OFFICIAL NOTICES

HOA

The Homeowners' Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

FMO

If you like to stay in the know about policies and events that affect your mobile home ownership, membership in the FMO is the way to go. If you like the idea of sharing what you learn, become the Bay Ranch representative to the Federation of Manufactured Home Owners

FROM THE EDITOR

By Carol Raabe, Editor

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

Hi guys! As I get this next article ready, I realize it will be delivered very close to election day. I can already say who will win.

#SPOILER ALERT#....

We all will!!

No more vicious ads on TV. Florida will no longer be a battle ground state but just that crazy old Florida with our own little quirky habit of making the news, not always in a good way.... "Florida Man bites off neighbor's ear because he wouldn't give him a cigarette," or "Florida man cuts off genitals and feeds them to alligator," or my favorite, "Florida man calls 911 80 times to demand Kool-Aid, hamburgers and weed." We are also known for screwing up election ballots. Can you say hanging chads? But hopefully this time we get it right and are not waiting until Christmas for the results.

How does everyone like our roads? I think they did a darn good job, especially better than our last quick fix. Please remember the speed limit is 15 mph. I know when you enter the gate, that nice black road ahead is calling out to you, "Looks like a drag strip, c'mon speed!".... PLEASE DON'T!! I don't miss those speed bumps, but if people keep speeding, they will return.

On a sad note we lost another of our long-time residents, Lloyd French. If you never had the pleasure of meeting this sweet man, I am really sorry, as he touched the hearts of everyone who knew him. I will miss our conversations and his contagious smile. We are so sorry for your loss Ruth as we all loved him as well as we love you.

That is all for now folks. Love you all.

We are on the cusp. The winter calendar is beginning to firm up as leaders plan their activities. “Oldtimers” may advise that the calendar for 2016-17 will look much like the calendars for previous seasons, though new leaders will step in and a few details will change. This November issue of the Review will include as complete a calendar as possible, but continue watch the bulletin boards at the clubhouse.

Tree Lighting

Talks are underway to do something a little different for the annual tree lighting, according to Wayne Jones. Watch this space and the Clubhouse bulletin board for more information.

In the meantime, it is not too early to begin planning your contribution to the tree's decorations. Residents can make or select an ornament from their own collection in memory of any loved one or friend to hang on the tree during the ceremony. Tributes range from a short homage to the person to a simple, "This is in honor of my mom."

Happy Thanksgiving Day

Mary Lou Foos

2015

Over the river & thru the woods is not
How it's done anymore.
Now you catch a plan, bus or train
& a rental car to Gram's front door.

Grandma has changed a lot this year,
So much for her to do.
With cards, casino & bingo to play,
She's leaving the cooking to you.

I'll not say how good the dinner will be
Everyone's too busy to even help me
Gram says it's my turn to pick up the slack
So I'm off to the grocery, parked way in the back.

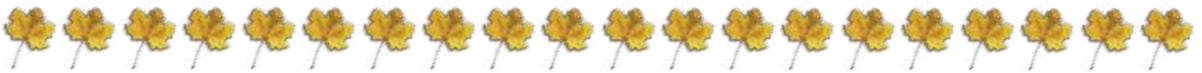

Gram really did help me & helped me a lot,
She made us drinks cause the kitchen was hot.
After happy hour drinks it was easy to cook,
We even threw out the recipe book.

I did by some tums & mints just in case
You get indigestion or the food leaves a bad taste
Now stop & say grace for all that you've got,
Cause many people on earth don't have a lot.

May this thanksgiving bring us peace for a while.
Now turn to your neighbor & give them a smile.

Thoughts About Shuffleboard

Many thanks to Betty Ann Quist, Secretary/Treasurer for the Bay Ranch Shuffle Club, for providing information used in this article. "I LOVE THIS GAME," she wrote.

Shuffleboard is a wonderful sport, kind of a combination of "many other games, including air hockey, bowling, bocce, curling, croquet, carrom and billiards." [Source: Wikipedia]. The game is easy to learn but takes practice to master. It is exercise, yet people of all physical abilities can play. It is an opportunity to meet Bay Ranch residents, and if you move up to a traveling team, shufflers in other parks. Bay Ranch has three shuffleboard teams as well as the drop-in Hoss Collar on Saturday.

