BOOK CLUB

Embassy's Book Club met in December for the first time at our beautiful new library located at #231 2nd Street. A lively discussion was held as we reviewed December's selection, "The Book Thief", by Marcus Zusak, a novel set in Nazi Germany, at which time and place the author lived. Liesel Meminger's relationship with her foster parents, acquired when her mother is forced to give up Liesel and her brother, Werner, and their relationship to the other residents of their neighborhood, as well as to a young Jewish man who is hidden in her home during the escalation of World War II is the main thrust of her story.

January's book, 'The Orphan Train', by Christina Baker Kline, will be reviewed in the next issue of our News & Views. During the last half of the 19th century and early into the 20th century, many unfortunate abandoned orphan children were shipped to the midwest farm country on so-called "Orphan Trains". Some were placed in loving homes, but many were placed in labor and servitude under cruel circumstances. One elderly lady named Vivian Daley was one of these unfortunate children. When a troubled teenager named Molly Ayer is placed in a community service position for Vivian in her home surroundings today to clear out her attic, a history of Daley's unfortunate past as one of the children from the Orphan Trains unearths similarities in both the women's lives.

A SPECIAL CHRISTMAS READING

In view of the Christmas season, Richard Vail, a member of our book club, shared a very special little book he had received. The title of the book is "A Christmas Cup of Tea", by Tom Hegg. Richard was so impressed with the book, he asked if it could be shared among the club members. And so, being a wonderful short story in poem form, it was read at one gathering of people, and passed to others who were not present. Everyone was as impressed as Richard was, and there were a few tears shed during the reading, it was so moving. The author's friend, Warren Hanson, had added his illustrations of beautiful water color paintings throughout the book which also impressed those who saw them. A very worthwhile book for all of us to have seen. Thank you, Richard.

MIDWEST CLUB CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

Over 40 people gathered in the special dining room at Alfano's Restaurant to celebrate the Midwest Club's Christmas Luncheon. The dining room was festooned beautifully in its Christmas finery and decorations, and everyone enjoyed and diverse menu of culinary delights. Everyone was ready for the celebration of the season as evidenced by the wonderful array of Christmas outfits and corsages, etc.

To everyone's delight, Terry Meredith regaled the group with his masterful tinkling of the ivories, and the group was in fine voice as he accompanied them in many Christmas Carols and songs of the season. It was a wonderful celebration under the very capable committee duo of Elaine Pepper and Barbara Whitman, and Terry, for which they received a cheerful round of appreciative applause. Merry Christmas to All !!!

CHRISTMAS MAIL DELIVERIES

Thanks are extended to Elaine Pepper for handling the massive task of our Christmas mail deliveries throughout the Park this year. And thanks also go out to all of the special elves who delivered the cards on their streets. I'm sure our friend Chris Whitenect in Nova Scotia will be pleased to know that her good works are still being carried forward.

MY FAVORITE POEM

Beverly Ryan Doucette

The following is one of my favorite poems I learned about in grammar school and had to memorize). I came across it in print this week and realized how much I had forgotten, so I write it here for my personal posterity.

In Flanders Field

By Lt. Col. John McCrae

Of Gwelfh, Canada

Died January 20, 1918, while on

Active Duty in France

In Flanders' Fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row.

That mark our place, and in the sky

The larks still bravely singing fly,

Scarce heard amidst the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe.

To you from falling hands we throw

The Torch – be yours to hold it high;

If you break faith with us who die,

We shall not sleep though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

MIDWEST CLUB OPEN HOUSE

Elaine Pepper

The MidWest Open House will be held on January 20th from 10 am to 12 noon in the Clubhouse. All are invited to attend this free event! Our theme this year is Mardi Gras. Wear your favorite “loud” outfit, and come listen to some favorite jazz music. Food and door prizes are included. Join us for a fun morning activity.

NEW ENGLAND BREAKFAST

The New England group will be meeting on Tuesday, January 19th, at 9 a.m for their regular monthly breakfast meeting at the Country Skillet on Roosevelt Avenue. Always a jovial social gathering. Come one, come all !

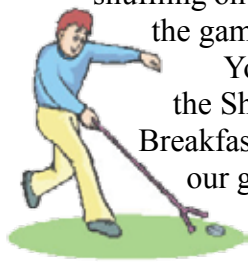

SHUFFLING NEWS & NOTES

Guy McDougall

A note to thank all the shufflers who were here to start the season. It has made it a lot easier for the Captains to make a schedule to play each and every week. Special Thanks! !

To Our Friends in the Park: We have 3 teams, beginning with the Friendly Team -- and the Friendly Team Captain is still looking for new players. So come and join us for fun shuffling on Friday mornings to learn the game and experience the joy all of us get from the game. Shuffling is a very enjoyable sport, so come and have some fun.

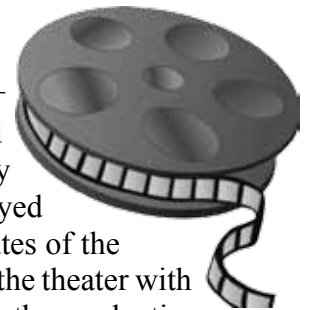

You get to belong to the Shuffle Club and to enjoy all the special events that the Shuffle Club puts on throughout the year at Embassy Park (monthly Pancake Breakfast, Fun Raiser, Canada Day Tournament, In-Park Tournament, and finally, our great end-of-season Banquet).

You get to meet a lot of people at other parks by shuffling with teams at their parks, and when they visit our Park to play. You will soon realize how great it is to be here at Embassy Park. So come on down to the courts and join the fun today !!!

DINNER THEATER

On Saturday, December 5th, several people from Embassy attended the Early Bird Dinner Theater performance of a hilarious play called "Miracle on South Division Street. Everyone really enjoyed the twists and turns the convoluted plot took, until the very last minutes of the play. The actresses and actor were at their top form, and everyone left the theater with smiles on their faces. The next performance we will be attending is the production of "Caught In The Net", on Saturday, January 20th. It is a sequel to the show, "Run for Your Wife", about a bigamist trying to keep two families in different parts of London completely separate from each other. The Daily Mail, called it "the funniest play of the year". Sign up on the bulletin board in our Clubhouse for an evening of wonderful food, fun and frivolity.
