CRAFT AND BAKE SALE UPDATE

Saturday, November 22nd, is our Craft and Bake sale. Half of the tables are already sold to Park residents, yippee. Please phone me, Deb Saylor at 727-421-4137 to reserve your display area which is one of our banquet tables in the Clubhouse. I will need to know if you need electricity or not for your table and what handmade or baked items you will have. We will be selling donated baked goods which are donated to us for our fund raising. Thank you in advance to those who will be donating baked goods and volunteering. There will be nothing except Craft items, no Commercial tables please, I reserve the right not to allow display of items such as Tupperware, Avon, and other companies of the like, your money would be refunded in that situation. I will attend all set-ups to help anyone needing assistance. Set-up will be Friday evening after pot luck and early, early, 6 am on Saturday morning. Tear down and clean-up must be completed by 2:30pm since we have Bingo folks coming in.

GREETINGS CARIBBEAN ISLES RESIDENTS!! Speaking of Sports

October 2014

As we prepare for the Northerners coming back and making the park whole again, I hope we can have more interesting stories to report. In the meantime, all of the babies born in June whom I reported on are doing well and are the subjects of all kinds of exaggerated stories of their prowess. It's fun to listen.

I do have a little golf story to share. Mr. & Mrs. Scoop travelled to the park in August to bring a load of items in preparation for their permanent move. While they were there, they engaged Al & Cheryl Meyer in a golf challenge. The result hinged on Mr. Smooth (Al) making an 8-footer for par on the 17th hole. He coolly sank the putt to win the match 2 & 1. For those not familiar with golf, that meant they were 2 holes ahead with only 1 hole left to play. After the match, the players moved to that pillar of culinary delights, the Niagara Tap, for a spot of lunch. As the saying goes, a good time was had by all.

Quotable Quote:

Johnny Manziel, a rookie quarterback with the Cleveland Browns football team and one of the most talked about sports celebrities recently, was fined by the league for making an obscene gesture at the opposing bench. A writer from the Detroit Free Press quoted "Since it is the exhibition season, maybe the fine should be lowered, sort of an early bird special".

Sign of the Times:

The Atlanta Falcon's football team is introducing alcohol-infused cupcakes at their food concession stands. Anyone for rum & chocolate, vodka & angel food??? Anyone??? Anyone??? Bueller???

Remember to let me know of stories and/or accomplishments by residents, friends, and/or family and we'll publish them here. Call me at 727-581-1334 or email me at nilerivers@gmail.com.

GOOD TIMES

DEB SAYLOR 727-421-4137 email: Dannee.Saylor@gmail.com

HAZY, LAZY, DAYS OF SUMMER.....

It looks as though the hot days are going to continue for a little bit longer, thankfully the hurricane season has been quiet for us.

My article was a bit difficult to follow last month since it started on page 16, then some more was on page 21, 13 and the rest of the article was on page 14. I think I have the problem corrected so this month's article should flow better. When I put the article together I am now going to put bold type to head up each new subject to make it easier to find the various topics when you refer back to the article. I received many compliments for implementing this feature so I will continue it.

There is another item I would like to cover before I move on with this month's offering. The Spaghetti Dinner. There has been much talk around the park about the fiasco. Many errors caused the perfect storm and I tried to save it during the event. There is no point in pointing out each little thing or the persons responsible that added to what turned out to be a huge mess. Thank you to everyone that hung in with us and stayed for the entire event. For the Pool Party we had on the 21st of September, which was free, we used the profit we had turned in to our Fund Raising Account. I will say, the place we ordered the food from, Nates Dogs, did not deliver the full volume of food to us the first time they delivered. For those who did get food you had the super tasting food which was delivered to include, spaghetti, meatballs, sauce, garlic knots, salad, and dessert. We were very late getting the scripts to the actors and actresses for the play, 45 minutes prior to the show, and I want to offer my personal Thank You to all those who stepped up to help save the day. Thank You also to all those who volunteered so we could have the dinner. Did you know that most gatherings we have: dinners, Bingo, Yoga, water aerobics, the library, the people you see setting up and cleaning up, the kitchen folks, are all VOLUNTEERS? Our volunteers are always happy to help and love their community and it seems they are the same ones to volunteer every time we have a need. It would be nice to see others help because not only could we offer more in the park but the ones who have been volunteering for 10-30 years could take a breather and enjoy our events.

