This is just a reminder that Valet Living picks up garbage Mondays and Thursdays. If either day falls on a holiday, the next regular day will be the pick up day. You must have your trash can out by 8:00 a.m. They pick up garbage only, no trash. The garbage can not be loose. It needs to be tied in a trash bag. If you have boxes or other trash you will need to take it to the dumpster.

Our maintenance man Joe, will pick up your yard debris on Thursdays or Fridays. It must be bundled and weigh no more than 20 pounds.

If your garbage did not get picked up please call Valet Living at 1-877-574-2587

If you're reading this..... Congratulations, you're alive. If that's not something to smile about, then I don't know what is.

I wish I had something I could report or functions to promise, but we are all in this together and as you know, we have to follow the rules.

I will try to keep everyone posted when we start back up and we will hopefully be having fun this summer. I'll have an open mind on things to do. The trouble with having an open mind, of course, is that people will insist on coming along and try to put things in it! "Good luck"

Thank You and stay safe..

Michael Higgins, (President DYCA)

DOWN YONDER HOA

Colleen McNeill-President
Maura Amrol-Secretary

Times have certainly been tough. Much more so than I can ever recall. Our new “NORM” is a hard fact and not easily accepted, but we all continue to try to adjust.

With no “near future” in sight to resume meetings, it has been very difficult to maintain a relationship with residents. We hear and see things on Facebook, and try to communicate them to the office and ELS. There is an HOA page on FB that was initiated to inform those who use Facebook, of on goings with the HOA. As with everything, there are very few on goings to post.

Please feel free to PRIVATE message any of the HOA board members with concerns or hopes. We are continuing to work behind the scenes as much as possible, and will continue to do so until we can resume meetings.

In closing, if you can be anything, BE PATIENT, BE KIND, BE RESPECTFUL to and of others. Kindness goes a long way.

Only one of our fellow residents have had an illness lately. Betty Lutz had very bad shoulder in July. She is doing fair, very painful. Therapy will start soon if is hasn't already.. No one else is sick . Good luck Betty as far as I know. Please let me know if you hear anything. I don't get out much. Be safe and well dear friends. Happy 4th

Take care and be safe.

July Days

National Postal Workers Day, July 1. Many famous people have worked as postal employees, including presidents Abraham Lincoln, William McKinley, and Harry S. Truman, along with entertainers like Bing Crosby, Walt Disney, and Rock Hudson.

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrate the date that the 13 colonies announced their independence from Great Britain.

Bastille Day, July 14. The anniversary of storming of the Bastille, a fortress-prison in Paris, on July 14, 1789—a turning point of the French Revolution.

National Hot Dog Day, July 17. Whatever you put on your dog, enjoy one today.

International Self-Care Day, July 24. Self-care refers to activities and practices that we can engage in on a regular basis to reduce stress and maintain and enhance our short- and long-term health and well-being.

Independence Day Facts

Here are some fun facts to share with your family and friends on the Fourth of July while waiting for the hot dogs to cook on the grill:

- Three presidents died on July 4: Thomas Jefferson and John Adams in 1826, and James Monroe, in 1831. Calvin Coolidge was the only president born on July 4, in 1872.
- The Massachusetts General Court was the first state legislature to recognize July Fourth as a state celebration, in 1781.
- The first recorded use of the name “Independence Day” occurred in 1791.
- The U.S. Congress established Independence Day as an unpaid holiday for federal employees in 1870. It became a federal paid holiday in 1931.

DID YOU KNOW?

The average temperature in July just about everywhere in the United States is above 70°F?

It would only take one hour to drive to space?

Children of identical twins are genetically siblings, not cousins.

July Monthly

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Of the approximately 1 million eye injuries in the United States each year, health experts say that 90% are preventable. The leading causes of eye injury are sports accidents, fireworks, yard and workshop debris, and household chemicals. Protect your eyes this month and all year round.

Independent Retailer Month. Now more than ever, independent retailers need your support to survive. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop local and celebrate indie retailers, creating more sustainable cities, towns, and communities.

National Baked Beans Month. July is National Baked Beans Month, the perfect time to enjoy one of America’s favorite side dishes. Beans, such as kidney beans, pinto beans, navy beans, and black beans are naturally low in total fat, contain no saturated fat or cholesterol, and provide important nutrients such as fiber, protein, calcium, iron, folic acid, and potassium.

World Watercolor Month. World Watercolor Month is an annual global charitable event featuring the ultimate challenge of 31 watercolors in 31 days. Artists around the globe come together to paint the world with beautiful watercolors and help raise awareness for arts education to get art supplies for kids who need them via The Dreaming Zebra Foundation.

Weekly

National Therapeutic Recreation Week, July 5–11. Established by the National Therapeutic Recreation Society, the week is intended to raise awareness of therapeutic recreation programs and services that could improve the health and well-being of individuals with physical, mental, and emotional disabilities.

Operation Safe Driver Week, July 14–20. Operation Safe Driver Week aims to help improve the behavior of all drivers operating in an unsafe manner—either in or around commercial motor vehicles—through educational and traffic enforcement strategies to address individuals exhibiting high-risk driving behaviors.

