RECIPE OF THE MONTH

MRS. FIELDS CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES

Ingredients:

- 1 cup (2 sticks) softened butter
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 1 ½ cups packed brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 ½ teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 ½ cups all purpose flour
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 1/2 twelve ounce bags semisweet chocolate chips

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees
2. In a large mixing bowl, cream the butter, sugars, eggs and vanilla
3. Sift together the flour, salt, baking powder, and baking soda
4. Combine the wet and dry ingredients
5. Stir in the chocolate chips
6. With your fingers, place golf-ball size dough portions 2 inches apart on an ungreased cookie sheet
7. Bake for 9 minutes, or until edges are light brown

In 1975 eighteen-year-old Debbi Sivyer perfected the chocolate chip cookies she had been making since the age of twelve. Little did she know then that her delicious cookies would soon launch her into a successful career with her own multi-million-dollar business. It happened two years later, when her new husband, financial consultant Randy Fields, notices that his clients couldn't resist the batches of cookies that Debbi sent to work with him. With the help of Randy and a banker who lent her $50,000 because he loved her chocolate chip cookies so much, she opened her first cookie store in Palo Alto, California, in 1977. The second store opened two years later in San Francisco.

Without spending a dollar on advertising, the Mrs. Fields company is now listed on the London Stock Exchange, claims more than 600 stores worldwide, and has purchased the 113-unit bakery chain, La Petite Boulangerie, from PepsiCo. (The above information was taken from a book published in 1993)

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Val McDermid is a Scottish crime writer who has over 15 million books in print. She believes women write violence better than men. Where you or I would see a wheel brace she would see a murder weapon, motive, and a plot line. Many of her books have been adapted to television. Her main series are: Lindsay Gordon, PI; Kate Brannigan, clinical psychologist; Dr. Tony Hill and Carol Jordan, investigator; Fiona Cameron, academic psychologist, and Inspector Karen Pirie.

In Killing the Shadows, Professor Fiona Cameron is an academic psychologist who uses computer tech to help track down killers. Someone is killing crime novel authors who have turned psycho profilers into heroes. It's not her case due to a botched investigation by the Met. But her lover, Kit Martin, may be on that list!!!

Don't forget the Library is open daily 10-6 ish. We have fundraisers to help support us: Pool cover-ups, Embassy mail baskets, and now a BBQ on Oct. 5th at noon. We thank you for your support. There is also free Wifi, which is provided by the fundraisers and donations we receive.

MY CAT CALEB

I have a 17 year old cranky male cat named Caleb. If you have visited me in my home you have probably met him. He is not a friendly cat and barely tolerates my family.

Saturday night my brother Terry was visiting me and we had been out for the evening. When we returned home Caleb greeted us with streaks of blood all through his black and white fur. We discovered that he was bleeding from his mouth. I called a 24 hour emergency vet clinic and at 10:00 pm we loaded Caleb into a carrier and off we went. The office staff took Caleb and Terry and I were shown into an exam room. About ½ hour later a tech came to tell us that Caleb was on oxygen and was breathing comfortable. (What?) For two more hours we sat with no new information. Was he bleeding internally? Was it his heart? Finally around 1 a.m. the vet came to tell us our options. The bleeding had stopped but Caleb was not being co-operative, having bit one of the techs. The only way to check his mouth was to sedate him,

Michael Crofts
FL Licensed Independent
Health Insurance Agent

Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crofts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crofts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

and the best method was by I.V. (Good Luck)! The next time we saw a tech was to tell us that Caleb freaked out and they were unable to start the I.V. They didn't want to sedate him by IM injection, because they were afraid that the stress would kill him. They ended up giving him an antibiotic and something for pain. We left the office at 1:30 a.m.

Sunday morning dawned early for me – my sister Bonnie and I were cooking all the food for a church picnic. Caleb was bouncing off the walls with his usual exuberance, and no more bleeding. Lung problems? He seems pretty energetic to me. What caused the bleeding is a mystery, but I will keep a close eye on him. If you would like to meet my cat, stop in, just be aware that he will probably bite you if he can. Me-I'm taking a nap!

