HOA NOTES

After a survey of our community, it has been determined that there is a large number of homes with missing, incomplete, or obscure house numbers. For this reason, the Home Owners Association (HOA) is purchasing the needed numbers and will install on homes needing such numbers. Pinellas County Sheriff Department told us in a recent presentation that it would greatly assist their department if house numbers were attached to the back of each home. This would enable emergency personnel to orient themselves in a search effort. The needed numbers will be purchased and installed by the HOA both front and back for $5.00, and $2.00 for back only. This is a safety concern for both you and your neighbors in an emergency situation. Please comply with this effort.

If your home needs these numbers, contact Ray Sears (Rasers@aol.com or 813-215-4800), to arrange for installation.

SUNSHINE

Blanche Onley, 584-7372, is our sunshine person for the park. If you know of someone who needs a thinking of you card, is in the hospital or re-hab, please let her know. Get well cards were sent to Carolyn Gregg – illness, Dave Sayer – complete shoulder replacement, Sherry Horton – illness. Sympathy cards were sent to the families of Jean McCann and Marlen Griffith who passed away.

DID'JA KNOW??

This will be a new feature in our Monthly Media. It will highlight items which we think will be of particular interest to our residents. If you read or hear of something that you think will be of value to our residents, please contact Neal Alexander, Media Coordinator (nilerivers@gmail.com or 581-1334)

Based on an article published in the Tampa newspaper, our zip code, 33778, was marked as Tampa Bay's hottest area for home buyers according to realtor.com. The main reason for the popularity is simple – it has stable neighborhoods with the kind of roomy yet moderately priced homes that are in increasingly tight supply these days. The area is pretty much “high and dry”, it has good school districts and resale values have been trending upward in this area higher than in most areas. It is family orientated and has lower crime than in some other areas of Pinellas, punctuated by the presence of the headquarters of the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office in this ZIP. The complete list appears in the June issue of Florida Realtor magazine. Kinda makes you proud, doesn't it?

GOOD TIMES

The Good Times ladies met on June 1st and the meeting was led by June Salvato. Future events were discussed for the fall and for the season when everyone returns.

Because of the lack of interest in the Golf Cart Poker Run it was decided that it would be cancelled until October when people come back. The Sunday Sundae events also will be resumed at a later date if there is enough interest.

Future Events that were discussed include the September Taco Night followed by the Newlywed Game. Couples will be asked to participate as contestants. Any couple interested should contact Barb Paul. 727-674-0137. The game was a lot of fun last year.

Other events being planned so far are a Craft Show, a Halloween Party with soup and sandwiches, a Rummage Sale, a Spaghetti Dinner, Hamburg Night, Horseraces and a St. Patrick's Day dinner. Watch the bulletin board and channel 96 for details of future events.

July Ladies Luncheon – July 12th at Abe's Restaurant. 12:30 P.M. Call Blanche Onley, hostess, at 727-584-7372.

August Ladies Luncheon – August 9th at Roosterfish at 12:30 P.M. Call Ramona Mae Clark, hostess, at 727-585-5141.

The next Good Times Ladies monthly meeting will be held in the Clubhouse on September 7th at 10:00 A.M. Enjoy your summer and we will get things rolling again in the fall. All ladies in the park are invited to join the Good Times to make future plans for activities in our park just by attending the monthly meetings. Hope to see you all there in September.

GREETINGS CARIBBEAN ISLES RESIDENTS!! SCOOP HERE!! SPEAKING OF SPORTS.....

July 2016.....

Once again, sports activities are on kind of a hiatus for the summer months. Pro hockey and pro basketball are finished and pro baseball and golf are the only TV presentations. I can't believe the newspapers and TV stations are already looking forward to pro football. They are also promoting the Olympics which should really be interesting considering the issues of the Zika virus, the polluted water conditions, and the decisions of some elite athletes to not participate. Stay tuned, film at 11.

We do have some terrific grandchildren news. Blanche and Dave Onley (unit 123) wrote to report that they are very proud of their granddaughter, Sara Shiyan Onley who is graduating from Windsor Locks High School in Connecticut with the highest honor of Valedictorian in the National Honor Society of Connecticut. She will be attending the University of Vermont with a major in Nursing. Congratulations to Sara and to Blanche and Dave. We wish Sara the best of luck in her career pursuits.

