MAY BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING – highlights

At the Amber Glades HOA Board of Directors meeting, the board discussed the resignation of Donna Cochran. They decided to hold off until fall to make any decisions on her replacement. Ed O’Neal read the list of complaints turned in to him and those complaints will be discussed with park management at their monthly meeting. They were in agreement that those complaints should repeatedly be brought to the attention of park management until resolutions are completed. The board also decided to wait until the residents have received their rent increase notices before setting up a meeting to address and explain the negotiations that took place with park ownership.

NOTE: All residents are encouraged to attend the HOA Board of Directors Meetings. The next one will be held on the first Tuesday of October in the clubhouse library.

Tribute to Jeanne B. Frymire

Jeanne B. Frymire
January 6, 1914 – April 22, 2015

Jeanne is one of those people you will want to meet when you get to heaven. Although personally, I hardly knew her, I have learned wonderful tales from the people that did. She was admired and revered by residents of Amber Glades. This history of her is adapted from an autobiographic accounting of her life that she wrote just before her 100th birthday.

Her story started back on January 6, 1914 in Atlantic City, New Jersey. In Jeanne's words, "I was christened "Regina" a name I have always despised. I was always known as Jeanne, spelled in various ways. A letter of introduction to my first job spelled my name "Jeanne" and I have spelled it that way ever since."

Jeanne attended kindergarten for two months in Atlantic City. Upon moving to Margate, NJ she was placed in the third grade because she could already read at the age of 5. She graduated in 1930 as Salutatorian of her class and received a medal for General Excellence.

Going to college part-time, Jeanne graduated with high honors with an Associate Degree in Business Administration. Jeanne worked in this field until her retirement at age 70. She earned her BA in Language and Literature in 1975. She worked at Atlantic Community College where she advanced to the position of Administrative Assistant to the President [and we all know what that means....she basically ran the place].

Jeanne and William Henry Frymire were married on April 4, 1942 and were life partners. They had no children. William died on October 26, 1996 after fifty-four years of marriage. They celebrated, at Amber Glades clubhouse, their fiftieth wedding anniversary and traveled to Europe later that year.

Upon Jeanne's retirement in 1983, she and her husband immediately moved to Safety Harbor, FL, thus Amber Glades. Many of you know and tell of the countless hours when Jeanne volunteered her time to the betterment of Amber Glades. She worked on many committees, events, and activities and was a member of the Social Committee for over 20 years. She also served as editor of the Amber Glades Newsletter.

Jeanne was humbled that on her 100th birthday her friends would give her a party honoring her and January 6, 2014 would be declared Jeanne B. Frymire Day. In her words, "I see nothing note-worthy at having achieved this age and see no reason I should be honored. I would prefer to have been honored for having written a great book or having made some scientific discovery. I have no regrets about my life. I have enjoyed everything I have done. I am fortunate to have so many good friends and I highly value our relationships. I think they over-rate me and I wish I could do more for them."

Although Jeanne requested no memorial service after her death, I hope she won't mind that many here at Amber Glades and many in the surrounding area take a moment to reflect on all the times that she gave us friendship, lent a helping hand or volunteered to do something that benefitted us all. Thank you Jeanne, and may you find rest.

MOVIE CRITIC

On April 19th twenty residents of Amber Glades were at a private screening of The Bucket List, starring Jack Nicholson and Morgan Freeman. Laughter rang rampant throughout the audience as the two stars of the show gave an amazing performance as they came to grips with their final months.

A wonderful movie that gives one the urge to go out and cross something off their own "bucket list". Are you ready to sky dive or see a magnificent sunset? Now is the time. Just do it.

Next Walk-in-Movie will be July 12th. Watch for details as the date gets nearer.

A WONDERFUL MOTHER'S DAY

Don Horigan

THE WEATHER COULD NOT HAVE BEEN BETTER... the attendance was the best ever and the food...oh well, two out of three isn't bad.

The lovely ladies and the beautiful roses...a great combination.

Ron D'Ettore and Francis (aka Frank) Ford were the ticket takers and Tom Oltarzewski, in his formal attire, presented each lady with a long stem rose....Louis Faiola was in charge of the OJ and Tropical fruit and the Mimosa....the most popular of the three??....you guessed it.... MIMOSA won out....I heard that a few of the golf carts had a problem driving back home.

Before breakfast was served we enjoyed a very special celebration with a great cake LOADED with candles brought out by Betty Yurkiewicz....and the singing of Happy Birthday to MLs very special guy Louis Faiola. It was great to have the desert before the breakfast...sort of like having your cake and eating it too....or having something to munch on while waiting for your 1, 2, 3 breakfast.

