President's Corner

Don Fitzsimmons

Hello to All,

Our celebration of Independence Day is past and now we can look forward to the "dog days of summer" or the hot dry time of August. With the weather as unpredictable as it has been the past winter and spring who knows what to expect. And they say we are not having climate changes!!

The park is doing well. They are looking forward for the trimming of the palm trees which is to be done July 20, 21. Hopefully that will finalize the mess Ameri-Pride left with their last trimming.

I have been told that unit 113 has been closed and also unit 27 we have finally gotten all that difficulty settled and has closed.

Unit 72 has been put up for sale and I understand that there is a for sale sign in unit 11, not verified.

Of course unit 116 remains on the market.

Terri and Sharron have been doing a super job for the board while the rest of us are gone and we sincerely thank them for the job they are doing.

Which bring me to an assignment for you all. There are five positions on the board of directors that will need to be filled in our election this year. There will be a 1 - 1 year term, 2 - 2 year terms and 2 - 3 year terms vacant. Your assignment is to prayerfully consider your responsibility to the park and submit your name as a candidate for one of those positions. You are all valuable members of the community and are capable of contributing your leadership to the operation of Boca Ciega.

With that I will leave you with this thought: Live your life for others (family, friends, community) and your rewards will be returned to you multifold.

Have a good month and will talk to you in next month's newsletter.

Editor's Corner

Roz and Brian Bogoslawski

We are always looking for pictures from the different park activities and events. They can be sent to me as a TIFF. or JPG. file, also include the event or function along with the names of the people in the picture.

Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby

From what I have heard from the residents in the park it is hot and steamy. This means most of the people are staying inside until it cools off in the evening. The streets are pretty empty. I wonder if they have to put ice cubes in the pool to cool it down so it feels refreshing.

The big news --- not in the park but in the area is the complete destruction of the mall where the Fireside restaurant had been. Apparently the fire started from some fireworks that had been shot off on the 4th of July. At first when we heard the news we thought it was just the restaurant, but when we saw the pictures it was the entire mall. It must have been quite a sight when it was all in flames.

The 4th of July celebration was held at Perkins restaurant. This was organized by Shirley Mann and I am sure everyone who attended had a great time. No muss or fuss with getting things set up in the club house, my kind of party.

Everything in the park is going along smoothly. There haven't been any problems and that is a good thing. It won't be long and the Snow Birds will start planning their trips back South.

NEWS AND NOTES

Our sympathies are extended to the family of Vincent LaRosa Unit 31. Vince is the brother of Lucy Cirisi in Unit 112. Prayers go out to his entire family.

Mike Beckwith had to be hospitalized again after his heart bypass and we pray his recovery is progressing nicely now.

Talked to Don Fitzsimmons and Elda is doing well with dialysis and able to walk more. Thankful for that progress.

I just received a note from Nancy Dowd, Kathryn Eyre's sister. Kathryn is in the hospital and has been in isolation and is not doing very well. Please keep her in your prayers.

I don't know if it is too late to stick this in the newsletter under news and notes. Hope there still is time to get the work out.

Butch Person is recovering from surgery on his hand. He has been in a cast for several weeks and you know how hard that is for Butch. We wish him well.

Mary Lawrence had a surprise birthday visit from her so, grandson, and his girlfriend.

Dan and Kathy Spitzley had a tornado touch down in their town but they were safe and so were all of the family. However the town had a lot of damage.

Unit 113 has been sold to friends of Roz and Brian Bogoslawski.

Teresa Frizzles' daughter called and said her Mom's house is for sale.

Dennis and I had a fun trip to Canada to visit the Davis' Logan's and Webster's. It was a great time with a lot of laughs.

As always wishing everyone a safe summer and safe travels.

You probably haven't thought about this, but, what happens when an all year rounder, who is well liked, decides to go north for two weeks in the summer. Keith Brogan kept in touch with some of us so we knew he would be coming home Sunday night. A group of us who didn't really have much to do on a late Sunday afternoon decided that we would have some fun at Keith's expense. We made up some signs and put them in the ground around Keith's home. Here is what they advertised.

For Sale. Or For Rent	Two Bedrooms	Fire Sale.	Taxes Only
Cheap!	One Outhouse	$24,000.	$12,000
			A Year

and lastly, Inquire At Unit # 145.

Keith joked with us the next morning that he already had three offers. Go figure!

