Call To Prayer

Contributed by Pat Budney

Prayer to protect the environment.

God of all creation, as we look at the environment, your divine power and immense love are ever present. We thank you for the beautiful creation and abundant resources you have provided your children. We ask your help in revealing how much we can be better stewards of your creation. Help us to use only the resources we need, never being selfish by taking more than necessary. Please give us the opportunity to appropriately share our wealth with those who are less fortunate instead of disposing of our surplus. Help us to remember that the environment is home to all life and that we must take up the responsibility to ensure all life is respected. We thank Thee for this day and ask for your blessing on this journey. AMEN.

Let's Get Our Calendar Up To Date

As fall approaches we need your help. Many of the sports and weekly activities have been suspended during the summer and are now being re-activated. If you are the person in charge of any such events, please contact your Newsletter editor (726-1912) so we can supply the correct information for those who are interested.

Library Volunteer

Rose Hendershot

You'll be seeing a new face in the library. We are fortunate to have a fairly new resident volunteering her time to taking care of the library. Her name is Daine Nance, residing on Crystal. When you see her, please welcome her to Amber Glades. She is stepping in to take over a large task that is sometimes a thankless job.

A huge thank you to Lue Mauge for all she has done for us in serving as Librarian for the past several years.

Herb and I have filled in for a short time and know it can be a trying job. It seems that the Book Return Box has books thrown in helter skelter. We've had books damaged by the way in which they are thrown in the box. Our books are donated by our residents and were precious to our previous owners. Let's make them precious to all of us.

Once again, thanks to Diane Nance for volunteering her time. Help her by putting the books back in the box carefully. And thank you, Rose and Herb, for being interim Librarians. It is refreshing to know persons who have respect for books. It is suggested that there will come a day when all our reading will be done electronically. Some of us hope that we will never live to see that day.

Comfort Food

Rose Hendershot

Tossed Salad, Pasta Salads, Lasagna, Meatloaf, Macaroni and Cheese, Chicken, Meatballs, Beans and Franks, Texas Baked Beans, Orange Fluff, Bundt Cake, Strudel, BROWNIES, YUM!! I know I've probably missed something, but so did you if you didn't come to the August 23 Pot Luck Dinner. We had twenty-seven folks who socialized and shared their specialties with friends and neighbors. Lots more fun than sitting home on a Saturday evening.

A huge thanks to all you folks who stayed around and helped clean up: Pete and Sharon DesJardins, Pat Budney, Irene Pehl, Arline Ackermann, Mary Arcese, Jan and Dennis Bowers, Shirley (I have a last-name block) and my good friend and neighbor Beverly Whitstine. Jeanne Frymire led us in prayer. I know everyone pitched and helped in one way or the other and Herb and I thank you all. Mary Arcese was the winner of the door prize, a gift bag of wine, cheese, candy and nuts.

Thanks to twenty-seven of our full-time residents for supporting our Social Functions. Next Pot Luck Dinner is October 4, 6:00 p.m. sharp. See you then.

And thanks to you also, Rose and Herb. All of us there had a great time. Those who are not attending our Pot Lucks don't know what they're missing. Try one once and you'll come back for more.

Thank You

Rose Hendershot

Please, please, please do not leave your unwanted items in the Clubhouse. We know you mean well, but we have run out of storage space for items with which you are finished. The Salvation Army, if called, will pick up things for which you no longer use. Goodwill has several drop-off sites in our area as well as the Goodwill Store on Tampa Road.

For large items Habitat for Humanity has a large facility on the corner of 49th and Ulmerton Road. Please, once again, do not drop off items at the Clubhouse.

It is unfair to expect volunteers (in this case Rose and Herb Hendershot) to deal with unwanted items. As Rose has suggested, there are many convenient drop-off sites in the area. Or, call the Salvation Army (541-7781) and they will pick up the articles from your driveway. This will save you a trip to the Clubhouse and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that the items will be put to good use.

In Memoriam - Ronald Dittus

Millie Ricci

I want to thank my family and all of my friends in Amber Glades for their kindness and support during this horrific time of my life. I was with Ronnie for twenty-eight years.

Ronnie was born in Kingston, NY on March 16, 1937. His dad died when he was two years old and he was brought up by his Mom and Uncle Chipe. His uncle took him all over and helped him deliver blocks of ice to persons who did not have electric refrigerators. His uncle taught him to play the banjo and he played drums in high school. He graduated from Kingston High School in 1955. He enlisted in the Air Force and served in France for four years.

He worked for Western Printing for about twenty years and then joined IBM. He was married for twenty-nine years and was then divorced. He had one daughter. I met Ron on January 3, 1986. I retired first. He was still working. Upon his retirement he began playing drums with his uncle in the Riverview Banjo Band, which lasted for about four years.

We moved to Florida in May 2008. Here he played drums in the Suncoast String Band. He began playing guitar about two years ago and played at Amber Glades Clubhouse with some of the bands and played at Pot Luck Dinners.

Ronnie became ill in May of this year. He could no longer control his sugar. He stopped eating and drinking in June and passed away in his sleep on August 18. There will be a Memorial Service at the Clubhouse in October.

May he rest in peace. I will miss him, but he doesn't have to suffer any more. I want to thank Alex Soto for coming and praying for him. He was with Ron when he left us. Also to Coleen and Sal Catrini for their support. Thank you very much, one and all.

