FSC Message

by Jan Wallace, Chairperson

Those who did not attend the FSC April meeting may not have met our new Vice-Chair, Mary Haag. She and her husband Gary are full time residents. They purchased unit 789 in October of 2015. They come to us from Wisconsin. We are so happy to welcome Mary as a new member of the FSC.

July 4th Party will have some changes this year. We will begin the party at 1:00 p.m. and the food will be served first. We are planning the same menu as years previous, with fried chicken (breast and leg), coleslaw, potato salad, roll, apple pie & ice cream, soda or water and coffee. Tickets will be available on Thursday evening from 5:30 till 6:15 p.m. in the Clubhouse by Janet Faith. The ticket price is the same as last year at $6.00 per person and the deadline for purchasing a ticket is July 1st. Ron Wallace will provide the music for dancing from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. We hope to see you there!

June Koffee Klatch

Kathy Baltzell

The Fairway Village "Koffee Klatch" will be on Saturday, June 18, from 8:00 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. Please use your lot number and last name on sign up. The sign-up sheet will be taken down the Wednesday June 15. Coffee, tea, and donuts will be served. Hope to see you there.

Fairway Village Bowling League

Our bowling banquet on April 7, 2016, was a huge success. Thank You to THE OUTCAST, Debbie Buck, Marion Macpherson, Helen Fillhart, Otto Forst, Theresa Walker, Tom Lombardo who organized the event. Most improved ladies bowler was Patsy Roeske, +19 and for the men, Randy Schroeder +18. League winners are the FEARLESS FIVE, Marvin Quenville, Linda Miller, Connie Bryant, Brenda and Gary White.

NICE BOWLING

The Fairway Village Bowling group will be practicing every Thursday at 11:00 a.m. at Seminole Lanes. Come join in the fun and get ready for the new season beginning the first week of October. We need bowlers for the new season, both subs and permanent bowlers. Contact Diana Burns, unit #254, or phone 727-239-7161.

Women Working Wonders

The American Red Cross provides a FREE service called the Telephone Reassurance Program. Volunteers make daily phone calls seven days a week from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. to check on those who sign up for the service. If they do not get an answer, a volunteer or a contact person of your choosing will be dispatched to your home to check on your well being.

Those who sign up for the service must be home during the designated morning time frame for the calls. If you cannot be home on a particular morning or plan to be away on vacation, you can notify your volunteer caller the day before to stop the calls for that time period. You will be asked for a contact person - a neighbor, friend or family member who lives locally and can check on you if the volunteer call goes unanswered.

We hope those living alone in neighborhoods which empty out in the summer months will consider signing up for this service. It will give you, and those who care about you, peace of mind that your well being is checked daily. Call 813-348-4820, Extension 7622 to sign up for this important service. For further information or questions regarding WWW during the summer months, contact Mary Blythe at 533-9712. All inquiries are confidential. The WWW Senior Resource Book will be available during the summer months by contacting Ann Marie Cucinotta at 524-1157. Have a wonderful summer!

The ARC Policies and Procedures Manual defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes as well as for replacing homes. This manual is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website (Fairway Info; Home Buyers information, ARC Revised P and P). Before you begin your project please obtain a Home Replacement or Modification Request form from the FVRA office or download it (page 12, Exhibit D, in the manual) and return the completed form to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets most Mondays in the clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home.

May Golf Scramble

Joanne Thueneman

On a perfect gorgeous day with low humidity, we had 51 golfers to enjoy our Saturday golf scramble. It couldn't have been a nicer day. Our game plan was a best ball with every team mate having at least one drive. Everything ran smooth with most players arriving 15 to 20 minutes early, that's the secret for a successful event.

We had 1 team each of 25, 26, 29, 32, and a 33, 4 teams with 27, 2 with a 28, and 2 with 30.

Thank you to Bill Keen and Rick Moser who never disappoint us having a great course to play. You guys do a terrific job for us. Also a thank you to Stephanie Herdman for keeping us on time.

Please keep that in mind to keep the second Saturday morning free, just in case we get rain on the first. All of our summer scrambles will have the second Saturday as a rain date. Next scramble will be June 4th. See you then.

Any changes or questions, please call Joanne at 483.9980.

Summer Fun and Games

FUN SHUFFLE BOARD...SUNDAYS 6:30 PM COME JOIN US! Beginners Welcome!

The program was started to take advantage of the improvements made to the court. Last summer was had 12 to 20 people attending.

The roof over keeps the sun and in most cases the rain out of the area.

We usually play four games and rotate playing partners and finish before 8 o'clock.

We encourage you to attend and learn this game. Once you learn rules and how to keep score, residents and their guests can play and enjoy the game anytime the court has not been reserved.

MONDAY GAME NIGHT 6:30 PM to 8PM IN THE CLUBHOUSE

Bring a game with you. OR just come and play!

Card Games, Dice Games, Board Games, Rummikub, or Dominos

This will be a great opportunity to teach people how to play a new game and/or learn new games.