Wild, Wild West Adventure

Ingrid and Dennis Eby

Our adventure began with a visit with friends in Washington, Illinois. Our first new experience was a tour of a huge Caterpillar Plant where they manufacture large earth moving machines. The entire floor vibrated when they roll off the assembly line. While there we traveled to St. Louis Mo. to see the Cardinals baseball team. A quick trip to the top of the Arch where we experienced a scenic view of the city which is the Gate Way to the West. Quite a sight!

The trip continued to Kansas City, Kansas to see the Kansas City Royals play baseball. Dennis and I have a plan to visit all the stadiums in the league. While there we visited the only WWI Museum in the States. It was very impressive and made us appreciate the sacrifice all those men made.

Branson, Mo. was our next stop, it is quite a town filled with so much entertainment. There were at least thirty small theaters with performances occurring twice a day. The three shows we attended were fantastic. So much talent in one town was amazing.

Next stop was Dodge City, Kansas at the Gun Smoke RV camp. Visited Boot Hill and a reconstruction of the original town. There were plaques in the side walk for all the Gun Smoke stars--Sheriff Matt Dillon, Miss Kitty, Doc and Chester.

On our way to Denver to visit relatives. Such a great time. May 30th we were hiking in Estes Park in the snow. Saw herds of elk and had a snow ball fight. Who would have thought we'd have weather like that the end of May. As we were climbing in higher altitudes it was getting increasingly harder to breathe.

In Wyoming we met up with friends who would travel with us the rest of the trip. Our first adventure together was a rafting trip down the Snake River. On the way we saw eagles, white pelican, which only stay there for a while before moving on further South. Of course, there were spectacular views of the Grand Tetons. What a sight! In Yellow Stone we saw many buffalo, moose and more elk. At one point we had to stop on the road so six buffalo could cross right in front of the van.

One day we took a tram to the top of the mountain and it was a tremendous view. We traveled from 7,700 feet to 10,300 feet in minutes. While there a storm blew in so we couldn't descend until it had passed. We chatted with people and enjoyed a snack while waiting. Back on the mountain we had a drink at the Mangy Moose Saloon.

On the way to Utah, we happened upon Flaming Gorge National Park and dam. What a nice surprise. Not only was the gorge gorgeous but along the way big horned sheep were right next to our van. You also have to watch out for the free range cows that are everywhere.

In Utah, we stopped at Dinosaur National Park where they had built a building in the side of the mountain and dug away so you could see actual bones. Also saw Bryce National Park, Moab and the Arches. Each one was prettier than the previous one. You just oohed and awed all day every day. Canyonland and Zion were the last parks in Utah that we saw.

Heading to Arizona we were all eager to see the Grand Canyon. We stayed in an RV Park in Williams Az. which was right on the famous Route 66. The town was quite unique with street performers re-enacting gun fights. Drove to the Grand Canyon and took the tram to the various stops. It was quite warm and lots of people. We could tell that school was out and many families were traveling. The canyon is almost indescribable. The depth and beauty are overwhelming. It is hard to find words to do it justice. There are so many places to view the canyon and you could easily be there a week to see it all.

The last leg of our trip found us heading to Las Vegas. We met our son and daughter-in-law and their two boys. We were helping them ready their house to put up for sale. It was a lot of work but we managed to squeeze in a lot of fun along with the work. They gave us a surprise anniversary party and a celebration for my birthday and Father's Day. With 110 degrees every day we were ready to head back to Michigan and cooler weather.

So after six weeks on the road, thirteen States and 7,700 miles our trip ended. We have hundreds of pictures and many memories to enjoy for years to come.

To Our Boca Ciega Family

My son, Michael, had his open heart and is home after a second rush back to the hospital. In hospital 20 out of 28 days between the two hospitalizations. Came home yesterday and was amazed at the cards and calls he received during this time. Mike and I want to express our appreciation for the care and kindness extended to us at this time. We really do have a second family in the park.

Mike and Joan Beckwith

All for the best

A king was friends with a wise doctor. They spent many hours hunting together, talking about the world as they walked through the kingdom. The king was intrigued by the doctor's insistence that events always worked out for the best. He was never convinced, but they remained close friends.

Then one day they went out hunting. The doctor's rifle went off by accident, and the bullet hit the king in the hand. The doctor had to amputate two fingers, and the king was so angry that he had his friend thrown into a dungeon.

Several months later, the king went on a safari in the deep jungle. Bored, he went off by himself and was promptly captured by a band of savages who carried them back to their village.

The king realized that these people planned to eat them, and all his promises of riches and rewards if they freed him were ignored. But when they came to prepare him for their feast, they noticed that his hand lacked two fingers.

