OFFICIAL NOTICES

HOA

The Homeowners’ Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

FMO

If you like to stay in the know about policies and events that affect your mobile home ownership, membership in the FMO is the way to go. If you like the idea of sharing what you learn, become the Bay Ranch representative to the Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida (FMO). P.S. There is a candidate investigating whether he wants to do this. Stay tuned.

FROM THE EDITOR

July has been a sad and stressful month for many of us, with family health problems and the deaths of three Bay Ranch residents: Bette Braze from coach 1032 who died Sunday, Debbie Eakin coach 328 who died Tuesday, the park secretary; and Valerie Hale who used to live in coach 1363, Jim Hale's wife. My sympathies to all friends and families.

I learned this morning that our household is the only one using the internet tower out of Chamberlain so the company will do nothing to improve our service, which is not only slow but stops and starts, often several times in a minute. That makes doing the Review a little rough, as anything I do not write comes to me via email or Facebook. Needless to say, we're looking for a new service, not that there's a lot to choose from around here. This is me whining.

Based on the dearth of information and plans for August activities, I would say it's, "Summertime, when the living is easy." Except when it's not.

JUST SAYIN'

By Jeanne Hunter Residents' Club President

I have a confession to make. I had this one night stand. I felt so bad about it, the next morning I ran out and bought another one for the other side of the bed. Sometimes I shop too much. Hey, what were you thinking!

On Fourth of July, we had an ice cream social – sundaes, hot dogs and the fixings, soft drinks and coffee. We had a quite a turnout, bigger than expected, and everyone had a great time. After singing (not really a good description of what we did) the National Anthem, we all agreed we need Betty Quish back soon. Luckily, nobody recorded our efforts on a cell phone – I think we stepped over bad and were downright illegal. Once again, I made my charitable donation to the 50/50 and bingo.

I'm writing this in early July and our August events aren't yet set. Check the clubhouse bulletin boards for the latest information. Better yet, come on up on Monday mornings at 8AM or thereabouts for the koffee klatsch, followed by the Residents Club meeting at 9AM. We have all the news that's not fit to print.

Read recently that during labor the pain is so great that a woman can almost imagine what a man feels when he has a fever.

Come check out the library this summer. We have a small – but growing – video (DVD's) section. Also an audiobook section. These are located on the small bookcase on the back wall of the room. You can find a shelf of large print books there too. And all around the room on the bottom shelves are hundreds of jigsaw puzzles. Check your shelves at home and see if you have some DVD's that you don't really watch anymore but didn't know what to do with. We'd be glad to add them to our library collection. I have a few I forgot about myself, so it's one more viewing and then into the bin in the library.

And finally, the younger generation can learn much from their elders...On the 12th hole, Tom's tee shot bit to the left and landed right in front of a big 40' tree. He was debating what his next shot would be, probably just hit it out sideways onto the fairway. Grandpa told him, "When I was your age, I hit it right over the top of that tree." Well, Tom's ego took over and he took the shot right over the tree. Except – THWACK – it hit the tree dead center and landed 30' further back. That's when Grandpa chimed in again, "Of course when I was your age that tree was only 2' tall." Just sayin'

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

Editor's Note: Bob's Corner is empty this month. Bob has decided to take a short break to rejuvenate from his trying July. Stay strong, Bob.

Many summer events tend to be "spur of the moment," so the Review cannot include it here or on the calendar. If you're looking for an organized event, watch the bulletin boards at the clubhouse.

Holiday Tea

Ione Jones and Carol Raabe plan to host a High Tea for Ladies and Gentlemen during the holiday season, soon after Thanksgiving, we hope. We will need a few teapots. Please let us know if you are willing to lend us your teapot for the event.

LET'S EAT

by Ione Jones

Editor's Note: Now that Ione has the cast removed from her wrist – and is wearing a boot cast on her right foot – she can cook and come up with recipes for us.

The heat of summer is here, at least for most of us. For those of us who are experiencing heat, meal planning can be challenging. I know I don't like to do a lot of cooking because it heats up the house and is hot doing the cooking. Cool and refreshing salads and desserts that are easy to make are always a welcome addition to any meal. I like using Jello recipes, substituting sugar free Jello with no other change in the recipe. Not only is it refreshing, but a lot of the carbs have been removed. Here are a few of my favorites:

Orange Dreamsicle Salad

Ingredients

- 3 oz. package of orange gelatin, such as Kraft Jello
- 1/4 cup of boiling water
- 1 (16 oz.) tub of whipped cream thawed, such as Cool Whip
- 8 oz. package of cream cheese softened
- 1 (11 oz.) can of mandarin oranges

Instructions

1. Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water. Stir until completely dissolved
2. Transfer the gelatin mixture to a bowl to cool off, and start to thicken
3. Once the mixture has started to gel, and thicken, fold in the mandarin oranges with their juices
4. Meanwhile, in a separate bowl, mix the whipped cream and cream cheese together
5. Add the orange mixture to the cream mixture, and fold in
6. Refrigerate, covered overnight
7. Mix again just before serving

I have made this with different flavors of jello and used no fruit or fruit that goes with the flavor. I really like lime with no fruit.