Two BIG guys, Bobbie Greenwood and Glen Johnson delivered the plates while Paul Folsom kept the coffee flowing. In the kitchen, on the grills, we had Ron Fisher and Ed O'Neal. This was Ron's last day cooking for us as he and his lovely wife Cheryl will be returning back up North. You will be missed in the kitchen Ron...good help is hard to find, good FREE help is even harder. Lucien Rouleau and yours truly did the plating.

Thanks to all who came and especially thanks to all that helped....as I have said so often.... it's the volunteers that keep the wheels rolling.

[THANKS DON FOR YOUR HARD WORK AND DEDICATION]

THANK YOU

My Dear Friends

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the good wishes, hugs, gifts, helpful tasks I couldn't do. You all know who you are. My Lovie, I couldn't go without you.

Thank you. ML Faiola

FOOD BANK DONATIONS

As you may or may not know, food donations are collected at Amber Glades year round for the food bank in Safety Harbor. Donations are very much appreciated, especially at this time of year, when food stocks are low. A collection box can be found in the clubhouse near the bulletin board, or you can drop your donations off at The Sandford's, Lot #397. A collection bin is clearly marked in their driveway.

HURRICANE SEASON IS UPON US

June 1st marked the beginning of hurricane season. Are you prepared? Inside the clubhouse door, on the table, you will find a very informative brochure with things you should know about being safe throughout the upcoming hurricane season.

Do you know where the nearest evacuation shelter is? Does it take pets? Some don't.

Amber Glades is not located in a flood zone, but being that we live in mobile homes, we are in the first group to evacuate. The best plan is to have a plan in mind, and follow through with it as the storm approaches.

Know where your important papers are and take them with you along with all medications. Having these stored in one place makes gathering them up and remembering them much easier.

If we have to evacuate you will want to baton down the hatches by securing all loose items outdoors so they do not become projectiles. Planters, lawn ornaments, lawn furniture, flagpoles, etc... should be put inside. Turn off and unplug electronics. Before you leave, fill several jugs with water along with your bathtub. Keeping a case or two of bottled water is also suggested. After the storm has passed, and you return, there may not be utility services right away.

We certainly hope the upcoming hurricane season is mild, but being prepared is a good thing.

BUNKO! Join us. Play every Tuesday at 1pm. See you there.

FLAG DAY - JUNE 14

President Woodrow Wilson issued a presidential proclamation establishing a National Flag Day on June 14th of each year. This day commemorates the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the official flag of the United States.

One story goes that Betsy Ross was commissioned by George Washington to create a flag for the new nation in anticipation of the country’s independence from England. John Adams described the flag in 1777 as, “...the thirteen United States shall be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white on a blue field, representing a new constellation.”

Since that time there has been twenty seven official versions of the flag; stars have been

Eat Better to Spur Creativity

Some great artists and writers are known to have used drugs or alcohol to seek inspiration, but you don't have to risk your health when you need a creative boost. The Medical Daily website suggests trying some of these foods to help stimulate the brain:

- Fruit. Fruits have lots of an amino acid called tyrosine, which helps synthesize proteins and may influence your ability to think deeply. In one study, students performed better at completing puzzles when they drank orange juice strong with tyrosine.

- Chocolate. The flavanols in chocolate may enhance short-term cognitive skills, according to one British study, because flavanols boost the amount of oxygen in the brain. Try a cup of hot cocoa before you need to be at the top of your mental game.

- Carbohydrates. Carbs deliver a quick dose of glucose to your body and brain, providing aid to concentration and memory. Potatoes, oatmeal, and other carbs may have a beneficial effect on brain function.

- Walnuts. Rich in omega-3 fatty acids, walnuts can help memory and increase brain function, according to the journal Plant Foods for Human Nutrition. The results of one study showed that rats given a diet of raw walnuts for 28 days showed better learning and memory than rodents on another diet.

Money Matters

Try these smart shopping tips at the grocery store

Everyone wants to stretch his or her food dollars. You don't have to live on ramen noodles and cold cereal three times a day to do it. Here are some tips for savvier shopping at the store:

- Don't fall for fancy displays. Items stacked at the end of the aisles, like sodas, aren't necessarily on sale. The display can make them seem like they're marked down, but often they're still regular price.

- Remember that you pay for convenience. Skinless chicken breasts cost more than those packaged with skin. The same applies to the pre-cleaned and cut carrot sticks. In both cases, they're a little more expensive. Decide whether the convenience is worth the extra money.

- Try the store brands. If you compare the contents and nutritional value of name-brand versus no-brand items, you'll often discover that they're almost identical. In many cases, they're made in the same plant and just packaged with the store label.

- Use coupons. How often have you clipped coupons only to allow them to expire? Develop a system that will ensure you remember and use them.