Here is an update to the charity we donated money to from our Wounded Warrior golf outing. The Wounded Warrior Abilities Ranch is sponsoring an Alive Ride 2016 on September 1, 2016. It's a 10 mile bike ride taking place in Pinellas Park. Ol' Scoop might try and rustle up some bike riders to get an update on how the charity is doing. We'll keep you informed. If you wish to view the charity and it's activities, go to www.woundedwarriorabilitiesranch.org/activities

ANSWER TO LAST MONTH'S WHERE IN THE WORLD IS SCOOP

Scoop is at the Daytona International Speedway in Daytona, Florida, site of NASCAR's Daytona 500 and the Independence Day Race.

THIS MONTH'S TRIVIA QUESTION

---

Connie Mack was one of the most prolific managers in major league baseball. His career in Philadelphia spanned two world wars, six Roosevelt presidential administrations and 50 years. He won 3,731 major league games, nearly 1,000 more than his nearest rival. He also lost 3,948 games, the most ever. What was Connie Mack's real name?

Making room

A farmer lived in a small house with his wife and six children. The lack of space was driving him crazy, and in desperation he sought advice from the local rabbi.

The rabbi listened sympathetically to his problem. “I can help you,” he said, “but you must do exactly as I say.” The farmer agreed.

“Do you own any animals?”

“Yes,” the man said. “I have a cow, two goats, and some chickens.”

“Good. When you get home, bring all your animals into the house with you.”

The farmer was puzzled, but he did as the rabbi advised. The next day he returned, complaining, “Rabbi, the animals are all over my house! What should I do?”

“Go home and take the chickens outside,” the rabbi said.

The man went home and took the chickens away. The following day he went back to the rabbi’s house. “The chickens are outside, but we still have two goats and a cow getting in the way.”

“Take the goats back outside,” the rabbi instructed.

The day after that, the man returned again. “The goats are out in the yard, but the cow is everywhere.”

The rabbi nodded. “Now take your cow back to your field.”

The farmer came back smiling the next day. “It’s amazing! The house is quiet and we have room to spare! Thank you, rabbi!”

Not so obvious

A math professor had a very rapid and hectic lecturing style. He often simply turned his back on the class and scribbled equations on the chalkboard while speaking so fast many students couldn’t keep up.

One day a student asked a question about one of the problems. The professor replied, “Well, that’s obvious!” But the student persisted. The prof listened thoughtfully, nodding, then went out into the hallway to think. He paced the hall for 10 minutes, then returned to his classroom.

“I’ve thought it over,” the professor said. “I was right: It is obvious.” And he went right back to his lecture.

Did You Know That July is Also...

Independent Retailer Month. Support and celebrate independent retailers across the country. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers in their communities, highlighting their positive social and economic impact local, nationally, and globally.

National Black Family Month. During this month, African-American families celebrate their connection, common heritage, and commitment to one another. Families around the nation seek to implement positive changes, connect through old traditions, create new ones, and participate in activities that can be continued throughout the year.

Parks and Recreation Month. Sponsored by the National Recreation and Park Association, the leading nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement of public parks, recreation and conservation. Discover wildlife and outdoor fun at your local park.

Captive Nations Week, July 7-13. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. Begun in 1953, it was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

Sports Cliché Week, July 10-16. It's time to celebrate—or possibly get rid of—such common sports clichés as “We’re taking it one game at a time,” “He gave 110 percent,” “Step it up,” and more.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 17-23. Sponsored by the American Association of Zoo Keepers to advance excellence in the animal keeping profession, foster effective communication beneficial to animal care, support deserving conservation projects, and promote the preservation of our natural resources and animal life.

World UFO Day, July 2. Look to the skies for evidence of alien visitors.

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrate the birthday of the United States of America.

Global Forgiveness Day, July 7. Begun in 1994 to help people around the world identify with their personal need to forgive and be forgiven.

Space Exploration Day, July 20. Neil Armstrong and Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin first walked on the moon on this day in 1969.

World Ranger Day, July 31. Sponsored by the International Ranger Federation to celebrate the work rangers do to protect wildlife.

Advice from the A-List

Celebrities aren't necessarily smarter than the rest of us, but their success speaks for itself. Here's what they have to say about achieving success in any endeavor:

- Leonardo DiCaprio, actor: "I've been very lucky to have achieved a lot of the things that I dreamt of achieving as a young man. But at the end of the day—and I truly believe this—it is not about achieving great wealth or success, because they don't bring happiness ultimately. They really don't. What matters is whether or not you've fulfilled the idea of having led an interesting life, whether you've contributed in some way to the world around you."
- Beyoncé, singer: "The reality is, sometimes you lose. And you're never too good to lose, you're never too big to lose, you're never too smart to lose; it happens. And it happens when it needs to happen. And you have to embrace those things."
- Justin Timberlake, singer: "I like being a beginner. I like the moment where I can look at everyone and say, 'I have no idea how to do this. Let's figure it out.'"
- Chris Pine, actor: "Fear runs our lives. It doesn't matter who you are. You have to understand your relationship with fear. Whether you're scared of getting into a relationship or taking the new job or a confrontation—you have to size fear up."
- Ellen DeGeneres, talk show host: "Never follow anyone else's path, unless you're in the woods and lost and you see a path. Then, by all means, follow that path."

