Message from Fairway Social Committee

by Jan Wallace

This is a perfect time to thank Debbie Elder for her two years of service of scheduling all activities for the clubhouse calendar. She has done an excellent job and we hated to lose her. She stepped down due to family health obligations. We are sending Debbie and Lynn best wishes.

Carol Miller has accepted the volunteer position to schedule the calendar for the clubhouse activities. We are grateful for her decision to take on this task for Fairway Village. She can be reached by email carolmillr@msn.com or her phone number in the FV dial directory.

At the time I am writing this article, we currently have no one willing to chair the 4th of July party. I am trying to get a list of volunteers willing to work that day. Perhaps then, I will find a person to chair the event. If you are willing to help in some way, please call me at 507-9046.

Chairing an event is really the easiest task of the event. If you have the workers, you delegate the duties and give them the instruction they need. Sounds simple right? We'll see.

We do have other events planned for this summer. Gail and Richard Christensen will chair the Summer Fun Pot-Luck Dinner/ Dances again in June, July & August. In August, we also have the Ice Cream Social chaired by Ed & Skip Day. If you are asked to help at one of these events, please accept and join the fun.

Enjoy this Summer!

The ARC Policies and Procedures Manual defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes as well as for replacing homes. This manual is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website (Fairway Info; Home Buyers information, ARC Revised P and P). Before you begin your project please obtain a Home Replacement or Modification Request form from the FVRA office or download it (page 12, Exhibit D, in the manual) and return the completed form to the FVRA office. May Scramble

Sandy and Jack Crawford

The May 2, 2015 scramble started the beginning of the spring/summer Scramble golf season. The 80 participants enjoyed a sunny day with cool breezes and low scores. There were 5 teams with a low score of 26 and a special prize for "The try harder next scramble" team with a score of 31.

Thanks to our helpers Darryl Burns and Randy German for keeping scores. As always, thanks to Bill Keen and Rick Moser for the excellent condition of our golf course.

The next scramble will be June 6, 2015 and be managed by Joanne Thueneman who volunteered for the summer scrambles.

Eat Better to Spur Creativity

Some great artists and writers are known to have used drugs or alcohol to seek inspiration, but you don't have to risk your health when you need a creative boost. The Medical Daily website suggests trying some of these foods to help stimulate the brain:

- Fruit. Fruits have lots of an amino acid called tyrosine, which helps synthesize proteins and may influence your ability to think deeply. In one study, students performed better at completing puzzles when they drank orange juice strong with tyrosine.

- Chocolate. The flavanols in chocolate may enhance short-term cognitive skills, according to one British study, because flavanols boost the amount of oxygen in the brain. Try a cup of hot cocoa before you need to be at the top of your mental game.

- Carbohydrates. Carbs deliver a quick dose of glucose to your body and brain, providing aid to concentration and memory. Potatoes, oatmeal, and other carbs may have a beneficial effect on brain function.

- Walnuts. Rich in omega-3 fatty acids, walnuts can help memory and increase brain function, according to the journal Plant Foods for Human Nutrition. The results of one study showed that rats given a diet of raw walnuts for 28 days showed better learning and memory than rodents on another diet.

Money Matters

Try these smart shopping tips at the grocery store

Everyone wants to stretch his or her food dollars. You don't have to live on ramen noodles and cold cereal three times a day to do it. Here are some tips for savvy shopping at the store:

- Don't fall for fancy displays. Items stacked at the end of the aisles, like sodas, aren't necessarily on sale. The display can make them seem like they're marked down, but often they're still regular price.

- Remember that you pay for convenience. Skinless chicken breasts cost more than those packaged with skin. The same applies to the pre-cleaned and cut carrot sticks. In both cases, they're a little more expensive. Decide whether the convenience is worth the extra money.

- Try the store brands. If you compare the contents and nutritional value of name-brand versus no-brand items, you'll often discover that they're almost identical. In many cases, they're made in the same plant and just packaged with the store label.

- Use coupons. How often have you clipped coupons only to allow them to expire? Develop a system that will ensure you remember and use them.

Here's to you, dad: The start of Father's Day

Father's Day started with a dedicated woman: Sonora Smart Dodd, the daughter of a widowed Civil War veteran who had raised her on his own. Dodd came up with the idea for a special day celebrating fathers when listening to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909. She held her own special tribute for her father on June 19, 1910, in Spokane, Wash., and began a campaign for an official celebration thereafter.

The idea of Father's Day initially met with some skepticism, but in 1919, President Calvin Coolidge expressed support for the holiday, and in 1926 a National Father's Day Committee was formed in New York City. In 1966 President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a proclamation designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day, but it wasn't until 1972 that President Richard Nixon officially recognized it as a national holiday.

