From the Board of Directors

Penny Gilray President

Happy New Year Everyone!!!

At the Members meeting in November, all items voted on passed. We thank all those who attended in person or by proxy. We had 133 homeowners represented.

There will be a workshop to update the Rules and Regulations on Tuesday January 10th at 2pm in the clubhouse. Residents are invited to attend. A notice will be posted closer to the date.

On January 9th there will be a drive thru to identify and notify homeowners of violations. It would be helpful if you took a few minutes now to check your property for mold, mildew, rust and other items. We get many positive comments about how nice our community looks from outsiders coming in to the park and your attention to these matters is why we are considered a great looking community.

There are 3 board positions coming up in 2017. If you are interested in running for a position, you must have your intention submitted in January by the date indicated on the nomination forms.

In the December newsletter I indicated the entrance landscaping and lighting would be done however, to ensure we have a suitable plan this project was deferred to 2017. Instead the lighting around Pelican Lake was upgraded to LED up lighting. This change will be more cost effective from a power consumption and maintenance perspective. The entrance will be done in the early part of 2017.

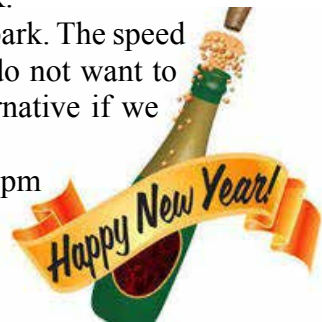

As of this writing the CR90 fence line should be cleared and the fence repaired. We ask your cooperation in not planting anything in that area and making sure your sprinklers do not water the fence.

A reminder, Pinellas County requires ALL pets to be on a leash. Please ensure when you have your pet outdoors it is always on a leash and under control. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Who knew, it is against the law to interfere with an alligator!! As of this writing there is a very small gator in Pelican Lake. If it is a nuisance, please contact Fish and Wildlife and they will deal with it. DO NOT take it upon yourself to catch it. While we are talking animals, a reminder not to feed any wild animal, including cats in our park.

We continue to have a problem with people speeding in the park. The speed limit is 15 MPH!! Everyone needs to adhere to the limit. We do not want to introduce more speed bumps but the Board may have no alternative if we cannot control speeders in the community.

The Board Meeting will be held on Tuesday January 17 at 7pm in the clubhouse. Please mark your calendar and plan to attend.

From the Social Club

Bud Fox, Chairperson

As the New Year begins with a party hosted by the Montione's, I want to say thank you to all the park residents for putting up with me as your Social Club Host these past 12 months. While I enjoyed the time at the weekly meetings, I can honestly say I had no idea how much more work there is to the job behind the scenes.

The Trim a Tree and Toy for Tots events were very nice. It is hard to imagine all the generosity in Blue Jay throughout the year, but when you see all the gifts presented to the Marines it is so very heartwarming to know that this is where I live.

The fund raiser/beard cutting/world series Champions party was a big success and I believe everyone who attended had a good time. The final total contributions as of this writing is $685.00.

One final piece of trivia I want to share concerns the longest and shortest days in the year. Most people think of them as the summer and winter solstice in June and December. They are actually the longest and shortest daylight days of the year. Although our clocks and watches all read 24 hour days, actually the day in spring when Day Light Savings time begins is the shortest having only 23 hours and of course in the fall we gain back that hour in the longest (25) hour day.

Pancake Breakfast at Applebees

A huge thank you to the Blue Jay Estates Community for helping the world's poorest children have a hope and a future! Jeremiah 29:11 The pancake breakfast at Applebee's raised $2000! I am so grateful to you all! Together we are making a difference!

I will be traveling to Honduras on my 8th mission trip helping communities in the most remote and impoverished part of Honduras. We work in partnership with Honduras Outreach, Inc. (www.HOI.org) which is based in Atlanta, Georgia and hosts weekly mission groups in San Lorenzo (southern Honduras) known as the "dry zone" where some communities don't have access to water at all. Our plans are to drill a well in a community there and provide each family with an in home filter to purify the water. We will also do other health related projects such as concrete floors, latrines, eco-stoves, have a health clinic, vacation bible school, & pastoral home visits. We are working hard to improve the lives of the Honduran people and help break their cycle of poverty.

