From Bob Kelsey: Community Manager

Activities are still being allowed, but they must be approved in advance by management of ELS and follow some minimum guidelines. As the cases are surging across the nation and here in Florida, we will continue to monitor the CDC website, State of Florida website and local websites for any changes that may need to be implemented. Please be advised events or activities may be cancelled with little or no advance notices.

PRESIDENT'S PODIUM....

2021 has arrived.

Our Executive meeting will be held December 6th, 10am at the clubhouse.

Our Membership meeting will be December 7th, 9am. Our nominating committee chairperson will be appointed at this time by our Vice President Vinny Sbrogna. Members are encouraged to attend. If more than 28 members arrive, the meeting will be held outside (weather permitting).

Everyone should have received the updated By Laws if you did not receive them please tell a board member and we will get you them.

We have many activities happening this month, please enjoy them all. As a reminder, we must adhere to all the guidelines set forth by ELS to enjoy the clubhouse. These guidelines had been distributed to every lot in the community, ask any Board member if you would like a copy and they will get one for you. The Board of Officers and Activity Chairperson(s) must make sure all patrons adhere to these guidelines so we can enjoy the clubhouse.

Debra Delpha

VICE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Hello my fellow neighbors. I would like to inform everyone on how the Nomination of Officers is conducted.

Please review the following:

1. A nominating committee shall be formed in January prior to the Annual meeting in February.
2. The nominating committee chairman shall be appointed by the Vice President, the chairman shall then select 3 or 5 members of the HOA membership.
3. The members chosen must be in good standings and not running for an Executive office.
4. The committee shall not exceed more than five (5) members total (excluding the chairman).
5. The committee must construct and post a list of all the Executive Offices on a standard piece of paper with enough ample room to the right side of each title for the members who wish to place their names for that office. An eligibility form shall be filled out.
6. The list must be posted in a common place (Clubhouse) known to all membership in ample time prior to the Annual meeting in February.
7. No candidate may run for more than one (1) position.
8. No one can write the name of any other member for any office with or without consent.
9. Nominations at the Annual February meeting may be taken off the floor providing the member is present and accepts the nomination.
10. Eligible candidates must be Property Owners/Lease Holders and of enough age as described per office prior to the election.
11. Only one (1) candidate per Mobile (duel ownership) shall be allowed on the ballot for any position.
12. The committee must be present at the Annual February meeting and the meeting for elections in March.
13. A nominee may remove his/her name after the closing provided the following are met; must present a signed letter in writing or print to any nominating committee chairperson prior to the election.
14. Campaigning is allowed and limited to only social activities or events held by the HOA membership. The use of propaganda however shall not be used for campaigning.
15. Slandering, defacing, or any inappropriate conduct toward your opponent will not be tolerated and can/will have you removed from the nominations.
16. When the Annual February meeting adjourns, all nominations will be closed.

Any questions, please let me know. Thank you
Vinny Sbrogna

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,

The strange case of The Strange Case

Most of us are familiar with the story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, in which a mild-mannered scientist transforms into a hideous, beastlike villain. The story behind the story is less dramatic, but also fascinating.

Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-1894) had long been interested in the relationship between good and evil. One night his wife woke him in the middle of a nightmare, and he told her he'd been dreaming about a man turning into a monster. That became the genesis of the tale.

Stevenson wrote his story at a feverish pace, finishing a draft in about three days. As was his custom, he gave it to his wife for comments. She returned the pages saying that the tale was really an allegory, not a straightforward story. He took her advice to heart—so much so that he burned his first draft so he could revise it without relying on his previous version at all.

The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde was an immediate success, spawning plays and movies devoted to the concept of two diametrically opposed personalities in the body of a single person.

The least deserving may be in the most need

A Zen master invited pupils for a gathering devoted to study and meditation for many weeks. One day a student was caught stealing from the others, and the matter was brought before the master. They insisted the thief be expelled, but the master declined and the student remained.

Several days later the thief was caught again, but once again the master refused to take action. Now the rest of the students were angry, and they drew up a petition demanding the dishonest one be thrown out. They presented their petition and waited for the response.

The master replied calmly, “You are all wise brothers who know what is right and what is not right. You may go anywhere to study if you wish. But this poor brother does not know right from wrong. Who will teach him if I do not?”

There is no doubt fiction makes a better job of the truth.

The perils of taking a bath

At the end of a long, stressful day, Allison decided to take a nice relaxing bath. Just as she was settling into the water, her doorbell rang. Because she lived alone, no one else could answer it, and after repeated ringing she got up, put on a robe, and went downstairs.

The caller turned out to be a salesperson, and Allison quickly sent him away. Running some fresh hot water, she returned to her bath, only to be interrupted by the phone. Frustrated and more stressed than ever, she once again tried to lie in the tub, but two minutes later the doorbell rang again.

This time Allison slipped in some water on the bathroom tile and fell down hard. Staggering downstairs in pain, she tripped and tumbled the last few steps. Whoever had rung her doorbell was gone. Aching, Allison managed to climb back upstairs, get dressed, and hobble back down and outside to take a cab to the emergency room.

The doctor checked her over. “There’s no serious injury,” he assured Allison. “You just need to get some rest. How about a nice hot bath?”

The big swindle

One evening back when newsboys were a common sight on the streets of every city, one enterprising young lad dropped his stack of papers on the corner and started yelling: “Fifty businessmen swindled! Read all about it! Fifty businessmen swindled!”

A businessman promptly handed the boy a nickel and scanned the front page. Perplexed, he quickly skimmed the rest of the paper. “Hey,” he demanded, “there’s nothing in here about a big swindle!”

“Read all about it!” the newsboy cried. “Fifty-one businessmen swindled!”

I am thankful for laughter, except when milk comes out of my nose.