Loyalty to country, always. Loyalty to government, when it deserves it.

—Mark Twain

Quick zingers and fast chuckles

Need to get a laugh in a hurry? Try some of these handy one- or two-liners:

- Explaining puns to kleptomaniacs is hard because they always take things literally.
- I used to think the brain was the most important organ. Then I thought, "Look where that idea comes from."
- A dwarf fortune-teller who kills his customers might be known as a small medium at large.
- Did you hear about the dyslexic devil worshipper who sold his soul to Santa?
- During a prison break I saw a dwarf climb over a wall. As he jumped down he sneered at me, and I thought, "That's a little condescending."
- A blind man walks into a bar. And a table. And a chair.
- You never see a hippopotamus hiding in a tree. They must be really good at it.

Monthly For June

African-American Music Appreciation Month. A celebration of African-American music in all forms. In June of 2011, President Barack Obama proclaimed, “African-American musicians, composers, singers, and songwriters have made enormous contributions to our culture by capturing the hardships and aspirations of a community and reminding us of our shared values.”

Child Vision Awareness Month. Children’s vision challenges can be difficult to detect because they may not know they see the world differently than other children. Infants and children should have regular eye exams to ensure that they can see both near and far away, confirm that their eyes work together to focus on a single object, and treat eye diseases early.

National Zoo and Aquarium Month. A good time to explore your local zoo and aquarium. Many have excellent educational resources—photographs, videos, lesson plans, and other activities. Go to the website of the Association of Zoos and Aquariums for links to its accredited zoos and aquariums.

National Scoliosis Awareness Month. A yearly campaign with the goal of highlighting the growing need for education, early detection, and awareness about scoliosis and its prevalence within the community. The campaign unites scoliosis patients, families, physicians, clinicians, institutions, and related businesses in local activities, events, and grassroots networking throughout the month of June.

Daily For June

National Running Day, June 4. Longtime runners reaffirm their love of running and beginners can kick off a lifetime and life-changing commitment.

World Oceans Day, June 8. A day to celebrate the world’s oceans and support action to protect them.

Flag Day, June 14. A patriotic celebration of the flag of the United States of America, a symbol of freedom and hope around the world.

Magna Carta Day, June 15. Date of the signing of the Magna Carta by King John of England, an important document in the history of political freedom.

Father’s Day, June 21. Tell dad how much you appreciate everything he’s done for you.

Take Your Dog to Work Day, June 26. Take your loyal canine companion to the office with you for a day (but check with your boss first).

Danger at home: Keep your children and grandchildren safe

The home can be a dangerous place, especially for young children. Most household accidents are avoidable, though, with some commonsense precautions. Safe Kids Worldwide, a global organization providing safety information aimed at preventing accidents and injuries to children, shares these tips for keeping your family healthy and safe:

- Bathroom. Don't leave children alone in the bath, or anywhere near water.
- Hallways. Install smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, and check their batteries at least every six months to ensure they're working properly.
- Bedrooms. At bedtime and nap time, remove any blankets, pillows, stuffed animals, and toys from your baby's crib to prevent accidental suffocation. Make sure your baby sleeps alone and on his or her back.
- Staircases. Put up safety gates to keep children from tumbling down staircases. Install similar gates for every window a child might reach.
- Medicine chest. Store all medicine in cabinets above the reach of children, and lock cabinets they might get into. Keep track of any medication you might carry in your purse or briefcase.
- Living room. Install brackets and braces to secure bookshelves and other furniture against accidental tipping. Secure television sets to the wall or place them on low platforms.
- Kitchen. Use the back burner of your stove when cooking with children present. Turn pots and pans so that their handles face away from the edge, out of reach from tiny hands. Store household cleaners in high cabinets and shelves, or lock lower cabinets to keep children out.

Keep kids safe from bugs during summer months

As summer comes, so do the bugs. And some of those bugs can bite. Follow these guidelines from the American Academy of Pediatrics to protect your children from getting stung or bitten:

- Avoid using scented soaps, hair sprays, and perfumes on your child. The scents can draw insects and bugs and increase your child's risk of being bitten.
- Stay away from nests or places bugs might congregate. This includes stagnant pools of water, areas where uncovered foods are abundant, and gardens where flowers are blooming.

Scientists delve deep into the heart of the world

Jules Verne's Journey to the Center of the Earth described an inner world of jungles, seas, and dinosaurs. The reality is quite different, but no less interesting to scientists, and it's changing all the time.

The latest discovery about the nature of the Earth's core comes from a professor at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The inner core, about 3,000 miles beneath the world's crust, actually contains a second core about half the radius of the outer one. This inner core contains iron crystals, which are oriented in an east-west alignment. The outer inner core's crystals align north-south, although they appear to have flipped several times in the distant past.

