A Message from the Board of Directors

On May 18th, Fairway Village and our Board lost a dedicated resident and BOD member when Director James Martin passed away due to heart failure. We mourn his passing and will miss him as a colleague and friend. Jim was a fine gentleman with great intellect and insight. He would carefully evaluate background information and related facts, as well as comments from others, before speaking, giving his opinion and voting on matters before the Board. He was a good listener, respectful of all and their views. A quiet man, he also possessed a keen sense of humor, not always seen by the casual observer but enjoyed by those closer to him.

Jim has previously served as a member of the Bylaws Committee prior to joining the BOD and served as liaison to that group during his tenure on the Board. He will be missed, but also remembered fondly for his willingness to serve, his contributions and his dedication to Fairway Village. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife, Anna, and other family members.

The procedure to fill a Board vacancy requires the Board to appoint someone to fill this vacancy and that person will serve until the next election (Feb. 2018) when they will be eligible to run and, if elected, continue to serve. The Board is in the process of considering candidates for such appointment. Any volunteers or candidate suggestions should be communicated to Acting President Steve Ford as soon as possible. The Board hopes to appoint a successor at the July BOD meeting.

Fairway Social Committee Message

Jan Wallace, Chairperson

Good News!!! There will be a July 4th gathering in the clubhouse at 5:00 p.m. Cal Converse will be the team leader for this event. This is a pot-luck dinner so please sign up so they know how many tables will be needed. Sign-up sheet is on the rotating bulletin board. It is a BYOB. However, coffee will be available along with the plates, napkins and plastic flatware. Come gather and celebrate the birth of our nation with your neighbor! There may be some surprises in store after the meal!

Thank you to Gail Christensen for chairing the 3 summer fun parties again this summer! We appreciate the opportunities to gather and share everyone's best dish! Thank you also to Kathy Balzell for continuing to chair the Koffee Klatch! Sweets and friendship, can't do any better than that!!

Architectural Review Committee

The ARC Policies and Procedures Manual defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes as well as for replacing homes. This manual is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website (Fairway Info; Home Buyers information, ARC Revised P and P). Before you begin your project please obtain a Home Replacement or Modification Request form from the FVRA office or download it (page 12, Exhibit D, in the manual) and return the completed form to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets most Mondays in the clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home.

Women Working Wonders (WWW)

We would like to remind our full time residents that they can get access to our WWW Resource Book from Ann Marie Cucinotta at 524-1157. This is a good service for all residents living alone. They will call you every day to make sure you are up and about. The WWW Resource Book has been updated with some new and interesting material. Guide Booklets on grieving, personal planning, stolen identity and VA assistance are available.

We want to remind you that we are thinking about you and hope everyone has a good summer and we will see you in the fall.

June Scramble

Joanne Thueneman

For our scramble we had very iffy weather. We had about 10 drops of rain when we started and then the sun would peek out for a few minutes, then we wondered if we should keep going and that's how our day was. As it happened the rain held off. It was overcast for most of the morning but our 39 players played on. Our game plan was a Best Ball, each player getting in one drive, only using 2 clubs, their favorite and a putter. Some had a time thinking on which club to bring, but they managed, AND had a good time.

Bill and Rick keep our course in great shape as always, thanks guys, you ARE the greatest. A big thank you to Stephanie for keeping us on time. It is a big help when golfers are 15 to 20 minutes early for their tee time. Usually our players are eager to get out early during the summer and if all players are there ahead of time, I'll start them out a little earlier, because their aren't any workers on the course, so that's why I ask that players come early.

Thank you all and we'll see you next month on July 1st.

"Have you experienced the Sunset Appliance Difference? It's all about our Service!"

Did you know that July is also...

National Cell Phone Courtesy Month. As the cell phone has developed into the smartphone, it's become one of the biggest distractions of all time. National Cell Phone Courtesy Month was founded in 2002 with the intent of making cell phone users more respectful of their surroundings.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. According to the American Academy of Ophthalmology, an estimated 90 percent of eye injuries are preventable with the use of proper safety eyewear. Even a minor injury to the cornea from a small particle of dust or debris can be painful and become a lifelong issue, so take the extra precaution and always protect your eyes.

Independent Retailer Month. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers locally, nationally and globally. Support and shop at independent retailers year round and use July as a time to unite as a celebration for the independent retailers across the country and in your community.

National Farriers Week, July 9-15. Honoring the men and women who care for and maintain the hooves of horses, a highly specialized trade that requires skill in hoof care, blacksmithing, and the care of injured and diseased hooves.

Captive Nations Week, July 16-22. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. It began in 1953 and declared by a congressional resolution and was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

National Parenting Gifted Children Week, July 16-22. Parents of gifted children need special understanding in order to raise and advocate for the social and emotional needs of their unique children. NPGC Week celebrates the joys and challenges of raising, guiding, and supporting bright young minds.

