From the Board of Directors

Penny Gilray President

The next Board of Directors meeting will be held on Tuesday December 2, 2014 in the Blue Jay Clubhouse beginning at 7pm. The purpose of the meeting is for the Board to approve the 2015 budget. As well, homeowners will be asked to vote on the carry over of surplus funds, the need for a financial review and the use of reserve funds for a catastrophic event. Please arrive before 7pm in order to cast your vote.

The material for this meeting has been sent to each homeowner at the address we have on record. Please mark your calendar for December 2, 2014 – IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT WE HAVE A QUORUM. Should you have any questions, please contact me at Lot 44 or 727-786.2921 or you can call Kathy Schafer at Resource Property Management at 727-796-5900.

There will be 3 openings for Board of Director positions coming up in February. Please consider running. It is important that we have a full Board to conduct the business of the Association – with a good mix of full time and part time residents. Nomination information will be sent to each homeowner in December.

The north fence project has been completed and the wing wall on Gull Pond has been constructed. These items were in the 2014 budget and approved at our meeting in April.

You have probably noticed, there was a charge on your property tax bill for a “surface water assessment”. This is the second year homeowners have been charged this assessment. The Board voted in the spring to apply for an exemption on behalf of all homeowners. This work is underway and although it will not benefit us for this tax bill we are hopeful that we will receive a partial exemption of the assessment for the 2015 tax year.

On behalf of the Board of Directors we want to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Healthy and Peaceful 2015.

From the Social Club

Paulette Derr, Chairperson

It is now November as I’m writing this report and with all the cool weather it really does feel like Fall. More and more snowbirds are arriving and we welcome you all back to Blue Jay.

The All American picnic held October 18 was a big success as was the ice cream social held October 23. Thanks to Rich and Cindy Williams and to Tony Ruvolo and to all their volunteers who helped with each event. Thanks also to Bud and Elaine Fox who once again did a great job hosting the Halloween Dance and to all their volunteers. Carlo supplied the music and entertainment which was enjoyed by all.

By the time you read this, we will have had the annual sale which this year Joan Addington called “Treasures and More” and I’m sure it was a big success since Joan and her helpers put in so much time and hard work.

We had a couple of speakers this month, but I’ll report on that next month. We also had our nominations for the Social Club committee this month and I want to thank the nominating committee for their effort to get more people to run.

AND of course, we had our traditional Thanksgiving Dinner hosted by Ben Skinner and June Modzeleski. Thanks to all who helped them with this wonderful time to get together with our “extended families” in Blue Jay. I hope all of you had a great Thanksgiving with family or friends.

It’s a little early, but I want to wish all of you a very Merry and Blessed Christmas.

More Treasures & More (and more)

By Joan Addington, Co-Ordinator

We had another GREAT sale. There are not enough “Thank You’s” or words of praise for the wonderful job done by all of the many volunteers. From setting up to packing down, you worked through pain and fatigue. Always smiling. You’re an exceptional group. I AM PROUD TO CALL YOU MY FRIENDS.

Red Hat Mamas

Paulette Derr, Queen Mother

The Tarpon Turtle, a lovely restaurant right on Lake Tarpon was the setting for our Red Hat Mamas monthly luncheon on Thursday, October 16, 2014. Pat Hawthorne was our hostess for this occasion and everyone enjoyed the food and the beautiful view. We saw several boats go by the window including the float boat from Highland Lakes. A few of the gals walked down to the lake after lunch and were lucky enough to see an alligator, a blue heron and a pelican near the shoreline.

The usual 50/50 was held and we divided the money in half for two prizes. The lucky money winners were Judy Kelly and Norva Bylsma. The winners of the lottery tickets were Wanda Greber, Kay Ordway, Marianne Riff, Pat Serletic and Pat Hawthorne, but once again, no one hit the “big bucks”.

Don't forget to sign up for the Christmas party and by the time you read this the sign up sheet should be up for the show at Ruth Eckerd Hall. It's “107 Years of Broadway” which we will be going to see on Thursday, February 12. The $20.00 price includes the show and a box lunch. We are also going to the Early Bird Theater in Clearwater in March. More information will be in next month's article including dates and the price of the dinner theater.

