FROM THE EDITOR

Review in Summer

“Why did you volunteer to do the Review?” someone you all know asked me. Of course, I was immediately paranoid.

“Why? Is there a reason I shouldn’t?” I asked. She reassured me that she was just curious.

Whew! I volunteered because I’ve been looking for a meaningful way to be involved in the Bay Ranch Community. Because I thought I could do it. And because Linda Goldstein, the previous editor, asked me. And I’m not sorry.

From the Editor

The last 4 months have really been rewarding. I’ve met more of you than I ever thought I would. And you’ve gathered around me with information and support in a way I never would have anticipated. Facebook requests and questions receive multiple, helpful answers. Mistakes are corrected kindly, then forgiven. Successes are celebrated.

Every month, at least one submission from an unexpected source touches my heart.

The on-going help and support extends to people I've come to think of as Review Staff: Linda Goldstein, the previous editor, is working with Deb Eakin in the office on the directory. Evelyn Bair, "hired" to proofread and now a victim of "scope creep," is providing, along with Linda, summer in-park support while we Northerners desert the blistering South.

Bob Lupton, always willing to help with anything and social butterfly par excellence, provides photos on demand.

Russ Trombly, an OCD writer, recounts more details from his life than I ever noticed in mine.

Wayne Redshaw plans a whole series of articles featuring Bay Ranch residents (see his first story on Betty Ann Quish in the November issue).

Avis Trombly and her crew of Review deliverers (I don't even know who they all are!) make sure we all receive the most recent copy delivered right to our homes.

This group, plus anyone else who answers a plea for help, will make the summer editions work. We'll use e-mails, Facebook, phone and any other tools at our disposal to communicate.

Thank you, thank you, thank you all, for making this a rewarding job. Every contribution is valued. Keep'em coming.

Russ's Random Thoughts

The season is winding down and our Northern people are heading home. Imagine they have to get back to reality. Weather has improved immensely and just when that pops out, everybody heads home. Can't figure.

Bay Ranch has been busy, though. Monday morning is the resident club's meeting and I haven't missed one for a few years. Love the friendly get together so and seeing everyone that is present. Have missed Dorothy and Harold. Hope she is working on her oxygen, a lifeline for sure. Just read Mary Sue Thompson is in MP hospital. Hope it's a short visit and wishing her a speedy recovery. For some crazy reason I contracted the shingles. It wasn't a bad case as I had them before, and my doctor, I suppose, caught it in time. I only had four spots and that was four too many.

We attended the Monday night manager's meeting where Cliff proposed a change in the money situation. I believe it's a good thing to let the different departments spend their own hard earned money as they see fit. Good proposal. I'm through politicking for now, though.

St. Patty's dance was a great success, a lot of green and good spirits going around. We missed the pig roast this year. We had company from North Carolina we haven't seen for almost 25 years. The shufflers and golfers banquet was a great party this month. This park sure knows how to live it up and give a respectable time doing it. Everybody had a good time and I even got a hug from one of my favorite gals. No harm in hugs.

The sunset club met at the American Legion in Madeira Beach this month. Bob reserved part of the patio for us, but he was late and the wait staff wouldn't seat us there. That area sat empty all night as Bay Ranchers filled up the rest of the patio. I have a membership in the Legion, so I can buy drinks there. Non-military had to see me or other former military to get their drinks. The evening was beautiful for sunset. We had a great time with the 30 participants and great camaraderie all around.

Is anybody having trouble with their TV, wifi, cable internet and phone bill? We received an increase of 5 bucks per month because Brighthouse sold to some company that isn't even a Florida company. Damn them! I mean, when is it going to stop? They don't realize that half the populace is on fixed pensions which means some will have to stop their medications. Oh, h---, I could go on and on. It just is not too fair to some of us. That's my soap for the day!

Our son Mike was down for a month, just relaxing, watching a few ball games, resting at the pool, just doing the northern dance. We have had an old friend of our daughter's down from North Carolina and we've been doing the beaches and their old favorite haunts, but there are very few left from the 70's. We were fortunate to find a few. It's rather nice visiting old places but they also bring back memories of happier days. Nough said.

