GAO SUMMER SEASON

Cheryl Welch-Williams, President GAO

Marlene Johnson, Vice-president GAO

Dorinda Houghton Barnes, Summer Activities

For questions regarding Summer activities on the calendar and for scheduling the clubhouse for use during summer months, residents should contact Cheryl at 607-725-2180.

Gateway Summer season activities continue.

Sewing Central is the substitute for the regular Tuesday Ladies Day.

A monthly Potluck Dinner, offering the same format as fall-winter Potluck, will continue August 17th at 5:00 pm and repeat the third Wednesday of September.

A Koffee Klatch will be held the first Thursday of each month at 9:30 am at the clubhouse. Coffee, pastries, donuts and cookies will be the typical fare and those attending are requested to contribute $1.00 towards the cost.

The September 5th Labor Day Picnic will signal the beginning of the end for our Summer Activities as the Sno-birds begin returning for the Fall/Winter season.

MESSAGE FROM MANAGEMENT

Amy Danson, Assistant Manager

Repairs to the park hot tub have been delayed, and are expected to take place after September.

The portion of the badly deteriorated fence in the pond just north of the 106th Avenue gate has been replaced.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PICNIC

Dorinda Houghton Barnes

What a wonderful experience our Independence Day celebration was! There was the gracious and thoughtful gesture by D.W.C Lawn Masters, the Gateway community landscape contractor, who provided funding for the purchase of the food for the 4th of July picnic. For the first time in quite a few years the day was free from rain and thunderstorms. There were 43 people who turned out for the event hosted by Mike and Marlene Johnson, Cassie Packala and me.

Thanks to all who came and enjoyed this afternoon/evening in celebrating our nation's founding. Thanks to Cynthia Cboins, Karol Dunlap, Karen Feyen and Ellen Mickelson for their assistance, Janice Cook who offered the Blessing and Bob Harris who led our Pledge of Allegiance.

SEWING CENTRAL

Dorinda Houghton Barnes

Sewing Central is small but going strong , a few of us have done more painting on bottles and wine glasses , the designs are turning out brilliant. Ellen is taking over from me starting this month and I will be supporting her as will some other ladies .

SUMMER POTLUCK DINNER

Dorinda Houghton Barnes

Thanks to all who attended and made our June 15th Potluck a success. Lots of good food and people mixing and joking with one another. Cassie Packala and I host this event along with help from our friends Karol Dunlap, Ellen Mickelson, Karen Feyen and Janice Cook who did our dinner blessing.

Summer Potluck Dinner is held at 5 PM, the third Wednesday of each month as part of Gateway Summer Activities. Simply bring a dish to share and join us for 'dinner'; beverages are provided. You will find it to your liking.

This months dinner is Wednesday, August 17th at 5 PM. Hope to see you there.

KOFFEE KLATCH

Dorinda Houghton Barnes

Koffee Klatch began last month on Thursday, July 7th at the Gateway Clubhouse. Attendance was sparse perhaps it coming on the heels of the Independence Day Picnic earlier in the week. Karen Feyen and I will host this months Koffee Klatch and all you need to join are a coffee cup and a one dollar bill. We supply the smiles.

This month's Koffee Klatch will be Thursday, August 4th at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

LABOR DAY PICNIC

The Labor Day Picnic will be on Monday, September 5th at 4 PM.

The menu will be Hot Dogs, Kielbasa, Hamburgers, with condiments; beverages are provided, Iced Tea, Coffee. Watch the clubhouse bulletin board and display cases for details.

RUMOR MILL & OTHER THINGS

According to the Spot Crime online reporting website (email subscription) there have been five reported incidents of property crime (thefts and burglary) within the Park since the first of June. All residents should be aware of the temptation that unsecured, loose items and unlocked automobiles provides to any casual observer passing through the community.

The Gateway website currently lists 10 homes ranging from $3500 to $89000 available for immediate occupancy. The Park consists of approximately 312 improved lots and the fact that there appears to be less than 3% of the homes vacant, certainly bodes well for we residents. If Gateway remains a popular and desirable place to reside we should expect that Park owners and their management staff will have adequate revenue and incentive to maintain and improve the amenities they provide, and will adequately vet new residents in an effort to attract and keep responsible residents of good moral character.

Keep in mind the pipes supplying water to our homes and to water our lawns are old and not buried deeply in the ground. Parking and driving on the grass will most certainly lead to breakage and the interruption to water service during the time it takes to accomplish repairs to either of the systems. Pay attention to the signs and please do not drive on or park your motor vehicles on the grass.

