On Heading Out

Closing up our homes for six months or more can be stressful. Exactly what should we do so our return is more or less uneventful? Ask two people, and you'll get two different answers. We in Coach 228 know that turning off the water, keeping the air set to the mid 80's, and setting small containers of charcoal in every room have worked. But we are not giving advice. Let's leave that to the experts.

Our own manager, Cliff Wicks, has been giving advice on closing up a coach for a long time. If you have questions, ask him. He's in the know.

The web might also be useful. I entered something like, "How to close up my Florida mobile home for the summer," into Google and had lots of possible "hits." This one from the Sarasota County Extension looks good:

<http://sarasota.ifas.ufl.edu/FCS/closing.shtml>. So does this "Handy Checklist for People Heading North:" <http://www.reneesresales.com/PDF%20Forms/A%20Handy%20Checklist%20for%20Those%20Heading%20North.pdf>

Don't take my word for it, though. Ask your friends and neighbors. Do your own web search. Pick the best ideas. Good luck to all and see you next year!

Thanks from the Red Hats

Red Hats would like to thank Jean Stonerock and her merry helpers for setting up the Red Hats Fashion Show, held February 20th at the Club House. Food was varied, plentiful and tasty. Thanks to all that made it special.

Six models presented clothing from Bon Worth Fashions in Largo Mall to an audience of 45. When you purchase from them, please announce you are from Bay Ranch so they can evaluate whether it is worth it to do the show. The Red Hat Fashion Show is an annual event, so watch for it next year.

Dolores Grimstead, Coach 206

We Enjoy the Music

We really enjoy the music in the area—Central Park, Ranch Mobile, Palm Hills, Teakwood—to name a few. There are so many talented people here and they certainly have fun entertaining us. The Talent Night was very good. We hope to be back again next year for more music.

Joan and Gord James, Coach 149

Thanks for the Talent Show

Thank you to everyone who helped make the Talent Show a success: the talent, obviously, but also the many people behind the scenes who worked so hard. And thanks to the many residents who attended the show, laughing, singing along, and encouraging the talent. Let's do this again next year!

Jan Raabe, Coach 228

Thank you from the Shufflers

The Pancake Breakfast held March 3 was a great success. We fed 105 people. Everyone enjoyed the meal and the fellowship. Sharon Allen won the 50/50. We wish to THANK everyone for your support to the Shufflers.

Betty Ann Quish, Coach 1400

Russ's Random Thoughts

"I never win anything," my good friend Charlotte says. Well she's wrong. She won the 50/50 at the Valentine dance. And how about that Valentine's dance? "Great stuff," says Russ. The decor was awesome and so was the music, canned I believe but very danceable. Dancers dressed 90% in red for the great evening. The DJ continued on past the cutoff time, but my oxygen was running low, so had to miss the extra hour, darn it!

Quite a meeting last night called by Cliff, our manager, about the rules and regulations in Bay Ranch, and after that he talked about the amendments as a concerned home owner. It's about time someone said something about these. I'm of the opinion why fix it if it ain't broken?

I would like to thank Bob Lupton for the Sunset Club meeting at Hulk Hogan's restaurant on Courtney Campbell Causeway. We had 60 people show up, but only 39 signed up so we had a seating dilemma. So please people sign up next time. It sure was a great party and our food was good. So was the beer. The sunset was perfect and got some great pictures.

You just cannot believe the comradery that exists in Bay Ranch, best I've ever seen for a mixed group. Wish the rest of the world was like us. I thought I knew everybody but there were a few people I couldn't identify. I like to know everybody so please make an effort to come say hello. I say this as I'm chained to my oxygen and can't move around very well.

We have had visitors the past few weeks, and I believe they like Florida weather and then us. Anyhow they're all welcome and we love to see them. I wrote an article last month about living here in the area and here goes another:

We were only married a few months when Avis and her sister Shirley spent the afternoon on the beach. She got very sick when she came home so we called the doctor. He came out to check on her, took one look and said, "Avis, don't you know the sun is for Yankees? You have a touch of sunburn, and you'll be ok in a few days."

