President's Corner

Don Fitzsimmons

Hello to All,

Another month is almost gone and time for some news from your president.

The first and most important news was we had little damage from the storm recently. The only reported damage was a tree limb from the ditch, on Deerwood's side, came down on our fence and into space behind unit 6. We are in the process of getting it cleaned up. Also the pantry roof leaked again. Thought we had that solved but apparently not from the severe amount of rain we had.

Of course our deep and sincere condolences go out to dear Linc and his family on the passing of Liz. You were both loved much by Boca Ciega and we missed you so this past season. We pray for healing from your loss.

I just learned that Dottie Lokanc passed away on Saturday, June 11. We send condolences to her family. She was a great worker in the park when she could and spent many years coordinating our outside activities. She will be sorely missed.

The park had a nice Memorial Day picnic at the clubhouse and had practically all the residents in attendance. What was tremendous and thanks go to Mary and Bill Lawrence for hosting that.

I have no other news I have received so will say so long 'til next month.

Work hard, play the same way and rest in the sanctuary of your homes.

Editor's Corner

Roz and Brian Bogoslowski

We are always looking for pictures from the different park activities and events. They can be sent to me as a TIFF. or JPG. file, also include the event or function along with the names of the people in the picture.

Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby

As usual the summer residents in the park had a grand celebration on Memorial Day. Mary and Bill Lawrence spear headed the event and many jumped in to lend a hand. Betty Cerny, Shirley Mann and Mary Gilmore were the kitchen crew. John Bender, John Tirschman, Mary Gilmore and Mary Lawrence set up the dining area. With the hall all decorated with red, white and blue -- it was a perfect setting. Mary Gilmore did the prayer and everyone enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner with sundaes for dessert. Doris Brookhart delivered meals to Ralph Crudo, Gene and Fran Turner, Marge and Walt Kiernan and Audrey and Jerry Igielski who couldn't attend the dinner. Everyone helped with clean up and another Boca Ciega event was a success.

As many of you saw or heard on the television, a tropical storm hit the Pinellas County area. The rains were torrential there was some flooding in Largo. Once again Boca Ciega escaped without any major damage. After the storm passed Bill Lawrence drove around the park to check for any damage. Bill and Mary had damage to one of their awnings and a tree came down in Ron and Kim Arsenault's yard. The theory of Boca Ciega being on ancient

Indian burial grounds must be true. We've never had any major damage to our park from storms. Thanks Bill for keeping such a good eye out for all the coaches in the park.

FYI Most of us in the park know we have a coyote that comes into our park once in a while. Well one of our residents was down in the park during the storm and saw what they thought was a dog that look like it needed help. Later on they found out it must have been the coyote. It would not have been a good idea if they had tried to help it. Some residents have seen this animal early in the morning and late at night. It is believed it comes from across the street. We don't know who feeds it or where it stays. It should be considered a wild animal and it may be diseased. So everyone be aware.

News and Notes

It is with a very heavy heart that I have to report that Liz Zwicker passed away on May 30th. Liz was a grand lady and a vibrant person at Boca Ciega. I enjoyed playing pinochle with her and loved her great sense of humor. Liz was a regular at Wednesday night bingo. She will be greatly missed. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Linc and the entire family.

It is also with a heavy heart that I must notify everyone that Dotti Lokanc passed away. She was doing very well and enjoying being with her friends at Boca Ciega. Dotti had been a resident at Boca Ciega for many years. She was in charge of Outside Social Activities for many years. Many of the residents took cruises with Dotti over the years. She will be missed by all. Our sympathies go out to her family and especially her nieces who took such good care of her these last months.

On a positive note - Tom Logan is doing well on his chemo treatments. He will have four treatments three weeks apart, so far has had no ill effects. Good news Tom.

Wonderful news concerning Marianne Schwamberger - she is cancer free. That is such great news after all she went through this past winter. So happy for you.

Some of the permanent residents have flown the coop for a while. Ginny Tracey has gone to Connecticut for a visit and John Bender will be going to California for a few months. Safe travels you two.

