IDENTITY THEFT SEMINAR

On Thursday, April 16th, Michael Meyer from American Financial Security conducted a very informative seminar in our Clubhouse on Identity Theft. Many residents attended and received valuable information on what to do if they had their identities stolen. This is very common this day and age, especially with all the electronic devices used by all of us.

All were offered a book called “Taking Charge” put out by the Federal Trade Commission. This book is full of do’s and don’ts for people to use.

Important things and personal things that could be compromised which were covered included Credit Cards, Social Security numbers, Bank Accounts, ATM and Debit Cards, Bankruptcy filed in your name, Investment Account, Driver License, Mail, Utilities, Tax Fraud, and even your Medical Records if they get the right info.

There are things you can do to reduce your risk. One very helpful item to obtain is a metal credit card protector for your credit and personal cards from your wallet to prevent scanning by unsavory persons with the required electronic apparatus to secretly do so.

Review your Credit Reports – you are entitled to a free one each year. Following is information to accomplish this, or to notify of a fraud alert. Contact one of the three following credit reporting companies to place a fraud alert for free, and confirm they will put the alert on your credit file, and they will contact the other two companies:

Equifax 1-800-525-6285 Experion 1-888-397-3742

TransUnion 1-800- 680-7289

Read your Account and Billing Statements, review your Medical Benefits with your doctor; Respond quickly to notices from the IRS; Lock up important papers, Limit what information you carry with you – Credit Card, Social Security Card, Driver’s License. Be careful with your Mail, do not leave it in the mail box overnight. Shred sensitive Documents to help stop dumpster diving; Ask why someone needs your Social Security number; Don’t give personal or financial information on the phone or internet unless you know who you are dealing with. It is suggested you not let your Credit Card out of your sight when using it, especially at Restaurants.

This is just a small amount of what was discussed at this meeting. A lot of questions were answered, and many attendees were grateful for the very informative book made available to them covering so many more items which could affect our personal and financial well being.

APRIL LADIES LUNCHEON

Twenty-six ladies attended the monthly Ladies Luncheon which was held at Alfano’s Restaurant on Wednesday, April 8th. The table settings were decorated with hand-made Easter egg decorations which were available for each person attending to take home as a remembrance of the occasion. The weather was perfect, and our meal was served in the beautiful special dining room from a menu of many delectable choices. Hostesses for the day were Nancy Gray, Shirley Irvin, Sonja Jones, and Linda Gray. The next luncheon will be held at the Red Lobster on Wednesday, May 20th, and will be hosted by Terry Hazlett and Bernice Strong. Don't forget to sign up for it on the notice posted in the Club House.

THE NORTHERN MIGRATION

Well, folks, the annual spring migration of our friends and neighbors from the northern climes of the United States and Canada has started, and we will miss seeing their smiling faces until they return in the fall. We certainly had many activities well attended throughout the winter season, and our activities team of Social Club Director Janis Wilson, and her partner, Elaine Migliorati are busily setting up the schedule for the summer season here. Keep your eye on the bulletins and bulletin boards to know what is going on in our neighborhood. Hope to see you at all of the planned activities. And we wish our northern friends a safe arrival at their respective homes up north, and will look forward to your return in the fall.

BOOK CLUB NOTES

Please note : Because the Memorial Day Picnic will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, May 25th, the May Meeting of the Book Club will be held on Monday, June 1st.

The April meeting of Embassy's Book Club met on Monday, April 27th at the newly renovated library house on 2nd Street. We are all so thrilled with the new accommodations. Our format has changed quite a bit since the Largo Public Library changed their program of supplying book kits for us, and has now become involved with the Pinellas County Library Consortium. It is now quite difficult for us to borrow enough books of one title of our choice for our group in a timely manner to accommodate us. At this meeting, we decided to just have everyone read a book of their own choosing, which they can review for our group.

As a result, the first meeting of this type went very well and the discussions were very lively about several books. Many made notes of books they might like to read, and some took advantage of the shelves of books in our own library to read and review for the Club.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be held on Monday, May 25th. Please mark your calendars, and plan to join us.

MY PERSONAL STEP INTO THE SPACE AGE

Beverly Ryan Doucette

Come along with me back to the 40's and 50's of my childhood in Cambridge, Massachusetts. One day back then, as I was walking home alone from some errands in the square, I turned left around the corner onto Mass. Avenue, and saw Kennedy's Furniture Store. A huge shoulder-to-shoulder horde of people was amassed filling the sidewalk looking into the wide window of the store. Indeed, something special must have been happening, and as I approached and touselled my way through the crowd, I spotted what caused such a ruckus.

The newest and most unbelievable sight was right there in the window for the crowd to see in breathless disbelief. A small square wooden cabinet was placed in the window for them to view. The cabinet contained an actual movie screen showing a boxing match, which was being fought at this very moment in time somewhere miles distant, on the much-talked-about new invention in newspapers and on the radio - - - something thing called TELEVISION !! None of us had ever seen such a marvel. I really don't remember who was fighting. Maybe it was Joe Louis ?? Everyone gathered was totally awestruck and silent. At that time, as a child of about 11 or 12, I was prone to claustrophobia, and before I knew it, I had fainted to the ground. The crowd physically but gently passed me in their arms quickly from one to another to the back of the tightly knit group, sat me carefully down on the curb against a lamp post to recuperate, and just as quickly returned to reclaim their prime viewing spots. That, then, was our personal introduction as a first baby step into what would become the most unimaginable technical space age ahead for all of us on earth!

MEMORIAL DAY COOKOUT

Memorial Day will be celebrated on Monday, May 25th, this year, and our annual cookout for the occasion is planned for that date. Please remember to sign up for it on the Clubhouse Bulletin Board. The menu will include hot dogs and hamburgers, potato salad, coffee and drinks, and all condiments will be supplied. You may bring a dish to share or desserts, and remember to bring your own table settings.
