WELCOME ALL OUR NEWEST RESIDENTS

The Crystal Lake Home Owner's Association wishes to welcome you to your new home. We trust you will enjoy your living experiences here as much as we do.

MONTHLY HOA MEETING – November 7 @ 7:00 p.m.

Please join us the first Monday of every month when we hold our HOA meetings.

This is a great time for you to find out what's being planned for your entertainment, discuss issues in the park, let us know about any concerns for the Board to take to Management or get answers from past concerns or just meet with your friends and neighbors. We have some new and exciting plans in the making. We'd love to see you there.

BINGO & SNACK BAR – SPONSORED BY YOUR HOA

People tell me all the time that this is one of the highlights of their week... it's certainly one of mine.

We want you to bring your appetite to the clubhouse on Friday nights and plan to have dinner at the snack bar starting at 6:30 p.m. There's always a good assortment of chips and sodas that are included with your burger or dog or buy them separately. It's a great way to have dinner for $3.00 or less on a Friday night.

Then Bingo starts at 7p.m. with lots of fun and a great way to bring home some extra cash.

If you haven't played in a while, you're in for a surprise. It just gets better and better all the time. If you haven't played it before, don't worry... we love helping you along. For many of us, there's no better way to spend our Friday nights. We hope you'll be there to join in the fun next Friday night.

WE HAVE A WINNER

On September 24 at 7:30 a.m. a race was run called The Christian Sunrise Run.

It was held at Vinoy Park in St. Petersburg.

It was a 5K race - (3.1 miles)

Our friend and neighbor, Marlene Lloyd ran this race with approximately 400 other people and came in 2nd place in her class. Her time was 57 minutes.

Money was raised for Christian charities to provide food and clothing to people in need.

Back in May of this year there was another race: The Hippy-Dash Race.

All proceeds were to benefit Goodwill's programs for adults with disabilities

This race was also a 5K race (3.1 miles)

Approximately 300 people ran in this race.

Marlene proudly made this run on her 70th birthday and won 1st place in her class.

She ran both races with other members of her church, The Bridge Church. Way to go, Marlene!

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

HAVE YOU VOTED YET? Election Day is Tuesday the 8th.

If you have received your ballot through the mail, have you mailed it back yet? If you are going to the polls, do you know where your polling place is? Ours is:

Park Place Wesleyan Church
4400 70 Ave. Pinellas Park.

Mapquest Directions are to:

Go South (left) on 49th Street and make a left onto 70th Ave.

The Church will be on your right.

This is a very important year! And time is running out to make a difference.

There is no such thing as a vote that doesn't matter and if you don't vote you can't complain if things don't turn out the way you would want.

Hope is on the ballot and fear is on the ballot, too. You have a voice and it has to be heard.

YOU DECIDE – that's your choice

EDUCATE – that your responsibility

VOTE – that's your power

CONGRATULATIONS TO BOB DYLAN

The 2016 Nobel Prize for Literature goes to Bob Dylan. If you grew up listening to Dylan's music, or still do, you can probably understand why he could win such an award.

He won for inventing ways to make songs do what they hadn't done before. He usually wrote songs about religion and protesting.

Spend some times listening to some of his songs today and take a trip back in time. Enjoy.

Why steel-cut oats are great for blood sugar control

If you're one of those people who loves sharing brilliant-sounding nutrition tidbits, even if no else wants to hear them, here's the information you need...

Oats contain a special kind of fiber called beta-glucan. This fiber is a ninja for lowering blood sugar levels AND cholesterol levels. So regularly eating steel-cut oats helps prevent type 2 diabetes and heart disease if you don't have them, and helps you reverse them if you do.

A blood-sugar-lowering edge over two of its siblings

Steel-cut oats have a blood-sugar-lowering edge over old-fashioned or quick oats. It has to do with processing and size. Here's the story...

Old-fashioned oats are the whole oats that have been steamed and rolled so they're partially cooked. Partial cooking means quicker digestion and quicker delivery of sugar into your bloodstream. Quick oats go through the same process as old-fashioned, but they're cut into very small pieces before rolling. So they deliver sugar to your bloodstream even faster.