Succeed with kindness—and these kindly tips

Nice people can finish first. The key is knowing how to use kindness to your advantage. Practice these habits until they become second nature:

- First, be kind to yourself. You'll find being nice to others easier if you build your self-respect with positive thoughts about your personality and achievements.
- Treat everyone with respect. Don't worry about who's on top. Treat everyone the way you want to be treated, regardless of their position or job title.
- Say no when necessary. You can't do everything. But when you do say no, be polite and positive.
- Plant seeds of kindness. Do something nice every day even when your kindness may not have an immediate payoff.
- Complete this statement: "If I were a better person I would ____." Then act on it.

Stories to tell your grandkids

Most children enjoy hearing their grandparents tell stories. You can captivate your grandchildren for hours at a time with some of these tales that are certain to pique their interest:

- How their grandparents met. Did you meet your future wife in grade school? Did you initially dislike the man you eventually married? Children are often curious about how people in their lives ended up together—and they'll like the joy they see in your eyes as you talk about your enduring love.
- The day their parents were born. Kids usually like hearing about their parents. Describe in detail what happened the day their father or mother was born: what time they came, what you were hearing, who helped out, and most important—how you felt.
- The day they were born. Do the same with a story about your grandchild's birth. What preparations did you make? What did you expect? When did you first see your grandchild? What did he or she look like?
- School days. School has changed a lot since you were a child. Talk about what your typical day was like. Describe your favorite teacher. Discuss challenges you had. Tell children what life in a classroom was like without computers, DVDs, and other modern technology they take for granted.
- First jobs. Talk about the restaurant where you washed dishes, or the shop where you stocked shelves. Tell children about your best and worst bosses, experiences helping customers, and what you learned from each position.
- Proudest achievements. Think back to the moments in your life when you felt proud. You'll teach your grandchildren to try hard, never quit, and take pride in their accomplishments.

The water cure

A man went to the doctor because he had no energy. After asking a few questions, the doctor wrote a series of prescriptions.

"Now," she told the patient. "I want you to take the red pill with two glasses of water in the morning, the yellow pill with two glasses of water at lunch, and the green pill will three glasses of water before you go to bed."

"Wow," the man sighed. "What do the pills do?"

"Nothing. You're not drinking enough water."

July CROSSWORD

A good sleep starts with good nutrition

If you have trouble getting a good night's sleep, try looking at your diet. A study by the Institute of Human Nutrition at Columbia University Medical Center in New York suggests that cutting back on sugar and fat, along with increasing the amount of fiber in your meals, may help people sleep better.

Researchers kept track of 26 men and women, and found that subjects fell asleep faster and slept more soundly on days when they ate a high-fiber diet. When their meals were high in saturated fat and sugar, they took longer to nod off and tended to wake more often at night.

The scientists note that more research is needed to establish a definite link between nutrition and good sleep. Still, eating better can't hurt.

Healthy lifestyles are rare in the U.S., study finds

A healthy lifestyle has four basic characteristics, according to physicians: moderate exercise, a healthy diet, not smoking, and maintaining the recommended body fat average. But only 2.7 percent of Americans fit those standards, researchers at Oregon State University say.

Looking at data on more than 4,700 people, the researchers determined that 16 percent had three of the characteristics, 37 percent had two, 34 percent had one, and 11 percent had zero. Other findings: Seventy-one percent of adults didn't smoke, but only 38 percent ate a healthy diet, 10 percent had a healthy body fat percentage, and 46 percent were physically active.

Do you read me? Ants send and receive via antennae

Ants may not be able to speak, but they can communicate effectively through signals they receive—and send—through their antennae, researchers at the University of Melbourne have discovered.

Ants use chemicals called CHCs, for cuticular hydrocarbons, to identify whether other ants are friendly or hostile. When CHCs are removed from an ant's antennae, it can no longer tell whether other ants are from its nest. The CHCs apparently enable ants to share basic information about their affiliation, something scientists couldn't confirm until now.

Antennae have long been known as vital to ants' behavior. In an experiment conducted more than 125 years ago, a scientist removed the antennae from four different groups of ants and placed them together. Instead of breaking out into fights, the ants interacted peacefully with each other. The role of CHCs clarifies how such communication works, scientists today say.
