LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pet Walking

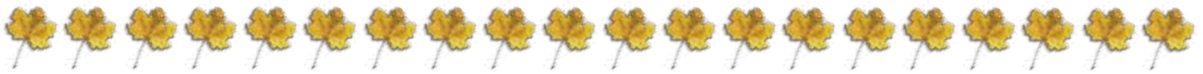

I am emailing for 2 reasons. The first is to introduce ourselves. We are Michael (Mike) and Rev. Sandra (Sandie) Falciglia, We moved into Coach 343 with our sister-in-law Debra Schook. The 2nd reason is because I wanted to ask if you could make note in the next edition to remind residents that have pets and walk them to pick up their pets' fecal matter that is left on the sidewalks outside of other people's homes?

Also, I want to say that you do a great job getting all that info in the paper. Please let me know what you decide. Thank you for your time. Sandie

Summer Library Thanks

My heartfelt thanks to Leona Lamarca who was so kind to always volunteer to help me in keeping the library neat and tidy. We actually both enjoyed the quiet time together getting something constructive done. Between she and I we made a couple deliveries of duplicate books to organizations which were well appreciated. Thanks bunches to Lee. Pat Chase.

RANDOM THOUGHTS

By Russ Trombly

This may be my last random thoughts, although I'm still kicking except my energy has diminished and my lungs are failing. I'm still standing up to take nourishment and luv to go out. Still able to move around. Went to all my Drs except one and that is the last for two weeks. After the doctors yesterday we took a ride over to Tampa's Hula Bay and had a great luncheon. Tell u more later as I hear from them.

I'm rambling a little right now but hope to get back on track soon.

Have I told u lately about our holes in the roads and the unpatched puddles we have? Atrocious is one of the words to describe this accident looking to happen. The worst is no one wants to speak up and raise a little hell. I'm really getting mad about this. Cooling off is the answer. [Written later] Can't get these roads and sidewalks in Bay Ranch off my mind. They are an accident looking to happen. Deplorable is the description of these hazards. [He isn't cooling off too much!]

What has happened to our trips and cruises lady? Seems to have disappeared. We do need someone to jump in and give us some choices.

Hear we're going to Sand Key for Sunset Club. Sounds great to me....

A thought that the Pope should rule the whole world. I'm watching him addressing the UN. He's my kinda guy.

Took in the Breakfast in clubhouse this am and it was all to be expected done by the great cooks here. Thanx guys for a good meal.

Done on Sept 26, 2015. I guess I forgot to write an article last month. Getting a little forgetful, I guess. Went to ATT today to verify all phones wifi and tv. Got a new phone and signed up for Direct TV. Supposed to save 50 bucks per month. We'll see about that. But it took longer than expected. Almost ran out of oxygen. Got home in time to recharge so all is well.

Our toilet fell apart yesterday so Chris went out and bought all new parts, put it back together and we're back in business. Just a little info that leads to this thought: The paperless office will become a reality about the same time as the paperless toilet.

I believe we might have messed up a little by going to Direct TV. Right now they're negotiating with wfla tv. Oh well, it's done.

We have the neatest lady who cleans our house and she'll be here today, a day late as she had a leak in her bedroom after all the rain we had last week.

Now, I'm going to say this once more. Be nice. Please be kind and luv your friends and neighbors. Luv u guys, and be kind to one another.

OFFICIAL NOTICES

2016 ELECTIONS

By Bob Lufton

I have posted a sheet in the clubhouse for people to sign up to be candidates for the various offices. I have decided to hold the election a little later so that most of the snow birds can participate. The proposed date for the election is Nov 24th. I will try and update that if there is a change.

FMO

By Dorothy Grimstead

The 2015-16 FMO District 2 monthly general meetings started on Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2015, at 9:30 a.m. at Oak Crest and Acorn MHP, 9925 Ulmerton Road, Largo. The guest speaker was Lee Colling, FMO Legal Council. Coffee and donuts were served at 9:00 a.m.

DOROTHY GRIMSTEAD RETIRES FROM FMO AND HOA

Dorothy Grimstead, Coach 206, will not be returning to Florida this year and has resigned her positions on the FMO (Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida) and the HMO (Home Owners Association). Both of these organizations were created in law to help protect the interests of manufactured homes. Her resignation was effective October 12, 2015.

Dorothy's resignation leaves open two important positions in the governance of our park. Volunteers are encouraged.

The HMO generally meets the first Monday of the month right after the Residents' Club Meeting. Contact people are listed at the front of the Review.

The FMO meets monthly [possibly on the third Tuesday—the ed.] at different parks. It is a morning meeting with guest speakers and training information for representatives. For information on the FMO (Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida), please visit the website at www.fmo1.org or our own District 2 website at <http://fmodistricttwo.wix.com/fmo-d2vA>.