I hope all of you had...or will...have a blessed Thanksgiving.

A Magical Florida Christmas

By Mike McKenna

It is dark now and our little Blue Jay retirement community has come alive with thousands of Christmas lights. They glisten as they hang forming random patterns and shapes giving each individual home its own personality. Volunteers have placed hundreds of Luminaries up and down every street in front of all our homes. They are glowing softly. The night sky is full of brilliant stars that wink and blink with Royal Beauty Light. All is Calm and all is Bright. It has become a beautiful and Holy Night. Blue Jay has been transformed into a Northern pseudo winter land delight.

Earlier in the evening we celebrated together with a Christmas pot luck at the Club House and now the streets have come alive with our active enthusiastic neighbors. Some are walking. Some are peddling by on their bikes. Others are cruising in their golf carts. There's honking and waving. Christmas carols are wafting in the air. It's a magical and Reverent night. Everyone is celebrating Christmas. Ring,ring. Beeb,beeb. Merry Christmas everyone!!

Blue Jay was saddened on September 22, 2014 by the passing of Eugene Bunting (#132). Our sympathies and prayers go out to Alma Bunting and all the family.

Monthly

National Impaired Driving Prevention Month. Get home safely from your holiday parties this month—and remember safe driving habits all through the year. December was designated National Impaired Driving Prevention Month in a presidential proclamation in 2011 to “address the serious and growing threat drunk, drugged, and distracted driving poses to all Americans.”

Safe Toys and Gifts Month. Shopping for toys for Christmas, Hanukkah, or other holidays? Think about safety. Every year, toymakers around the world recall millions of toys due to safety concerns like lead paint and small magnets. Choose toys that are safe for the age of the child so everyone can enjoy a happy holiday.

Universal Human Rights Month. Universal Human Rights Month is dedicated to sharing information about human rights and distributing copies of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights throughout the world in English and other languages. The declaration was adopted by the U.N. General Assembly on Dec. 10, 1948.

National Stress-Free Family Holidays Month. Don’t let the stress of the holiday season get you down. Instead of driving yourself crazy trying to create the “perfect” holiday, identify what’s truly important to you, your family, and your friends, and develop holiday traditions that are uniquely your own.

Creativity

Shift your mind to find new answers

Sometimes you need to change your thinking to spark your imagination. When you're feeling stuck on a problem, try these techniques to get over the hump:

- Go to the future. Imagine that you're well past the current situation you're dealing with. What are you doing differently? What's changed, and what hasn't? Freeing yourself up from today's concerns can allow your mind to roam in new directions.
- Become a new person. Pick a hero from history, a fictional character, or someone you admire in the real world, and ask, "What would he/she do?" The answer may push you outside of your comfort zone and help you try something different.
- Turn off your mind. Instead of obsessing over the problem, set it aside and work on something else. Often your subconscious will come up with an idea, or find a new connection, if you send your mind along a fresh route.

Resist these mistakes when you brainstorm

Brainstorming is an important tool for innovation, but it can be too easily derailed if you're not careful. Your team's creativity will flourish if you avoid these mistakes (as listed on the Fast Company website):

- Lack of preparation. Don't just pull some people into a conference without warning and say, "Let's start throwing around some ideas." Let your team know what you want to explore, and give them some time to think about the issue before asking them to contribute.
- Searching for one solution. The point of brainstorming is to generate options—as many as possible, as long as they're practical and thought-provoking. Don't obsess about finding a single great idea, at least right away.
- Stifling with structure. The typical venue for brainstorming is a conference room and a flipchart. Often, though, the routine can get stale for your people, especially if you insist on holding off until the conference room is free and everybody has time to meet. Encourage brainstorming everywhere, whenever people have ideas.
- Starting off with your own ideas. If you're the leader of the team, you may be tempted to get things rolling by offering a few ideas of your own. Resist the impulse. The team may follow your ideas, consciously or not, and you won't get the full value of their creativity and imagination.