Other than the Annual Bazaar and Halloween and Valentine Dance ticket donations the only other source of GAO General funding is through the paper and can recycling. The paper 'dumpster' is located at the north end of 1st Way and aluminum cans (free of cigarette butts and ashes please) can be deposited in the clubhouse storage room or the barrel marked for aluminum cans at the east entrance bulletin board.

ANOTHER COMPUTER TIP FROM RICKSDAILYTIPS EMAILS ASKING YOU TO LOG IN AND UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION ARE ALWAYS FAKE

The Editor

[Credit Card and Banking Institutions, whether you access accounts online or not are requesting you supply an email address and a mobile (smart phone) number so they can contact you and keep you up to date with account information. The same is true with virtually any and all retail product or service businesses. Your editor receives about 25 emails per day from any and all manner of business entities, most take the form of advertisements, but every so often comes that request to visit a website and log on to an account. Over the years I have learned to be suspicious of any 'link' contained in any email I receive.]

If you ever get an email that appears to be from your bank or some other online service telling you that you need to click a link in the email to log in to your account and update your personal information, don't do it.

These types of emails are always fakes. Every one of them, every time.

Well, there is one (and only one) exception and that is when you cannot remember your password and you click the "Forgot Password" link, in which case you'll most likely receive an email containing a link to click in order to reset your password. ALL other such emails are fakes.

Of course there are indeed times when you'll be asked to verify or update your information for a given account, but that request will always be made after you have logged into the account with your current username and password, never before.

Don't be fooled by "official" looking emails and websites. Hackers and thieves are experts at making their fake emails and websites look legit.

If you are ever tempted to click a link in an email and enter your username and password, DON'T DO IT! The website on the other end of that link quite possibly a fake, and after you enter your username and password the bad guys will take that information and log into your real account, pose as you and clean out the account!

Here are the steps to follow when you receive one of these fake emails:

1. Forward the email to the fraud division of your bank or online service. You'll find the correct email address to use listed somewhere on their website.
2. Delete the email without clicking any links in it. The link might appear to be legit, but if you hover your mouse over it you'll see the URL of the site the link actually leads to displayed at the bottom of the screen – and it WON'T be the URL for your bank's website.
3. Manually type in the URL or use a bookmark that you already know to be legitimate for your bank or service's website and log in from there. If anything truly needs to be updated you'll be notified via a pop-up window or bolded message. If you have any questions at that point you can always call their customer service number and ask the rep directly.

If you happen to slip up and enter your login information on a fake website (you'll know because the login will fail), go to the real website or call customer service immediately and change your password.

GATEWAY MEN'S GOLF

Peter Soehnlén, Editor/Wannabe Golfer

We play twice weekly (early mornings) Tuesday and Friday at the Par 3, nine hole Cypress Links located east of 4th Street off 62nd Ave North, about 10 minutes from Gateway and at the Mainlands course, off US 19 just north of Wal-Mart. Both courses offer special summer rates and Mainlands has early morning 9-hole special for $10.00 with a cart.

GATEWAY COMMUNITY DIRECTORY

Peter Soehnlén, NewsNDos Editor

New directories were distributed with the May issue of NewsNDos. Please take the time to review your information to verify that it is correct and as you wish it to appear. If you desire any changes or corrections please contact me at the email or phone number below. I will be publishing updates to the listings here as information is received in order that you may make the corrections and additions in your Gateway Directory. These directories are meant for use by residents and should not be casually discarded or left at the Clubhouse. Should yours become lost, destroyed or be eaten by a pet please feel free to contact Peter Soehnlén, Editor of NewsNDos at (727) 269-9569 or GAOnews@tampabay.rr.com for a replacement. Additional copies will NOT be available at the Park Office.

GATEWAY LET'S CONNECT

June Boudreau, Coordinator

Want to be reminded of the activities schedule for the park? Then join in Let's Connect by sending your e-mail address to juneboudreau5@gmail.com with a Subject Line of Let's Connect.

Let's Connect is a great way to stay aware of those once a month Gateway activities that we usually remember just hours before or the next day after the event. Event emails usually arrive a few days ahead but just in time for you to adjust your schedule and post a reminder to your calendar.

The Let's Connect notices now go to over 100 throughout the Park and is a great way to be reminded of events and regular activities.

GATEWAY ACTIVITIES ORGANIZATION

Cheryl Williams, President

GAO as we are commonly known is responsible for the operation of the Gateway social activities. The activities in turn are the responsibility of a multitude of unpaid year-around and seasonal resident volunteers. The volunteer officers, President, Vice-President and Secretary are elected to two-year terms, the volunteer treasurer serves at the pleasure of the members. The GAO Steering Committee is made up of the appointed chairmen in charge of the various activities and meets monthly October through April to plan and co-ordinate the activities. Residents with interest in any of our activities and events and especially new residents who wish to become a part of the active Gateway ‘social’ scene will find the monthly meetings provide an informative overview of activities. Information about our GAO is available from any of our Steering Committee Chairpersons or by contacting the officers or editor of NewsNDos.

