RECIPES OF THE MONTH

(Thank you Bernice Strong!)

MACARONI MOUSSE

Ingredients

- 1 cup macaroni, cooked
- 1 ½ cups milk-scalded
- 2 cups shredded cheese
- 1 cup bread crumbs
- 1 Tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 Tablespoon chopped green pepper
- 2 Tablespoons chopped pimento
- 1 Tablespoon parsley
- 3 eggs, beaten
- ¼ cup melted butter
- Salt & Pepper

Directions:

MIX all ingredients together, put in a 2 quart baking dish, dust with paprika before baking. Bake at 325 degrees for 45 minutes

Bernice's Potato Soup

Ingredients

- 2 Pounds Frozen Hash Browns
- 4 cups water
- 1 large chopped onion
- ¾ cup diced celery
- 4 bouillon cubes
- ½ teaspoon celery seed
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- 1 pound butter
- 1 quart ½ and ½
- 4 cans cream of chicken soup
- 2 cups chopped ham
- 1 Tablespoon parsley flakes
- 1 ½ teaspoons garlic salt
- Crumbled bacon bits

Directions:

Melt butter in large pot, saute onion & celery, add water, bouillon, celery seed, pepper, frozen hash browns, garlic salt & parsley—simmer 20 minutes; add chicken soup, ½ and ½, ham and bacon bits. I use instant mashed potatoes to thicken to your desired thickness. Enjoy

This recipe was used for many years for the Michigan Club Soup Luncheon at the Clubhouse years ago. It can be doubled or made by smaller by cutting all ingredients in half.

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

I chose DeadLine by Sandra Brown as my Book of the Month. Dawson Scott, a journalist who has recently returned from Afghanistan, is asked by his Godfather, Gary Headley, an FBI agent, to cover the trial of a man accused of the murder of a former marine, whom through DNA testing, is the biological son of a pair of terrorists on the FBI's Most Wanted List! I could not put this book down!

Sandra Brown grew up in Texas. She is an author of romantic and suspenseful novels. She has written under a number of names, a few of which are Rachel Ryan, Laura Jordan and Erin St. Claire.

Don't forget to come and enjoy the Library this summer. We are open 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. daily. We also have wi-fi, which is free, but you must sign up for it in the Park Office.

Don't forget we have cover-ups and embassy mail boxes for sale to support our Library (available during office hours).

From the Editor: I recently read this book; I started it when I got home from work and finished it before bed.....it was that good!

FROM THE OFFICE:

For the months of June, July & August there will not be a Bulletin: instead, the News & Views will have a page titled "Monthly Bulletin" with the information on it. This is due to the low amount of activities and as a cost savings to the Social Club.

I am repeating the following information for those who did not get a corrected copy of the June News & Views:

Effective immediately, there is a new procedure that new tenants must fulfill if they want to have a dog (therapy, comfort, emotional support, companion, etc.) anywhere in the Park except the pet section. This paperwork may take up to 10 days for verification; no pet will be automatically allowed. This new procedure was done with the help of an attorney. A copy is available in the office.

Anyone who currently has a companion or support animal will have to go through this procedure if/when they replace the current animal. All Pets must be registered in Pinellas County and supply the office with this information and the shot records (per current Park Rules).

The new hurricane guides are available in the Office; I cannot stress enough how important it is to review this and be prepared...foresight is better than hindsight!!!!

Please remember to check for any standing water around your mobile to eliminate the chance of mosquitos breeding.

Once again mobile home Parks are experiencing a large amount of break-ins and thefts, especially of closed up mobiles by snowbirds. By now it should go without saying to lock your doors, bikes and cars, even during daylight hours. All crimes are not committed in the dark!

Do not allow yourself to become a crime of opportunity.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

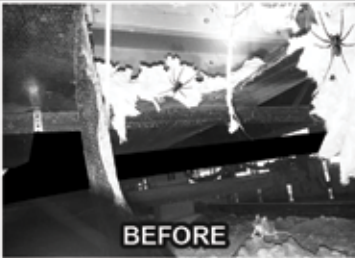

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

ROYAL WEDDING WATCH

She sat on the beach watching the waves wash away the sand castle which brought thoughts of the upcoming wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan on May 19th at the Windsor Castle.

Soon Joann Curran took action to plan Embassy Park's first royal wedding "watch" breakfast at her home. Ethel Blanchette, Shirley Irvin and Sue Shifflet arrived by Ethel's "royal" golf cart while Carol Axe arrived in her motorized wheelchair with her niece, Kim Powell, by her side. Liv Perras and sisters Janice Sell and Bobbie Faulkner rounded out the guest list. As we watched the wedding ceremony, some of us were brought to tears at various times. The song "Stand By Me" was a favorite.

Breakfast was served on former Embassy resident Angela Purton's British castle dinnerware. Quiche, scones, fruit with a creamy topping, chocolates, monkey bread, cookies, carrot and chocolate cakes were offered to the guests. An abundance of coffee and tea was served as some guests woke up extra early in order not to miss any of the wedding celebration. As usual no one went home hungry! Thank you, Joann, for a lovely morning.