Your Choice: You can play one game for a while and then move to another. Stay for an hour or until ???.

Coffee may keep you healthy

Is drinking coffee good for you? A recent article on The New York Times website linked to a number of different studies touting the positive effects of caffeine on several different health problems. They include:

- Liver damage. A review of data collected by studies of more than 430,000 people found that coffee may lower the risk of cirrhosis of the liver, a disease associated with overindulgence in alcohol (among other causes).
- Tinnitus. Researchers kept track of more than 65,000 women and found that those who drank more than one 8-ounce cup of coffee a day were less likely to suffer from tinnitus, that persistent ringing or buzzing in your ears.
- Auto crashes. A study of truck drivers who routinely work on long hauls found that coffee drinkers (or consumers of other caffeinated drinks) seem 63 percent less likely to be involved in crashes while driving.
- Melanoma. An analysis of health and dietary data involving more than 400,000 people ages 50-71 found that those who drank four or more cups of coffee a day were 20 percent less likely to develop skin cancer. (The researchers cautioned that avoiding exposure to the sun's ultraviolet rays is still the most important way to avoid melanoma.)

How fast do you want that package?

Americans tend to be an impatient bunch. A study by fulfillment software vendor Temando found that 80 percent of U.S. consumers want same-day shipping from retailers, and 61 percent want their purchases shipped out even faster, within three hours.

Retailers haven't responded, at least not yet. The study noted that only 53 percent offer same-day shipping even though 55 percent of buyers indicated they'd be willing to pay for it, and only 20 percent send products within three hours, although 31 percent said they'd be ready to pay for that.

Watch your words when talking to doctors

Communicating with your doctor is important, but you can overdo it. From the Prevention.com website comes this lists of things doctors don't want to hear from their patients:

- "I'm sure I have ____." Researching your symptoms online is fine, but most doctors want to diagnose illnesses themselves. Don't walk into the doctor's office insisting you know what's wrong.
- "It's probably just stress." Writing off your problems to stress might keep you from fully describing what's going on. Be ready to tell your doctor all your symptoms so he or she can get a clear idea of your illness.
- "I'm sorry for wasting your time." You may feel that your illness isn't important, but doctors would prefer that you come in before a minor ailment turns into a serious one. You don't have to apologize for taking care of your health.
- "Haven't you heard of this new drug?" Doctors are busy people who don't have time to keep up with every new medication, no matter how hard they try. Don't insist that your doctor prescribe something you saw on TV, but do print out articles that might be helpful in treating your illness.
- "You're supposed to be the expert." Again, doctors are human, and they sometimes miss things. Have realistic expectations, and talk openly about your needs so the doctor can make an informed decision.

Dragonfly breaks record for longest flight

Birds may fly great distances, but the world's leading long-distance flyer is a dragonfly an inch and a half long, according to biologists at Rutgers University-Newark. A species of dragonfly known as Pantala flavescens can be found in areas as far apart as eastern Canada, Texas, Japan, and India. Their work found that dragonflies in all these locations share a common gene pool, showing that they were able to travel vast distances to intermingle with local species.

The dragonflies have an increased surface area on their wings that lets wind carry them across oceans. (Some have already been observed migrating between Asia and Africa across the Indian Ocean.) Some of them may actually make the long journey without stopping, stroking the air and then gliding for extended periods to conserve their energy.

Monarch butterflies were previously thought to migrate the farthest distance of any creature—2,500 miles—but if the Rutgers biologists are correct, the dragonflies have set a new record.

Microwaves make rubies sparkle

Want to make your jewelry sparkle? Try putting it in the microwave. Actually, that may not be your best or safest bet, but scientists have discovered that a microwave treatment can improve the clarity and color of rubies, which aside from jewelry are used in high-power switches and sensors.

As reported on the Science Daily website, a research team at India's Institute of Minerals and Materials Technology (IMMT) put a series of natural, hexagonal rubies in a standard 3MW microwave furnace and heated them at 1,500 degrees Celsius. The microwaves changed the gemstones' color and structure, turning them from reddish black to bright pink and smoothing out defects and impurities by altering their atomic layout and crystal structure.

The process is promising because it's quicker than regular heating and ensures uniformity, and is also more energy efficient.

Did Neanderthals build their own fires?

Our Neanderthal ancestors may have used chemistry to start fires, according to an article on the Scientific American website. Archeologists have found chunks of black manganese oxides in Neanderthal sites for years. Previously they believed the oxides were used for dark body paint, although other sources like ash and charcoal would have been more easily available to them.

Scientists at Leiden University in the Netherlands, though, analyzed some chunks of manganese found at a site in southern France and discovered that the blocks contained manganese dioxide, which is more flammable than other types of manganese. Groundup particles of the substances can lower the ignition temperature of wood by more than 100 degrees—suggesting that instead of relying on naturally occurring fires sparked by lightning, Neanderthals were able to build fires on their own.