Dolores has been a resident of Bay Ranch for 11 years. "I thank all those that supported me and I enjoyed doing what I did," Dolores said.

SPECIAL EVENTS

VETERANS' DAY IS NOVEMBER 11

The following poem was submitted by Russ Trombly in May. The author is Canadian, and the poem is often used to commemorate Remembrance Day there. The author's son, Randy Vancourt receives hundreds of requests from around the world each year to reprint the poem. He grants permission freely but does want to be asked.

JUST A COMMON SOLDIER

(A Soldier Died Today)

by A. Lawrence Vaincourt

He was getting old and paunchy and his hair was falling fast,
And he sat around the Legion, telling stories of the past.
Of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he had done,
In his exploits with his buddies; they were heroes, every one.

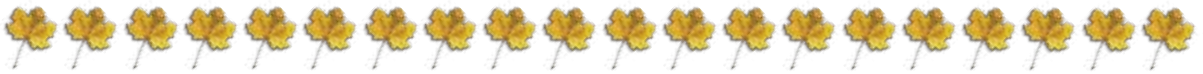

And tho' sometimes, to his neighbors, his tales became a joke,
All his Legion buddies listened, for they knew whereof he spoke.
But we'll hear his tales no longer for old Bill has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer, for a soldier died today.

He will not be mourned by many, just his children and his wife,
For he lived an ordinary and quite uneventful life.
Held a job and raised a family, quietly going his own way,
And the world won't note his passing, though a soldier died today.

When politicians leave this earth, their bodies lie in state,
While thousands note their passing and proclaim that they were great.
Papers tell their whole life stories, from the time that they were young,
But the passing of a soldier goes unnoticed and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution to the welfare of our land
A guy who breaks his promises and cons his fellow man?
Or the ordinary fellow who, in times of war and strife,
Goes off to serve his Country and offers up his life?

A politician's stipend and the style in which he lives
Are sometimes disproportionate to the service that he gives.
While the ordinary soldier, who offered up his all,
Is paid off with a medal and perhaps, a pension small.

It's so easy to forget them for it was so long ago,
That the old Bills of our Country went to battle, but we know
It was not the politicians, with their compromise and ploys,
Who won for us the freedom that our Country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger, with your enemies at hand,
Would you want a politician with his ever-shifting stand?
Or would you prefer a soldier, who has sworn to defend
His home, his kin and Country and would fight until the end?

He was just a common soldier and his ranks are growing thin,
But his presence should remind us we may need his like again.
For when countries are in conflict, then we find the soldier's part
Is to clean up all the troubles that the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor while he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage at the ending of his days.
Perhaps just a simple headline in a paper that would say,
Our Country is in mourning, for a soldier died today.

MONTHLY BREAKFAST

Watch the Board outside the clubhouse for a breakfast announcement. Plans are to have one each month during the summer. Now that summer is over, maybe even more than one.

WHEN DOES SUMMER END AT BAY RANCH?

Around the first of October, Bay Ranch full-time and seasonal residents started sending emails about activities for the coming snow-bird season. As Pat Chase said, "Summer is over."

The end of summer means the end of some activities and the beginning of others. October means snowbirds will begin arriving. Together, these events lead to some "new" news about sports, games, classes, clubs, and organizations. Read on.

BAY RANCH PROFILE: BETTY ANN QUISH

By Wayne Redshaw

Singing and music have been a big part of Betty Ann Quish's life and she has enjoyed every minute of it. In fact, you could say Quish was born into music and she's a natural, especially with her magical voice and also the way she leads and conducts the Bay Ranch Choir.

This year marks her fifth at the helm. "It's a seasonal thing," said Quish in an interview. "We start off in October with about 24, then by the Memorial Service in February, we might be up to 32. For the Pig Roast in March, we're back to down to around 24."

Quish said most members of the choir are seasonal, just like she and her husband, Bob, who hail from New Jersey. "Most of the members come down in October and head back home in the spring," she added. "We practice every Wednesday morning in the clubhouse from 9 to 10. The only break is the first week in January as it's party time and we just relax from the holidays. Other than that break, we keep going."

The ratio of men and women in the choir is pretty even according to Quish. However, that wasn't the case when Quish took it over. "When I took it over there were maybe only two or three men and the rest were women. We also didn't have the overall numbers, maybe between 16 and 18 but it has grown. I also got my husband (Bob) to join as now we have a lot of husband and wives involved with the choir. There's not that much turnover in members."

Quish looks back and feels she was born into music and singing. She has been singing all her life and has a beautiful voice. "My mom and dad were involved in singing at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. They both had beautiful voices and that's how they really met. I love that story as I think it is so romantic."