FROM THE OFFICE

This month I am going to review several new Park rules that have to do with being a good neighbor. Rule 20A, RESIDENT CONDUCT. “Noise or conduct which Park Management finds objectionable, which disturbs the peaceful enjoyment of the Park by neighbors, or which constitutes a nuisance to other Residents or which constitutes a breach of the peace, is prohibited. Loud noises, annoying parties, or abusive or profane language shall not be permitted at any time in the Park. Yelling, screaming, other noise-making, or the use of profanity outside the manufactured home or inside the manufactured home if audible outside the home, are not permitted in the Park. All Residents and their invitees and guests must conduct themselves in an orderly fashion and must ensure that their pets behave in such a manner as not to annoy, disturb or interfere with other Park Residents. Residents are requested to keep noise levels from whatever source to a minimum, especially between the hours of 10 p.m. to 8 a.m. Noise which can be heard outside of your lot will be considered too loud. Complaint filed with Park Management by other residents concerning noise or disturbances caused by another Resident or such Resident's guess, shall be considered as evidence of a violation of these rules and regulations. Complaints must be in writing to be considered by Park Management. Forms for this purpose are available in the Park Office.”

Unless the disturbance is between 10 p.m. and 8 a.m. the police cannot do anything about it. Therefore you must report noisy neighbors to the office so I can take proper action.

Rule 20B. States that “Residents will be held responsible for their guests' conduct.” No guest is allowed in the common areas of the Park unless accompanied by the resident; this means the pool, clubhouse, laundromats, etc.

Rule 20C. “Please do not cross occupied lots; respect your neighbors' privacy”. It is up to the Park resident to make sure their guests follow this rule. Many residents spend a lot of time on maintaining their yard; mobile homes are close together so it can be startling to have someone walking right past your window!

Although Embassy is still a 55+Park which was once considered a retirement community, it has now also become “affordable” living. The 55+ rule is still followed, but many residents are still working. There are many different nationalities here (there always has been, i.e. German, French, Canadian, Italian) If you have a problem with this, maybe you should move. Everyone living here is a US citizen and has been thoroughly vetted to be here. Keep in mind that you may not be the perfect neighbor either, but your neighbors have enough class to not say nasty things to you! This can be considered harassment, and as such can result in eviction from the Park.

The next Manager’s meeting is Wednesday, October 9th, 9:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse. Everyone is welcome to attend.

text, email...you can enter multiple methods.

2. Enter the location that you want to receive alerts about. You can choose up to five different locations. This way, you can be alerted if there is something you need to know about in your neighborhood, job area, schools, etc.
3. Just sign up once! This system is shared by partner agencies throughout the county, including Pinellas County Government, local municipalities, and the Sheriff's Office.
4. Once you create your own account, you can change your settings at any time
5. It's easy to sign up for this FREE service.
6. Your contact information is protected and will not be used for any other purpose.

A list of emergency notifications from Pinellas County Emergency Management: Mandatory evacuations, Hurricane information, gas leak, boil water orders, utility notices, flooding events, hazard event, local emergency, etc.

Just type "alertpinellas" into your search bar and follow the steps to sign up.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH UPDATE

Dear neighborhood watch volunteers, management, and friends:
We have a new volunteer added to our group...Deron Wren. Welcome Deron! Thank you one and all for attending our monthly meeting. We always have things to discuss. We share ideas, experiences, and anything else that's relevant.

Officer V. Tran was able to attend this meeting too. He has a lot on his plate, and it's always great to have him in attendance.

There seems to be someone walking around the Park, possibly peeping into windows. DO NOT HESITATE TO CALL 911. Spread the word please! In the event you cannot make any sounds, you can TEXT to 911. Send a photo if possible. The cameras on cellphones can take photos in very low light without the flash turned on.

Over all the meeting was productive. Discovered from Officer Tran that the calls for service in this park are very low compared to many other parks.

Remember to use your outside lighting, call 911 for ANY SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY. The Officers have no problem about responding. Currently our meetings are the last Thursday of the month @ 10 a.m. in the clubhouse. Everyone is welcome.