Scientists liken the twin cores to the rings on a tree, which allow researchers to peer directly into the past. The discovery could provide important clues to the formation and development of our world.

'New' solar system is the oldest ever found

The oldest solar system in our galaxy is 11.2 billion years old, according to data from NASA's Kepler space telescope. By comparison, our home solar system is about 4.5 billion years old. The new find is about 117 light-years from Earth, with five Earth-sized planets in an orbit too close to their star to allow for life. But the discovery of a solar system's formation only a few billion years after the Big Bang some 13.8 billion years ago suggests that life could have proliferated throughout the cosmos much earlier than scientists previously believed.

Sophie the Stegosaurus steps on the scale (sort of)

How much did the dinosaurs weigh? That question has been answered—at least for one specimen at London's Natural History Museum.

Sophie the Stegosaurus is about 150 million years old, and was discovered in 2003 by paleontologists in Wyoming. It now resides at the British museum, its skeleton 85 percent intact. According to the Yahoo News website, British researchers created a 3-D digital version of the skeleton, then calculated the amount of flesh it would have had around its bones, and compared that with data from modern animals of a similar size.

The result? Sophie tipped the scales at about 1.6 tons, with a body mass roughly equivalent to a small rhinoceros. Knowing its weight will allow paleontologists to learn more about stegosaurus metabolism, food needs, and growth rate.

Know Your Organs: The Gallbladder

The gallbladder is a small, pear-shaped organ located beneath the liver and next to the pancreas. You may not give it a lot of thought—until it starts malfunctioning. Then it can cause pain and serious health problems.

The gallbladder stores a substance called bile, or gall, that comes from the liver and helps to digest fat. The main problem that can arise is the formation of gallstones, which can be as small as a grain of sand or as large as a golf ball. They affect both men and women, and may occur as a single large stone or a group of small ones. What causes them is unclear, though they're more common in people with excessive body fat around the waist, and in those who have lost weight very quickly. The risk of gallstones increases as you age, particularly among women as they approach menopause and everyone after age 40.

You may have gallstones for years without noticing them, regardless of their size or number. But during a gallstone attack, patients can experience sharp pain in the upper right side of the abdomen, along with nausea and vomiting. Attacks tend to occur at night, often after a large meal with lots of fat, as well as after drinking alcohol.

Gallstones are treated in a number of ways: Some people take an acid orally which dissolves the stones gradually, although they may reappear once the treatment is stopped. Otherwise, they can be broken up with ultrasonic shock waves or removed by surgery in serious cases.

Be on the lookout for these symptoms:

- Sudden severe pain in your upper right abdomen, lasting from 30 minutes to several hours.
- Pain in your right shoulder blade or under your right shoulder.
- Indigestion after eating desserts, fried foods, or foods high in fat or protein.

See a doctor immediately if abdominal pain lasts five hours or more, if you experience nausea, vomiting, fever, or chills, if you have a yellowish color in your skin or in the whites of your eyes, or if you have light-colored stools or dark urine.

Keep Your Heart Healthy With The Right Food Choices

The food you eat can make a big difference to your health, especially in matters of the heart. You can keep your heart ticking to a ripe old age by adding these foods to your diet:

- Tomatoes. A good source of vitamin C, vitamin A, potassium, and fiber, tomatoes also contain lycopene, an antioxidant that may help to lower bad cholesterol, keep blood vessels open, and lower the risk of heart disease. For best results, serve cooked tomatoes in stews, soups, and sauces.
- Blueberries. Blueberries contain antioxidants called anthocyanins, which may reduce blood pressure by relaxing blood vessels. One cup has only 80 calories, and they add fiber and vitamin C to your daily diet.

One latte mystery finally solved

Maybe you've never noticed that your latte is a whole lot less likely to slosh over the side of your cup than regular coffee. If so, you're not a physicist with too much time on your hands, apparently. The Sci-News website reports that scientists at Princeton University explored the phenomenon by creating a narrow glass container, filling it with a solution of water, glycerol, and a commercial dishwashing detergent. Then they injected a stream of air through the container's bottom to create layers of bubbles like the foam in a latte.

In the resulting experiment, the scientists used two specific types of movements, a side-to-side jolt and a steady back and forth rocking motion. They discovered that five layers of the foam managed to decrease the waves created by the movement by a factor of 10. More layers didn't have any additional effect on the sloshing. Then, presumably, they went out for coffee.

On the serious side, Sci-News notes that the work may help to develop better techniques for transporting large amounts of fluid with minimal spillage.