But steel-cut oats are the whole oats just thinly sliced. No steaming. No rolling. So they are bigger uncooked pieces than their siblings. Bigger pieces mean slower digestion and slower sugar delivery. Sweet.

By the way, guess what else the ninja fiber does?

Beta-glucan markedly enhances your immune response to bacterial infection. Not only does it help certain immune cells get to the infection site more quickly, but it also boosts their ability to wipe out the bacteria they find.

Who would have ever thought a mild-mannered Clark Kent bowl of steel-cut oats was actually Superman? And it tastes like pie! Can it get any better than this?

Source: Taken from www.Fullplateliving.org

QUOTES

- Find people that will make you better. Michelle Obama
- If you get good ratings, they'll cover you even if you have nothing to say. Donald Trump
- We build too many walls and not enough bridges. Isaac Newton
- Instead of building walls, we should be building bridges. Vicente Fox
- Positive anything is better than negative nothing. Elbert Hubbard
- It is better to keep your mouth closed and let people think you are a fool than to open it and remove all doubt. Mark Twain

A troubling trend: Americans overdoing antibiotics

Antibiotics are a boon to doctors and their patients, but they pose dangers if they're overused. That makes this news especially concerning: A Texas study reported on the UPI website found that about one in 20 adults have stockpiled supplies of antibiotics in their homes and use them without a physician's advice.

The study of 400 adults in the Houston area found that 14 percent of adults have a stash of antibiotic medications in their home, and 5 percent have used them without a doctor's guidance in the past year. The medications come from a variety of sources: 40 percent came from a store or pharmacy, 24 percent were purchased outside the United States, 20 percent came from family or friends, and 12 percent were left over from past prescriptions.

In 4 percent of cases, the drugs obtained without a prescription were intended for use on animals, not humans.

Millennials worry about debt

Millennials aren't the carefree kids you might think they are. A FICO survey found that they're concerned about debt—with good reason. According to FICO's online survey of approximately 1,000 Americans over 17, 32 percent of millennials owe $20,000 or more in student loans, and 45 percent owe at least $7,000 on car loans.

In all, 37 percent of millennials ages 25-34 say they're concerned about their level of debt, and 33 percent would like assistance in managing their debt. For example, 65 percent would like to receive an email alert when their student loan payments are overdue by less than 90 days, and 35 percent want to be notified by app when their mortgage payments are less than 90 days late (but they'd prefer a phone call if their payments are more than 90 days overdue).

These tiny robots may save your life

The newest medical robots look and move like bacteria, and they can deliver medications to specific locations within the human body and perform intricate surgeries like clearing clogged arteries.

According to the Science Daily website, a team of scientists is working to develop a selection of biological robots that are soft, flexible, and move through bodies under the control of an electromagnetic field. Once they reach their destination, they're heated to change shape, mimicking—for example—the bacterium that causes African trypanosomiasis, or sleeping sickness. Although still in development, these microrobots could revolutionize the way patients are treated in the not-so-distant future.

Pay attention to these factors to prevent stroke

Stroke is a leading cause of disability and death around the world. The good news is that it's highly preventable. Scientists and physicians believe that 90 percent of all strokes are caused by 10 risk factors, according to the Philadelphia Inquirer website. These factors can be controlled, cutting one's chances of stroke by these percentages:

- | | |
|-----------------------|------------|
| • High blood pressure | 48 percent |
| • Physical inactivity | 36 percent |
| • Lipids (blood fats) | 27 percent |
| • Poor diet | 23 percent |
| • Obesity | 19 percent |
| • Smoking | 12 percent |
| • Diabetes | 4 percent |
| • Alcohol use | 6 percent |
| • Stress | 6 percent |

Keep your fireplace safe this winter

The winter months are perfect for snuggling up in front of a nice cozy fire. Just make sure your fireplace doesn't pose a hazard to your home with these tips from the Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association:

- Clear the area around the fireplace and chimney. Debris too close to your fireplace can ignite.
- Always use a fireplace screen.
- Don't overload your fireplace with logs.
- Don't try to burn your Christmas tree or other refuse in your fireplace.
- Always keep a fire extinguisher nearby.
- Equip your home with smoke detectors and check your batteries on a regular basis.
- Place your logs on a grate at the rear of your fireplace.
- Never leave the fire unattended. Make sure the fire is fully extinguished before you go to bed.
- Keep fireplace wood stacked, covered and out of doors—away from the house and off the ground.
- Have your fireplace and flue inspected and cleaned annually by a certified chimney sweep.

