ATTENTION SOCIAL CLUB MEMBERS

The Board of the Social Club passed a motion at a special meeting. Anybody with a 2020 membership to the social club will now be paid up for 2021. If you did not join in 2020, then you still need to join for 2021. Hopefully we will soon have a clubhouse and be able to have some great events.

EDITOR'S LETTER

Well the surgery is over. I think I talked myself into more pain than I have. Don't get me wrong, I still have pain. I have to make sure I bend my knee or it gets stiff. My pill for pain makes me loopy. (yes more than usual)

From the Editor

Dick and I went out for breakfast on Oct.7 with some friends in my park. We can do that the first Wed. of every month although we don't always remember. There were only 5 of us but it was nice to get out of the house and talk to other people. Dick goes out and does all the shopping, so that was the first time I was out since my covid test on the 24th of Sept. I am becoming a couch potato which I do not like. I get very sad sitting inside watching my neighbors do their yard work. Dick is not a yard work person and I love it. Next year watch out. Days are staying cooler here. Dick would leave tomorrow. Me? I like the cooler days.

We are currently meeting down at the Bay at 8-9 am watching the beautiful sunrise, or by the Laundry room during wet weather. ## THE HOPE RIBBON

By Sandy Rasmussen

During this time of pandemic and political upheaval, I would like to start a new sense of Hope in our community. Many have lost friends and loved ones to this Covid-19 and other tragedies. Many of our friends and neighbors have decided to move back home by family or have passed away.

Lets get together and welcome our new and old Japanese Garden residents to Bayside Waters, the HOPE ribbon. There will get 12 chairpersons who will be responsible for the ribbon their designated month, Educating and providing an event on the designated awareness. This will be for 12 months, starting in October, sharing hope and encouragement throughout the year.

Our symbol, recognizing the 12 months of Awareness, will be the large 5ft wooden ribbon. Being called, THE HOPE RIBBON, painted by Char Thompson . Made by resident , it will be posted on the yard of Chairpersons choice, unless the Chairpersons would like to designate an Awareness location. The hope is that there will be Fundraisers and one event that month recognizing the awareness ribbon. Proceeds from fundraising portions to be distributed to Awareness group determined by Chairperson/committee.

Rummage Sale

By Noreen Adams

Don't put out the decorations or put up the Florida Christmas tree, yet. I do so hope and believe we will see each other by then. I believe we all miss each other.

My prayer, faith and belief is that by then we will have achieved some semblance of normalcy. As a famous man has said, I am "... cautiously optimistic ..." . So, I am going to act as if .... It will be.

As such, until further notice by the Social Club, the rummage Sale is ON!! We are actually already accepting donations. Just like last year. This year will be so much better because we need it as a way to be with our friends again.

Many of you know how much Margo is involved and have contacted her in the past. If you cannot reach me, I'm sure Margo will be able to help. Contact either of us. We look forward to seeing you in the fall or winter. If worst comes to worst .... Maybe we could delay it for a month. We must be flexible for the benefit of our community. Stay safe. Stay well

Psalm of Protection

Psalm 91 has been called the Psalm of Protection. Among the military it has been known as the Soldier's Psalm. This psalm has provided protection to believers for thousands of years. Entire military units have gone unscathed through whole wars when all members of the unit recited the psalm each morning. It is particularly relevant to these pandemic times because the psalm makes mention of pestilence and plague three times!

This psalm is said to provide protection over every category of potential danger. It has provided protection in epidemics, hurricanes, medical emergencies, accidents, military battles, forest fires, attempted rapes, plane crashes, earthquakes, kidnappings, terrorist attacks, mob violence, demonic oppression, and much more. You can also use this psalm to overcome fear and doubt.

Recite this psalm aloud daily for yourself, your loved ones, and even family or friends far away. If you can't do the whole psalm, at least do a couple of verses such as the following two. Don't be reluctant to personalize key verses.

“No evil shall befall me, nor shall any plague come near my dwelling.” (Psalm 91:10) [substitute "us" and "our" where appropriate]

A thousand may fall at my side, and ten thousand at my right hand; but it shall not come near me.” (Psalm 91:7)

We offer free Psalm 91 and Lord's Prayer bookmarks, pocket prayer crosses made in Israel of olive wood from Bethlehem, a free God's Word Bible in clear, natural English, and a very limited supply of Peggy Joyce Ruth's book, Psalm 91, the best survival book you can have next to the Bible. A meeting was held to pick teams and officers for the coming year. Ziggy Wyeth was elected president and Jim Rupinski will remain treasurer. The first game was October 21st. If you are interested in playing, let Ziggy or Jim know. There is always a need for substitutes, if you don't want to play every week. We play at Maple Lanes and start bowling at 9:30am. The cost is $12.00 per week.

A kindly gesture

A man was walking down the street one day when he noticed a boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the boy was very small, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the man walked up onto the porch behind the little fellow and, placing his hand kindly on the child's shoulder, leaned over and gave the doorbell a solid ring.

Crouching down to the child's level, the man smiled kindly and asked, "And now what, my little man?"

The boy laughed. "Now we run!"

Afraid of the dark

A little boy was afraid of the dark. One night his mother told him to go out to the back porch and bring her the broom. The little boy turned to his mother and said, "Mama, I don't want to go out there. It's dark."

The mother smiled reassuringly at her son. "You don't have to be afraid of the dark," she explained. "God is out there. He'll look after you and protect you."

The little boy looked at his mother very hard and asked, "Are you sure He's out there?"

"Yes, I'm sure. He is everywhere, and He is always ready to help you when you need Him," she said.

The little boy thought about that for a minute and then went to the back door and cracked it a little. Peering out into the darkness, he called, "God? If you're out there, would you please hand me the broom?"

The core of addiction

It's a common experiment: Put a rat in a cage with two bottles of water to drink. One is regular water, but the other one has water laced with cocaine or heroin. The rat quickly gets addicted to the drug-infused water and stops drinking from the other bottle. This explains the power of addiction.

But it may not be that simple, as Johann Hari suggests in Does Capitalism Cause Addiction? One scientist created a “rat park.” Instead of just two water bottles, the park held everything a rat could want— food, colored balls to play with, and other rats for company. In the rat park, none of the rats grew addicted to the drugged water.

What does this show? That addiction is partly a response to one’s environment. With enough resources to distract and entertain us, most people won’t prefer the drugged water (or whatever). What we need is connection.

Make the call - make a difference

Consultant Michael Hargrove uses this exercise frequently in his training sessions:

Imagine you are on a 747 flying over the ocean. Halfway through the flight, the plane begins experiencing mechanical difficulties. The captain comes on the intercom and explains as calmly as he can that an engine has fallen from the plane, ripping a fuel line. The crew will continue to fly as long as possible until fuel runs low, and then they will attempt a water landing.

Hargrove asks his listeners to write down the name of the one person they would call in the next few minutes, and what they would say. Then he asks: “So what are you waiting for? Today, make the call.”

Two or three things I know for sure, and one of them is that to go on living I have to tell stories, that stories are the one sure way I know to touch the heart and change the world.

— Alexandra Watkins
