YUMMY YUMMY APRIL POTLUCK

Once again our Amber Glade neighbors did a wonderful job of making our pot luck a big success. There were so many good dishes that it was hard to choose and the desserts, of which there were many, were outstanding. A big thank you to Millie Ricci for hosting all of us for dinner. I am sure I speak for everyone when I say we really had a good time and appreciate you giving your time to make it all happen. It always amazes me at the number of people who step up to help at our events, either helping to set it all up or clean up afterwards. To all of you I say thank you very much.

Liz Johnson

THANK YOU

A big thank you to all the Amber Glades Line Dancers. On April 29th we had our last class until the fall. It was followed by a get together with snacks and goodies. I was presented with a very generous card and a plant that I am doing my best to keep alive. (I am noted for having a black thumb). Have a great summer and I hope to see you all in November.

Irene

MEMORIAL DAY PICNIC AT NOON, SATURDAY MAY 28th

On Saturday, May 28th, we will celebrate Memorial Day weekend with a picnic at the Amber Glades clubhouse. Bring your own meat to grill and a dish to share to the clubhouse at Noon. You can grill your own meat or we will do it for you. Bring your dinnerware and whatever you want to drink. We will supply lemonade.

HOPE TO SEE YOU ALL THERE.

Memories

Imiss big brother! Henry Ellis Carmichael Jr., did not have to join the Marines (USMC), something drew him there. He could have gotten a medical exception, due to moderately severe asthma. His last night home he went to sleep listening to a record on automatic repeat ...“Ooooo Vietnam”. He sent letters from the jungle, pointing to the splatter of blood/guts of giant mosquitos. Our Entire family saw him off at O’Hare airport. He returned with a burial escort. OOOOoo VIETNAM!!! Thinking of You many times thruout the year Big Brother, from Sista Chevy (Evelyn C.) AG Lot 120

FLAG DAY - JUNE 14th

Flag Etiquette and Respect

- The United States flag should never be dipped to anyone or thing.
- The flag is flown upside-down as a distress signal only.
- The flag should not touch the ground.
- A worn flag should be retired with dignity thru a flag burning ceremony usually performed by The American Legion or Boy and Girl Scout Troops.
- When displaying the flag on a flag pole the U.S. flag should be the top flag when displayed with others.
- When displayed over a street, it should be hung vertically with the union (stars) closest to the north or east.
- When displayed over a sidewalk the union should be furthest away from the building.
- The flag is saluted throughout the time it is raised or lowered, or until the last note of the National Anthem.
- The flag should be illuminated if displayed at night.
- Indoors the flag is placed to the right of the speaker.
- When displayed on a wall the union should be at the top and to the observers left when hung either horizontally or vertical.
- On Memorial Day the flag is to be displayed at half-staff until noon and at full-staff after noon.
- Before raising a flag to half-staff it should always be raised to full-staff and then lowered to half-staff. It should also be once more raised to full-staff before lowering the flag from half-staff.

Thanks Dad

Mr. Henry Ellis Carmichael Sr. joined the Navy in Alabama, changed his birth date so he could join early. No official birth certificates in suburbs of Alabama in 1921. My dad served on a submarine during the Korean War. He mentioned seeing Pearl Harbor a few years after the fact. A great provider and family guy. We always had a Dad at home, strict when we were young, but relaxed and became church Deacon in his mature years. Many Thanks for being there DAD. Love Ev (he called me crazy girl) AG Lot 120

A DAD REMEMBERED

First person you'll want to meet in Heaven is Gene Mandell. My dad. He will seem quiet at first, but I think that is because he is planning his next tease, his next practical joke, his next Bridge game, his next golf game, his next adventure.....you'll like him.

One hot day in late June of 1967 we were off on vacation. I was excited because my best friend, Jean, was going along on a two week camping trip to somewhere out west. I remember getting as far as the St. Louis Arch, but not much more than that. The arch opened just the week before and we waited in line 6 hours to go to the top.

But, I digress. We arrived early at Jean's house the morning of our departure. Her mother stood talking to my parents, in the driveway, before we got under way. Us kids were clamoring to get on the road. As we sat in the car waiting, I heard Jean's mother mention the hot weather and how it was going to be to drive with the heat. Innocently, my dad says, "It shouldn't be bad with air conditioning." Since air conditioning was not even thought of as a standard feature on cars yet, especially the old Rambler station wagon we had, Jean's mother fell right into his trap. Surprised, she ask, "You have air conditioning in your car?" Dad's answer, "Doesn't everyone?" Disbelief raised the eyebrows of his unsuspecting victim as he finished his statement. "We just crank down all the windows and we have all the air conditioning we need!"

