EDITOR'S LETTER

I am glad that you have missed the hurricane. We didn't. We lost power on Tuesday afternoon. Did not get it back again until the following Sunday, had to throw away the entire freezer and a lot of the refrigerator. From Friday night to Sunday night we had a borrowed generator but that only worked on things you could plug in. So no hot water and no AC. We had family birthday parties on Saturday and Sunday and got power back on Sunday night only to lose it again on Monday night. We were happy it came back sometime that night. We are trying to stay healthy. The grocery store is the only public place we go. Any contact has been with people out in the open (we did have breakfast with friends on the first of July). Both of our families are super careful. Many work from home. I had to have an endoscopy so I had a covid test and it came back negative. Please be careful out there.

PRESIDENTS LETTER

By Chris Green

Hello Everyone I sincerely hope all is well with you and yours. Although the clubhouse - therefore the social club- is shut down the pool has been open thanks to our monitors Paula, Paul & Lowell. Although we have not had any rain, there have been daily black clouds and numerous lightning strikes leaving our monitors with the difficult task of asking people to come out of the water or shutting the pool down.

Even though I have maintained a very low profile, I still hear that people have been giving them a hard time. Why? STOP!! If you have a complaint bring it to management and leave Paula & Paul in peace.

There are many community residents planning some great events & Carolee is still publishing our Dome1 with events indicated THANKS TO ALL !!!

I have enjoyed reading the funny stories submitted by our own Pelican Joe (Walker) and the monthly calendar that let me know that today (8/9) is National Book Lovers' Day (yay for us). Guess we must still be patient until we are allowed to commence with our events. Till then, see you all as Bill & I make our rounds of our beautiful park and bayside.

Stay Safe, my friends

--Kindness Matters

Chris

By Sandy Rasmussen

Thanks to Mark Rasmussen who still gets up at 5am and meets Henry from Sunshine Bakery to get Saturday morning donuts. We are currently meeting down at the Bay at 8-9 am watching the beautiful sunrise, or by the Laundry room during wet weather. We have had a few birthday parties, when donuts are free, or there is $1.00 for donut and coffee. We will continue to adhere to social distancing and facemasks for everyone's protection.

THE HOPE RIBBON

By Sandy Rassmussen

During this time of pandemic and political upheaval, I would like to start a new sense of Hope in our community. Many have lost friends and loved ones to this Covid-19 and other tragedies. Many of our friends and neighbors have decided to move back home by family or have passed away.

Lets get together and welcome our new and old Japanese Garden residents to Bayside Waters, the HOPE ribbon. There will get 12 chairpersons who will be responsible for the ribbon their designated month, Educating and providing an event on the designated awareness. This will be for 12 months, starting in October, sharing hope and encouragement throughout the year.

Our symbol, recognizing the 12 months of Awareness, will be the large 5ft wooden ribbon. Being called, THE HOPE RIBBON, painted by Char Thompson . Made by resident , it will be posted on the yard of Chairpersons choice, unless the Chairpersons would like to designate an Awareness location. The hope is that there will be Fundraisers and one event that month recognizing the awareness ribbon. Proceeds from fundraising portions to be distributed to Awareness group determined by Chairperson/committee.

If you would like to be a chairperson for any of these months, please contact Sandy Rassmussen 612/432-7874. Rummage Sale

By Noreen Adams

Don't put out the decorations or put up the Florida Christmas tree, yet. I do so hope and believe we will see each other by then. I believe we all miss each other. My prayer, faith and belief is that by then we will have achieved some semblance of normalcy. As a famous man has said, I am "... cautiously optimistic ...". So, I am going to act as if .. it will be.

As such, until further notice by the Social Club, the rummage Sale is ON!! We are actually already accepting donations. Just like last year. This year will be so much better because we need it as a way to be with our friends again.

You can call me, leave a voice mail, text me, email me.