Our trip is scheduled for September 30 – October 7, 2017. If you missed the opportunity to help us and would like to, please make your tax deductible contributions payable to St. Andrews Presbyterian Church (San Lorenzo in the memo line). Our deadline for funds is June 1, 2017 and can be dropped off at Bo and Patsy Perry's lot #220 or mailed directly to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Attn: Jayne Dowdy- San Lorenzo, 4125 US Hwy 19, New Port Richey, FL 34652.

With gratitude,
Jayne Dowdy

TOYS FOR TOTS

Duane & Mavis Buckholz

What a great response we had for our Toys for Tots giving of toys and money for needy children in the area. The representatives of the Marine Reserve were very pleased with our gifts and thank you very much. The musical entertainment and food was enjoyed by those attending the presentation of toys and the dance. Blue Jay residents continue to be very generous and supportive of all social club activities. We are looking forward to a healthy and successful New Year for all, Thank you for your generous response to Toys for Tots.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!!

ON BEHALF OF ALL OF OUR SERVICE MEN WITH TIES TO BLUE JAY ESTATES!!!

Just a note to let you know we gathered 60 packets of Christmas cards for our five service men. All are serving in the United States at the present time. The packets of cards have been mailed and they should receive them in time for Christmas.

We have been very fortunate that we haven't lost any of our service people and none of them have been seriously injured.

Thank you for your participation and the support financed by our Social Club.

We will look forward to continuing this project in 2017, Good Lord willing.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

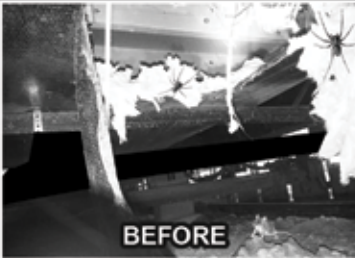

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. Brain drain: Control your appetite after a long day at the office

Ever notice that you can feel starving after a long day at work even though you've spent it mainly at your desk? Scientists, as reported by The New York Times, say it happens because your brain, feeling tired, starts to want more fuel to keep going—even though you haven't exactly been digging ditches for eight or nine hours. The problem is that you're consuming calories your body doesn't actually need because your brain is telling you to.

One way around this dilemma is exercise. In an experiment at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, 38 college students met to discuss what their favorite pizza was. After the discussion, they were allowed to eat as much pizza as they wanted. On another day, they were brought back and given a series of tests from college entrance and graduate-level exams. Afterward, half the students worked out on treadmills while the rest sat quietly. The entire group was again served all the pizza they wanted, but the treadmill group ate less—about 25 fewer calories than at their previous session. On the other hand, the rest of the group actually ate 100 calories more.

The study suggests that a light workout after a mentally strenuous day may curb one's appetite—good to know before you sit down to eat.

Eat lots of these foods to prevent prostate cancer

Prostate cancer is one of the most common forms of cancer in men—more than 180,000 cases are diagnosed each year. Diet can be a factor, doctors say, especially one of foods high in saturated fats found in meat and dairy products. Men may be able to reduce their risk of developing prostate cancer by eating more of these healthy foods:

- Broccoli. Benefits: Low in carbohydrates and rich in antioxidants and phytochemicals that may prevent cell changes contributing to cancer.
- Salmon. Benefits: Lots of omega-3 fatty acids that can inhibit prostate cancer.
- Brazil nuts. Benefits: Selenium; six to eight nuts contain 700 percent of a daily serving.
- Tomatoes. Benefits: Lycopene. Men who eat 10 portions of tomatoes a week may reduce their risk of prostate cancer by 18 percent.
- Walnuts. Benefits: Walnuts and walnut oil have been shown to reduce levels of the hormone IGF-1, which has been linked to prostate cancer.
- Coffee. Benefits: Antioxidants, as well as stimulating the body to metabolize sugars more efficiently. Green tea shares similar qualities.

The five-second rule may not be so safe after all

We've all heard of the five-second rule: If a piece of food drops on the floor, it's safe to eat if you grab it in five seconds or less. That may not be true, though, according to an article on the Medical News Today website.

Researchers at Rutgers University decided to test the rule. They used four types of surfaces: stainless steel, ceramic tile, wood, and carpet. They also choose four kinds of food: watermelon, bread, bread with butter, and gummy candy. Finally, they tested four different contact times: less than a second, five seconds, 30 seconds, and 300 seconds.

They cultivated bacteria similar to salmonella and spread it on the different surfaces, allowed it to dry, then dropped each food on each surface for each designated time period. The results: The bacteria was able to contaminate the food almost instantly in every case, although with different degrees of contamination. Watermelon soaked up the most bacteria because of its moisture; the gummy treats were affected the least due to their hard surface. Nonetheless, the scientists are confident that their findings disprove the five-second rule. So you're probably safer throwing out any food on the floor.

