From the Board of Directors

Penny Gilray President

The first workshop for the 2017 budget was held on August 23rd. The second budget workshop will be held on Wednesday September 7, 2016 at 2pm in the clubhouse. All homeowners are invited to attend.

I have received many notes and calls letting me know what a great job Arne Ternsten did painting our clubhouse. This was a big job and we thank Arne for giving his time, skills and talent to this project. Arne, it looks great and we thank you very much!!

We are so lucky to have such caring and dedicated folks who give of their time to keep our community looking great and in good operating order. There are always projects and little emergencies that require help so if you are able and interested, let us know. Your assistance helps to reduce costs and we appreciate all of you...THANKS!!

A reminder – there is no overnight parking on the street. A number of cars have been observed parking overnight. If you are doing a “Florida car wash” remember to put your vehicle in the driveway before 11pm.

Last month I mentioned the sidewalk project. We are still assessing the areas that need to be repaired to ensure we are making the best use of the funds we have available. We will keep you posted.

With Labor Day approaching the flags will be put out over that weekend but they will be picked up by Monday morning so the grass can be cut. The turf just grows too fast at this time of year to skip a week. The flags will remain in the flower beds around the clubhouse and entrance on the Monday.

There is a drive-thru scheduled for September 12th. This is done by our Property Manager and a Board Member. Please take a moment and check around your property to be sure there is no mold or other issues that need to be attended to.

There will not be an operations meeting on Monday September 5th due to the Labor Day holiday.

From the Social Club

Sally Ericson, Co-Chair

Surprise! It's not Bud Fox here,...but me, Co-Chair Sally....Bud and family are on a well deserved vacation.

Just to bring you up to date with all the social news that has been going on since most snobirds left. ...Now let me think! ..... What have we been doing lately????? Besides keeping cool and dry the past month of August...Ah, yes! Tony & Linda Ruvolo hosted a most luscious Belgian Waffle breakfast, with a multitude of optional toppings. Mouth watering fruit and variety of syrups, etc. etc. Fit for "royalty". (Tony is a kind of unofficial party and "events planner" for our regular summer months year round residents.) The Ruvolos and all their helpers put so much into the special get-togethers, and there is always little added surprises as well. *Another spectacular "doing" coming up on September 24th....See their article.

News flash! A returning fun activity!..... Our own, still mending, but healthier and happier Jackie Triplett has started up her Line Dancing instruction classes again. The classes are again on Thursday evenings, but will be briefer in time limits. Her health will dictate expanding the lesson. We are so happy to know Jackie is doing so well.

And, don't forget our annual Labor Day Pot-Luck dinner coming up fast on Monday the 5th! It's another great time to come out, enjoy good food, and good company with your neighbors and perhaps even getting to meet with some of our returning part-time Blue Jays!

All other regular activities: i.e. Bingo, Cribbage; Swedish Weaving; Farkle; Cards, games, and more (watch for notice of other start dates), are still going strong, well attended.

So until we meet again and I hope it will be soon, we look forward to the pleasure of enjoying all your company back down here to share in the fun.

Red Hat Mamas

Paulette Derr, Queen Mother

---

Thirteen of our Red Hatters went to Country Boy Restaurant in Dunedin on Thursday, July 21. Although it was one of our smallest groups, everyone had a good time and enjoyed the food.

We held our usual 50/50 which was won by Lois Morgan. An umbrella, previously won by Marilyn Patton was raffled off and was won by Sue Conway.

Some of the gals went shopping after lunch and after shopping some went to their favorite “stop” before heading home.

Condolences.....

This summer, we had to say sad farewells to three very dear friends ---

John Sturino died July 22, 2016....John and his wife, Joan #96 have been Blue Jay Park’s mail people for many years..

On August 1, 2016 we lost Len Muchko (#19), in Minneapolis....Len’s two daughters, Judi & husband Jerry Nevonen #123, and Patty & Dickey Maxey #19, are also part time residents of Blue Jay.

And lastly, on August 3rd, 2016, Julie Flanagin, (wife of Bill #49) passed away in ME.

Our hearts go out to Joan Sturino. ....to the Muchkos, Nevonens, the Maxeys,.....and to Bill Flanagin. Remember them and their families all in your prayers.

The cephalopods are coming

Don't look now, but cephalopods are on the rise. A team of scientists have determined that cephalopods—sea-dwellers including mollusks, squid, cuttlefish, and octopuses—are increasing their numbers below the waves.

As reported on the Sci-News website, scientists at the University of Adelaide created a database of catch rates for 35 species of cephalopods from 1953 to 2013. They found that cephalopod populations have increased across three distinct groups since the 1950s.

The sea creatures are able to adapt to environmental changes quickly due to their short lifespans, rapid growth, and life-history plasticity. Their growing numbers could have both positive and negative effects: increased pressure on the undersea species they hunt for prey, but also benefits for marine predators who in turn hunt them, as well as humans who harvest them from the sea for food.

Do and don't say these to people with depression

Clinical depression is part of life for 16 million adults in the United States, according to the National Institute for Mental Health. People with depression often feel isolated and alone, so support is as much a part of treatment as therapy and medication. Here's what to say—and not to say—if someone you know suffers from depression:

Do:

- “I’m here for you.” Let people know you’re available to listen when they need to talk. Check in regularly to show that you care.
- “Let’s do something.” Help them get out of the house. Suggest activities like taking a walk, going to a movie, or getting some coffee.
- “I know this is difficult.” Recognize the other person’s struggle. Just knowing that someone understands the challenges of depression can help.

