Knock, knock who is there? Not a health agent.

Michael Crofts
FL Licensed Independent
Health Insurance Agent

Medicare has very strict rules prohibiting the enrollment into most products via door-to-door sales. Still many seniors are experiencing unsolicited calls and visitors. Making a decision about your health coverage is important and should be done every year, but not by someone who shows up on your doorstep or is cold calling you. At Best Plan Choice, we encourage you to find out how good a full-service health agency can be for you. We work directly with individuals, groups and communities to bring our services to you, at your request.

During the annual enrollment season for Medicare health coverage (Oct 15-Dec 7) we host seminars with free coffee and dessert (see our enclosed insert or call 855-BOOMER65). Throughout the year, we are available to present every available plan, assist you with customer service issues or become your agent if you need one.

Are you debating if you need Medicare Part B? We can show you how to save money on your Part B premium each month. Do you need financial assistance? We can help you apply for Medicaid or extra help for the high pharmacy costs you may have. Is your spouse still working to provide health insurance for you? We may have options which will start their retirement sooner. We will provide a complete needs analysis during a personalized appointment so you can make the best plan choice for you. As always, our services are without charge or cost to you. Call us at Best Plan Choice, where Clients become Friends, and Friends become Clients!

Busy as a bee—even when the bees are sick

Honeybees are hard workers—even when they're sick. The (e)Science News website reports that researchers using radar technology have learned that honeybees continue to seek and collect honey for their hives even when they're suffering from infections or viruses.

The scientists mounted tiny, lightweight transponders to bees' thoraxes, enabling them to track individual bees using a radar signal. Studying the flight paths of 78 bees, the researchers found that although the sick bees didn't fly as far or as long as their healthy counterparts, they continued their search, suggesting that bees are hardwired to seek and procure honey even when they're ill.

Copper bracelet suggests vast ancient trade network

An ancient copper band unearthed with cremated human remains in Georgia suggests that Native Americans may have traded across greater distances than previously was thought, according to the EurekAlert website. The band, a little wider than a bracelet, came from the Great Lakes region some 1,500 miles away. Scientists were able to determine the band's origin because copper sources have a unique chemical makeup.

The fact that the Native Americans were cremated is also significant, because cremation was unknown in the Southeast United States during the time period the bracelet dates from—some 3,500 years ago—but was commonly practiced in the Great Lakes region and other northern regions. This suggests that our ancient ancestors may have had connections across large distances, allowing for wide trading networks across North America.

The question is one of judgment. For the distinguishing element of science is not intelligence but judgment. Or perhaps it is simply luck.

—John M. Barry

Take a cold shower—for better health

Showers keep you clean, but a cold shower can be good for your health. An article on the Success website spells out the benefits of taking cold showers:

- Immunity. Scientists believe there's a correlation between cold showers and increased production of an amino acid called glutathione, which boosts the immune system, gets rid of toxins, and eases stress.
- Better skin health. A hot shower removes important oils from the skin, making it dry and itchy. Cold showers reduce skin inflammation. They also prevent your hair from becoming brittle.
- Muscle recovery. There's a reason why athletes soak in ice baths after a tough game. The cold water helps speed their recovery time and relieve soreness quicker.
- Better moods. Cold showers may prevent depression, according to researchers at Virginia Commonwealth University. Decreasing the temperature of your water and then spending two or three minutes under cold water sends a lot of electrical impulses from the nerves in your skin up to your brain, which could have an anti-depressive effect.

Climate change strategy a mixed bag

Scientists scrambling for a solution to the problems caused by climate change have come up with an intriguing idea: shooting tiny particles high into the atmosphere to scatter the light of the sun.

The Science magazine website reports that sulfur dioxide gas can cool down temperatures by reacting to water vapor and forming droplets that scatter sunlight. It happens during major volcanic eruptions, such as the eruption of Mount Pinatubo in the Philippines in 1991 and the eruption of El Chichon in Mexico in 1982.

Scientists have used computer modeling to project the effect of injecting light-scattering aerosols into the stratosphere.

Unfortunately, the probable results appear mixed. Although the model predicted that corn harvests would increase 6.3 percent due to reduced heat, other crop yields would fall because of diminished sunlight, and the strategy would likely have no effect on yields for crops like soybeans, rice, and wheat. Scientists continue to study the theory in hopes of finding a viable approach to managing climate change.

Dining out by age groups

How much do you spend dining out every month? Acosta and Technomic’s “The Why? Behind The Dine™” survey looked at trends among different demographics. Here’s what it found:

- Diners with children 17 and under spend an average of $544 on food a month, with 38 percent spent on food prepared outside the home.
- Generation Z diners ages 18–21 spend $360, 29 percent on food from outside.
- Millennials, ages 22–36, spend $513, of which 40 percent is prepared outside the home.
- Gen X diners, ages 37–52, spend $469, with 32 percent spent on food from outside.

Why we do—and don’t—go to church

Americans go to church for many reasons—and some avoid church for reasons of their own. The Pew Research Center looked into what draws people to religious services and what keeps them away. Here’s what it found:

Reasons for going to church

To become closer to God	81 percent
To give children a moral foundation	69 percent
To be a better person	68 percent
For comfort in times of grief or sorrow	66 percent
Reasons for rarely or never attending services
Practice faith in other ways	37 percent
No religious belief	28 percent
No church/religion they like	23 percent

A heartfelt request

Emma came home from work one Tuesday evening with no idea how her life was about to change. Mixed in with her daily mail was a handwritten note addressed simply to “neighbor.” The handwriting on the envelope and the note inside was in a shaky hand that reminded Emma of her late grandmother’s penmanship.

The return address on the envelope was for a house across the street that Emma believed to be vacant. The curtains were always closed and in the few years since Emma and her family moved into the neighborhood, they never saw anyone enter or leave the house across the street.

The note inside the envelope read:

Dear neighbor,

I see you with your family and you seem like a very nice person. I was wondering if we could be friends. I am 93 years old and no longer have any family. I am very lonely.

The note was signed by a woman named Allison.

In just a few lines Emma was reduced to tears. She thought of her own grandmother, who she’d just buried a few months ago, and how the loss of her passing was still present. Then she thought about how much loneliness and courage it would take for an elderly person to reach out to a complete stranger, hoping to make a connection.

The next day, after Emma sent her kids off to school, she walked over to Allison’s house and knocked on the door. She was greeted by a petite older woman with dazzling blue eyes. For the next few hours they got to know a little about each other over a pot of coffee and warm banana bread. Over the next few years Allison became a surrogate grandmother to Emma and her family.

As we embark upon this festive season of feasting and holiday observances, let us remember that the person in the next cubicle, living down the hall or across the street may be left out of these good times. Reach out in the spirit of friendship and inclusion to warm the heart of a lonely person though a selfless act of kindness.

Fortunately, somewhere between chance and mystery lies imagination, the only thing that protects our freedom, despite the fact that people keep trying to reduce it or kill it off altogether.

—Luis Buñuel
