Nancy Labbe's Message

September, where did the summer go! I hope everyone had a good summer considering what we all are going through. There are quite a few new residents in the park. Welcome everyone, enjoy Glen Ellen, we do. Speed limit is 10 miles an hour in the park. Quiet time is 10 PM to 8 AM and please have your dog respect other individuals' property.

Manager Bob Kelsey's Message

I hope residents are enjoying the summer in spite of the limitations put on everyone. There was a break in at Glen Ellen. Hide your valuables everyone. Any questions, do not hesitate to call me.

Do not forget to put your lot number on your check or money order for rent.

Enjoy everyone.

September Daily

National Wildlife Day, Sept. 4. Also celebrated on Feb. 2, National Wildlife Day serves to bring awareness of endangered animals nationally as well as globally.

Labor Day, Sept. 7. A day off and a day to pay tribute to working men and women.

National POW/MIA Recognition Day, Sept. 18. This honors those who were prisoners of war (POWs) and those who are still missing in action (MIA). It is most associated with those who were POWs during the Vietnam War.

Rosh Hashanah, Sept. 18–20. The Jewish New Year and the traditional anniversary of the creation of Adam and Eve, the first man and woman according to the Hebrew Bible, and the inauguration of humanity's role in God's world.

World Alzheimer's Day, Sept. 21. An international campaign to raise awareness and challenge the stigma that surrounds dementia.

The history of Labor Day

Labor Day is a creation of the labor movement, a yearly celebration of the American worker, and a national tribute to the laborer's contribution to the social and economic achievements of the United States. There is some uncertainty about the origins of Labor Day. Some records show that Peter J. McGuire, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, was first to suggest a day to honor those “who from rude nature have delved and carved all the grandeur we behold.” Other research suggests that machinist Matthew Maguire, later the secretary of Local 344 of the International Association of Machinists in Paterson, N.J., proposed the holiday in 1882 while serving as secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union. In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the official holiday. The first governmental recognition of Labor Day came through municipal ordinances passed in 1885 and 1886. The state of Oregon passed the first law recognizing the Labor Day holiday on Feb. 21, 1887. Four more states—Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York—followed suit that same year. On June 28, 1894, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a legal holiday in all the states, the District of Columbia, and all U.S. territories.

September Monthly

Baby Safety Month. Parents and caregivers have many responsibilities, but keeping their baby safe and healthy is a No. 1 priority. Whether you are expecting your first baby, adding to your growing family, or are a grandparent, this is an ideal time to put into action some simple steps to keep baby safe.

National Cholesterol Awareness Month. September is a good month to get your blood cholesterol checked and take steps to lower it if it's high. It's also a good time to learn about lipid profiles and about food and lifestyle choices that help you reach personal cholesterol goals.

Prostate Cancer Awareness Month. Prostate cancer is the second-most common cancer in U.S. men. Learn about prostate cancer to start stepping up against it. The "Step Up for Blue" campaign empowers men to take control of their health and encourages their loved ones to support them.

National Self-Improvement Month. Is there something in your life that you want to improve? September is National Self-Improvement Month. Usually there is a list of things people want to change about their lives. Many items on that list are often things over which we have no control. Stop dwelling on them and focus on what you can change—you.

Weekly

Suicide Prevention Week, Sept. 6–12. National Suicide Prevention Week is the week surrounding World Suicide Prevention Day, Sept. 10. It's a time to share resources and stories, as well as promote suicide prevention awareness. The week focuses on informing and engaging health professionals and the general public about suicide prevention and warning signs of suicide.

National Waffle Week, Sept. 6–12. The word "waffle" comes from the Dutch "wafel," which comes from Middle Dutch "wafele" and stretches as far back as the 13th century. Before that, the French called it "walfre" from the Frankish "wafra," which meant "honeycomb" or "cake." No matter what you call it, no one can deny its deliciousness.

Deaf Dog Awareness Week, Sept. 20–26. Deaf dogs, like other special needs pets, make wonderful furry family members. Their deafness in no way reduces their potential to bring joy to your life and become a loving companion for your family.

Banned Books Week, Sept. 27–Oct. 3. An annual event celebrating the freedom to read, Banned Books Week spotlights current and historical attempts to censor books in libraries and schools.