Canada Day, July 1. A national holiday celebrating the Constitution Act of 1867, which united the separate colonies of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick into a single dominion within the British Empire called Canada.

Independence Day, July 4. The date of the Declaration of Independence, formally announcing the separation of the original 13 colonies of the United States from Great Britain.

Official Shark Awareness Day, July 14. Much as we love to fear this predator of the seas, the shark has a key role to play in keeping marine ecosystems in balance.

National Mutt Day, July 31. Also known as National Mixed Breed Dog Day, National Mutt Day is all about embracing, saving, and celebrating mixed-breed dogs. (It's also celebrated on Dec. 2.)

Credit card debt on the rise

Financial counselors usually advise consumers to pay off their credit cards every month, but more Americans are carrying credit card debt from month to month since the most recent recession, according to the National Foundation for Credit Counseling.

A survey of more than 1,600 U.S. adults conducted in March found that 39 percent carry debt from month to month, up from 35 percent in 2016. Sixteen percent are carrying more than $2,500 monthly, compared with 14 percent last year.

Other results from the survey: Younger adults were more likely than older adults to be denied a credit card (11 percent vs. 6 percent). They were also more likely to make a late credit card payment (11 percent vs. 5 percent), miss a payment (12 percent vs. 4 percent) or pay less than the minimum amount required (13 percent vs. 3 percent).

Online shopping: The latest stats

Shopping online is big business these days. A survey of more than 1,000 U.S. consumers by e-commerce platform provider Big commerce found that 96 percent of Americans shop online, accounting for 36 percent of their purchases.

The survey found that 80 percent of consumers make online purchases at least once a month, and 30 percent buy something at least once a week. Forty-eight percent reported spending more than they had originally intended.

Millennials do half their shopping online. Sixty-seven percent of them, along with 56 percent of Generation Xers, would rather shop via the internet, a preference shared by 41 percent of Baby Boomers but only 28 percent of senior citizens.

Giving up on losing weight?

The obesity trend in the United States continues, with the number of adults who are either overweight or obese expanding from 53 percent to 66 percent over a 26-year period from 1998 to 2014. Apparently many of us have given up trying to fight it. According to the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), the number of people actively trying to lose weight in the past year dropped from 56 percent to 48 percent over the same period.

Researchers theorize that the decline is due to changing perceptions about acceptable body weight.

Bumblebees leave ‘footprint’ to mark flowers

Bumblebees may be smarter than you think. According to the LiveScience website, scientists at the University of Bristol have discovered that bumblebees mark the flowers they feed from with “smelly footprints” so they can distinguish between flowers that have been visited by members of their nests and those fed on by strangers. This also allows them to ignore flowers whose food is gone and identify better sources of nutrients.

In one experiment, researchers trained bees to discriminate between flowers marked by their nest mates and those scented by bees from a different nest. In a second experiment, bees were seen learning that flowers with footprints from their nest mates were more rewarding than those marked with their own scent.

In addition, the scientists discovered that bumblebees can tell the difference between their own footprints and those of their nest mates.

Space probe headed where no one has gone before

The New Horizons space probe made history with its flyby of Pluto in 2015, and now it’s halfway to making history yet again. Its next destination is 2014 MU69, an object in the Kuiper Belt.

New Horizons has gone into hibernation mode for the next 466 million miles of its voyage, slowing down as it gets farther from the sun. The object is only about 1 percent of Pluto’s size, and it’s about 1 billion miles away from Pluto. Scientists at NASA are patiently awaiting another historic rendezvous in 2019.

Egyptians excavate undiscovered pyramid

It’s not a “new” pyramid, exactly—it’s 3,700 years old—but archeologists have unearthed a previously undiscovered pyramid from Egypt’s 13 dynasty. One corridor and a block engraved with ancient hieroglyphics are in good condition, according to the Fox News Science website, and explorers will continue excavating to determine its full size and other details.

The pyramid was discovered 25 miles south of Cairo, north of the so-called “Bent Pyramid” built by King Sneferu, whose angle changes about half up. It’s also near the smooth-sided Red Pyramid, built some 4,600 years ago.

Sneferu’s son Khufu built the Great Pyramid of Giza. The newly discovered structure was probably built about 1,000 years after his reign.

A simple answer

A seeker of spiritual truth decided to visit a very wise sage who lived on top of a mountain. The seeker climbed for weeks to make the painful ascent. When he finally reached the wise man's home, he asked, "What should I do to make my life happier?"

The sage responded, "To begin with, the next time you come to visit me, start on the other side of the mountain and take the train to the top."

The wrong answer

Two applicants, Smith and Jones, applied for work at an organization that had only one open position. The hiring manager sat the two of them side by side to take an aptitude test. When time was up, she found that both applicants missed only one question—the same one. After studying the results, the administrator announced that although both candidates had given the same wrong answer, candidate Smith had won the job.