My aunts were many times the brunt of my dad's antics. We would all spend weekends at Aunt Louise and Uncle John's in Alliance, OH. They had a backyard pool and what fun it was to be able to play and cool off in the pool with all our cousins and friends. Dad organized the diving championships. After an afternoon of enjoying a bit of beer from the basement tap, my dad and uncles proceeded to entertain us by diving thru little inner-tubes and acting pretty silly. My dad never drank at home so this was a whole new side of dad we kids had never seen...and rarely did again.

But, I digress. On one such weekend, dad brought gifts for all my aunts. He presented his gifts to them poolside. Wrapped in taped up shoe boxes, with a note on the top of each box that read. TO BE WORN WHILE SWIMMING. Inside they found dangle earrings with heavy rocks attached to them.

Another time, we were having Thanksgiving dinner at Aunt Louise and Uncle John's. Aunt Louise had a huge turkey cooking in the oven when we arrived. What she didn't know was that my dad had brought along a surprise for her. Her turkey was roasting in an old navy blue roaster with white poke-a-dots on it (you remember, everyone had one). Well, earlier that morning, dad had mom roast up a Cornish hen in a mini roasting pan of the identical same colors. While Aunt Louise was out of the kitchen he switched pans in the oven. You can guess the rest when Aunt Louise next opened the oven to check on Thanksgiving dinner.

Dad was always helping someone. He bailed us out many times fixing a leaky drain, putting up drywall, painting a wall. He retired at the age of 55. I can remember as a child hearing him say he was going to retire at 55. That was his goal, and he did it. 37 years he worked for The Toledo Edison. Starting at the age of 18 as a lineman, climbing thousands of poles. 2 weeks days, 2 weeks afternoons, 2 weeks nights. Later he worked as a crew supervisor. He and mom moved to Sun City, AZ when they retired. They returned to Ohio 2-3 times a year. Staying with us when they did.

But, I digress. We would fly out to visit them each year in AZ. Our youngest son learned how to walk on their gravel yard. After being there several days, the first time we visited after their move, I noticed dad would get 1, maybe 2 calls each day on the phone, leave for a few minutes and then come back. Finally, I ask mom what he did on these short jaunts. She said he was the youngest man around the neighborhood and he was just going to help someone move their TV, furniture, etc. Just helping out.

Dad died at the age of 65. I remember thinking I was so glad he got to retire at 55 and have 10 years of traveling and golf. I remember the morning mom called to say he had died in his sleep, after a day of golf and dinner with friends. Monday after Thanksgiving. I shouldn't have been so shocked. You see, he tried to warn me. Actually, he tried to warn me and my siblings. Give us a heads up. But, we just weren't listening. Two weeks before he died, my 3 siblings and I got similar phone calls all starting with, "I can die anytime now. I just did what I have always wanted to do." He had went skydiving that morning.

When you get to heaven look up Gene Mandell and give him a hug from me.

Q: Why did the baby strawberry cry?

LETTER TO DAD

Dear Dad,

An old father living alone in the country wanted to plant his pepper garden, but the ground was too hard and he was too old to do the work. His only son who use to help him was in prison for robbing a bank.

The old man wrote a letter to his son and mentioned his situation: "Dear Jake, I've been very depressed lately because it looks like I won't be able to plant my peppers this year. You know how much your mother loved planting peppers this time of year, but I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. I know if you were here my troubles would have been over. I know you would have been happy to dig the plot for me." Love, Dad

A few days later he received a letter from his son: "Dear Dad, Don't dig up that garden! That's where I buried the THINGS!" Love, Jake

At 4am the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area looking for the THINGS. They apologized to the old man after not finding anything and left.

The next day the old man received another letter from his son. "Dear Dad, Happy Fathers Day! Go ahead and plant your peppers now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances." Love, Jake

HURRICANE SEASON IS UPON US

June 1st marks the beginning of hurricane season. Are you prepared? Do you know where the nearest evacuation shelter is? Does it take pets? Some don't.

Amber Glades is not located in a flood zone, but being that we live in mobile homes, we are in the first group to evacuate. The best plan is to have a plan in mind, and follow through with it as the storm approaches.

Know where your important papers are and take them with you along with all medications. Having these stored in one place makes gathering them up and remembering them much easier.

If we have to evacuate you will want to baton down the hatches by securing all loose items outdoors so they do not become projectiles. Planters, lawn ornaments, lawn furniture, flagpoles, etc....should be put inside. Turn off and unplug electronics. Before you leave, fill several jugs with water along with your bathtub. Keeping a case or two of bottled water is also suggested. After the storm has passed, and you return, there may not be utility services right away.

We certainly hope the upcoming hurricane season is mild, but being prepared is a good thing.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