That's all for now folks

As always be healthy and stay safe.

To All My Wonderful Boca Ciega Friends and Neighbors

Mark Zwicker

It is with a heavy heart that I inform you of my mother's passing, Elizabeth Zwicker.

Elizabeth (Liz) Zwicker passed peacefully, on Monday, May 30th with most of her family by her side. Liz was survived by her loving husband Linc, daughter Wendy, son Mark, daughter-in-law's Margaret and Gisele and son-in-law Ben. Liz was blessed with seven grandchildren and their partners, Matt & Bronwen, Michael & Caitlin, Lauren & Chad, Justin & Kristin, Drew, Ian & Terri, and Tara. Liz was great grandmother to Ben and Harry.

Liz and Linc, would have celebrated their 65th Anniversary this October. Linc sends a heart-felt thank you for all of those who have sent cards and thoughtful messages.

Memorial Day at Boca Ciega

Mary Gilmore

On this 150th anniversary of the observance of Memorial Day in America, we remember and honor the United States military, all of the young men and women, who lost their lives so that we may live in freedom.

Many of our neighbors have returned north, but 38 of us gathered to celebrate Memorial Day at our clubhouse. The hall was decorated for the holiday and some tables were arranged in a horseshoe so that we all could feel a part of the community. Mary and Bill Lawrence were our hosts and did all of the leg work of ordering our chicken dinners. Doris Brookhart made her delicious baked beans and Ginny Tracy made her 7 Layer Jello Mold that was a hit. Our supper ended with made to order sundaes that Bill scooped up. Servers that helped were Betty Cerny, Shirley Mann, John Tirschman, and Mary Gilmore. Doris Brookhart used her bike to deliver 7 dinners to neighbors who were unable to be at the clubhouse. Many hands make light work and all who helped clean up are thanked again.

Happy 4th of July!

Making room

A farmer lived in a small house with his wife and six children. The lack of space was driving him crazy, and in desperation he sought advice from the local rabbi.

The rabbi listened sympathetically to his problem. “I can help you,” he said, “but you must do exactly as I say.” The farmer agreed.

“Do you own any animals?”

“Yes,” the man said. “I have a cow, two goats, and some chickens.”

“Good. When you get home, bring all your animals into the house with you.”

The farmer was puzzled, but he did as the rabbi advised. The next day he returned, complaining, “Rabbi, the animals are all over my house! What should I do?”

“Go home and take the chickens outside,” the rabbi said.

The man went home and took the chickens away. The following day he went back to the rabbi’s house. “The chickens are outside, but we still have two goats and a cow getting in the way.”

“Take the goats back outside,” the rabbi instructed.

The day after that, the man returned again. “The goats are out in the yard, but the cow is everywhere.”

The rabbi nodded. “Now take your cow back to your field.”

The farmer came back smiling the next day. “It’s amazing! The house is quiet and we have room to spare! Thank you, rabbi!”

Not so obvious

A math professor had a very rapid and hectic lecturing style. He often simply turned his back on the class and scribbled equations on the chalkboard while speaking so fast many students couldn’t keep up.

One day a student asked a question about one of the problems. The professor replied, “Well, that’s obvious!” But the student persisted. The prof listened thoughtfully, nodding, then went out into the hallway to think. He paced the hall for 10 minutes, then returned to his classroom.

“I’ve thought it over,” the professor said. “I was right: It is obvious.” And he went right back to his lecture.

Balance your internal ‘thinker’ and ‘doer’ to bring ideas to life

Creative people can have dual personalities: the “thinker” who comes up with bright ideas and the “doer” who puts plans into action. How can you help them work together effectively? Follow these steps:

- Record your revelations. When an idea strikes in the middle of a task, don’t stop what you’re doing so you can ponder your brainstorm. Instead, keep a notebook where you can record sudden inspirations to review at a more appropriate time.
- Take time to think. Set aside some time each day when you can forget about performing tasks and quietly focus on shaping your ideas.
- Conduct a weekly review. Bring the thinker and doer together each week to decide how to turn vision into reality. Review your ideas, then create action steps to ensure they come to fruition.