National Moth Week, July 18–26. National Moth Week celebrates the beauty, life cycles, and habitats of moths. “Moth-ers” of all ages and abilities are encouraged to learn about, observe, and document moths in their backyards, parks, and neighborhoods.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 19–25. The National Zoo Keeper Week Program exists to provide members of the American Association of Zoo Keepers with the tools and capabilities to recognize their peers and promote the animal care profession during National Zoo Keeper Week and throughout the year.

The necktie

Jack, a recent college graduate living with his parents, woke up late on the day of his first big job interview. Frantically he threw on a suit. “Oh, no!” he thought. “My tie!”

Jack had never learned how to tie a necktie. His parents were already at work, so the house was empty and there was no one to help him. He grabbed a necktie at random and ran out the door.

“Excuse me, sir,” he said to a crossing guard at the corner of his street. “I have an important job interview and I have no idea how to tie a necktie. Can you please help me?”

“Sure,” said the guard. “Just lie down on this bench.”

Jack thought that was odd, but if someone was going to help him he wasn’t going to ask any questions. After the crossing guard finished and the tie looked good, however, Jack just had to ask why he had to lie down.

“Well, in my previous job I learned how to tie neckties on other people when they were lying down.”

“What was your previous job?” Jack asked.

“I was a mortician.”

Cutting in line

A group of senior citizens, socially distanced, stood in a long line at 7:45 a.m. at a grocery store that opened at 8 a.m. for seniors only.

A young man ran from the parking lot and tried to cut in at the front of the line, but an old lady beat him back with her cane.

When he tried to cut in again, an old man punched him in the gut, then kicked him to the ground and rolled him away.

As he approached the line for the third time, he said, “Listen, if you don’t let me unlock the door you’ll never get in there.”

Points to ponder

- A conclusion is usually the place where most people get tired of thinking.
- Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
- For every action, there is an equal and opposite criticism.
- He who hesitates is probably right.
- Never do card tricks for the group you play poker with.
- No one is listening until you make a mistake.
- Success always occurs in private, and failure in full view.
- The hardness of the butter is directly proportional to the softness of the bread.
- The severity of the itch is indirectly proportional to your reach.
- For some people, two wrongs are only the beginning.

The silent treatment

A man and his wife got into a serious fight and ended up giving each other the silent treatment. It lasted for days.

One night the husband suddenly remembered that he had to get up at 6 a.m. the next morning to catch a flight for a business trip. He didn't want to break the silence with an alarm clock or his phone, so he left a note on his wife's pillow: "Please wake me up at 6 a.m."

He woke up the next morning and 9 a.m., missing his flight. Furious, he stood up to demand why his wife hadn't woken him up. On his pillow he found a note from her: "It's 6 a.m. Wake up."

Laughing is, and will always be, the best form of therapy.

The weight

A psychology professor was teaching stress management principles to an auditorium filled with students. As she raised a glass of water, everyone expected they'd be asked the typical "glass half empty or glass half full" question. Instead, with a smile on her face, the professor asked, "How heavy is this glass of water I'm holding?"

Students shouted out answers ranging from eight ounces to a couple pounds.

She replied, "From my perspective, the weight of this glass doesn't matter. It all depends on how long I hold it. If I hold it for a minute or two, it's fairly light. If I hold it for an hour straight, its weight might make my arm ache a little. If I hold it for a day, my arm will likely cramp up and feel completely numb and paralyzed, forcing me to drop the glass to the floor. In each case, the weight of the glass doesn't change, but the longer I hold it, the heavier it feels to me."

As the class nodded in agreement, she continued, "Your stresses and worries in life are very much like this glass of water. Think about them for a while and nothing happens. Think about them a bit longer and you begin to ache a little. Think about them all day long, and you will feel completely numb and paralyzed—incapable of doing anything else until you drop them."

The moral: It's important to remember to let go of your stresses and worries. No matter what happens during the day, as early in the evening as you can, put all your burdens down. Don't carry them through the night and into the next day with you. If you still feel the weight of yesterday's stress, it's a strong sign that it's time to put the glass down.

I'm obsessed with giving the audience something they don't see coming.

Time-wasting habits to ditch

Do you complain that you never have enough time? The reason may be that you're wasting it—by making these mistakes:

- Beginning your day without a plan. If you have no plan on how you'll tackle your workload, you'll end up battered by competing demands. Manage your time better by doing the right things, not by doing the wrong things quicker.
- Keeping a messy workspace. A minute here, a minute there spent looking for stuff can add up fast. A messy desk wastes time and adds to your distractions.
- Cheating yourself of sleep. Lack of sleep increases your stress level and intensifies feelings of lack of control. You'll spend time at work wishing you weren't so tired.
- Not taking a break. Get away from work during lunch. Any brief breather from the day recharges your batteries and keeps you more productive.

The four agreements

1. Be impeccable with your word. Speak with integrity. Avoid using the word to speak against yourself or to gossip about others. Use the power of your word in the direction of truth and love.
2. Don't take anything personally. Nothing others do is because of you. What others say and do is a projection of their own reality, their own dream. When you are immune to the opinions and actions of others, you won't be the victim of needless suffering.
3. Don't make assumptions. Find the courage to ask questions and to express what you really want. Communicate with others as clearly as you can to avoid misunderstandings, sadness, and drama. With just this one agreement, you can completely transform your life.
4. Always do your best. Your best is going to change from moment to moment; it will be different if you are healthy as opposed to sick. Under any circumstances, simply do your best, and you will avoid self-judgment, self-abuse, and regret.
