Don Fitzsimmons

Hello to All,

Warm Weather here as I write this note. March is shaping up to be ideal weather for winter in Florida.

All is well in the park. The Social Club has had lots of special activities, well attended, and enjoyed by all in the park.

We are still working on the ditch project. Have progressed to a meeting with contractor, engineer permitting department to get somebody off their duff and get permit issued and our project started. Hopefully that project will start soon.

There have been one or two families leave for their northern home this past week and by the beginning of April more will be leaving.

We have some sale activity in the park unit 137 has been sold to John and Natalie Young of Michigan, unit 65 has been sold to Allen and John Chamberlain of Maine.

There are several units listed for sale including units 11, 116, 128, 92 and 45. You might have friends or family interested.

We have contracted to have the Muscovy ducks removed. They have swelled to a flock of nine and were just making a mess everywhere. Hopefully we can enjoy some peace from them.

There will be a mail out coming soon. It is that time of year where we need to vote to adopt a partially funded budget, along with getting your permission to waive a review of books and to approve the year end surplus be rolled over to new budget. Those three items need a yes vote. Another item is to request a waiver of retrofitting clubhouse for sprinklers. There is a form included in that mail out for you unit owners to sign and return. It is very important that each of unit owners sign and return that paper. We need 66 2/3% participation for that to move forward so please make sure you include that in your mail back.

That's all for now. Be kind to one another. Make some time to drop in on a friend you haven't talked to in a while. You will never what joy that will be for them.

Third Annual Italian Night 2016

Pat and Ilva Petrucelli

On Saturday, Feb. 13, 2016, Boca Ciega held the Third Annual Italian Night.

Over 150 people attended the dinner consisting of antipasto, salad, rigatoni pasta, meatballs and dessert followed by a dance.

Time and effort by the team transformed the Clubhouse into a miniature Italian oasis with colorful place settings and flags.

We had an amazing crew of people to help with tickets, setup, planning, preparation, cooking, serving and clean up. We had so much fun preparing everything that it did not seem like work at all.

Luckily for us, we were able to work off some of the calories as we danced the night away to the music provided by Bill & Hope Jongmans and Tom Hopkins.

The entire event was a group effort by devoted Boca Ciega volunteers. Our heartfelt thanks goes to Diana & Bill Johnstone, Debbie McQueston, Lucy & Don Boccinfuso, Lore & Rob Bocchinfuso, Mary & Jim Gilmore, Debbie & Jim Norton, Karen & Tom Hopkins, Patti & Dave Williams, Arleen & Doug Downs, Mary Swinkels McLellan, Julie Kent, Valerie MacDonald and Mel & Fran Butler.

A special thanks goes to Joy Noto for her generous contribution of a large tray of homemade pizzelle, which were served at the late night buffet.

Hope everyone who attended had as much fun as we did celebrating ITALIAN NIGHT.

Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby

Since Dennis and I are still under the weather and not attending the last pot luck and social club meeting I will just fill in with the latest goings on and then next month you will receive all the latest news from the meeting.

The club house is all decorated for Easter and a big thank you goes out to all who helped make it look so nice. It is amazing how transformed our club house can get with a few decorations. Job well done.

Our Social club board held a meeting on March 10th to obtain ideas and go over the coming events. Next year's calendar was tentatively planned and as soon as the dates are all firmed up they will appear in next month's newsletter. It is a good idea to look at all the events so when planning for company coming or trips you might want to take things won't overlap. We had a pretty good turnout for the meeting and lots of suggestions were made. Santo Amenta has volunteered to put together a survey for everyone in the park concerning events and future events. We hope to collect them and find out where people's interests lie and if they are willing to participate and or organized different events.

The season is quickly coming to an end and a few people have already left for the North country. I am sure many more will be leaving the end of the month. Easter is very early this year and we hope to have a good amount of people for our Easter dinner. This year we are having a sign-up sheet for helpers to take charge of various needs, like set up, appetizers, serving and clean up. This makes a large task much more manageable.