Sincerely, Norm Hagen

FRANKLY, MY DEAR

(Gracious movie legend creates an unforgettable moment)

By Peggy Gentry

The year was 1952, and I was 24 years old. My husband, Bill, and I were driving from Kentucky to El Monte, California to visit my aunt. As we were motoring around Encino, CA, looking at a map of the stars' homes, we happened to pass by Clark Gable's house. Imagine our surprise when we saw the movie star standing at his mailbox.

"There he is!" I shouted, and made Bill back up.

By that time, however, Gable had climbed back into his Jeep.

"Excuse me," I said. "Could I take your picture, please?"

It wouldn't have fazed me if he had decided to drive away. But instead, he looked around, and in that unmistakable Clark Gable drawl, he replied. "I don't see why not, honey."

Clark got out of the Jeep and insisted on including me in the photo. "Come on over here," he said, "I won't bite."

What a wonderful day and a fantastic memory to carry with me through all these years. My daughter even took the picture to school years later for show and tell.

Editor's note: This article was printed in the August/Sept 2019 issue of REMINISCE.COM. It was accompanied by a picture of Peggy and Clark Gable. Some of the older residents of Embassy remember Peggy as a former park manager. She still owns a mobile in Embassy, which she rents out.

SEE YOU ON THE PORCH

On the first day, God created the dog and said, "Sit all day by the door of your house and bark at anyone who comes in or walks past. For this I will give you a life span of twenty years."

The dog said, "That's a long time to be barking. How about only ten years and I'll give you back the other ten?"

And God saw it was good.

On the second day, God created the monkey and said, "Entertain people, do tricks, and make them laugh. For this, I'll give you a twenty-year life span."

The monkey said, "Monkey tricks for twenty years? That's a pretty long time to perform. How about I give you back ten like the dog did?"

And God again saw it was good.

On the third day, God created the cow and said, "You must go into the field with the farmer all day long and suffer under the sun, have calves and give milk to support the farmer's family. For this, I will give you a life span of sixty years."

The cow said, “That’s kind of a tough life you want me to live for sixty years. How about twenty and I’ll give back the other forty?”

And God agreed it was good.

On the fourth day, God created humans and said, “Eat, sleep, play, marry and enjoy your life. For this, I’ll give you twenty years.”

But the human said, “Only twenty years? Could you possible give me my twenty, the forty the cow gave back, the ten the monkey gave back, and the ten the dog gave back; that makes eighty, okay?”

“Okay,” said God, “You asked for it.”

So that is why for our first twenty years, we eat, sleep, play and enjoy ourselves. For the next forty years, we slave in the sun to support our family. For the next ten years, we do monkey tricks to entertain the grandchild. And for the last ten years, we sit on the front porch and bark at everyone.

Life has now been explained to you.

There is no need to thank me for this valuable information. I’m doing it as a public service. If you are looking for me I will be on the front porch..

Editor’s note: This is another in the series of jokes sent from Audrey Schnarr to Nedra Woodroof to Bernice Strong to Jessie.

EXERCISE IS COMING BACK!

Hello Park Residents:

The fall is arriving, and with it is the arrival of the many snowbirds, me included! My name is Elaine and I run a few exercise programs for the benefit of park residents. For those new to the Park, this is what I do:

On Mondays and Thursday there is strength/conditioning using weights and stretch bands, and balls. We sit in a chair or stand, no one wants to get up off the floor! On Tuesdays and Fridays is Zumba Gold, an aerobic work-out designed for the active older adult. (I’m no spring chicken!) We use creative dance moves (salsa, cumbia, cha-cha, disco, country, rock-n-roll, belly dance, etc.) with stimulating music to keep the blood flowing and the heart beating! All classes run from 7:45 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse. All classes are free.

I hope to lead a water aerobics class this year when the weather cools down. Watch the bulletin for details.

Come and get to know your neighbors, become a little more fit and flexible, and have fun! Classes will begin October 14th.

