President's Corner

Don Fitzsimmons

Hello to All,
Things are quiet here in the park. Weather has been a little unseasonably cool but we always look on the rosy of things. It is certainly better than what we snowbirds have been having at our northern homes. So we are thankful.

All the activities are in full swing and people in the park are really involved and that is great.

Caution is needed with one activity which has been observed. Maybe new people don't know but it would be appreciated that no one in the park feed any animals or birds. It causes problems for everyone. Thank you who don't feed and thank you who have been feeding and will now stop. We appreciate your cooperation.

Several units are in the process of being sold and hopefully in next month's newsletter we will have welcome information about them. Currently there only two units for sale that I know of. Unit 97 and Unit 116. We try to keep as current as possible in letting you know about sales.

Nothing else, so live, love and be happy, because when one of us is sad we all are sad. "til next month.

Editor's Corner

Roz and Brian Bogoslowski

We are always looking for pictures from the different park activities and events. They can be sent to me as a TIFF. or JPG. file, also include the event or function along with the names of the people in the picture.

Please forward all newsletter material to: editor.bocaciega@gmail.com

Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby

The Social Club met February 9th after a delicious pot luck. We do have the best cooks in our park. It was another record breaking crowd and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Committee reports were given. We now have two volunteers to take blood pressure once a month. The date hasn't been decided yet so look on the bulletin board for further updates. We thank Kathryn and Bob Erye for their help in getting new volunteers for this important service.

All of the events on the calendar are up and running. It is so nice to see everyone participating in the activities. For certain, our park is one of the busiest in the area.

The Early Bird dinner for February will be held at Marlin Darlin which is very close to E&E Steak House where the group went in December. The date is February 19th and the signup sheet is on the bulletin board in the club house.

Julie Kent needs us to save our egg cartons for the library. She wants to place them behind the books so they don't fall and will be easier to see.

We need people to run the March potluck and there will be no pot luck in April because Easter is so close to the potluck date. We also need someone to head up the Easter dinner for the park.

The date for the Shuffleboard Barbeque in March 24th. All the shufflers and their spouses are invited to attend.

Thanks to all the cupids in our park who shot their arrows into the club house and once again made our club house look so nice. It is very special to go to the club house and see it decorated for everyone occasion. We thank all of our decorators for their willingness to beautify our park.

This year because we purchased the tables for the club house we are not donating to a charity from the proceeds of the rummage sale.

The Craft Show will be held March 21st. This show is where all the gals who quilt, do Swedish Embroidery, and painting will display their projects. It is always so nice to see how much talent we have in this park.

New Business:

There will be an added event this year. March 22nd there will be an additional dance scheduled. Look on the bulletin board for further information.

News and Notes:

It is good to see Elda Fitzsimmons out and about. With the new life that was installed in their coach she had a lot more mobility. If the weather ever gets nice, Elda will be able to get out and use her Amiga.

Dotti Lokanc is still doing well. She hasn't been able to be out because of the weather and we look forward to seeing her more as soon as Mother Nature gives us a warm spell again.

We welcome to the park Bob and Nancy Bulmer who are in #30, Tom and Susan Conklin who are in #67B and Doug and Mary Ross who are in #105. It is always fun to add more people to our park and we hope you join in all the activities and become a part of the Boca Ciega Family.

Our prayers and well wishes go out to Virginia Hoffman in Unit 27. Virginia was taken to the hospital and is now in rehab. We hope she will be back with us soon.

Carol Brandt Unit 137 was also in the hospital and is now home. We are thankful for her recovery and we pray she will continue to get stronger and be able to enjoy being in the park.

Boca Ciega Crafter's

Ann Martin

Everyone is cordially invited to join the Swedish Embroiders, Quilters and the Painting Class, at our annual year end showing of our work. It will be held after coffee klatch on Sat. March 21, 2015. Hope you can all come and take a look at our work.

2015 Rummage and Bake Sale

Butch and Carol Persons

This year we had beautiful weather for Boca Ciega's Annual Rummage and Bake Sale, a little cool but sunny and bright. Many thanks to all of the volunteers who helped make the sale such a success by working, baking, donating time and money, etc. It was nice to see everyone wearing their new Boca Ciega shirts. This year we netted 4026.00 which is $400-$500 more than last year's sales. We donated our leftover items to New 2 U Thrift Center which supports both local and worldwide ministries working with infants, children and families. They are happy to pick up our donations and were here and gone before 2:00 pm which speaks well for all of our workers who promptly pack up our leftovers and load them onto the truck.