The end of the year party is scheduled for April 2nd. This will be a picnic with games and food provided. We will hold this event in the club house parking lot with dinner to follow inside.

It seems impossible that we are talking about the end of the year party and people leaving to head North. Many of us can't believe how fast the time goes. It has been a good year and we all look forward to next season.

News and Notes

After being home from the hospital Marianne Schwamberger had to return for further care. She is back in the park once again and we still have her in prayer along with Matt. This has been quite an ordeal and we wish her a speedy recovery now.

Karen Hopkins had a fall in the club house parking lot and broke her ankle. After surgery, a plate and screws put in place she was told she couldn't put any weight on her ankle for twelve weeks. Karen and Tom both need our prayers and well wishes.

Joyce Mrozinsky announced at Coffee that she and Roger would be leaving the park. Their place is up for sale and they will be missed. They have been involved in the park in various capacities for many years. We all wish you well Joyce and Roger.

As always stay healthy and safe.

Mardi Gras Party

Ingrid Eby

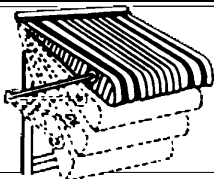

Way back in March 2015 while on our way home from New Orleans the idea for a Mardi Gras dance evolved. Tom and Karen (unit 36, Gary and Debbie (unit 131) and Dennis and I agreed to host this event for the following year.

During the summer we all started gathering ideas and buying masks and beads for the upcoming event. We met when we were all back at Boca Ciega to finalize the details. Then disaster struck. Karen fell, broke her ankle and would be incapacitated for twelve weeks. Larry and Roxanne (unit 60) and Paula and Daryl (unit 65) agreed to help out in Karen and Toms place. Then disaster stroke again. I ended up on crutches with an air cast and Dennis came down with an upper respiratory infection.

The show must go on so Debbie and Gary took the lead in getting this event together. After the dance Debbie wrote that it was wonderful and everything went smooth as silk. There was so much help and many snacks. There was a special dance for Roger and Joyce Mrozinsky as it was their last dance in the park. Joyce chose "For the Good Times" for their special dance and there were many tears. They danced alone and were surrounded by everyone in a big circle. After the dance there were lots of hugs and well wishes. It was a great evening and everyone pitched in the help clean up. Thank you to all who helped. Dennis and I wished we could have been there but it just wasn't to be. Maybe next. time.

Construction Comes To An End

Ingrid Eby

Believe it or not--this long arduous project has finally been completed. After months of that black plastic barrier being up, it could at last come down and be thrown in the dumpster.

Not only is this a relief to Dennis and I but I am sure to everyone in the park. We can't thank you enough for putting up with the noise, the mess and the constant traffic on LaSalle. Our neighbors are super. We never thought it would take so long and I'm sure they didn't either.

There are so many folks who helped us in so many ways. From electrical work, to laying tile, to moving heavy furniture, to lending the use of washers and dryers and giving us encouragement all through this process. We can't thank you enough.

Stop by, knock on the door and come in for a tour. We are happy with our new space and hope we have many years to enjoy it. Once again thank you to everyone in the park.

Pizza Night

Arleen Downs

A hungry and thirsty crowd of 145 convened on Feb. 21 for the pizza, beer and casino night. A lot of fun was had by all and everyone enjoyed the pizzas from Pizza Hut this year.

Mary Strobl and Mary Ross did a fine job taking everyone's money for the 50/50 draw and we gave back over $200.

Many thanks to Dennis and Ingrid Eby, Tony and Fran DiSpirito, Don and Lucy Boccinfuso and Doug Downs for manning the blackjack and wheel tables, and to Ken and Bob Nemecek for their bartending skills.