We went to Willows Gospel Opry Saturday, March 21 and listened to a true love in group. This was one of their finest I've seen in a long time. Songs were good and presentation awesome. When you came out it was like love was all over the planet. You had to believe something magical happened. Great performance.

I'm still having trouble with the iPad. I found it's not like a computer but I'm getting used to it, I hope. Be nice to each other and don't forget the hugs. Luv u guys, Russ

April Resident’s Club Meeting a Shocker!

By Carol Raabe

Residents’ Club meetings have been anything but tame lately, but April’s meeting set a new standard. As Gin Lupton said on Facebook, “Wow!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” The meeting started normally enough with the usual reports, including Joyce Budlong’s announcement that Rick Powell has been retained for the Valentine’s Dance next year and Rose Portman’s that on-going projects are on hold.

Then came the shocker: Rose announced that a tire had been slashed and reluctantly resigned her position as President, followed by a few “oh’s” and some applause as she exited the building. Following her lead in quick succession, Vice President Pat Chase, Directors Lee Lemarca and Joyce Budlong, and Secretary Evelyn Bair also resigned. To rousing cheers, Jack Farrell, Peggy Thompson, and Paul Puerling announced they were not resigning.

The scene that followed was not exactly pandemonium, but it wasn’t shocked silence, either. Cool heads acted immediately to resolve the question, “What now?” Bruce Love moved to condemn the slicing of Rose Portman’s tire. Jack Farrell accepted the motion, which was seconded. The motion was approved by unanimous or near unanimous standing vote. Bob Lupton agreed to serve as interim president until new officers could be selected in November. Jack Lee volunteered to help and was appointed interim vice president. Bruce Love agreed to serve as advisor. Ana Peck volunteered to be a board member. All were presented by motion, seconded, and approved by acclaim. New President Bob Lupton assumed the mike.

With hardly a pause, the meeting changed focus to proposals from Cliff Wicks. Amendments to add a provision allowing absent residents to appoint a proxy and to strike the existing By-Law provision requiring clubs and organizations to get permission from the Board for expenditures over $100 were made, seconded and passed. Cliff ‘s motion to suspend Residents’ Club Business Meetings [no official business of the club to be conducted] until November was greeted with a sigh of relief and approved.

Whew!

No one objected when Cookie Waters moved that “This meeting be over.”

FMO Last Meeting of the Season

By Dolores Grimstead, FMO Representative

The Federation of Manufactured Home Owners hosted training for HOA's (Homeowners Association), led by FMO State President John Salvucci. Following the training, Salvucci and State FMO Legal Counsel spoke.

The next meeting will take place in September. A notice will be posted in the clubhouse. Membership is not required to attend the meeting.

Red Hats Cruise the Inland Waterway

By Dolores Grimstead

After weeks of planning, 39 Red Hats from Bay Ranch donned their red hats and purple finery to enjoy a cruise of the inland waterway off Clearwater Beach. The Star Lite Majesty Dining Yacht amenities include a furnished upper deck for enjoying the sun and scenery until luncheon was served. Four colorful and tasty main courses plus salad, beverage and desert made up the meal.

As we ate, the captain pointed out places of interest along the inland waterway south of Clearwater Beach. Plenty of time was left for socializing with companions at the 6-person tables. The weather was beautiful, the ambiance sophisticated, the company fine. We may do this again.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Peck Receives the Carole Carmadella Award for 2015

Saying Thank You for the Carole Carmadella Award is an awesome task. It is a prestigious award and I am grateful to have received it, but I have to thank all the volunteers who made me look good. Every time I thought about it, there were at least 100 wonderful people who crossed my mind. These volunteers have Hearts of Gold. They're Always Giving, Always Sharing, and Always Caring. Thank God we have so many fantastic people living in our community. I want to thank you all.

Ana

Congratulations, Ana Peck, deserving winner of the Carole Carmadella Award for 2015. And thank you, Ana, for agreeing to an article in this Review.

When Ana returned my call asking for an interview, she was hesitant; she didn't want to be "blown up." When the time for the interview arrived, neighbor Jean Stonerock was sitting at the kitchen table with her for moral support.

As it turned out, Jean provided more than support. Ana is not one to toot her own horn. The thank you letter she posted in the clubhouse and reprinted in the sidebar is a case in point. The three of us had an old-fashioned coffee klatch, sharing information like the old friends Ana and Jean are.