Don't:

- “You just need ____.” Minimizing the person’s pain doesn’t help. Don’t offer a quick-fix solution to a long-term problem.
- “I get depressed, too.” Yes, everyone feels down from time to time, but clinical depression can feel like a never-ending battle. Don’t compare your occasional blue days to another person’s serious condition.
- “Other people have worse problems.” Comparing your friend’s problem to other people rarely helps—and may make the person feel worse. Show compassion for the situation and help as much as

Move here to get into shape

Does where you live influence your physical health? Some cities are more conducive to a healthy lifestyle than others in terms of access to parks and recreation, “walkability,” and other factors. The American Fitness Index, produced by the American College of Sports Medicine and the Anthem Foundation, lists the ten best cities for fitness in the United States. They are:

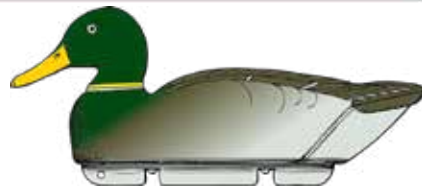

- |                          |                     |
|--------------------------|---------------------|
| 10. San Diego            | 5. San Francisco    |
| 9. Hartford, Connecticut | 4. Portland, Oregon |
| 8. Salt Lake City        | 3. Denver.          |
| 7. Boston                | 2. Minneapolis      |
| 6. Seattle               | 1. Washington, D.C. |

The three kick rule

---

A lawyer went duck hunting in rural Tennessee. He shot a bird that fell into a farmer's field. As he went to retrieve the duck, the farmer walked up.

“That duck is on my land,” the farmer said. “So it belongs to me.”

“But I shot it,” the lawyer said. “If you don’t let me have it, I’ll sue you for your farm and everything you have.”

The farmer smiled. “Tell you what: How about we settle this with the three kick rule?”

“What’s that?” the lawyer asked.

“One of us kicks the other three times. Then the other guy gets to kick the first guy three times. We keep doing it until one of us gives in.”

The farmer looked very old, and the lawyer worked out regularly. “All right,” he said confidently. “We’ll do it your way.”

“Since we’re on my land,” the farmer said, “I kick first.”

The lawyer agreed, positive that the elderly farmer couldn’t hurt him.

He was wrong. The farmer’s first kick sent him into the dirt. His second hurled him against a tree. The third had him flying into a haystack.

Dizzy, the lawyer pulled himself up and took a deep breath. “OK, now it’s my turn.”

“Nah,” the farmer smiled. “You can have the duck.”

The wrong direction

An old man and his wife argued constantly, and the husband was often heard to say, “After I die, I will dig my way out of my grave and haunt you for the rest of your life!”

When he died at age 98, superstitious friends asked the wife if she was afraid he’d make good on his threat. She shook her head. “I buried him upside down—and I know he’ll never stop and ask for directions.”

Libraries still important to most Americans

Most Americans believe that libraries still do a good job of serving their communities' learning needs. A Pew Research Center survey found that 76 percent of adults agree that their local library is fulfilling its educational function, with 37 percent saying it does so "very well" and 39 percent saying "pretty well."

About 78 percent of survey respondents indicated they've visited a library at least one time in their lives, and 44 percent said they'd been to their library at least once in the past 12 months.

Among the latter group, 97 percent consider themselves "lifelong learners," along with 98 percent who rely on library websites for information and learning.

Say cheese! Most of us rate our photography skills highly

Most of us like to take photographs, and most of us think we're pretty good at it. In a Canon USA survey of 1,000 adults, 80 percent described their photography skills as "good to excellent," and 62 percent said their picture-taking talents had improved over the last two years.

What are people taking pictures of? More than half—55 percent—post photos of recipes they're proud of, and 27 percent have shared pictures of their meals to brag about. The survey also discovered that people tend to take more pics of their pets than themselves (59 percent), although 47 percent admit they take selfies regularly.

Mostly we take pictures of our friends and family on special occasions (64 percent). Holidays and family gatherings are popular occasions for snapping images, with 80 percent taking photos on Christmas, Hanukkah, Memorial Day, and the like.

Video is popular, too: Seventeen percent of people in the survey say they shoot videos for online posts, with 50 percent taking videos of themselves to share on Facebook and other platforms.

When you have mastered numbers, you will in fact no longer be reading numbers, any more than you read words when reading books. You will be reading meanings.

Home is where the children are staying these days

Children used to grow up and move away, but that's no longer a guarantee. A study reported on the NPR website has found that for the first time in 130 years, young adults 18–34 are more likely to live with their parents than on their own:

- |                           |              |
|---------------------------|--------------|
| • Living in parents' home | 32.1 percent |
| • Married or cohabitating | 31.6 percent |
| • Living alone            | 14 percent   |
| • Other                   | 22 percent   |

The “Other” category takes in such possibilities as living with a sibling or other family member, sharing housing with a roommate, or group situations like a college dorm—or prison.

Self-driving cars not tops on wish lists

Driverless cars are coming whether we like it or not—and many Americans don't. Despite claims from the government, car manufacturers, insurance companies, and tech enthusiasts about how driverless cars will be safer and more efficient, the public is skeptical.

A University of Michigan Survey has found that 46 percent of U.S. drivers prefer a vehicle with no self-driving capacity. Thirty-nine percent would opt for a car with some self-driving capability, and only 15 percent really want cars that can drive themselves. The numbers are consistent with those of a similar survey conducted 10 months earlier.

One reason for the reluctance may be plain old-fashioned fear: One study by the AAA found three-quarters of respondents simply feel to scared to trust a car without a human driver.