Social Committee Meeting

Please be reminded that the final Social Committee Meeting of the season will be held on Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7:00 p.m. We hope that we will have a good attendance. This is your opportunity to possibly be a winner of the jackpot.

Florida Department Of Highway Safety And Motor Vehicles

Section 316.1964, Florida Statutes, authorizes all individuals who have been issued a parking permit to park on the street at a turnstile meter parking space free of charge. However, there are restrictions on the duration of time a person can park free on the street. When an on-street parking meter restricts the duration of time that a vehicle may be parked, a vehicle properly displaying a disabled parking permit is allowed a maximum of four hours at no charge; however local governments may extend such time by local ordinance.

Sunshine Lady's Report

Mary Kollm, #49, (726-5842)

During the month of August get-well cards were sent to Lana Snyder, Eileen Hayden, Lue Mauge, Elizabeth Hendrix, and John Chesney. A card of sympathy was sent to Millie Ricci upon the death of her friend, Ron Dittus. Please notify Mary when a card should be sent to a resident for any reason.

Visitation Rights To My Money While Visiting My Money At Biloxi

Carmine Coppola

Either take home or I contribute some more money. I usually make my visits brief. (I don't want to over-stay my welcome), and of course, I can't afford the extra contributions, so three days is my limit.

A funny thing happened on my way to the Casino. I realized that the more I contribute, the more comps, free-play dinners, and amenities I receive. Whereas if I win, my situation remains status quo. Therefore I say, "To bet or not to bet, that is the question." Oh, well, I guess I'm just a degenerate gambler.

An Eventful Trip

When Bill Chesk planned a visit to his family in Lakeville, Massachusetts, he didn't realize how exciting it was going to be, but things kept happening all the time. First of all August 20 was the fifteenth birthday of his granddaughter Maeve. Bill has two more granddaughters (Maura and Molly) in addition to Maeve, and Maeve is the eldest. The occasion was celebrated with a birthday dinner. You can enjoy this picture of Maeve and her "Pop-Pop" at the affair.

But there was more to come. Together they all attended the Patriots' Opening game of the season. Another picture of Bill at the game with the three sisters, (left to right,) Bill, Molly, Maeve, and Maura.

Bill is now resting comfortably at home.

For Black Cats Hallowe'en Can Be More Trick Than Treat

If you have a black cat, Hallowe'en is the time of the year to make every effort to keep it safe from thieves who might use it for nefarious purposes. Keep your cat indoors lest it be stolen for use in satanic rituals. There are individuals who think Hallowe'en gives them the freedom to kill or terrorize an animal for entertainment.

Animals don't appreciate the holiday and don't understand its symbolism. They can easily become frightened seeing people in strange costumes. The fear of an animal's being mistreated has caused some rescue agencies to refuse to allow anyone to adopt black cats for a few weeks before Hallowe'en.

The association between black cats and Hallowe'en goes back centuries when people believed that they were witches in disguise. They were sometimes considered a witch's servant because they are largely nocturnal, roaming at night, when people believed that evil lurked, waiting to attack unsuspecting souls. Old superstitions die hard and pet shelters warn people to pay special attention to the safety of their pets during the Hallowe'en season.

Don't put your dog or cat in a costume unless you know that it loves it. If you do dress up your pet, make sure the costume isn't annoying or unsafe. It should not impede the animal's breathing, or its ability to breathe, bark or meow. Take a closer look at the costume and make sure it doesn't have dangling pieces that it could choke on.

Serendipity

Carmine Coppola

Part of my basic training in World War II was a two-week survival maneuver in the swamps of Louisiana. Upon completion my outfit was granted a three-day pass to New Orleans which coincided with the Mardi Gras. Was I disappointed when on the eve of the three-day pass I came down with an acute case of dysentery.

I was hospitalized in Shreveport, where I recuperated for the three days of my pass time. As it turned out, it was my "good luck" to get sick because of my last night at the hospital I won a small fortune shooting craps. WOW! Over $1,000, almost three years' pay as a buck private in the Army at that time.

Taking advantage of my serendipitous turn of events, I opted to get married. I chose to have a catered affair in lieu of the usual "Football Wedding" reception. Often held in a large rented hall, so as to accommodate the large number of relatives (children included.) Families were huge in my day.

The bride's family on the eve of the wedding would make all kinds of sandwiches wrapped in wax paper and at the reception would go to each table and when someone who wanted a sandwich, would say, "Gimme a ham and Swiss," the family would throw it across the table like a football. Hence the term "Football Wedding."

I booked the largest hotel in Brooklyn, the St. George, which boasted the only in-door salt-water pool in the city. I had over fifty relatives at a sit-down seven-course meal in the hotel's banquet room and the tariff was just under $150. The rest we saved to furnish our home when I was discharged.

P.S. I often joked to my wife, "I won you in a crap game." I may have said it once too often because my wife reacted by treating me like a bachelor for a week, and that made me put an end to that joke.

Apologies

Our apologies as well as our congratulations to Sharon Kachinski who celebrated her birthday on August 26. Please, please, please, everyone notify your editor (726-1912) of the dates of your birthdays and anniversaries. We would like to get all of you on our list so that we can send our best wishes on those important occasions.