Shuffleboard teams include the In-Park Shuffle League (note the new name), Friendly, Sunshine and Hoss Collar. The In-Park League meets every Monday at 1:00 p.m. Enrollment is open but limited to those who can commit to the season. Season enrollment cost is $4.00

In-Park provides instruction for beginning shufflers as well as a fun place for people who want to play stress free. This is definitely the place to learn the rules and strategies of the game. Records are kept and the most improved player is recognized at the end of season shufflers and golf banquet. In-Park also sponsors one or two competitive events, with players chosen at the discretion of the captains.

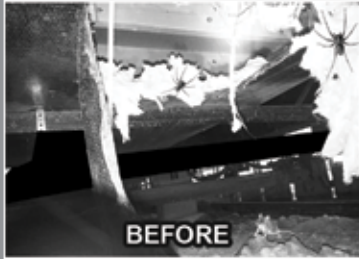

Friendly and Sunshine are competitive inter-park teams. Friendly plays 9 parks twice a season, once at home and once at their park. Sunshine plays 8 parks. Schedules are posted on the shuffleboard shed door on the east side of the clubhouse. Membership in each team is by invitation. As openings occur, Friendly general recruits from In-Park and Sunshine from Friendly. Both teams are competitive in their leagues and recipients of many trophies.

Hoss Collar is not a team at all but an event held at 1:00 p.m. every Saturday. For a small fee, join a team of 2 other players and practice shuffling while playing with slightly different strategies and the chance to win some money.

To keep up and improve courts as well as provide transportation to shuffleboard events and lunches when meets are held at home, the Bay Ranch Shuffleboard Club has been active in sponsoring fundraisers that also serve as social events for the entire park. Last year, they replaced the benches (see the pictures) around the shuffleboard court. They also jointly sponsor an end-of-the-year banquet with as many prizes as they can garner. The whole group forms a fun-loving, hard-working core for Bay Ranch social activities.

LET'S EAT

By Ione Jones

The holidays are filled with family traditions, including the special meals that each family makes. I have included some recipes that are part of the traditions for our family. What seems really special is when the kids ask how to make these so they can help with the meal and be prepared to carry on these recipes when we aren't there for the holiday. Have a happy Thanksgiving.

Cranberry Orange Relish

- 1 unpeeled orange, cut into eighths and seeded
- 1 12-ounce package Ocean Spray® Fresh or Frozen Cranberries, rinsed and drained
- 3/4-1 cup sugar

Place half the cranberries and half the orange slices in food processor container. Process until mixture is evenly chopped. Transfer to a bowl. Repeat with remaining cranberries and orange slices. Stir in sugar. Store in refrigerator or freezer.

This does freeze well and is great to add to sandwiches or other meat.

Makes about 3 cups.

Old-Fashioned Apple Pie

- 6 cups thinly sliced peeled tart apples
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 3/4 cup granulated sugar
- dash ground cloves
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1. In a large mixing bowl toss apples with lemon juice. Combine granulated sugar, flour, cinnamon, nutmeg, and cloves. Add to apples and toss until apples are coated. Set apple mixture aside.
2. Prepare Pastry for Double-Crust Pie. Divide dough in half. Form each half into a ball. On a lightly floured surface, roll out 1 ball of dough into a 12-inch circle. Ease pastry into a 9-inch pie plate.
3. Transfer apple mixture to pastry-lined pie plate. Dot with butter or margarine. Trim pastry even with pie plate. For top crust, roll out remaining dough. Cut slits in top crust. Place top crust on the filling. Seal and flute the edge. Brush with milk, if desired.
4. To prevent overbrowning, cover the edge of the pie with foil. Bake in a 375 degree F oven for 25 minutes. Remove foil; bake for 20 to 25 minutes more or until the top is golden brown and apples are tender.

Scalloped Corn

- 3 large eggs
- 1 can evaporated milk
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion (optional)
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 4 cups fresh or frozen corn
- 3 tablespoons butter

1. Preheat oven to 350°. In a large bowl, whisk the first six ingredients until blended. Stir in 1/2 cup crushed saltines.
2. Transfer to a greased 1-1/2-qt. baking dish. Sprinkle with remaining saltines and dot with butter. Bake, uncovered, 55-65 minutes or until golden brown and a knife inserted near the center comes out clean. Yield: 6 servings

When I make this recipe I use a combination of canned cream style corn and frozen corn. I use my food processor to break up the frozen corn. I usually add the eggs to the corn in the food processor to add a little liquid.