"Wait a minute," Jones complained. "How can one wrong answer be better than another?"

"Well," the manager said, "on the one question you both missed, Mr. Smith wrote, 'I don't know this answer.' You wrote, 'Neither do I.'"

The best listener

A speaker arrived for his presentation at a high school graduation and immediately became uneasy. The crowd was full of families talking with each other. Their small children ran around the gymnasium, shouting happily. It was not a crowd looking forward to a speech; people just wanted to see their kids graduate.

The crowd paid little attention to the speech. He tried all the attention-getting tricks he knew—changing the volume and pitch of his voice, walking about the stage, telling his funniest stories—but nothing worked.

Then he saw one man looking directly at him, smiling and nodding his head. The speaker remembered the value of focusing on a sympathetic listener. By concentrating on giving that one person the very best speech he could, he made it through the presentation.

Afterward, the principal of the school asked, "Would you like to meet any of the audience?" The speaker, wanted to thank the man on whom he'd relied to finish his speech. "Yes, I'd like to meet that gentleman over there."

"Certainly," said the principal. "But you know, of course, that he's completely deaf."

Artificial intelligence is coming

Artificial intelligence sounds scary in science fiction stories and movies, but it's becoming a big factor in business success, according to a report from Tata Consultancy Services. Its survey of 834 executives across 13 global industry sectors found that 84 percent of organizations see AI as essential, and 50 percent believe it will transform their businesses.

AI doesn't appear to be cheap, though. Seven percent of business survey said they invested more than $250 million on AI in 2016, and 2 percent expect to spend a billion dollars by the year 2020.

Energy drink and vodka? Think again

Energy drinks like Red Bull or Monster Energy are all the rage, and so is mixing them with alcohol for a more potent cocktail, especially among young people. But is it safe? In research reported on the WebMD website, the answer looks like "no."

Canadian researchers analyzed 13 studies involving alcohol mixed with highly caffeinated energy drinks. They found a higher rate of injury among people indulging in such cocktails compared with simply drinking alcohol by itself. Injuries included car accidents, falls, violence, and suicidal behavior.

The authors point out that the stimulant effects of energy-drink caffeine can mask the impact of alcohol, even though alcohol still has an impairing effect on the body and the brain.

Watch your waist in your 40s to avoid dementia later

Carrying belly weight during the 40s appears to increase the risk for dementia in the 70s, whereas carrying extra midsection weight later in life isn't as accurate an indicator. Researchers say these findings are disturbing because 50 percent of adults in the United States are considered abdominally obese.

Researchers at Kaiser Permanente studied 6,583 people who were between the ages of 40 and 45. An average of 36 years later, 16 percent of the participants—who had been measured for abdominal density—were diagnosed with dementia. Abdominal obesity increased the risk of dementia regardless of whether people had normal overall weight or were overweight or obese overall—and regardless of the health conditions including diabetes, cardiovascular disease, and stroke.

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Keep your marriage happy with these money tips

Disagreements over money can turn a happy marriage into a battleground. Don't take the risk. Follow these tips for dealing with money in your marriage without sparking conflict:

- Talk about priorities. Before you get married, and on a regular basis after the wedding, sit down and talk about what's important to both of you. If your financial goals are different—saving for college vs. traveling the world, for example—you'll always be fighting about what you want.

- Find the right balance. Don't let one person's needs overshadow his or her partner's. Work out a plan to save money while leaving the door open to a nice vacation or at least a fancy dinner once in a while. You can't splurge all the time, but don't let an obsession with money warp your relationship.

- Ignore everyone else. Don't try to maintain a “keeping up with the Joneses” lifestyle on a limited budget. Choose your house, car, and other possessions based on what makes sense for you, not your neighbors. In the long run you'll be better off and happier by living within your means.

Drive away with the best deal

Buying a new car is a big decision—and a costly one. To get the best deal, follow this advice from the GOBankingRates.com website:

- Plan ahead. Start shopping before you need a new car. Give yourself time to do as much research as you can.

- Watch your timing. You can get a better deal if you know when to buy. At the end of the month, salespeople may be more likely to give you a break in order to meet their quota. At the end of the model year, a car dealer might be motivated to clear all the unused cars off his or her lot at a reduced price.

- Decide on what you want. Don't go in blind. Before you go to a dealership, be clear on exactly what make and model of car you want—and how much you're willing to spend.

- Be friendly. Salespeople will try to build rapport with you, and you can do the same. Focus on what's best for both of you instead of turning the negotiation into a battle.

- Study pricing. Be aware of what dealers are offering—and what they aren't. Taxes and fees might not be included in a car's list price. Certain offers may only be available to buyers with top-tier credit. Fees for license, title, and registration can vary from state to state, so check up on those first.