FULL MOON

Did any of you get to see the brilliant, big, Super Moon Full Moons we have been having? I have a picture I am sharing here which I took of Lake Seminole of one of our full moons recently. I took some pictures from our pool area too but they were not as brilliant as the one from the park. Why not come down to the pool and meet with other like minded folks and watch the full Moons come up? Here is the schedule from the Farmers' Almanac for the rest of this year and the first few months of 2015, included is the name for each of the full moons: October 8th's Hunter Moon, November 6th's Beaver Moon, December 6th's Cold Moon, January 4th's Wolf Moon, February 3rd's Snow Moon, and April 4th's Pink Moon.

PUMPKIN CARVING CONTEST

Sunday, October 26th, we will hold a Pumpkin Carving Contest complete with Prizes. To participate you will need your own pumpkin and tools for carving. Please sign up as we are limited on the number of participants we can have due to clean table space, which we are providing.

The carving will be from 1 - 4 in the afternoon, voting of the pumpkins will be from 4:00 to 5:00, with 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes awarded by 5:15. After the carving contest there will be a dinner for just $5, which includes: Soup, Sandwich, and a Dessert. Please join us by calling Barb Paul for tickets at 727-674-0137.

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING AND PARADE UPDATE

The Tree Lighting will be just before the HOA Dinner on December 5th. The parade will be that Sunday, the 7th of December, since Good Times events are primarily held on Sundays. The reason we are having the Parade so early is so that we want to involve as many of our neighbors as possible since many folks leave town or have visitors during the weeks prior to the holiday season. Prior to and after the Parade we can have goodies to share at the Clubhouse. There will be more on this topic in the November article.

YOGA

I have many folks who would like to continue with Yoga and add weekly classes. Since the charge is $40 for a Yogi to come to us each week, whether we have 1 - 40 people attending, maybe it would be easier if we purchased a DVD for beginners. Nick our instructor would be happy to come show us how to safely enter and exit the poses to follow the DVD with us once we have the DVD. We could then have the classes based on the days and times which are best for those who attend. Please email me at Dannee.Saylor@gmail.com with your ideas. There are folks who want to start a quilt, can we put this together? What about another Fiesta? Let me know what ideas you have. If you would like to be a Host/Hostess of a gathering and the coordinator too, please let me know.

I hope everyone is having fun this first summer of Good Times events. All ladies are welcome to join our club so come on down on to the clubhouse at 10am on November 5th. Also please, everyone, we have elections soon after everyone gets back, think about throwing your hat in the race.

OUT AND ABOUT IN THE PARK

Our snowbirds are migrating back to the park. WELCOME!! Some of our regular activities are starting after being on 'Vacation' during the summer. Bingo started in September. Pot Luck starts this month. A sign-up sheet is on the board in the clubhouse. Don't forget to bring a dish to pass. Meat is provided by the HOA. Social time is 4:30; dinner at 5:00. Weekly golf starts on October 31st. please watch channel 96 for details or call Bruce Bradstreet at 810-923-0775 or 727-585-4959, Euchre is Thursday night at 7:00. Please watch channel 96 for a start date or call Carolin Gowland for details.

Water and Swimming Safety

From the Red Cross

A recent Red Cross survey found that eight out of ten Americans are planning water activities such as going to the beach, pool, water park or boating or fishing this summer. A third (32 percent) of all Americans plan to swim at a place without a lifeguard. The Red Cross has launched an anti-drowning campaign this summer that promotes swim lessons and safe swimming.

If a trip to the beach is part of someone's plans, the Red Cross has ten tips that will help beachgoers stay out of harm's way:

1. If someone plans to swim in the ocean, they should always check weather conditions before going in the water.
2. Swim only at a lifeguard protected beach, within the designated swimming area and listen to all lifeguard instructions.
3. Always swim with a buddy and always swim sober.
4. Young children and inexperienced swimmers should wear a Coast Guard-approved life jacket.
5. Everyone should enter the water feet first if they can't see the bottom or don't know how deep the water is.
6. Be aware of the danger of rip currents. If caught in one, swim parallel to the shore until out of the current. When free, turn and swim toward shore. If unable to swim to the shore, call out for help, float or tread water until free of the rip current and then head toward shore.
7. Limit the amount of direct sunlight received between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., and wear a broad-spectrum sunscreen with a protection factor of at least 15. Reapply often.
8. Stay hydrated. Drink plenty of water regularly, even if not thirsty. Avoid drinks with alcohol or caffeine in them.
9. Protect the eyes by wearing sunglasses that will absorb 100 percent of UV sunlight.
10. Wear beach shoes. The sand is hot and can burn someone's feet and glass and other sharp objects can cut them.

More water safety information is available at redcross.org.

10 Benefits of Growing An Herb Garden

By Elissa Rodrigues, Monthly Media Staff Writer

My Grandmother was an excellent gardener. You name it, she could grow it - from gorgeous roses (several varieties) to blueberries, tomatoes, peppers, zucchini, she even had an apple tree! Unfortunately, unlike her, my thumb happens to be more brown than green. This Spring, however, I'm giving it another try. I'm a Realist, so instead of growing an entire salad, I'm starting with an herb garden.

