NOTICE OF MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Agenda Meetings – Residents may attend with no participation
March 31, 2018 9:00 am

HOA Meetings – To conduct ordinary business of the HOA – all members are welcome
April 5, 2018 7:00 pm

HOA President

Wendy Copeland Past President

Well, it has been quite a year. I am honored to have served as the President of the HOA but now it is time to pass the mantle. I will still be involved as Secretary to the Board, but not as much on a daily basis, which was having an adverse effect on my health. I hope you all have a wonderful summer. Please make sure to close up your property including all shutters and awnings, also putting away all outdoor furniture or anything that can blow away if we should have another hurricane. In addition, please make sure to make arrangements with a neighbor, friend or other to tend to any gardens so those who remain behind do not have to look at a jungle all summer. May your journeys be safe and may you find joy in your families and friends. See you on the flip side.

Angel Fund

Susan Cooper

The HOA board has set up a special fund to help our neighbors participate in activities, trips and dinners that they might not be able to afford over the year. Any board member will be willing to accept your donation to the fund. Application forms will be available to nominate a neighbor, make a donation, or apply for yourself (see the application in this issue). The recipients will get a gift certificate to help them enjoy some of the fun events EBO hosts. Funds will be awarded based on the available donations received.

Shuffle practice is held on Wednesdays at 10:00 am. (On the third Wednesday of each month it is moved to Tuesdays to accommodate the men's and ladies' luncheons). Games are held on each Thursday, – a schedule will be provided during practice. New players are welcomed. It is a fun sport, we get to travel around to various parks to play and there are a number of tournaments held each season – which are also very fun. It is a fun, friendly league and you can get more information by contacting coach Brian Taylor or Assistant Coach Colleen Huckins.

No Plastic Bags Please!

Jennifer O'Connor

It's great that so many are using the blue recycling dumpster, but you cannot put any kind of plastic bag in there - one bag will contaminate the whole load, plus bags get caught in the sorting line and everything grinds to a halt. Don't throw plastic bags of any kind - garbage bags, grocery bags in the bin. If you collect your cans and stuff in a plastic bag, dump them out into the dumpster and throw away (or reuse) the bag. Better yet, collect your recyclables in a tote or crate. Or you can use a paper bag and those can go in the dumpster. Recycling means nothing if they cannot use the load and it ends up in the landfill.

Prepare Your Property

Tom Boyle, Resident year rounder, EBO, Largo, FL

It is that time of year again when we say good bye to our dear friends and neighbors, that migration to the north begins soon. We will miss you all (well most of you... just kidding!). As you leave this season of warm winter days those of us left behind, us year-rounders, head in to another season. Hurricane season. If you take stock in the predictions of weather professionals (tongue in check) we are headed in to a cycle of hurricanes at least on par, if not in excess of last year's events.

So it is with the motto of "Living Prepared not Scared" I offer the following request to our departing family and friends. Please prepare your properties before you leave. Depending on those of us left here to be "Good Neighbors" is an ask too far. For many of us last year's close call of our homes being reduced to a memory is still fresh. The anxiety of preparing our own place, while under mandatory evacuation orders leaves little time to be a "Good Neighbor". My first instinct was for my fellow full time residents that needed to evacuate, would they be able to do that, was the place they were headed to able to provide accommodations if needed... for their medical needs as well as pets. Would they be able to come home after the sky cleared, and to what would they return to? Then securing my own property. Do I have fuel for the generator? Extra propane for the grill? Is the car tank filled with gas? Should we head north to beat the storm or book a room at a local hotel? A lot on our minds. So this year help us out... prepare your property before you leave. The following are the basics:

1. Clear and store outdoor furniture, plants and other items that can become projectiles.
2. If you are leaving a vehicle and it is covered double up on the tie downs to secure it.
3. If your car port is not reinforced and you need tie downs put them on before you leave.
4. Drop or close your storm shutters, make sure they are secured. If you have loose siding or roofing, gutters and such fix them now.
5. Make sure the minimum number of electrical circuits are left on to avoid electrical fires from a power surge from lighting during the storm or when power is restored.
6. If you leave your AC running, make sure somebody has access to turn it off.
7. Consider a property management company that specializes in storm prep to remove the burden from your "Good Neighbor".

If you think these steps will open your property to look like you are not here, and will be burglarized or vandalized, please do not take comfort in this false pretense. Those that will rob you know you are not here, and noticed your out of state plates weeks ago. They can tell who is home, and who is not. Trust in your good neighbors to watch your place while you are gone, and know local law enforcement is also aware of the need to keep an extra watch in neighborhoods.

Enjoy your summer, be safe, see you next year!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Havana Harry's 2, 1999 Starkey Road Largo, FL 33771

"Social Security" Written by one of Hollywood's top comedy screenwriters and directed by the great Mike Nichols, this hilarious Broadway comedy starred Marlo Thomas and Ron Silver as a married couple who are art dealers. Their domestic tranquility is shattered upon the arrival of the wife's goody goody nerd of a sister, her uptight CPA husband, and her archetypal Jewish Mother. They are there to try to save their college student daughter from the horrors of living only for sex. The comic sparks really begin to fly when the mother hits it off with the elderly minimalist artist who is the art dealer's best client!

Manager's Corner

We certainly hope that all of our “SNOWBIRDS” are enjoying our fabulous weather and all the sunshine.

Even though we had messes to clean up after the storm our community is looking pretty good, if we do say so ourselves. The management office has started the 360 inspections and will be completing them in the weeks to come. Some of you have already received notices to spruce up a bit and to those that are complying we thank you. Please take note of the inspection reports as we are indeed trying to maintain a certain decorum within the community which will benefit us all especially with holding the value of your homes.

At this time we would like to remind you all of a few things that affect us all as a community... please, please do NOT park on the grass ever and “always” clean up after your pets. Nobody wants to walk through that waste.

For those that are up later than others please be considerate of your neighbors as not all of them are retired and still have the responsibility of work in the morning. Since our office closes at 5pm we are not here to monitor the late loud ones so if you are having a disturbance be aware that we recommend that this is an issue for the police instead of waiting until the next day to write a complaint. Also with regards to everyone coming in and leaving the community, if you should see someone you know does not belong here please call the police first and notify our emergency phone contact.

And finally for those residents that are considering selling your home be aware that our management offers that service to you for a nominal fee, which works pretty well considering that most all of the shoppers do come into the office first.