Their traditions demanded that they not harm anyone with an amputated limb. They freed the king, and he returned to camp unharmed.

When he got back to his castle, the king immediately freed the doctor. He told his friend the story, and added, "If not for you cutting off my fingers, I might have been killed."

The doctor was happy that the king. "You see, that proves my point about things happening for the best."

"But what about you?" the king asked. "You spent all those months in a dungeon. How did that work out for the best?"

The doctor smiled. "If I hadn't been in the dungeon, I might have been out hunting with you."

Independence Day

Mary Gilmore

Thanks to Shirley Mann our Independence Day was full of good times. We all know that it is important for everyone to get together when there are so few of us now in our park; it's good for our mental health. Shirley made arrangements for us to have breakfast at Largo Family Restaurant. We don't go to only eat; we go to see and talk and joke around with our neighbors. After breakfast, before it got too hot, a group of us ended up at the pool for a morning swim. Later on in the day, we went out to dinner at Perkins Restaurant. Shirley again had made a reservation for our group. We had a room to ourselves and were given good service by Darren and Michelle. Eighteen of us enjoyed the outing. Near the end of our dinner, Sharron DeVillers took a picture of our motley crew. She has been our traveling photographer all summer. Thanks for taking those pictures, Sharron.

August Is...

American Artist Appreciation Month. From Maxine Albro (1903-1966) to Karl Zerbe (1903-1972) and everyone else in between, celebrate American art in all its forms and the people who create it.

Get Ready for Kindergarten Month. This is the time of year when young children (and their parents) prepare for that all-important first day of school. Relieve their jitters by talking about what to expect, visiting the school and the teachers, and getting excited about the upcoming school year.

National Immunization Awareness Month. National Immunization Awareness Month (NIAM) highlights the importance of immunization—not just for kids, but for everyone. Activities focus on encouraging all people to protect their health by being immunized against infectious diseases.

National Spinal Muscular Atrophy Awareness Month. Spinal muscular atrophy (SMA) is a genetic disease affecting the part of the nervous system that controls voluntary muscle movement. An SMA diagnosis doesn't mean an end to your hopes and dreams. Changes and challenges lay ahead, but also opportunity, fulfillment, and hope for a future free of spinal muscular atrophy.

Celebrate Weekly

Clown Week, Aug. 1-7. Everyone loves a clown. Celebrations during this week take on a variety of forms, such as putting on shows in malls, child care centers, hospitals and nursing homes or educational events about clowns and fundraisers for numerous charitable causes.

International Assistance Dog Week, Aug. 2-8. Created to recognize all the devoted, hardworking assistance dogs helping individuals mitigate their disability related limitations.

Elvis Week, Aug. 8-16. Held every year in Graceland, Tennessee, Elvis Week celebrates the life and legacy of Elvis Presley, “the King of Rock and Roll,” with special events, live music, concerts, movies, and more.

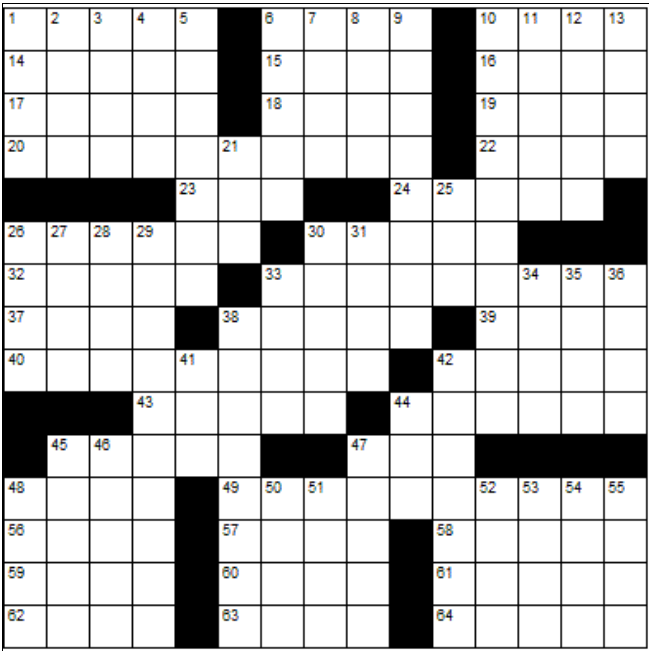

National Safe At Home Week, Aug. 23-29. The National Safety Council estimates that 245 people die of unintentional injuries in and near their home every day. The purpose of National Safe At Home Week is to raise awareness of safety practices to prevent injury and death in and around your home.
