Glenda Conant

Hello everyone, here we are into the swing of things and another month is gone by. I can remember when time used to drag along and my Grandma said it was flying by, well it now is.

I hope you all enjoyed the Valentine Dance or had a good day. Now we are looking forward to St. Patty's Day and a great corned beef and cabbage dinner on the 17th hosted by our own Steve and Chris Lowe followed by the dance on the 21st. Hope you all plan to attend and enjoy these wonderful events. See Steve or Chris Lowe for ticket information.

We are working on the new phone books and hope they will be out soon. This year there will be a charge of $2.00 per book. If you want more than one copy, please let Ernie or David at Lot 313 know as soon as possible.

We, as a HOA Board, are trying to get a lot of work done. It is hard to keep you all informed so please attend the monthly meetings that way you will all know what is happening in your community. HOA meetings are held on the 1st Thursday of each month at 7:00 pm.

The park is looking great with a lot of people taking the time to clean up the outside of their coaches as a result of the recent 360's carried out by the Park. A few are still in need of some work, but overall, things are looking much better. The clubhouse was painted and it looks great. Our maintenance crew is doing a wonderful job. Hope to see you all at Saturday Coffee. It is a lot of fun. Come and join in.

To the Residents of East Bay Oaks

Administrative Staff at EBO/Eldorado

The Social Committee has requested that you do not leave your car overnight in the clubhouse parking lot on Friday evening. The residents who attend the Saturday morning "Coffee Clutch" need these spaces for parking.

This also pertains to Wednesday night Bingo.

Several residents are having their UPS or Priority Mailing sent directly to our office and not their home mailing address. Please do not continue this practice, as we cannot be held responsible for these packages.

Beginning in the month of March, all cars and trucks that are inappropriately parked will be towed. We will be focusing on overnight parking and cars parked on the grass. All car tires must be on the TAR. This ruling pertains to weekdays and weekends.

To date, only 2 people have come to the office to update their telephone numbers. We must have your current telephone number to keep our records accurate.

In addition, each month I receive checks without the lot number being posted. Please be sure to write your lot number on the top of your check. Using direct deposit would eliminate many errors.

Please contact Dean first if you have a problem. He is here to assist you.

Be considerate of your neighbors...DO NOT SPEED or blast your radio as you drive through the park.

HOA Meetings are held the first Thursday of each Month at 7 PM.

It's your Community. Come to a meeting. Watch for the sign in front of the Clubhouse to remind you of the day and time.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH CRATES?

Jennifer O'Connor

We punish criminals by forcing them to live in a cage, so why are we punishing dogs the same way? That's exactly what we're doing when we force dogs to spend hours on end in a crate.

Pro-crate advocates will say, "Yes, but a crate is just like a cozy den." But dogs, wolves and other wild canines are not true "den animals." Wolves use a den for only eight weeks, right after their pups are born. Afterward, the den is abandoned. Since dens don't come with a locked door, there is no true comparison between crates and dens. And crates will not help a puppy learn to "hold it" since puppies' bladders are not fully developed until they are 6 months old.

Others will say, "But my dog loves his crate!" That defies logic. No animal on Earth "loves" to be caged. However, dogs do love people and will tolerate almost anything that their guardians force them to endure. According to some experts, dogs who appear to "love" their crate because they keep running back to it are often really exhibiting a lack of self-confidence or even fearfulness toward the outside world brought on by the extreme confinement and isolation of a crate.

Compassionate Alternatives to Crates

- Using an exercise pen
- Gating off a puppy-proofed room
- Making arrangements with a dog walker during the day if you'll be gone.
- Deciding that your couch isn't more important than your relationship with your dog

Most of all, puppies and dogs need love, play, attention and care, not a life behind bars.

A BIG THANK YOU TO EAST BAY OAKS

Shirl and John McAra

We would like to thank all of you for your compassion and generosity in giving to our fundraiser that our friend Debbie Myers put on for us. We both could not believe the number of friends who were in the clubhouse when we walked in. Plus those of you who donated but could not attend. We didn't know just how many friends we have and it warms our heart.

We are very grateful to all of you. The total amount raised from all of you came to an astounding $4,800.00. This money will go a long way to purchasing some new furniture. Again we cannot thank you good people - " friends" enough. We love you all for doing this for us. Thank you and God bless you.

THE PARK SHUFFLEBOARD TOURNAMENT IS BEING HELD MARCH 7TH. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN PLAYING, A SIGN UP IS SHEET LOCATED IN THE CLUBHOUSE OR CONTACT PAT BRYANT AT LOT 117 FOR MORE DETAILS. NO EXPERIENCE NEEDED.

According to Wikipedia, Gossip is idle talk or rumor, especially about personal or private affairs of others. A friend who passes on the secrets of other friends, but asks you not to tell is an example of gossip. Passing on personal details about a neighbor to another neighbor is another example. Gossiping is to talk idly, especially about the affairs of others. Gossiping is a form of bullying.

For some, gossiping is a habit, for others it is a practice, the purpose of which is to raise themselves up by bringing others down. There are two simple reasons why people gossip: they are born into communities that gossip; they have no idea of what they do when they gossip. People that gossip are not inherently bad people, they simply imitate the behavior of the people around them. Here are the consequences of gossiping. Something to think about.

- Gossip is destructive. It damages a person’s social standing. Think about it: people don’t talk secretly about the good things they see or hear about other people.
- Gossip is inherently unjust. No one is perfect, and how would you feel if people were discussing the most private details about your life, especially when many of these details are false.
- Gossip perpetuates a culture of gossip. We are social animals and gossip can only exist in a social environment. Listening or speaking to gossip signals that you approve of gossip. Remember this “Whoever gossips to you will gossip about you”.
- Gossip robs the world of your very valuable help. Every second that you spend gossiping (which includes listening to gossip) robs the world of your capacity to help make the world a better place.
- Gossip will damage you. What does gossip say about you? Every time you participate in gossip by either speaking or listening to it you advertise to the world and particularly to those that trust you, that you believe what others tell you on face value and that you not only have no regard for the people you are gossiping about, but you have no regard for the truth.

Let’s put a stop to gossip by taking a stand against it. Don’t listen to it, don’t repeat it.

Joke of the Month

Paddy was tooling along the road one fine day when the local policeman, a friend of his, pulled him over. "What's wrong, Seamus?" Paddy asked. "Well didn't ya know, Paddy, that your wife fell out of the car about five miles back?" said Seamus. "Ah, praise The Almighty!" Paddy replied with relief. "I thought I'd gone deaf!"