Besides leading the choir not only at rehearsals but at various functions in the clubhouse including a Christmas Concert, Quish is also involved with shuffleboard at Bay Ranch serving as secretary-treasurer. The first Saturday of each month during the winter, Quish and most members of the three shuffleboard leagues (Sunshine, Friendly and In Park) are involved serving or cooking at the pancake breakfasts. It does serve as an ideal fund-raiser for the shuffleboard leagues.

"I never really did anything in sports until I came to Bay Ranch. I had four brothers and they were into everything. I went to their games along with my sister (Martha) but we never got involved. I think my father was happy about that. I was asked to shuffle when we came here and I really enjoy it as does Bob."

Betty Ann and Bob Quish have been seasonal residents at Bay Ranch for 15 years. When asked what impresses her the most about Bay Ranch, she replied: "A lot of things, particularly

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

Submitted by Pat Chase

Sometimes in the daily challenges that life gives us, we miss what is really important. We may fail to say hello, please or thank you. Congratulate someone on something wonderful that has happened to them; give a compliment, or just do something nice for no reason.

A LAUGH OR TWO

Submitted by Linda Goldstein

Gynecologist's Office:
"Dr. Jones, at your cervix."

In a Podiatrist's office:
"Time wounds all heels."

On a Septic Tank Truck:
"Yesterday's Meals on Wheels"

At an Optometrist's Office:
"If you don't see what you're looking for,
you've come to the right place."

On a Plumber's truck:
"We repair what your husband fixed."

On another Plumber's truck:
"Don't sleep with a drip.
Call your plumber."

At a Tire Shop in Milwaukee :
"Invite us to your next blowout."

On an Electrician's truck:
"Let us remove your shorts."

In a Non-smoking Area:
"If we see smoke, we will assume you are on fire and take appropriate action."

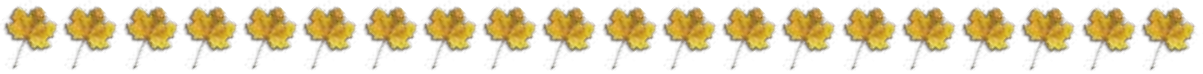

On a Maternity Room door:
"Push. Push. Push."

At a Car Dealership:
"The best way to get back on your feet
- miss a car payment."

Outside a Muffler Shop:
"No appointment necessary.
We hear you coming."

In a Veterinarian's
waiting room:
"Be back in 5 minutes.
Sit! Stay!"

 At the Electric Company
 "We would be delighted if you send in your payment.
 However, if you don't, you will be."

 In a Restaurant window:
 "Don't stand there and be hungry;
 come on in and get fed up."

 In the front yard of a Funeral Home:
 "Drive carefully. We'll wait."

 At a Propane Filling Station:
 "Thank heaven for little grills."

 And don't forget the sign at a
 CHICAGO RADIATOR SHOP:
 "Best place in town to take a leak."

 And the best one for last.....
 Sign on the back of another
 Septic Tank Truck:
 "Caution - This Truck is full

MY TRAVEL PLANS FOR 2016

I've been thinking about traveling: I have been in many places, but I've never been in Kahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone. You have to be in Kahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there.

I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport; you have to be driven there. I have made several trips there, thanks to my children, friends, family and work.

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore.

I have also been in Doubt. That is a sad place to go, and I try not to visit there too often.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to stand firm.

Sometimes I'm in Capable, and I go there more often as I'm getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenaline flowing and pumps up the old heart! At my age I need all the stimuli I can get!

I may have been in Continent, but I don't remember what country I was in. It's an age thing. They tell me it is very wet and damp there.

PLEASE DO YOUR PART!

Life is too short for negative drama and petty things. So laugh insanely, love truly and forgive quickly! From one unstable person to another. I hope everyone is happy in your head - we're all doing pretty well in mine!

NOVEMBER QUESTIONS:

Get Published!

Thank you to the many people who submitted activity information or articles for this month's Review!

Recipes are back! Send your favorite recipes for CHRISTMAS, Hanukah, Kwanza, New Year's, or just plain eating. Recipes are not copyrighted, but please include your source, if there is one.

"I recommend . . ." can be anything you believe is worth recommending, such as restaurants, activities, movies, books, concerts, plays or happenings.

Finally, if you are in a reminiscing mood, describe a experience: Veterans' Day, military, Christmas, autumn, etc.

As usual, answer one or all of the November QUESTIONS OF THE MONTH and submit to the editor (Carol Raabe, nelsonraabe@gmail.com, Coach 228, 605-730-0476) by the 10th of the month. Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to 300 words or less, unless it's great.