MONTHLY QUESTION:

I keep trying:

The QUESTION OF THE MONTH for November: What I Am Thankful For or Writer's Choice

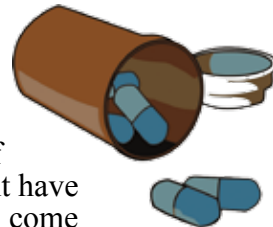

As usual, answer the October QUESTION OF THE MONTH and submit to the editor (Carol Raabe, nelsonraabe@gmail.com, Coach 228, 605-730-0476) by the 10th of the month. Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to around 300 words.

A troubling trend: Americans overdoing antibiotics

Antibiotics are a boon to doctors and their patients, but they pose dangers if they're overused. That makes this news especially concerning: A Texas study reported on the UPI website found that about one in 20 adults have stockpiled supplies of antibiotics in their homes and use them without a physician's advice.

The study of 400 adults in the Houston area found that 14 percent of adults have a stash of antibiotic medications in their home, and 5 percent have used them without a doctor's guidance in the past year. The medications come from a variety of sources: 40 percent came from a store or pharmacy, 24 percent were purchased outside the United States, 20 percent came from family or friends, and 12 percent were left over from past prescriptions.

In 4 percent of cases, the drugs obtained without a prescription were intended for use on animals, not humans.

Millennials worry about debt

Millennials aren't the carefree kids you might think they are. A FICO survey found that they're concerned about debt—with good reason. According to FICO's online survey of approximately 1,000 Americans over 17, 32 percent of millennials owe $20,000 or more in student loans, and 45 percent owe at least $7,000 on car loans.

In all, 37 percent of millennials ages 25-34 say they're concerned about their level of debt, and 33 percent would like assistance in managing their debt. For example, 65 percent would like to receive an email alert when their student loan payments are overdue by less than 90 days, and 35 percent want to be notified by app when their mortgage payments are less than 90 days late (but they'd prefer a phone call if their payments are more than 90 days overdue).

These tiny robots may save your life

The newest medical robots look and move like bacteria, and they can deliver medications to specific locations within the human body and perform intricate surgeries like clearing clogged arteries.

According to the Science Daily website, a team of scientists is working to develop a selection of biological robots that are soft, flexible, and move through bodies under the control of an electromagnetic field. Once they reach their destination, they're heated to change shape, mimicking—for example—the bacterium that causes African trypanosomiasis, or sleeping sickness. Although still in development, these microrobots could revolutionize the way patients are treated in the not-so-distant future.

Get more creativity with a clear focus

Creativity and innovation aren't always accidental. A consistent focus will produce better results, so you don't have to wait for lightning to strike. Try these techniques to spur your imagination as you work:

- Start your day with a purpose. Instead of rushing out the door without a plan, spend a few minutes in the morning thinking about what you want to accomplish that day. Do this before checking your cell phone or email. You'll be less likely to get distracted by other demands.
- Shake up your routine. Get out of your comfort zone so you aren't always surrounded by what's familiar. Get up earlier than normal, take a new route to work, do your tasks in a different order, try something new and exciting—anything to shake your mind free of its preconceptions and look at your work in a different light.
- Be mindful. Don't go on autopilot. Pay attention to everything around you—the people you work with, the tasks you work on, the environment you work in, and so forth. The more aware you are of what's going on, the more likely you'll see a new connection or find an idea where you least expect it.

Don't be afraid to ask questions

Alyssa Mastro Monaco was deputy chief of staff in the Obama White House until 2014. She told a radio station an important lesson she learned early on about the importance of asking questions:

During an Oval Office meeting on the economic crisis, she was close to panic, worried that the president would ask her a question about issues she knew nothing about, such as quantitative easing. She began quickly writing down key words and phrases to look up later.

Economic adviser Larry Summers noticed and tapped her on the shoulder. "Come to my office later," he said.

Worried that Summers was mad at her, Mastro Monaco went to his office after the meeting. Summers asked about her list.

When she told him what she'd written down and why, Summers said, "I'll tell you anything you need to know." He proceeded to give her a quick lesson on economics. She left the office feeling relieved—and better informed than before. Nowadays she knows that admitting you don't know something is better informed than pretending you do—and she never thinks asking for information is stupid.
