We Brought Hawaii To Our Park

The Hawaiian Luau Day at Crosswinds was a great success. Our day began with a pancake breakfast donated by the shuffleboard group. Then at 4pm our luau began and three hundred park residents and guests enjoyed a pulled pork supper and danced outside to our special DJ Joey Royal. Everybody got into the island theme by dressing in costumes and wearing the traditional leis. A hula dancer put on a wonderful show of the Hawaiian and Tahitian dances with some crowd participation and even Elvis showed up to sing a couple of songs from his Hawaii Album. The party lasted well into the evening and was a major hit with all who attended.

This event was organized by the Special Events Committee and with the help of many volunteers we had a day to remember.

May Day, May 1. A traditional spring holiday celebrated by many cultures, with roots in pre-Christian times.

Cinco de Mayo, May 5. Celebrated in the United States and Mexico, this date commemorates the Mexican army's victory over French forces at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862.

Mother's Day, May 10. Send a card, give mom a call, or take her out to dinner (or all three) to show her how much she means to you.

International Nurses Day, May 12. Celebrated on the birthday of Florence Nightingale, who is remembered for her undying commitment to the cause of health care, this is a day to applaud the nursing community for its service in promoting health.

Memorial Day, May 25. Remember those men and women who gave their lives in the service of the country.

Not the end of the world

In 1833, Abraham Lincoln witnessed a meteor shower that rained shooting stars from the sky. At the time, people throughout North America were sure that the meteors signaled the end of the world. The young Lincoln used the memory to bring home a point decades later.

During a meeting with a large delegation of bank presidents during the darkest days of the Civil War, one of the bank presidents asked Lincoln if his confidence in the survival of the Union was waning even a little bit.

Lincoln answered: "When I was a young man in Illinois, I boarded for a time with a deacon of the Presbyterian church. One night I was roused from my sleep by a rap at the door and I heard the deacon's voice exclaiming, 'Arise, Abraham, the day of judgment has come.' I sprang from my bed and rushed to the window and saw the stars falling in great showers.

"But looking back ... I saw all the grand old constellations with which I was so well acquainted, fixed and true in their places. Gentlemen, the world did not come to an end then, nor will the Union now."

Though no one can go back and make a brand new start, anyone can start from now and make a brand new ending.

—Carl Bard