Radio bursts detected from neutron star

They're not signals from an advanced alien civilization, but they've been a mystery to astronomers for years. Fast radio bursts, or FRBs, are bursts of energy from outer space lasting just milliseconds but emitting as much energy as the sun produces in 10,000 years. Only 17 have ever been recorded, all of them apparently one-time events.

But a repeating FRB has recently been detected, according to the Sci-News website: Astronomers from McGill University using the Arecibo radio telescope in Puerto Rico have recorded a series of 10 FRBs they believe may emanate from a rotating neutron star in a distant galaxy.

This conflicts with previous theories that FRBs are caused by cataclysmic events such as supernovas or the creation of black holes. Whatever their origin, the truth is out there.

The important thing in science is not so much to obtain new facts as to discover new ways of thinking about them.

The Internet spreads across the globe

Access to the Internet has expanded around the world, according to the Pew Research Center. A global survey found that 54 percent of people in the developing world consider themselves “Internet users” in 2015, up from 45 percent just two years earlier. Those users include 37 percent of survey respondents who said they own a smartphone, an increase from 21 percent in 2013.

Still, growth is slow in some parts of the world. In Africa, the countries Burkina Faso, Uganda, and Ethiopia have Internet use rates below 20 percent. The rate is 42 percent in South Africa and 39 percent of Nigeria, two of Africa’s largest economies.

Meanwhile, advanced economies have much higher rates—94 percent in South Korea, 93 percent in Australia, 90 percent in Canada, 89 percent in the United States, and 89 percent in the United Kingdom.

Figuring the tip: How much to leave?

How much to tip a server depends to some extent on where you are. The national average is 18.9 percent, according to the Zagat website, but the amount fluctuates around the country:

- Boston 20 percent
- Philadelphia 19.9 percent
- Chicago 19.6 percent
- Minneapolis 18.2 percent
- Nashville 18.2 percent
- Orlando 18.1 percent
- San Antonio 17.1 percent

Monkey business

A wealthy man took his dachshund on an African safari, but on the second day the dog got scared and ran into the jungle. Lost, he wandered around until a lion spotted him.

Thinking fast, the dachshund turned his back on the lion and lay down, pretending to sleep. “Boy, that was one tasty lion!” he said loudly. “After a meal like that, I need to take a nap!”

The lion backed off. “I’ve never seen an animal like that,” he thought. “He must be dangerous.”

A monkey up in a tree saw the whole thing and realized that the dog had fooled the king of beasts. So he jumped onto the lion’s back and explained that he’d been tricked.

Furious, the lion leaped to attack again. But the dachshund saw him just in time and thought fast again. Lifting his head with a yawn, he said loudly, “Where is that monkey? I thought he’d be back by now with another lion!”

Dem bones

Some tourists in a museum were marveling at a complete dinosaur skeleton. One of them asked the guard, “Do you know how old those dinosaur bones are?”

The guard replied, “They’re 70 million and three years old. Three and a half actually.”

“How can anybody be so precise?” the visitor asked.

“Well, they were 70 million years old when I started working here, and that was three and a half years ago.”

They’re biting

A millionaire walked past an old man sitting on the curb outside a bar. The old man had a fishing rod, and he seemed to be trying to catch fish in the storm drain.

Taking pity, the millionaire took the old man to a nearby restaurant for a meal. As they ate, the rich man asked, “So how is fishing in that storm drain working out for you?”

“Not bad,” said the old man. “You’re the third one I’ve caught today.”

You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

Teach children or grandchildren this important skill

Problem solving is a skill that's valuable throughout your children's lives, from school to their adult careers. You can teach your children how to tackle any problem they're facing by sharing these steps:

- Identify the problem. This is the most important step, and often the most overlooked. Your child can't solve a problem until he or she can state what it is.
- Come up with a list of solutions. Brainstorm possible solutions, even ones that initially seem farfetched. Just keep the ideas flowing.
- Assess each idea. Now is the time to evaluate the merits of each idea, weighing the pros and cons thoroughly.
- Pick one or two ideas. Have your child pick the top two solutions and give his or her specific reasons for choosing those possible solutions.
- Put the decision into action. Before going forward, talk about possible outcomes. What are the potential obstacles? What help can you expect? How can you avoid traps?
- Evaluate and learn. How did the solution work? What changes need to be made to make it work better? What would your child try the next time?

The hungry thief

Joe and Sam went into a bakery. When the cashier wasn't looking, Joe quickly slipped three doughnuts into the pocket of his jacket.

"What are you doing?" Sam whispered. "You just stole those!"

"So what?" Joe asked. "Nobody saw a thing."

Sam waved the cashier over. "Give me a doughnut, and I'll show you a magic trick."

Intrigued, the cashier handed over a doughnut. Sam ate it, then asked for a second one, and then a third.

"So what's the trick?" the cashier asked, skeptically.

"You know where those doughnuts are now?"

The cashier frowned. "Where?"

"Look in my friend's pocket."