If you're not prepared to be wrong, you'll never come up with anything original.

A lesson in determination

British runner Derek Redmond was one of the favorites for a gold medal in the 400-meter spring at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. But halfway through the race, Redmond—in the lead—collapsed on the track with a hamstring injury.

Medical staff rushed to help him, but Redmond waved them away. He somehow got to his feet and started staggering down the track. With thousands watching, and officials unsure of what to do, Redmond's father ran out to him.

“You don't have to do this, son,” he said.

“Yes, I do,” Redmond replied.

His father helped Redmond down the track, tears streaming down both their faces, waving away anyone who tried to stop them.

The crowd roared when Redmond finally crossed the finish line. The feat is considered by many to be the defining moment of the Barcelona Olympics.

Keep learning at any age

As you and your family members age, you may find you have more difficulty remembering things. Try to help you stay on top of the knowledge game and keep you learning as you age:

- Visualize. Mentally rehearse an event, conversation or activity before it actually happens. This visualization helps eliminate the stress you may feel over the unknown. Plus, when you're more relaxed, you're better able to learn.
- Take a break and exercise. If you're trying to remember information you're reading, take frequent breaks. Don't just sit around, though. Engage in some kind of activity to keep your mind alert and your blood flowing.
- Focus on concentrating. Distractions are the bane of any learning attempt. If you're attending a class or lecture, sit near the instructor and maintain eye contact with him or her. Try not to fidget; simply relax into the session and let your focused attention do the job.
- Say it out loud. Read aloud the material you're trying to learn and repeat out loud the facts you want to retain. This way, both your mind and your ears are taking in information.
- Tame frustration. If you grow frustrated over material you're trying to learn, remind yourself that getting emotional will only hamper your ability to retain information. If you have to, step back and take a long break.

Get more creativity with a clear focus

Creativity and innovation aren't always accidental. A consistent focus will produce better results, so you don't have to wait for lightning to strike. Try these techniques to spur your imagination as you work:

- Start your day with a purpose. Instead of rushing out the door without a plan, spend a few minutes in the morning thinking about what you want to accomplish that day. Do this before checking your cell phone or email. You'll be less likely to get distracted by other demands.
- Shake up your routine. Get out of your comfort zone so you aren't always surrounded by what's familiar. Get up earlier than normal, take a new route to work, do your tasks in a different order, try something new and exciting—anything to shake your mind free of its preconceptions and look at your work in a different light.
- Be mindful. Don't go on autopilot. Pay attention to everything around you—the people you work with, the tasks you work on, the environment you work in, and so forth. The more aware you are of what's going on, the more likely you'll see a new connection or find an idea where you least expect it.

Don't be afraid to ask questions

Alyssa Mastro Monaco was deputy chief of staff in the Obama White House until 2014. She told a radio station an important lesson she learned early on about the importance of asking questions:

During an Oval Office meeting on the economic crisis, she was close to panic, worried that the president would ask her a question about issues she knew nothing about, such as quantitative easing. She began quickly writing down key words and phrases to look up later.

Economic adviser Larry Summers noticed and tapped her on the shoulder. "Come to my office later," he said.

Worried that Summers was mad at her, Mastro Monaco went to his office after the meeting. Summers asked about her list.

When she told him what she'd written down and why, Summers said, "I'll tell you anything you need to know." He proceeded to give her a quick lesson on economics. She left the office feeling relieved—and better informed than before. Nowadays she knows that admitting you don't know something is better informed than pretending you do—and she never thinks asking for information is stupid.
