhouse. Share the Wealth will be held also.

MEMORIAL DAY PICNIC

What a great time we had at the Memorial Day Picnic. Almost 90 residents attended the very successful event. Thank you to all that came and joined us for a time to spend with friends.

Bill Lee and Richard Sandford grilled up the hamburgers and hot dogs on the grill rented for us by the park (Thank you Scott). Don Horrigan ran the Share the Wealth drawings, Lou Faiola ran the Guess the Number game and kitchen duties were shared by Barbara Lee, Donna Miller, ML Faiola, Randi Sandford and Sandy Jones. A big THANKS goes out to all of them.

NEW GRILLS INSTALLED

Amber Glades has replaced and put in new gas grills at the clubhouse (just behind the laundry area) and on the island. You are welcome to use these grills whenever you want. Why not take those steaks or hamburgers up and grill them for dinner? Or invite the family and friends over for a picnic. The island is lovely this time of year and has picnic tables, wild-life viewing and even fishing. This area is for the residents to use. Please take advantage of it.

THANK YOU

A sincere thank you goes out to our friends and neighbors of Amber Glades during this sad, stressful time; the passing of Bill’s mother, Carolyn Lee.

We have spent five winters here and Carolyn and Bill and I loved each year.

Thank you again. We really appreciate every one of you.

Bill and Barb Lee

Sharon Kachinski would like to put out a HUGE THANK YOU to the woman that found and returned her keys. She didn’t get your name, but, you know who you are. Thank you for helping out one of our fellow Amber Glades residents.

Thank you Pat Bundy for the fantastic job you did with our ads, notices, etc. on the community channels. You are one volunteer that deserves an “A+” Plus! The years, time and effort you devoted to this project are priceless; the photos, color schemes, wordings could only come from one who has a wonderful “artistic gift” and that – woman – is you!! We all appreciate and thank you Pat.
Your friend, Betty Ambrosino

THE FOURTH OF JULY REMEMBERED

On the week-end of July 4, 1967, the Faiola Family got together and decided to visit Michael Faiola and family who resided in Trenton, NJ. We hired a bus to travel to Trenton. Michael was one of six brothers and six sisters. Of 43 people going the ages ranged from 54 to 5 years. Approximately 7 hours later we rolled up to his house- SURPRISE! SURPRISE! A newspaper person came from Trenton and took a picture of the group in front of the bus including Mike's family. We made the Trenton Times of New Jersey. We all pitched in and everyone was fed. Men did the cooking, women clean-up and kids in the pool. Some had beds to sleep in, most found a spot on the floor. Two days later we all loaded the bus, said good-bye to Mike and family, and back to Seneca Falls, NY we went.

--Lou & Mary Lynn Faiola

My favorite 4th of July memory is at Lake Delhi. We always went out on the boat, swam in the lake and then in the evening the whole camp would come together for a pig roast/pot luck. Sometimes we would have a band and an open bar for the adults while the kids played games for prizes. We always ended the night with fireworks everyone brought from home. Good times!

--Barbara Lee

I have watched fireworks in so many different places over the years on the Fourth of July. As a child I remember riding in the wagon down to the end of the road and walking out onto what was then the construction site of the Ohio Turnpike Bridge to span the Maumee River and watching the fireworks that the city of Toledo set off downtown. We got to watch the fireworks from the garage roof once when I was a child.....having to promise not to move from the spot where dad sat between my sister and I. Another time I remember walking with our two youngest boys, who were in a stroller, to Fort Meigs, just outside of Perrysburg, OH. We laid on a blanket and stared straight up at the fireworks, as they burst overhead. Later, a favorite spot was on the top floor of a parking garage where we could drive in, watch the fireworks and drive out. The Meijers parking lot in Bowling Green, OH sets directly across from where they shoot off the fireworks on the BGSU campus. Park, shop and view the fireworks from a lawn chair on the tarmac. Can't get any better than that (Meijers even provides hot dogs right off the grill)! Returning one fourth of July evening by plane into Detroit Airport we were treated to all the fireworks you could see for miles around. You could see each little town having their own display.....way below you. It was viewing the fireworks from a different angle. And then there was the elevated walk-way, the hillside of the golf course, the empty baseball field, Aunt Louise's back yard.....fireworks.....family.....and freedom to watch them wherever you want to.

--Randi Sandford

On the 4th of July I liked it when we went up north in Michigan and had a celebration out in our back yard at our home. We had s'mores around the bon fire and I gave my grandson s'mores at two years old while his father was holding him, and got him all sticky. We roasted hot dogs and marshmallows on the open fire. They called me Fire Bug because I liked to feed the fire with twigs and logs. It was fun. I also liked it when we went to Bay City, MI and saw the fabulous fireworks.

--Janette Blake-Faler

For the 200th birthday celebration of our nation in 1976 a wagon train set out from California and traveled across the USA to Philadelphia. A friend and I woke at 3am so we could watch the wagon train pass by on Route 30. It had to be something special for me to get me up at that time in the morning.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Eye injuries occur at a rate of more than 2,000 per day, with an estimated 1,000 eye injuries occurring in American workplaces alone. In addition to wearing proper safety eyewear, early detection and treatment of eye conditions and diseases are essential to maintaining good vision throughout your life.

Independent Retailer Month. Celebrate independent retailers across the country. Support and shop independent merchants all through the year, and use July as a time to unite for the independent retailers in local communities that help build our economy.

National Hot Dog Month. What better month to enjoy a delicious hot dog? The National Hot Dog and Sausage Council estimates that Americans eat over 7 billion hot dogs between Memorial Day and Labor Day, with 150 million consumed on the Fourth of July alone. Do your part.

Parks and Recreation Month. This year marks 30 years of Parks and Recreation Month, highlighting the enduring importance of parks and recreation for the world. From the start, parks were created to give us a place to appreciate nature, exercise, socialize, and have fun—a mission that lives on into the future.

Trust in others rises as people grow older

In a cynical world, trust can seem hard to come by. But new research suggests it may grow as we get older. The World Values Survey, collecting data from more than 200,000 people in 83 nations, found that more than a third of people 80 years old or older agreed with that most people can be trusted, although just a quarter of 20-year-olds said the same.

The results were consistent regardless of nationality, gender, education, and income.

A similar study, analyzing data from the General Social Survey of 1,230 U.S. citizens over time, also found that our willingness to trust increases as we grow older.

One possible explanation: As time goes on, most people tend to simplify their lives and spend more time with their families, resulting in a more positive and generous attitude about the world.

That morning cup of coffee may be really good for you

A lot of us depend on a cup of coffee or two to get going in the morning. But coffee may have even more significant health benefits. Here's a quick look at what it may do to improve your life:

- Melanoma. A study by the National Institutes of Health and the AARP found that the more coffee people drink during the day, the lower their chances of developing melanoma over a 10-year period. Four cups of coffee a day was associated to a 20 percent drop in melanoma risk.
- Multiple sclerosis. An analysis of two studies of people diagnosed with MS (one in the U.S. and one in Sweden) found that consuming at least four cups of coffee a day appears to delay the onset of symptoms. The caffeine, researchers say, seems to have neuroprotective properties that inhibit MS development.
- Liver cancer. Drinkers of three or more alcoholic beverages a day may be able to cut their risk of liver cancer by drinking coffee, according to a recent World Cancer Research Fund report. Coffee and coffee extracts appear to have a preventative effect on the expression of genes involved with inflammation—an effect that's most prevalent in the liver.