Did you know that August is also...

Back to School Month. As summer draws to a close, back-to-school season is in full effect. Remember to safely share the roads with school buses, pedestrians, and bicyclists, and provide children with the necessary knowledge to stay safe at school. Whether children walk, ride their bicycle, or take the bus to school, they—and the motorists around them—should remember to take proper safety precautions .

National Black Business Month. During August, individuals, institutions, and businesses are encouraged to visit at least one black-owned business per day. The increased sales resulting from that traffic could result in more than 40,000 additional jobs during the month and as many as 450,000 new jobs if the habit is continued over the course of a year.

National Immunization Awareness Month. National Immunization Awareness Month (NIAM) provides an opportunity to highlight the value of immunization across a person's lifespan. Activities focus on encouraging all people to protect their health by being vaccinated against infectious diseases.

Clown Week, Aug. 1-7. Celebrations take on a variety of forms, such as putting on shows in malls, child care centers, hospitals, and nursing homes, and clown appearances in parades, grand openings, and other places.

National Fraud Awareness Week, Aug. 7-13. Businesses and government agencies around the world lose an estimated 5 percent of their annual revenues to fraud. National Fraud Awareness Week seeks to educate everyone on the dangers of fraud and how to protect themselves from criminal activities.

Motorcycle Week, Aug. 14-20. For the motorcycle rider and lover, a week dedicated to the vehicle that millions of Americans enjoy. Ride, celebrate, and make new friends on the road.

National Aviation Week, Aug. 14-20. A celebration of flight, observed during the week of Orville Wright's birth, Aug. 18. Along with his brother Wilbur, Orville Wright built and flew the world's first successful airplane in Kitty Hawk, N.C., in 1903.

International Beer Day, Aug. 5. Enjoy your favorite beer, or try a new one—responsibly, of course.

World Elephant Day, Aug. 12. Asian and African elephants are loved, revered, and respected around the world, yet we teeter on the brink of seeing the last of these magnificent creatures.

National Dog Day, Aug. 31. Celebrate your dog—and dogs everywhere.

Like a good neighbor . . .

We depend on our neighbors to water our plants and walk our dogs when we're out of town—or do we? A study from the Pew Research Center found that only a little more than half of Americans—52 percent—say they trust all or most of their neighbors, and 48 percent they trust only some of their neighbors, or none at all.

The Pew Center found that among households with incomes of $75,000 or more, 67 percent of residents trust all or most of their neighbors, but in households earning less than $30,000, only 37 percent feel the same.

Race may also be a factor, although the connection is unclear: Sixty-two percent of white Americans say they trust their neighbors, just 31 percent of African-Americans do, and only 27 percent of Hispanics.

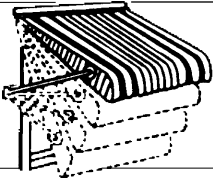

The Zika virus: Protect yourself with the facts

The Zika virus is spreading in the headlines and around the world, but you don't have to panic. The best defense is information. Here are some basic facts about the virus from the NBC News website:

- Origins. Zika comes from the continent of Africa. It was first observed in 1947, but didn't seem dangerous. That changed when it migrated across the South Pacific and ultimately arrived in Brazil, where immunity against the virus is low.
- Effect. The virus itself doesn't seem to cause major health problems in most people beyond a rash, headaches, and fever. But it can in some cases cause paralysis, nerve damage, encephalitis, and miscarriages, as well as birth defects and deaths in newborn children.
- Transmission. The Zika virus is mostly spread by mosquitoes native to tropical regions. It can also be sexually transmitted.
- Reach. Zika has already arrived in the United States, where approximately 700 people have been infected after traveling to foreign countries. Mosquitoes that carry the disease are common in many areas, even as far north as New York, so localized outbreaks could occur in several states.
- Prevention. Air conditioning and windows screens are both good defenses against the mosquitoes. In addition, officials advise that people wear long clothing and insect repellent when going outside.

August CROSSWORD

Act of compassion

In these days of political polarization, this story about acceptance seems appropriate: When former Vice President Hubert Humphrey died, hundreds of political figures from around the world came to his funeral. One was former President Richard Nixon, who resigned from office in the wake of the Watergate scandal. Everyone wondered how the disgraced ex-president would be received.

When then-President Jimmy Carter arrived, he noticed Nixon standing alone. Instead of heading for his seat, Carter walked toward Nixon, held out his hand, and then gave Nixon a hug, saying, “Welcome home, Mr. President, welcome home!”

