Christmas Tea

Our annual Christmas Tea at Crosswinds MPH was a great success. This year our theme was "A Royal Tea" and we couldn't have asked for better participation from the ladies in the park. They all came dressed in their Royal attire with their special hats and fascinators and enjoyed tea and scones with all the trimmings followed by petit fours.

This tea is not only a social afternoon but allows us to give to the less fortunate in the surrounding area. The ladies all contributed a pair of pajamas and a book for a child in need and their donations will be distributed by Northside Baptist Church. As you can see in the pictures we were surprised and honored with a visit from a very special guest this year.

Thank you to all the ladies who attended and all the people who helped make this day so special.

Joke:

I am a Seenager. (Senior teenager)
I have everything that I wanted as a teenager, only 55 years later.
I dont have to go to school or work.
I get an allowance every month.
I have my own pad.
I dont have a curfew.
I have a drivers license and my own car.
I have ID that gets me into bars and the whisky store.
The people I hang around with are not scared of getting pregnant.
And I dont have acne.
Life is great.

Also, you will feel much more intelligent after reading this.

Brains of older people are slow because they know so much. People do not decline mentally with age, it just takes them longer to recall facts because they have more information in their brains, scientists believe.

Much like a computer struggles as the hard drive gets full, so too, do humans take longer to access information when their brains are full.

Researchers say this slowing down process is not the same as cognitive decline. The human brain works slower in old age, said Dr. Michael Ramscar, but only because we have stored more information over time. The brains of older people do not get weak. On the contrary, they simply know more.

Also, older people often go to another room to get something and when they get there, they stand there wondering what they came for. It is NOT a memory problem; it is nature's way of making older people do more exercise.

SO THERE!!

I have more friends I should send this to, but right now I can't remember their names. So, please forward this to your friends; they may be my friends, too.

Information from Crafts Class:

Jack Providenti is offering a free painting demonstration Febr., 3rd 2016 at 1pm at our crafts class. Learn the art of impressionist painting techniques to complete a painting in 2 hours. There will be something to learn for all levels. Beginners are welcome.

The regular craft class is taking place at the same time. Thanks Nancy

WRITING YOUR FAMILY STORIES

A Creative Writing Class for Seniors

When my mother died I realized that my sorrow was not just at the loss of a wonderful person but that so much knowledge was gone and could never be replaced. Why hadn't I written her stories down? Why hadn't she written her stories?

A writing workshop will help you collect and preserve interesting family anecdotes and stories whether you wish to publish them or merely pass them on to your children and grandchildren. Memories can make you laugh or make you cry but they can also slip away and be lost forever. Let Cora Taylor help you write YOUR stories.

The class would consist of 1½ to 2 hour workshop sessions twice a week to be held in Crosswinds Park during the month of February. Fee would be $5 per person per session.

If you are interested in participating or finding out more about this writing class, please contact Cora Taylor at (727) 547-0533.

ABOUT CORA TAYLOR:

Cora Taylor has taught Creative Writing classes at Universities and Colleges in Canada and the U.S. She is the author of 21 books and has been published in Canada, Europe and Japan. These include children's books, Y.A. novels, a biography and one picture book. Her short stories and articles have appeared in newspapers and magazines and been aired on CBC radio. Two of her stage musicals have seen production. She has been a speaker at many Conferences in North America and Australia. Winner of the Canada Council Award (Now the Governor General's Award), The Vicky Metcalf Award, The Canadian Library Association Award and the White Raven Award (Europe), Cora has been writing and teaching Creative Writing since 1965.
