Manager Bob Kelsey’s Message

March was a busy month with the Coronavirus Scare. Everything was shut down due to this. Hopefully April will be a better month. I did resident inspections last month and ask everyone to upgrade their properties. I thank you for your cooperation.

We are having new mobiles brought into our park. If you would like information concerning these please see me.
I hope everyone has an enjoyable April.

Nancy Labbe’s Message

Congratulations to all the Officers and Directors of Glen Ellen. Good luck and much success in the coming year. Questions or concerns contact President Debra Delpha in Mobile 334. A Neighborhood Watch has been initiated in Glen Ellen. Sandy Ward is in charge and if you have any concerns contact her in Mobile 111. There will be Police patrolling the park all hours of the day and night. Two residents passed away in Glen Ellen, Jane Kramford who was a resident for many years at 100 years old. Also Christine Phelps passed away after a short illness. They are resting now. Enjoy April and have a Happy Easter.

April

Global Astronomy Month. With a motto of “One People, One Sky,” the group Astronomers Without Borders encourages people everywhere to behold the night sky and the wonders of the universe. Look for Venus near the Pleiades star cluster, this year’s largest supermoon, and maybe a meteor shower.

National Card and Letter Writing Month. Before technology ruled our lives, before the invention of the telephone, people took pen to paper to express their thoughts and feelings. Brush up on your penmanship and embrace the art of letter writing this April.

National Rebuilding Month. This spring, volunteers will work to repair homes, community centers, and nonprofit facilities throughout the U.S. To learn more about projects planned for your area, visit <https://rebuildingtogether.org/>.

Stress Awareness Month. Be on the lookout for tips and ideas from health care and wellness professionals raising awareness of the sources of stress that affect our lives, and the strategies we can employ to alleviate and prevent it.

Weekly

Holy Week, April 5–11. A Christian observance and time of fasting, including the final days of Lent, this week begins on Palm Sunday and ends on Holy Saturday before Easter. (Orthodox Holy Week is April 12–18.)

Stewardship Week, April 26–May 3. Since 1955, the National Association of Conservation Districts has observed the last Sunday in April through the first Sunday in May as a time to raise awareness of the many ways we can conserve and protect our natural resources. To learn more, visit <https://www.nacdnet.org/>

Start your morning the right way

If you grab a doughnut and dash out of the house in the morning, you might be in an unhealthy rut. Here are a few ideas for you to start your morning in a better way:

- Get up 20 minutes early so you don't have to rush.
- Listen to a relaxing CD in the morning instead of the morning news.
- Get rid of that annoying alarm clock, and buy one that wakes you up with a light aroma or pleasant tones.
- Think of all the things you are grateful for.
- Get centered before you go out into the world. Take a few minutes to meditate or do yoga.
- Get up early enough to do a short exercise routine.
- Set one goal or intention for the day. Close your eyes and concentrate on what it is you want to accomplish.
- Write in your journal.
- Drink your favorite beverage from your favorite mug, and take a few minutes to absorb the entire experience.
- Get up with the sun, and take a relaxing walk.

Let's 'rub minds'

The Oxford English Dictionary has added 29 words and phrases of Nigerian origin. Some of our favorites:

- “Ember months” are the months of September through December (excluding October, of course).
- “Next tomorrow” is the term used to refer to the day after tomorrow.
- The phrase “To rub minds,” or “rubbing minds,” explains the concept of collaborating or working together.
- “Severally” is something that happens repeatedly or on several occasions.
- “To eat money” means to acquire it through dishonest or deceptive practices such as embezzlement, theft, or the misappropriation of funds.

Family Owned & Operated

For Over 3 Decades!

What are you doing this summer?

If you haven't made plans for the summer, you might consider whether a "Skip-Generation Vacation" will work for your family. This trendy way of travel happens when active grandparents go on holiday with their grandchildren. This arrangement can be beneficial for many reasons:

- It allows grandparents and grandchildren quality time to bond and learn from each other.
- Many baby boomer grandparents enjoy an active lifestyle and the financial stability that allows for travel away from home.
- Staycationing grandparents have the time to spend with their grandchildren at museums, libraries, and parks during the day when family-friendly activities are held.
- With the kids away and well-cared for by Nana and Papa, busy parents have downtime for date nights, getting projects done around the home, going to a rock concert, sleeping in late, or whatever carefree adults have the luxury of doing.

A few considerations to be mindful of:

- There should be a candid family discussion about acceptable behavior and expectations, especially in families where grandparents and grandchildren interact infrequently.
- To test out whether this sort of arrangement is suitable for your family, grandparents might plan a short trip that is close to home instead of a longer trip with more logistical considerations.
- Allow grandchildren to share in the planning to tap their interests and build anticipation.

Your art is what you do when no one can tell you exactly how to do it. Your art is the act of taking personal responsibility, challenging the status quo, and changing people.