That night our little apartment was loaded with all our friends, feeling no cares and wishing Avis speedy recovery. After they drank all our refreshments, they decided to have an argument about the government. I had to work the next day so I changed into my pj's and said to Avis, "I think we should go to bed as these people want to go home." Well, they took the hint and left. The next day we received a case of beer, a thank you note and flowers. Nice group of buddies.

I'm trying to recall all this but memories sometimes fail. The doctor's name was Vernon Hagan and he was a swell guy. He even delivered our first daughter Susan.

Be kind to each other and Luv u guys,

Russ.

P.S. Just had breakfast at clubhouse, rated good, thanks to shufflers.

Original Poem: Happy Easter

By Mary Lou Foos, Coach 227

---

It's nice to have such good friends
At this holiday season.
Just remember the reason for today
Our savior has risen for a reason.

That we might help one another
When the going seems to rough,
Just ask the Lord to help you
And things won't seem as tough.

So be happy on this Easter Day
Cause he is only a prayer away.

APRIL QUESTION: WHAT ACTIVITY OUTSIDE BAY RANCH WOULD YOU RECOMMEND TO OTHER AND WHY?

Let's Eat

By Russ Trombly

What a month! We haven't stopped moving since the last week in February. Our son is down from Michigan, and he's renting a coach for a month. We have been to more restaurants than we go to in all the rest of the year, and I believe they're all trying to exceed the other. A great place for breakfast is the Frog Pond [16909 Gulf Blvd, North Redington Beach, FL]. I recommend you go with an empty stomach. Very good.

The whole Trombly family (south Florida) group went to dinner at the Shrimp Store on 4th street in St. Petersburg and what a feed that was! It's been there for 35 years and I can remember going there years ago when they had checkered table cloths. It's still good food but the interior of the place has changed.

Two Favorite Places

By Bob Lupton

---

We live in an unbelievable area with so much to offer for just the price of few gallons of gas. My two favorite places (of the many I love) are John's Pass at Treasure Island and the Sponge Docks in Tarpon Springs. They offer great local shopping as well as fantastic restaurant choices. Both offer fresh seafood and Tarpon Springs has the greatest Greek dining you can find. Tarpon Springs is an experience in itself where you can take several boat tours to see Sponge divers or search an Island for shells. I highly recommend the Hella's restaurant bakery, but be warned, the selections are highly tempting and you may go off your diet. When I have company visiting these two places are a must stop.

Busch Gardens Concert Series

By Carol Raabe

We really enjoyed Busch Gardens' Concert Series this winter. We attended 3 concerts, including Peter Noonan of Herman's Hermits, the Diamonds, and the Grass Roots. In all, the series included 10 groups who performed 3 45-minute concerts a day for 5 days. (We learned that Peter Noonan has an active fan club and met a woman who drove here from Indiana to attend all 15 of his concerts!)

The concerts were free with a season pass, but you do need to pick up tickets at the park. If you decide to go, at least one person in your group should purchase a pass that includes parking. Parking alone costs $17, so you don't have to go too often to make the parking pass worth it. If you want to attend the early show, get to Busch Gardens as soon as it opens. The seats are benches in a semi-circle around the stage, so there are no bad seats, but expect to spend 45 minutes or more standing in line waiting to get in if you want to sit on or near the center aisle. Disabled individuals and those with them go in a separate door with no waiting.

she has volunteered. The Sanctuary cares for birds that are no longer able to live in the wild. Once they are healthy, they are returned to the wild, or if they have babies, the babies are released. Many of these birds come back and live in the trees around the area. The pelicans are definitely not afraid of people. They walk along the paths right beside the people. In the trees are nests, and you can see some of the babies and how they are fed by their parents.

This is such a great place to go visit. You do not have to spend hours there to see everything but can spend as much time as you want watching the birds. The area is shady from all the trees, and you can walk through the area and end up on the beach.

The Suncoast Bird Sanctuary is located at 18328 Gulf Blvd, Indian Shores. There is a large, carved wooden statue of a pelican at the entrance. This is very helpful because the entrance is easy to miss. There is no charge to go into the sanctuary, but they do have donation boxes to help feed the birds. I hope you have a chance to go.