Plutonian moon's red spot explained

Jupiter is famous for its great red spot, but it's not the only red patch in the solar system. Charon, a moon of Pluto, also sports a reddish blotch near its north polar region, and scientists now know what causes it, according to the Sci-News website.

The spot, nicknamed Mordor Macula, covers an area the size of New Mexico, and is made of methane that comes from Pluto. Once the methane escapes Pluto's atmosphere, it falls to the surface of Charon's north pole and then freezes (winter temperatures in Charon's polar region can drop as low as negative 430 Fahrenheit). UV light from the sun turns the methane into heavier hydrocarbons that eventually become reddish organic materials known as tholins.

Data came from the New Horizons space probe. One of the project's scientists characterized the discovery as the realization that Pluto is a cosmic graffiti artist, spray-painting its nearest neighbor red.

Marriage in trouble? Watch for these signs

Just because you're not having fights with your spouse doesn't mean everything is fine in your marriage. It could be in trouble without you and your partner realizing it. Watch for these signs that you need to get back on track:

- Your partner isn't first on your list. When you've got big news, whom do you tell first? If it's not your spouse, you may be disconnecting from him or her. Communicating about what's important to both of you is vital in an honest, healthy relationship.
- You're focused on yourself. Strong marriages rest on mutual goals. If you forget your partner's needs while making your own plans, he or she may begin to do the same. Although you each may want some personal time, carve out time to spend with each other—talking, taking a walk, watching a movie, or something else you both enjoy.
- You compare your spouse to others. Try to avoid thoughts like, "I wish Lynda was more like Diane," or "Why doesn't he bring me flowers like Paula's husband?" Comparisons lead to dissatisfaction and resentment. Be open about what you want so your partner has a chance to fulfill your needs.
- You lead separate lives. You may not be fighting, but you're also not doing much together. Do you watch separate TV shows, go to bed at different times, eat meals without the other person? Make more of an effort to get in sync so you don't find yourself living alone without actually moving out.

Quick hits

Want to liven up the conversation at your next party? Try some of these one-liners:

- "I've been diagnosed with a certain type of brain disorder where I deny the existence of certain 1980s rock bands. There is no Cure."
- "My wife probably tells me I never listen to her."
- "And the award for best neckwear goes to ... well, look at that. It was a tie."
- "No matter how nice your son or daughter is, German children are kinder."
- "Thank you for my student loans. I don't think I can ever repay you."

January Crossword

Monthly

National Bath Safety Awareness Month. In the United States, an average of 370 people across all age groups suffer bathtub or shower-related injuries every day. Slips, falls, and hot-water burns are the prime causes of accidents in the bath and the second leading cause of accidental death and disability. Remember: Bath safety is an integral part of general home safety.

National Blood Donor Month. Some give blood because they've been asked to. Some know a family member or a friend who might need blood someday. Some simply believe it's the right thing to do. Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your donation is important to maintaining a healthy and reliable blood supply.

National Stalking Awareness Month. The National Center for Victims of Crime launched National Stalking Awareness Month (NSAM) in January 2004 to increase the public's understanding of the crime of stalking. The National Stalking Awareness Month website (www.stalkingawarenessmonth.org), launched in January 2009, provides a wealth of information about this crime and about the nationwide observance.

National Train Your Dog Month. The Association of Professional Dog Trainers began the National Train Your Dog Month campaign in 2010 to raise awareness of the importance of socialization and training, to inform the public that training your dog can be easy and fun, and to help new pet parents start off the year right with their newest family member.

Weekly

Diet Resolution Week, Jan. 1-7. This week is about focusing and altering the types of food you consume rather than just reducing the amount. Try eating at least one piece of produce every day (fruit or vegetable), eating fish at least once a month (once a week would be better), and drinking at least two glasses of water a day.

National Sugar Awareness Week, Jan. 16-20. Can you go five days without sugar? Take the challenge to find out how difficult finding foods that do not contain some form of sugar can be, as well as how this substance can affect your body, mind, emotions, and life.

No Name-Calling Week, Jan 16-20. No Name-Calling Week was inspired by the popular young adult novel The Misfits, by James Howe. The No Name-Calling Week Coalition was created by GLSEN and Simon & Schuster Children's publishing and has been adopted by schools around the U.S., growing into one of the largest bullying-prevention initiatives in the country.