Serving suggestion - Serve with whipped topping, and enjoy!

JELL-O Mandarin Orange Salad

Ingredients

- 1 small can mandarin oranges, drained
- 1 small can crushed pineapple or pineapple chunks, drained
- package orange-flavored gelatin
- 8 ounces frozen whipped topping, thawed
- 112 ounces cottage cheese

Instructions

1. Pour all ingredients into a large bowl and stir to combine.
2. Refrigerate before serving.

Feel free to lighten things up by using oranges and pineapples in their own juice, sugar-free gelatin and low-fat or fat-free cottage cheese and whipped topping.

Strawberry Cheesecake Bar

The Strawberry Cheesecake bars will not be low carb, even if you use sugar free jello, but they taste great.

Ingredients:

- 1 roll refrigerated sugar cookie dough
- 1 box (3 oz) strawberry flavor gelatin
- 2/3 cup boiling water
- 1 tub (16 oz) regular cottage cheese
- 2 (8 oz) cream cheese, softened
- 2 Tablespoons granulated sugar
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1/4 cup strawberries, chopped
- Sliced strawberries, for topping

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 350F degrees. Line 9x9 baking pan with foil and then spray with non-stick baking spray.
2. Press refrigerated sugar cookie dough into bottom of prepared baking pan. Bake for 15-20 minutes. Let cool for 10 minutes.
3. In a small pan, boil water and stir in gelatin, set aside. Puree cottage cheese in food processor until creamy. Using a electric or stand mixer, mix cottage cheese mixture, gelatin, cream cheese, sugar and vanilla extract until smooth. Stir in chopped strawberries.
4. Pour mixture into prepared cookie crust; smooth top. Cover and refrigerate 4 hours, or until set. Garnish with sliced strawberry before serving.

MONTHLY QUESTION:

The QUESTION OF THE MONTH for September: Writer's Choice

As usual, answer the September QUESTION OF THE MONTH and submit to the editor (Carol Raabe, nelsonraabe@gmail.com, Coach 228, 605-730-0476) by the 10th of the month . Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to 300 words or less.

Watch for the dangers of carbon monoxide

Carbon monoxide (CO) is a colorless and nearly odorless gas created by the incomplete burning of solid, liquid, and gaseous fuels. It's poisonous to people and pets, so be careful. Symptoms of the poisoning are:

- Headache
- Fatigue
- Shortness of breath
- Nausea
- Dizziness

To prevent CO poisoning, take these precautions at work and at home:

- Buy and install a CO alarm. Make sure it meets safety requirements, and follow the directions for proper placement and installation.
- Install appliances properly. Most of them should be installed by a professional.
- Check your appliances. Have your heating system inspected and serviced every year.
- Only burn charcoal outdoors. Never burn it in a tent, home, garage, vehicle, etc.
- Make sure you turn off fuel-burning engine equipment when you are inside a garage or basement. Just having the doors open does not ensure your safety.
- Always follow the manual directions when servicing fuel-burning equipment.
- Do not use gas appliances, such as ranges, ovens or clothes dryers, to heat your home.
- If you use a fuel-burning appliance that is approved for indoors, make sure it is vented to the outside following the manufacturer's instructions.
- Install and use exhaust fans over gas stoves.
- Open flues when you use your fireplace.
- Choose the proper size wood-burning stove for your home.
- Have a professional inspect, clean and tune up your central heating system (furnaces, flues, and chimneys) annually.

Lost in translation

Henry was visiting a distant country where he didn't know the language. He managed fairly well with the help of a guide, but on Sunday he wanted to go to church, and his guide had the day off. So he found a small church in the village where he was staying and followed a friendly-looking man inside.

The man greeted him and smiled, so Henry took a seat next to him and decided to copy his every action. When his new friend rose with the congregation to sing a hymn, Henry did the same, finding the hymn by looking at the man's hymnal. When the collection plate came around, Henry put in the same amount of money as the man next to him.

Toward the end of the service, the minister made some kind of announcement. The man next to Henry stood up, so Henry did too. The congregation gasped in shock.

After the service, the minister approached Henry. So Henry's surprise, the minister spoke English. "You don't know a word of our language, do you?" the minister asked kindly.

"Uh, no." Henry was nervous. "Is it that obvious?"

"Well, when I was announcing the birth of a new child and asked the father to stand up..."

The real problem

A little girl was running a high fever with a bad cough and an aching feeling throughout her body, so her father took her to see the doctor. After waiting for an hour, the doctor finally took them into her office for an examination.

"Now, Christina," she said after checking her heartbeat and looking down her throat, "What's bothering you the most?"

"My brother Sam," she replied honestly. "He breaks all my toys!"

High stakes

A man walked into a bar and ordered a beer. As he drank, he noticed slabs of beef hanging from the ceiling on hooks. "What's this about?" he asked the bartender.

The bartender smiled. "Well, if you can jump up and pull one of them, we cook it up and give you free beer all night. If you miss, though, you have to put $100 into the charity jar we keep back here for orphans. What do you say?"

The man looked up, then shook his head. "Sorry. The steaks are just too high."