As always, a special thanks to all of you bakers out there and to Yogie, Maud and Ann for setting up such an appealing bake table. It's amazing how many of you are so willing to contribute. We know a lot of you worked hard Thursday morning getting everything set up in the clubhouse only to go home to start your baking and you all deserve a special thanks.

Also, a special thanks to Rob and Lore Bocchinfuso and their crew for the breakfast sandwiches and for the wonderful lunch, and providing the workers with donuts and hot coffee before starting the day Saturday. Everything was delicious. Great job everyone.

Terry Maegdlin and Ginny Tracy put together five beautiful large Gourmet Baskets this year which were raffled off and won by: Dan Spitzley, Bob Nemecek, Lucy Boccinfuso, Debbie Norton and one went to a lady in Caribbean Isles. We also had a smaller basket which was raffled off Friday night for the park residents who bought their tickets early. George Capon was the winner on Friday.

The beautiful afghan crocheted and donated by our own Ingrid Eby was won by Dan Spitzley.

The sheds are now empty and ready to be filled again for next year. We will leave some empty tubs and boxes in both sheds and would appreciate it if you would put your small items in them so it's easier to pack and stack and easier for the men when they are unloading the sheds. Glass items should be wrapped in some way so they don't get broken. And, please, make sure everything is clean and in good repair. No mattresses please. They're almost impossible to sell and no charities will take used mattresses. Also, no TVs. They take up way too much room in our sheds and they just do not sell. So, PLEASE, NO TV's in the sheds.

Thanks again to everyone for all of your hard work and cooperation. We certainly had plenty of workers this year. We hope you had some fun, not just a lot of work, and you'll be willing to work with us again next year on yet another great sale.

Boca Ciega Social Derby

Carol Persons

On February 7, 2015 we held our "6th Annual Boca Ciega Social Derby" (horse races") and we believe it was a huge success. We ran 9 races with horses with names such as "Italian Stallion" whose jockey was J. Valore, and "Hound Dog" whose jockey was T. Hopkins. You'll notice we used the names of some of our park residents to add a little levity.

The races were hosted by Bill and Maud Davis, Bud and Pearl Davis, Dennis and Ingrid Eby and Butch and Carol Persons, with special assistance from Ann Martin who so graciously kept the popcorn popped, the snack bowls filled and the soft drinks flowing. Friends and relatives from outside the park were also welcome. The doors opened at 6:00 pm and the races ran from 7-9:30 pm. There was a one time entry fee of $5.00 and everyone started out with 1,000 points to bet with. The bonus dice came up 3 times so everyone received 6,000 extra bonus during the races so they could increase their bets.

We sold 120 tickets and $600 was paid out in cash prizes at the end of the evening. We had eleven $10.00 door prizes which were drawn while the staff was tallying up the winning scores and we had 39 prizes going to the highest winners so there were a lot of chances to win. In addition to that we had ten $15 winners in the 50/50 drawing. Some people were lucky enough to win twice while others were not so lucky but even if you were not lucky enough to win a prize we hope you had a good time and feel you got your money's worth in snacks and entertainment.

Look forward to seeing you again next year. Tally ho!

Potluck Dinner February 9th, 2015

Maud Davis

How lucky we are to have Residents in Boca Ciega that are so talented and make our Potluck Dinners such a huge success. There were 106 guests attended our Dinner Monday. The hall and tables were decorated and looked great (thank you). To Judy and Santo Amente and their team we would like to Thank You for a great job.

As always there was a huge selection of delicious Salads, Main Course, and of course the Deserts are out of this world. There were also lots left for anyone who had room for seconds. Thanks to all the residents who participate and take the time to make our Potlucks such an enjoyable evening.

We had a Social Club Meeting after potluck, which many of our residents stayed for. We decided not to have potluck in April as Easter Sunday is April 5th and potluck would just be one week later, so will just have Easter Dinner. However we are looking for someone to host March potluck so please feel free to sign up and if you need help just let me know.

Thanks again to the Committee for all your hard work and to all those that helped clean up.

Dinner Theatre

Ingrid Eby

January 29th seventy nine members of our Boca Ciega Group ventured down Ulmerton to participate in the Ed Fletcher Early Bird Dinner Theater. Our group is one of the largest to attend and we were given excellent seats. Everyone had a good view of the stage and felt almost like they were part of the cast we were so close.

