Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby Secretary

Boca Ciega is beginning to look like a ghost town. All of the Snow Birds have left, and the permanent residents are dwindling. There have been a couple of visitors in the park, but it is very quiet. If there are any cars on the street, it is people looking to buy or rent. Fortunately, or unfortunately, depending on how you look at it, there isn't anything to buy or rent at this time.

Those that remain in the park are doing their Saturday morning breakfast at various restaurants in the area. There are about five different establishments on the circuit that they enjoy and rotate each weekend. Of course they are always on the look-out for a new place to try.

The weather has been unusually hot this early in the year. Summer hasn't officially begun and the temps are in the 90's. Not only hot temperatures, but lots of rain. Our rain gauge has had to be emptied frequently. One thing that seems to have a mind of its own, is the weather. The weather forecasters are already talking about hurricane season but so far no predictions. Hopefully, Mother Nature will be kind to us this year.

News and Notes

First of all some good news!

Arlene Downs is doing extremely well after her surgery. There will be no stopping her next fall when she returns. We are thankful for her recovery.

Flo Turner is also doing very well after her surgery. I saw pictures of her on face book and she looks great. Many prayers go up for her speedy recovery.

Connie Philbeck, who at last report was in a wheel chair after her fall, is up and walking, no wheel chair or cane any longer. Our prayers were answered.

However, now I have to mention that Ralph Cornelius has been in the hospital. The doctors had to zap his heart to get it back in rhythm once again. He is home and needs to rest for a few weeks. Prayers are needed for his recovery.

On a sad note -- our flag was at half-mast for Elda Fitzsimmons. Elda passed away just before Easter. Elda had been having issues for many years. The Fitzsimmons have been residents for a lot of years and very active in the park. She will be missed and we extend our sympathy to Don and the entire family.

A former resident Bob O'Connor, also passed away in April. Many of the old timers remember Bob as the resident barber of the park. He and Betty were very active and they were missed when they had to return North. Our sympathy goes out to Betty and the family.

To yackety-yak about the past is, for me, time lost. Every morning, I wake up saying, "I'm still alive - a miracle." And so I keep on pushing.

Jacques Cousteau

Obituary for Elda Maxine Fitzsimmons

MAY 2, 1932 - APRIL 16, 2019

Fitzsimmons, Elda (McCoppin), age 86, beloved wife of Donald C. Fitzsimmons was taken into the arms of her Savior early morning on Tuesday, April 16, 2019, at Largo Medical Center in Largo, Florida. She was born May 2, 1932 to Ruth and Lester McCoppin in Leesburg, Ohio and was the middle of nine children. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers and sisters, Charles, Carlene (Morton) Rogers, Spurgeon, Duane (Janice), Janet (Norman) Haines and Shirley Bean. ## Early birds versus night owls—who's better off?

The early bird gets the worm, and early risers enjoy other benefits, according to a story on the New York Post website. A survey of sleep habits involving 2,000 people found that, among other things, self-identified early birds have more sex on a weekly basis than their night owl counterparts.

The survey also found that early birds generally make more money, are more likely to work in an office setting, and describe themselves as happy. They're also more likely to be married with children in their home. On the other hand, night owls are typically shy and sarcastic, likely to believe in ghosts and cryptids, and more often single.

They tend to sleep about the same amount—seven hours a night for early birds and six hours for night owls. However, early birds are light sleepers, and they feel more well-rested when they get up than night owls.

Disconnecting may not lead to the benefits you're looking for

Ever feel the need to disconnect from your devices for a “digital detox”? The Yahoo Finance website reported on a survey by Mojo Vision (Saratoga, California), which found that people tend to use technology as much, if not more, after distancing themselves from their smartphones and tablets for a while.

The survey of 1,000 Americans found that 67 percent agree that technology makes life easier, but 55 percent believe that all that tech is a distraction, with one-third worrying that it hurts people's ability to connect with one another. Still, 54 percent said that abstaining from their devices didn't produce the positive benefits they'd hoped for—or at least were unsure whether it had a beneficial impact.

The most common strategies for “subtracting” tech are setting devices to send fewer notifications, putting them on a “Do Not Disturb” setting, scheduling times to not use their devices, or simply turning them off for a period of time.

A good decision is based on knowledge, and not on numbers.

Flower power

A dairy farmer in Japan, Toshiyuki Kuroki, found a novel way to help his wife, Yasuko, cope with her failing health. When complications from diabetes robbed her of her vision, he began planting shibazakura around their farm. It's a species of phlox and a hearty groundcover that blossoms March and April.

Though he knew his wife of 30 years would no longer be able to see the beautiful fuchsia-colored petals, he hoped the sweet fragrance of the flowers would lure her outdoors and out of her deepening depression. It didn't, for a while, and then something pretty wonderful happened.

As the farmer continued to plant more flowers, they thrived and spread across the farmland. People from surrounding areas, even tourists, began to visit the farm. Everyone wanted to see the beautiful pink fields and walk among the spring flowers. With so many new and different people showing up on their land, the farmer's wife began to wander outside and interact with the visitors. She was happy again.

For the past 25 years, the shibazakura fields that surround the home of Toshiyuki and Yasuko Kuroki have sparked joy and wonder in the hearts of many. The Kurokis receive about 7,000 visitors a year at the farm during March and April, and they no longer raise dairy cows.

Their story is a reminder that love and flowers are a powerful healing force.

That's what friends do

A story recently went viral on social media that attracted the attention of national news outlets:

A teenager from a small town in Arkansas saved two years of earnings from his part-time job to buy a motorized wheelchair for his best friend and fellow high school classmate. It was a selfless act that speaks volumes about friendship and goodwill while serving as an example of how each of us can do and give more to contribute to the greater good.

A flower cannot blossom without sunshine. A man cannot live without love.