Take the risk of being creative

Creativity is a risky business. Your best ideas may get shot down—or never even make it into the air. If your worries are interfering with your ability to find creative solutions to problems, keep this advice in mind:

- Practice. Don’t wait for the pressure of a crisis to start flexing your creativity. Envision some possible scenarios where you’d have to think fast to find a solution. When real problems arise, you’ll be better prepared to deal with them.
- Seek feedback. Look for people who can help you evaluate your ideas fairly. They should challenge you, not just say, “Great idea!” This will help keep your thinking sharp.
- Take small risks. Get used to uncertainty by using your imagination when the risks are minimal. You’ll build confidence as you learn what works and what doesn’t.
- Search for data. Be on the lookout for all the information you can gather about the problem you’re trying to solve—and about your organization and industry. The more facts you have, the better the creative decisions you’ll make.

When you’re heartbroken, you’re at your most creative—you have to channel all your energies into something else to not think about it.

—Florence Welch

Did You Know That July is Also...

Independent Retailer Month. Support and celebrate independent retailers across the country. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers in their communities, highlighting their positive social and economic impact local, nationally, and globally.

National Black Family Month. During this month, African-American families celebrate their connection, common heritage, and commitment to one another. Families around the nation seek to implement positive changes, connect through old traditions, create new ones, and participate in activities that can be continued throughout the year.

Parks and Recreation Month. Sponsored by the National Recreation and Park Association, the leading nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement of public parks, recreation and conservation. Discover wildlife and outdoor fun at your local park.

Captive Nations Week, July 7-13. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. Begun in 1953, it was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

Sports Cliché Week, July 10-16. It's time to celebrate—or possibly get rid of—such common sports clichés as “We’re taking it one game at a time,” “He gave 110 percent,” “Step it up,” and more.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 17-23. Sponsored by the American Association of Zoo Keepers to advance excellence in the animal keeping profession, foster effective communication beneficial to animal care, support deserving conservation projects, and promote the preservation of our natural resources and animal life.

World UFO Day, July 2. Look to the skies for evidence of alien visitors.

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrate the birthday of the United States of America.

Global Forgiveness Day, July 7. Begun in 1994 to help people around the world identify with their personal need to forgive and be forgiven.

Space Exploration Day, July 20. Neil Armstrong and Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin first walked on the moon on this day in 1969.

World Ranger Day, July 31. Sponsored by the International Ranger Federation to celebrate the work rangers do to protect wildlife.

Young athletes embrace football

Football is the fastest-growing youth sport in the U.S., according to a survey conducted for USA Football (the national governing body) by the Physical Activity Council and Sports Marketing Surveys USA. Among American kids 6 and older, flag football showed the biggest rise—8.7 percent from 2014 to 2015, representing approximately 120,000 more young players.

Baseball came in second, with a jump of 3.3 percent, and tackle football increased by about 1.9 percent, or about 21,000 additional players.

The numbers were similar in the 15–18 age group: Flag football grew 10.5 percent, adding about 100,000 players, and tackle football increased 2.5 percent, for 30,000 more players. The only other sport to grow in size among the older age group was basketball, at 1.1 percent.

Your commute may improve your health

You may not like going to work in the morning, but the way you get there can have a positive influence on your overall health. The journal Lancet Diabetes & Endocrinology has published a study that found middle-aged people who walk, ride a bike, or even take public transportation to their workplace tend to have a lower body mass index (BMI) than those who regularly drive.

The reason is simple: More physical activity keeps weight down and results in better overall health. Researchers at the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine looked at data from 150,000 people ages 40–69. Not surprisingly, those who biked to the office weighed showed a healthier BMI than those who drive their cars, followed by walkers and then workers who took a bus or train.

Although walking or biking may be impossible for many people, the physical activity involved in just getting to the bus stop or train station can have a significant positive effect.

One measure of friendship consists not in the number of things friends can discuss, but in the number of things they need no longer mention.