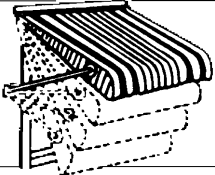

Before the play we were given a delicious buffet dinner. Everyone raved about the food and couldn't believe how much we got for the price. The entrees included ham, roast beef, salmon, meatballs and chicken marsala. Although we had to go through the buffet line everyone was served in a timely manner and there was plenty of food. Our dessert was served to us along with coffee and tea. We all had plenty of time to eat before the performance. It was a special treat when the performers came around to the tables and chatted with us so we knew who they were.

As the house lights dimmed we all sat back and were ready to be entertained. The announcer told us the play Caught In The Net, was a sequel to the play Run for Your Wife. When we were told this Dennis and I knew we were in for a treat. We had seen Run for Your Wife in London when we lived there and laughed so much. Caught in The Net takes place eighteen years later as John Smith continued with his double life and two wives. It was so funny and kept us in suspense right until the closing scene.

We had many rave reviews - George Capon said "if you didn't laugh at this play there was something wrong with you." Tom Logan said "Fran DiSpirito laughed so hard he thought she was going to fall off her seat." Fran said "even Tony laughed and it takes a lot to make him laugh." It was great looking at all our folks and seeing them enjoying themselves so much.

After the performance all of the cast were in a line so we could speak to them personally. They all took their time to chat with each one of us. All were in agreement that we need to have an outing to the Dinner/Theater next year. I will make the reservations soon so look in the newsletter for the date. Mark your calendar so you will be able to attend next January 2016.

Boca Ciega's Kitchen

Dump Cake

Ingredients:

- 2 - 21 oz. cans pie filling (Comstock is best)
- 1 cup chopped nuts (pecans or walnuts)
- 1pk yellow or white cake mix (Duncan Hines)
- 1 & 1/2 sticks Butter (melted)

Directions:

Using 9" x 13" cake pan (buttered)

Place 2 cans pie filling on bottom of pan

Sprinkle dry cake mix on top of pie filling (spread evenly)

Sprinkle 1 cup chopped nuts on top of cake mix

Pour melted butter evenly over nuts

Bake @ 350 degrees for about 30 minutes or until brown on top

You can use Blueberry, cherry, peach or any other fruit pie filling you choose

Shuffleboard

2nd Annual Shuffleboard Tournament & BQ is being held 10am Tues. Mar. 24.

2nd ANNUAL ITALIAN NIGHT 2015

Pat and Ilva Petruccelli

Ever since we moved into Boca Ciega, Pat and I have been so thankful that there are so many hard working, generous people who volunteer to host such a variety of activities.

After the amazing response we had to our First Pasta Night last year, we were motivated to run the event again and try to make it even better!

On Saturday, February 14, 2015, on Valentine's Day, Boca Ciega held its Second Annual Italian Night.

This year, it was not only a pasta dinner but also a dance. Tony Power was our D.J. with the help of his lovely assistant, Shirley Robinson.

We had an amazing crew of people to help with tickets, setup, planning, preparation, cooking, and serving and clean up. We had so much fun preparing everything that it did not seem like work at all.

Special thanks are extended to Frank and Marilyn Aquino who worked alongside us from the planning stage to the final dance. In particular, they made the meatball task very enjoyable by providing an excellent espresso coffee when we finished.

Everyone who helped exceeded our expectations! The team consisting of Lucy and Don Boccinfuso, Rob and Lore Bocchinfuso, Mary and Jim Gilmore, Tom and Karen Hopkins, Debbie and Jim Norton, Roz and Brian Bogoslawski, Judy and Santo Amenta, Denise Spangler, Tony DiSpirito and Betty Manis worked very diligently and efficiently so that, once again, Italian Night was a success.

We hope everyone enjoyed themselves and we invite you all to join us next year when we hold the Third Annual Italian Night!

Vacation Highlight

Jan. 28th

Roz & I were very happy that our family were visiting this January. One of the highlights for us was when our 9 year old grandson asked if he could help out at the pancake breakfast, my answer was, (if you wake up by 6:30am, I will put you to work)..... To my surprize, at 6:30am, I heard his cell phone alarm go off, and up he got, got dressed and wore a Boca Ciega red golf shirt. He had a great time with the rest of the young guys that were cooking and serving breakfast and needless to say, we were very proud grandparents.

Please always feel free to bring your grand or greatgrand children to our functions and allow them to participate, so we all can enjoy their company and of course take pictures and submit them.