Despite belonging to a different political party, Carter decided to show compassion toward someone whom many ignored. It was an extraordinary gesture of acceptance.

A life in books

Pulitzer Prize-winning writer Geraldine Brooks’ love of books from a young age was supported by a woman she never met. According to The Power of Good, by Mark McCrindle (Hybrid Publishers), Brooks’ grandfather mentioned to a friend named Althea Glasby that his granddaughter loved to read, and so every year for Christmas young Geraldine got a book signed, “To Geraldine, with love from Althea Glasby.”

“I have no idea what this woman spent so much time and thought on a child she didn’t know,” Brooks said as a grownup. “Whatever the reason, I wish I could thank her in person. I wish I could tell her how those books shored up a love for the written word that grew over time into a career and a calling. I would like to give her one of the books I’ve written, nice, hardback first edition. The signature wouldn’t be as fine and fluid as hers, but in my own pedestrian scrawl I would say thank you, for the gifts that helped to lead me to a life in books.”

A costly game

Bill and Fred were playing golf one day. When they came to a hole with a large water hazard, Bill teed up and watched his ball drop into the water. He checked his golf bag and found he didn’t have any extra balls, so he asked Fred to give him one.

That ball, too, went into the water, so Fred gave him another—which also sank. After the third golf ball disappeared into the drink, Fred said, irritated, “You know, those golf balls cost $10 a piece!”

“Hey,” Bill said, “you shouldn’t play the game if you can’t afford it.”

Get started on your writing project today

If you've dreamed of writing a novel, a short story, or even a poem, but you don't know how to get started, don't worry. Most creative writers have trouble with the first page from time to time. Try these tips for charging up your imagination:

- Try some exercises. Instead of launching right in on your thousand-page trilogy, try writing a few short scenes to get the hang of the process. Don't be a perfectionist—just get your story down as quickly as you can until you're used to writing.
- Keep a notebook. Whether you use paper or a smartphone, keep a running list of observations about the people and things you encounter every day. Use it to spark your imagination when you feel low on ideas.
- Find the right time. Determine when you feel most creative. For many people, it's the first few hours of the morning, but some do just as well writing late at night.
- Cut yourself some slack. Your first attempt probably won't be perfect. Remember that you're just trying to get your ideas out on paper (or the screen). You'll have plenty of time to rewrite and revise later.
- Have fun. If writing is drudgery, it may not be for you. Whatever you're working on, relax and try to enjoy what you're doing. Your emotions will show through in the finished product.

Shake up your habits to spark innovation

Innovation doesn't happen all by itself—you and your team have to work persistently to develop creative new ideas. Here are some strategies to kick your innovative impulses into high gear:

- Change your routine. Reschedule your day so you're doing things in a different order.
- Vary your surroundings. Rearrange your office for a different view, or switch offices with someone else if that's practical. Hold meetings off-site.
- Share data differently. Look for different ways to distribute information. For instance, write a report in rhyme, or deliver a presentation as a skit.
- Switch jobs. Spend a day doing someone else's job—inside your department or outside it.

The night shift takes a bigger toll on women

Working the midnight shift is hard on everyone, but it may be more detrimental to women’s health than men’s, according to a study by a sleep research center at the University of Surrey.

The center put 16 male volunteers and 18 females in a controlled environment where each day lasted 28 hours without natural day-night light levels. Every three hours during “daytime” the volunteers performed a range of tasks that measured brain function, alertness, motor control, and memory. Both men and women were affected by the lack of natural circadian rhythms, but the impact was greater on women, who exhibited more problems than men during the early hours of their awake period. The information is useful for everyone contemplating work on the so-called graveyard shift.

Loneliness is bad for the heart

Loneliness and isolation may be bad for your mental health, and they can also have a negative impact on your physical health. That comes from a British study reported on the CBS News website, which found that in addition to high blood pressure and compromised immune systems, loneliness can apparently lead to problems with the heart.

The British researchers looked at data from more than 180,000 people. They found that adults with few friends or social relationships were 29 percent more likely to suffer a heart attack or angina, and also 32 percent more likely to have a stroke.

The cause and effect relationship remains unclear, but the findings suggest that strong relationships can influence your health in many ways.

Choose the right food to combat stress

We all have our go-to foods when we’re stressed out—chocolate cake or a bowl of ice cream. But certain foods can actually help you relax without blowing your diet. Consider these alternatives:

- Leafy greens. Spinach, lettuce, and other leafy vegetables can help your brain produce dopamine, which can calm you down.
- Turkey. The tryptophan in turkey boosts serotonin levels, relieving depression.
- Salmon. Salmon is high in omega-3 fatty acids, which can inhibit hormones that cause stress.