Thanks as well to the volunteers who helped set up, serve pizza and clean up: Pat Nemecek and Arleen, Will and Donna Tosh and Mark and Mabel VanDenhouten. Although not with us, Bonnie lent her support in the planning stages. We all look forward to next year when Brian and Roz will be back on the committee!

Key West Trip 2016

Our bus driver/tour guide pulled into Boca Ciega to load us up and set sail for Key West. What a terrific day we had to begin our adventure. We waved good by to all the people in our park and set out for parts unknown.

Our first pit stop was at a Love's convenience stop about two and a half hours into our journey. After bathroom stops, some having breakfast we were on our way once again. These short stops make the bus ride much more enjoyable.

Lunch was at Millers Oyster House in Everglade City. Even though there were two tour buses arriving at the same time we all were served in a timely manner. The meals were delicious and the Key Live Pie was outstanding. Back in the bus again to our next destination.

We then found ourselves at the smallest Post Office in the United States. After a few pictures we continued on to the Everglades Welcome Center. There we were given a wealth of information concerning the animals and the eco system. It was very interesting and we hope to retain a little of what we learned.

After another short bus ride, we found ourselves at the Air Boat Dock. Many of us brave souls decided to take the plunge. We couldn't all take the same boat so we bid each other good by hoping we would return once again. The drivers were excellent and took us on a harrowing ride of twists and sharp turns with lots of water spray. It was quite a ride to say the least.

We were then entertained with a reptilian show in the little amphitheater. The local fella who was the resident animal expert taught us about scorpions, large frogs, coca teal and alligators. He brought the scorpion a little too close to Sally Oness for her liking and Heide Groff was encouraged to kiss the frog to gain her prince which took a lot of encouraging. All of us learned that alligators can't see from behind and that is how they catch many of them. Our brains were on over lead and we were ready to depart.

Pulled into our motel at 6:00 p.m. right on schedule. After getting our room keys and collecting our luggage we were on our own for the rest of the night. There were many choices for restaurants and we tried them all. It was an early night because we would be on our way to Key West by 8:00 a.m.

Kevin our driver was waiting for us to board for our trek through the Keys to our final destination. The first Key was Key Largo and there were thirty-four counting Key West. It was very interesting going over all the bridges from one Key to the next. We were dropped off downtown Key West to enjoy the day at our leisure.

Everyone took the trolley car so they could hop on and hop off whenever something ticked their fancy. Some went to Margaritaville. Some visited the Hemingway House where they saw many six toes cats and some the Little White House where some of the United States Presidents vacationed. We all saw the Southern most point that is only ninety miles from Cuba. Choosing a restaurant was a for our meals was a task because there were so many. A couple of the more colorful named ones were Hogsbreath and Sloppy Joes. It was fun hearing about everyone's experiences at the end of the day.

Our one disappointment was the sunset. We anticipated this glorious scene and it was all cloud covered. So alas, we just had to enjoy the street performers and forego the sun set until another time. I have to admit we have nice sunsets on our beaches on the gulf to enjoy.

Back on the bus we must have all had a good day because there wasn't any noise. Some watched a movie and some slept. When we arrived at the motel everyone headed for bed. Our departure the next day wasn't until 9:00 a.m. so we had a little longer to sleep.

Everyone was on time to board our bus for the journey home. After about an hour we came to Miami. It looked to me like cement city with all the large sky scrapers. We were near the water and looked longingly at all the yachts dreaming about owning one and where we would travel to. Ah, how the rich people must live. We wandered around the shopping mall and had lunch before re boarding our coach.

At our final pit stop we all stretched our legs and geared up for the last leg of our journey. Back on the bus Dennis and I passed out snacks again to keep everyone content.

To wrap things up--everyone had a good time. We didn't leave anyone in the Keys so that was a good thing. No one got sick and no one got hurt which was great. Dennis and I want to thank everyone for being so willing to join us for this trip. We also appreciate all the thank you notes, face book comments and gifts. We need everyone to make our trips possible and we look forward to another trip next year.