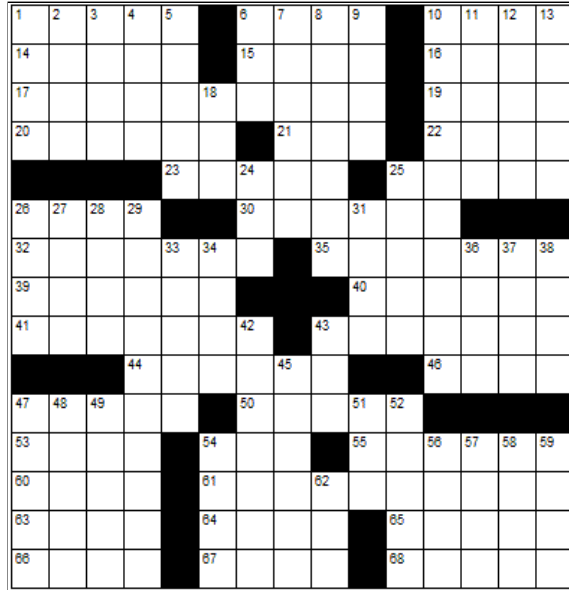

Here are 10 benefits that may convince you to do the same!

1. Fresh herbs are always available. This may seem obvious, but you'll be surprised how creative you'll get with everyday vegetables, dips and dishes when you have fresh ingredients at your fingertips.
2. It's good for you. Adding fresh herbs boots vitamins and nutrients to your diet, and don't forget that gardening is a great calorie-burner with all that digging, bending and stretching. Talk about a double-benefit!
3. Save money. Fresh herbs can be expensive and wasteful when you buy a whole bundle, and only use a few snips for a recipe. Not to mention, stores may not always have the variety you're looking for, and specialty stores mean higher prices.
4. Educational. Growing an herb garden is a learning experience for adults and children, and kids will love to help out! From a new gardening technique to trying out new recipes, you'll be surprised how much you'll learn.
5. No boring dinners. Add a few new herbs to chicken, fish, potatoes, vegetables - or your regular party dip, and it goes from bland to wow, and you can experiment with new combinations nightly.
6. Relieve stress. Tending to or just visiting an herb garden - and breathing in all that aroma - can do wonders for stress levels. So make yourself a cup of (fresh) mint tea, and relax!
7. Share the wealth. Having your own herb garden means you'll have more than enough, so be a good neighbor (and friend), and share your bounty with others! Tie on a recipe to a fresh bunch, or jar your own dried herbs and voila you've got the perfect hostess gift.
8. Exotic variety. There are 30 varieties of basil. Who knew? Your regular grocer only carries the most common sweet basil. Choose your own exotic variety, whether it's dark opal basil, cinnamon basil, anise basil, Italian basil, or globe basil to name a few.
9. Curb appeal. Adding an herb garden can give your landscape real curb appeal - it's lush and well tended-to. If you don't have room for a full herb garden, just add them to shrubs. They blend in beautifully.
10. Good, clean fun. Dirt aside, it'll brighten your day to watch your fresh garden grow, and it may inspire you to branch out to fruits or vegetables. With all those herbs, you know you'll have the salad dressing covered!

Macs taking over? Maybe not yet

Are you a Windows person or a Mac user? Conventional wisdom says that Windows computers belong in business environments, while the Mac is favored by educators, creative artists, and the elite. But that may be changing, according to data from VMware and reported on the InformationWeek website.

A survey of more than 370 IT professionals found that 71 percent of organizations support Macs, not exclusively Windows computers. Employee preference is the dominant reason, cited by 73 percent of the survey participants. The next most common reason was the need for applications that run only on Mac's OS X platform, named by 41 percent. The "Bring Your Own Device" movement surge in workplaces is also a major factor.

IT teams aren't necessarily happy about all those Macs, however. Forty percent of respondents said they find Macs more difficult to support. In any event, Macs seem unlikely to outnumber Windows-based computers anytime soon, since such machines still dominate over 90 percent of the market.

Forget the car—who gets the dog?

Divorces can turn into unpleasant battles over custody of children, possessions—and even pets. A survey of 1,600 members of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers found that pet custody cases have grown significantly since 2001. One notable case involves actors Antonio Banderas and Melanie Griffith, who are trying to work out custody of their three dogs as well as their 18-year-old daughter. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Americans own about 218 million pets (not including fish). In fact, we have about 70 million dogs and 74 million cats, but only about 74 million kids.