Since Ana wouldn't boast about herself, Jean did it for her. For example, Ana's friends know that she is a gifted designer of greeting cards. For birthdays and Christmas, she uses her computer to create personalized cards complete with original sentiments. She produces tickets, programs, and posters for events at Bay Ranch. Her skill is a result of the computer science degree she pursued until a severe health problem put a stop to her schooling. The creativity is all her own.

During the last 2 years, Ana served on the Board of Directors for the Bay Ranch Residents' Club in charge of dinners and dances, everything from scheduling and publicizing events, decorating and setting up, arranging for food and entertainments, and clean-up. She has since volunteered to serve as an interim Director on the Board.

The back, front and middle of a birthday card designed by Ana Peck, with a clever take on sending a late card, and a cute red-headed Ana avatar.

“Ana is a genius at planning and organizational,” says Jean. Ana is most proud of the people who helped her make these events successful and well-attended.

The Carole Carmadella Award goes to a Bay Ranch resident whose contributions to the community have been outstanding. The award was established to honor Carole Carmadella's work in establishing Neighborhood Watch. Winners are selected by Sharon Carriere and Sandy Bates, and the award is made at the annual Pig Roast. Award winners' names are engraved on a plaque that hangs on the north wall of the clubhouse.

My furry kids, Boxer sisters, Sadie & Elli, mean tons of kisses, lots of love, and the world to me. When outside with them, anyone passing by visits with them and gets their share of love, too. Sweet, silly, funny and gentle as kittens, they're very special dogs.

MY LOVABLE SHIH TZU, DANNY BOY

By Maureen Stapleton

It is hard to explain how wonderful my Danny Boy makes me feel, very loved and special. One night a dinner my husband Tom asked me how I would like to have a dog. My answer, of course, was, “Yes,” thinking he had a large dog in mind. To my surprise, I was wrong. His friend had a Shih Tzu. I was thrilled.

Danny Boy was born February 2006, and my husband and I adopted him in May. We both enjoyed him, and I realized I better not spoil him and have him only attached to me.

Fast forward to December 2006. Tom, always an avid golfer, had slowed down a lot. I think he knew something I didn’t and wanted me to have a precious gift. Tom had a stroke and died December 2006. We were married 55 years. Other than our children, Danny Boy is the greatest gift from Tom I could have. To this day I marvel at the love and joy he brings to me. I have said many times I don’t think I would have been smart enough to get a dog and realize the joy to come.

My bundle of joy sleeps right next to me. He understands everything I say and I understand his wants and needs. We walk and I talk, telling him how good he is. We used to run but walking is good.

TWO SHORT REMINISCENCES

By Russ Trombly

Long ago, when I was still chasing a buck, I rode back and forth to work in a car pool. It was handy for the participants as we’d only have to drive one week out of every four. Now I’m not saying too much about a couple of our drivers, but I’d try to get behind the driver and hunch down close to the floor of the car. I was terrified for my life. I liked to start a small conversation and see where it took us. To interesting places, it turned out. I was always happy when we reached the Three Brothers Bar to wet our whistles and relax.

When our friend was here, we took a couple of nostalgic rides. One was to Dunedin, where we built our first home in 1947 and moved in in ’48. The house still looks good and they’ve added another room. We had a two bedroom custom built by Bernard Percival: corner lot, wood floors, tile sink and bathroom, screen porch, 1-car garage, all for $50.00 per month. It came with a tomato bush started by seeds where one of the workers ate his lunch. Boy, I wish I had that back!

Want to get published? Recipes are back! The publisher is limiting the number of pictures we can use, so recipes are the next best thing. If you have another idea, please contact the editor.

As usual, answer the JUNE, JULY, AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER QUESTION OF THE MONTH and submit it to the editor (Carol Raabe, Coach 228, nelsonraabe@gmail.com by the 10th of the month for consideration. If you don't have email, please give it to Linda Goldstein, Coach 189 or Evelyn Bair, Coach 167, or Bob Lupton, Coach 188. Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to 300 words or less, unless it's great. The JUNE, JULY, AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER Question: "I recommend . . ."