I’ll be back in the park on October 7th if you have any questions. Stop and see me at Lot 833 or call me at 727-286-7744.

Elaine Pepper

CHRISTMAS PARTY! (ALL READY?)

Just a heads-up about our Christmas party in the Clubhouse this year. We will be adding an ugly sweater contest! I am telling you now so that you can be on the look-out for that perfect ugly sweater as you shop. Also, if you want to make your own you have plenty of time to put one together. Have fun!

Elaine

Monthly

Adopt a Dog Month. American Humane celebrates “Adopt a Dog Month” each October to help the estimated 3-4 million animals waiting in shelters every year get the loving, forever homes they deserve. Be a hero this month and adopt a dog from your local shelter or rescue group. You’ll be saving his or her life and greatly improving your own.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Experts say that more than 90% of eye injuries can be prevented by wearing protective eyewear and taking other simple precautions. The American Academy of Ophthalmologists sponsors Eye Injury Prevention Month every October to reinforce the importance of preventing accidents and injury.

National Bullying Protection Month. Every day thousands of young people experience bullying from their peers while at school, after school, and at home through social media. There are many ways to support bullying prevention as an individual, with friends and family, and with your school or community. Go to the National Bullying Prevention Center for information and resources: <https://www.pacer.org/bullying/>

Weekly

National Walk Your Dog Week, Oct. 1–7. Forty percent of dogs—about 17 million in the United States alone—are overweight. If you walk your dog just 30 minutes a day, you (and your dog) will meet national recommendations for heart health. Make the pledge to start walking your dog at least 30 minutes a day for a week—and beyond.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 6–12. In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one to two minutes from the time the smoke alarm sounds to escape safely. Escape planning and practice can help you make the most of the time you have, giving everyone enough time to get out.

Earth Science Week, Oct. 13–19. The American Geosciences Institute has organized this national and international event to help the public gain a better understanding and appreciation for Earth sciences and to encourage stewardship of the Earth. This year’s Earth Science Week will celebrate the theme, “Geo-science is for Everyone.”

National Massage Therapy Awareness Week, Oct. 20–26. Years of research support the efficacy of massage therapy for the treatment of many health issues. These include massage therapy for chronic pain management, behavioral health treatment, rehabilitation/physical training, and acute medical conditions.

Collateral

During the Depression of the 1930s, an old farmer went to a bank to apply for a $500 loan.

“What are you going to do with the money?” the banker asked as he pulled out the loan application.

“Plant more soybeans,” the farmer responded.

“What have you got for collateral?”

“What’s collateral?”

“That’s something of value that would cover the cost of the loan. Have you got any vehicles?”

“Yes, a Model T Ford,” replied the farmer.

The banker shook his head, “How about livestock?”

“I have a horse.”

“How old is it?” the banker asked.

“Don’t know. It’s blind and doesn’t have any teeth,” the farmer said.

It didn’t seem like a good idea, but the banker liked the old man, so he decided to make the $500 loan.

Several months later the farmer was back in the bank. “I’m here to pay.” He handed the banker $500.

“What are you going to do with the rest of the money you made?” the banker asked.

“I’ll hide it in my mattress,” replied the farmer.

“Why don’t you deposit it in my bank?”

“How does that work?”

The banker smiled. “You put the money in our bank, and we take care of it for you.

Whenever you want to use it, you can withdraw it.”

The farmer leaned across the desk. “What you got for collateral?”

One-liners

Try these zingers at your next party:

- My dog used to chase people on a bike a lot. It got so bad. I had to take his bike away.
- I’m so good at sleeping, I can do it with my eyes closed.
- My boss told me to have a good day. So I went home.
- A woman walks into a library and asks if they have any books about paranoia. The librarian whispers, “They’re right behind you!”
- What did the pirate say when he turned 80 years old? “Aye matey!”
- Why did the old man fall in the well? Because he couldn’t see that well.
- A blind man walks into a bar. And a table. And a chair.
- I know a lot of jokes about unemployed people, but none of them work.
- My wife accused me of being immature. I told her to get out of my pillow fort.
- I ate a clock yesterday. It was time consuming.