Many of you know how much Margo is involved and have contacted her in the past. If you cannot reach me, I'm sure Margo will be able to help. Contact either of us. We look forward to seeing you in the fall or winter. If worst comes to worst Maybe we could delay it for a month. We must be flexible for the benefit of our community. Stay safe. Stay well.

A cup of tea

A group of students visited their old university professor. Conversation soon turned into complaints about the stress of work and life. Offering them tea, the professor produced an assortment of cups and mugs—porcelain, glass, crystal, some plain looking, some expensive, some exquisite—telling them to help themselves to hot tea.

When all had a cup in hand, the professor said: “I see you have all chosen the nice-looking expensive cups, leaving behind the plain ones. While it’s normal for you to want only the best, that’s also the source of your stress. What you really wanted was tea, not the cup, but you still went for the best cups, and you’re eyeing each other’s cup! If life is the tea, then jobs, money and status in society are the cups. They are just tools to hold and contain life. Don’t let the cups drive you. Enjoy the tea.”

Why fight over shadows?

A wealthy man hired a peasant and his camel for a long trip across the desert. The rich man rode the camel as the peasant led it across the sand.

In the hot noonday sun, they stopped for a rest. Because there was no shade but the camel, they began arguing about who had more of a right to sit in its shadow: the peasant who owned it, or the rich man who had rented it to ride.

Their voices grew louder and louder as the argument went on. Finally the camel got frightened and ran away—leaving them stranded in the middle of the desert.

Moral: Don’t let yourself get so determined to be right that you lose what you’re fighting for.

Some of these things are true and some of them lies. But they are all good stories.

— Hilary Mantel

Buried treasure

In a small village lived a hardworking farmer who owned a vast vineyard. Year after year the vineyard provided a rich harvest, and the farmer became very successful. He had three sons who were young and energetic but never bothered to work hard. As the farmer grew old, he began to worry about his sons' future.

Then he fell very ill and realized his death was fast approaching. He called the sons and told them: “Dear sons, I see my death nearing me, but before I bid goodbye to all of you, I want to share a secret. There is a treasure hidden under the fields. Dig the entire field after my death to find it.”

The old farmer died. After the funeral, the sons began to dig for the treasure without leaving any part of the field untouched, but they found nothing. However, their digging of the field led to a healthy crop and resulted in huge earnings. This made the sons realize what their father meant.

Moral: Hard work always pays off. Fruits of hard work are always sweet whether or not they are in the form you expect.

Toss of a coin

A great warrior was going to war with a fierce enemy with only one-tenth the number of soldiers the opposition commanded. He knew that he could win the fight with a well-planned strategy, but his soldiers were in doubt.

On the way to the battle the leader stopped at a temple and told his men: “After my visit here I will toss a coin. If the head comes up, we will win; if tails, we will lose. Destiny holds us in her hand.”

The warrior entered the temple and offered his prayers. Then he came forth and tossed a coin in front of his men. Heads appeared. The soldiers were filled with confidence and eager to fight the battle, which they won.

“No one can change the hand of destiny,” one of the soldiers told the leader after winning the battle.

“Indeed not,” said the leader, and showed the coin—which had heads on both sides.

September Daily

National Wildlife Day, Sept. 4. Also celebrated on Feb. 2, National Wildlife Day serves to bring awareness of endangered animals nationally as well as globally.

Labor Day, Sept. 7. A day off and a day to pay tribute to working men and women.

National POW/MIA Recognition Day, Sept. 18. This honors those who were prisoners of war (POWs) and those who are still missing in action (MIA). It is most associated with those who were POWs during the Vietnam War.

Rosh Hashanah, Sept. 18–20. The Jewish New Year and the traditional anniversary of the creation of Adam and Eve, the first man and woman according to the Hebrew Bible, and the inauguration of humanity’s role in God’s world.

World Alzheimer’s Day, Sept. 21. An international campaign to raise awareness and challenge the stigma that surrounds dementia.