A rumor prevails that a one year anniversary party will be held in 2019
(Submitted by Bobbie Faulkner)

MEMORIAL DAY BBQ

Iwould like to thank all of the Embassy Park residents for making our Memorial Day BBQ a great success. Over 55 residents participated in our annual Memorial Day BBQ. Ron Russell gave an introduction on the importance of Memorial Day. Shirley Irvin led us in the song "God Bless America" and prayer. There was an abundance of Pot Luck specialties and plenty of desserts. The food was wonderful and plentiful. The Summer Social Club provided the hamburgers, hotdogs and potato salad. I would like to thank all of those that offered their help: Lewis and Michelle Malove, Lori Labrake, Carmen Soto & Darrel Watson; special thanks to Keith Easton and Bruce Miller for their BBQ expertise and all of those that donated their time and talents with the food. Thank you all! It was very much appreciated. The 50/50 was $61, won by Jodi Underwood, daughter of Lanny and Shirley Taylor

BINGO BREAK

The last Wednesday Night bingo for the summer was held on May 23rd. There were 20 players. Clarice Keithan provided a cake from Publix to commemorate the event. Bingo will resume on Wednesday Sept.; Cards are sold from 4:30 p.m. to 6:15 with bingo beginning immediately thereafter. Snacks are provided before bingo, with dessert served at intermission. Donated snacks and baked goods are always welcome! There will no longer be any Special Bingo on Saturday; it was hoped that the number of people attending would grow over time, but it didn't, despite the many delicious lunches that were provided.

ADVENTURE

If you are looking for a fun place to go, or you are in the mood for a fun puzzle, go to the Beach Escape Game on Gulf Blvd in St. Pete. I went with my grandmother and my cousins, and I can say it is a great mental exercise and a great way to spend time with the family. The Beach Escape Game is one building that houses many escape rooms. The rooms are pirate, hotel, lake or cabin themed. Each room has locks, keys and hidden clues to secret doors. We didn't solve our puzzle but we DID have a blast trying.

Reduce arthritis pain without surgery

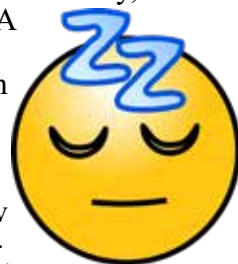

Arthritis is the leading cause of disability among U.S. adults over 55, in many cases requiring surgery to replace troubled joints. You don't have to resort to joint replacement all at once, though. These simple steps from Dr. Victor Romano, an orthopedist and author of Finding The Source: Maximizing Your Results—With and Without Orthopaedic Surgery, can help you deal with arthritis before surgery becomes necessary:

- Wear good shoes with arch supports. Over time, the arches in feet tend to fail. Arch supports can help with the alignment of your feet and improve the alignment of your knees, letting your feet better serve as shock absorbers for the knees.
- Exercise daily. Try at least a 20-minute program that includes stretching, aerobic activity, strength training, and balance.
- Wear a hinged knee brace for better support. You don't have to wear it all the time, but it can help during sports or other strenuous activity.
- Watch your weight. Lower weight decreases the stress on your joints and helps with mobility. Eat nutritious foods and cut your intake of sugar, which can cause inflammation of your arteries and joints.
- Take care of your bones. Calcium, vitamin D, and weight-bearing exercises can reduce arthritis pain and build up your bone density. Should you need replacement surgery, greater bone density will help your artificial joint last longer.

Staying up late may damage your health

Benjamin Franklin's advice, "Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise," turns out to be true—at least the "healthy" part. A British study of genes and health that analyzed surveys of more than 400,000 people found that night owls have a 10 percent higher risk of death over a 6½-year period than early risers, according to an article on the NBC News website.

The negative impact of burning the midnight oil doesn't depend on how much sleep you actually get—both night owls and early risers reported getting the same amount—but on the fact that it throws the body's natural rhythms off track. Also, the study found that people who stay up late tend to eat fattier foods, drink more alcohol, and use recreational drugs. In addition, staying up late at night has been shown to increase depression and mood disorders, especially among people 50 and older.

Consumers nervous about online data

If you're worried about how well businesses are protecting the data they collect from you, you're far from alone. A survey from IBM found that 77 percent of consumers say that an organization's ability to keep their personal data secure is a factor in their buying decisions—and only 20 percent say they “completely trust” businesses to ensure their privacy.

The survey also found that 75 percent of buyers refuse to purchase from organizations they don't trust, regardless of the quality of their products. Another finding: Almost three-fourths of consumers believe that sellers are more concerned about profits than about privacy and data protection.

Retirement: Golden years or a fading dream?

Americans these days are worried about their retirement—and whether they'll even be able to retire.

A Willis Towers Watson survey of approximately 5,000 U.S. workers found that 37 percent expect to keep working to age 70 or longer, up from 30 percent two years ago. Only 26 percent believe they'll be able to retire before they're 65, a drop from 29 percent in 2015.

Minimum wage: What should it be?

Debates about the minimum wage have been heating up for years. To find out what Americans think it should be, CreditLoan surveyed 2,669 people across the country. The results? People in every state said it should be higher than the current federal level of $7.25 an hour. On average, Americans support a minimum wage of $11.56 an hour, allowing employees working 40 hours a week 52 weeks a year to earn $24,044 for the year.

Most Americans, though, don't even know what the minimum wage is. Just 35.5 percent identified the actual amount correctly. The average estimate was $8.09 an hour.