The history of Labor Day

Labor Day is a creation of the labor movement, a yearly celebration of the American worker, and a national tribute to the laborer’s contribution to the social and economic achievements of the United States. There is some uncertainty about the origins of Labor Day. Some records show that Peter J. McGuire, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, was first to suggest a day to honor those “who from rude nature have delved and carved all the grandeur we behold.” Other research suggests that machinist Matthew Maguire, later the secretary of Local 344 of the International Association of Machinists in Paterson, N.J., proposed the holiday in 1882 while serving as secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union. In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the official holiday. The first governmental recognition of Labor Day came through municipal ordinances passed in 1885 and 1886. The state of Oregon passed the first law recognizing the Labor Day holiday on Feb. 21, 1887. Four more states—Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York—followed suit that same year. On June 28, 1894, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a legal holiday in all the states, the District of Columbia, and all U.S. territories.

September Monthly

Baby Safety Month. Parents and caregivers have many responsibilities, but keeping their baby safe and healthy is a No. 1 priority. Whether you are expecting your first baby, adding to your growing family, or are a grandparent, this is an ideal time to put into action some simple steps to keep baby safe.

National Cholesterol Awareness Month. September is a good month to get your blood cholesterol checked and take steps to lower it if it's high. It's also a good time to learn about lipid profiles and about food and lifestyle choices that help you reach personal cholesterol goals.

Prostate Cancer Awareness Month. Prostate cancer is the second-most common cancer in U.S. men. Learn about prostate cancer to start stepping up against it. The “Step Up for Blue” campaign empowers men to take control of their health and encourages their loved ones to support them.

National Self-Improvement Month. Is there something in your life that you want to improve? September is National Self-Improvement Month. Usually there is a list of things people want to change about their lives. Many items on that list are often things over which we have no control. Stop dwelling on them and focus on what you can change—you.

Weekly

Suicide Prevention Week, Sept. 6–12. National Suicide Prevention Week is the week surrounding World Suicide Prevention Day, Sept. 10. It's a time to share resources and stories, as well as promote suicide prevention awareness. The week focuses on informing and engaging health professionals and the general public about suicide prevention and warning signs of suicide.

National Waffle Week, Sept. 6–12. The word “waffle” comes from the Dutch “wafel,” which comes from Middle Dutch “wafele” and stretches as far back as the 13th century. Before that, the French called it “walfre” from the Frankish “wafra,” which meant “honeycomb” or “cake.” No matter what you call it, no one can deny its deliciousness.

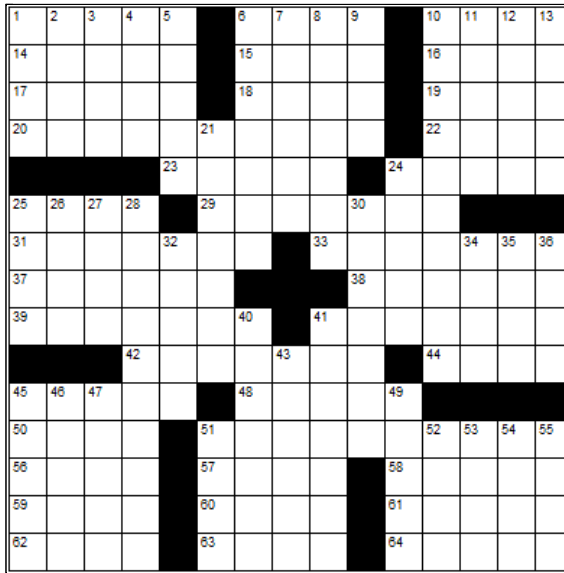

Deaf Dog Awareness Week, Sept. 20–26. Deaf dogs, like other special needs pets, make wonderful furry family members. Their deafness in no way reduces their potential to bring joy to your life and become a loving companion for your family.

Banned Books Week, Sept. 27–Oct.3. An annual event celebrating the freedom to read, Banned Books Week spotlights current and historical attempts to censor books in libraries and schools.

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