A cup of tea

A group of students visited their old university professor. Conversation soon turned into complaints about the stress of work and life. Offering them tea, the professor produced an assortment of cups and mugs—porcelain, glass, crystal, some plain looking, some expensive, some exquisite—telling them to help themselves to hot tea.

When all had a cup in hand, the professor said: “I see you have all chosen the nice-looking expensive cups, leaving behind the plain ones. While it’s normal for you to want only the best, that’s also the source of your stress. What you really wanted was tea, not the cup, but you still went for the best cups, and you’re eyeing each other’s cup! If life is the tea, then jobs, money and status in society are the cups. They are just tools to hold and contain life. Don’t let the cups drive you. Enjoy the tea.”

Why fight over shadows?

A wealthy man hired a peasant and his camel for a long trip across the desert. The rich man rode the camel as the peasant led it across the sand.

In the hot noonday sun, they stopped for a rest. Because there was no shade but the camel, they began arguing about who had more of a right to sit in its shadow: the peasant who owned it, or the rich man who had rented it to ride.

Their voices grew louder and louder as the argument went on. Finally the camel got frightened and ran away—leaving them stranded in the middle of the desert.

Moral: Don’t let yourself get so determined to be right that you lose what you’re fighting for.

Some of these things are true and some of them lies. But they are all good stories.

Buried treasure

In a small village lived a hardworking farmer who owned a vast vineyard. Year after year the vineyard provided a rich harvest, and the farmer became very successful. He had three sons who were young and energetic but never bothered to work hard. As the farmer grew old, he began to worry about his sons' future.

Then he fell very ill and realized his death was fast approaching. He called the sons and told them: “Dear sons, I see my death nearing me, but before I bid goodbye to all of you, I want to share a secret. There is a treasure hidden under the fields. Dig the entire field after my death to find it.”

The old farmer died. After the funeral, the sons began to dig for the treasure without leaving any part of the field untouched, but they found nothing. However, their digging of the field led to a healthy crop and resulted in huge earnings. This made the sons realize what their father meant.

Moral: Hard work always pays off. Fruits of hard work are always sweet whether or not they are in the form you expect.

Toss of a coin

A great warrior was going to war with a fierce enemy with only one-tenth the number of soldiers the opposition commanded. He knew that he could win the fight with a well-planned strategy, but his soldiers were in doubt.

On the way to the battle the leader stopped at a temple and told his men: “After my visit here I will toss a coin. If the head comes up, we will win; if tails, we will lose. Destiny holds us in her hand.”

The warrior entered the temple and offered his prayers. Then he came forth and tossed a coin in front of his men. Heads appeared. The soldiers were filled with confidence and eager to fight the battle, which they won.

“No one can change the hand of destiny,” one of the soldiers told the leader after winning the battle.

“Indeed not,” said the leader, and showed the coin—which had heads on both sides.

Three quick ones

A kid found a magic lamp. When he rubbed it, a genie appeared. “What is your first wish?” he asked.

The kid thought for a moment and said, “I want to be rich!”

The genie replied, “It is done! What is your second wish, Rich?”

A photon walked into a hotel. “I’d like a room, please.”

“Of course,” the desk clerk said. “Can we help you with your luggage?”

The photon said, “No, thanks. I’m traveling light.”

A man walked into a library, approached the librarian, and said, “I’ll have a cheeseburger and fries, please.”

The librarian said, “Sir, you know you’re in a library, right?”

“Sorry.” He lowered his voice to a whisper. “I’ll have a cheeseburger and fries, please.”

A few snappy one-liners

- Sometimes when I close my eyes, I can’t see.
- An apple a day keeps anyone away, if you throw it hard enough.
- Dear math: Please grow up and solve your own problems. I’m tired of solving them for you.
- Your secrets are safe with me ... I wasn’t listening.
- I put my phone in airplane mode, but it’s not flying.
- If I won an award for laziness, I would send somebody else to pick it up for me.
- If we shouldn’t eat at night, why is there a light in the fridge?

Something missing

A guy asks a girl to go to a dance. She agrees, and he goes to rent a suit. The rental has a long line, so he waits and waits, and finally he gets his suit.

He decides to buy flowers, so he goes to the flower shop. The flower shop has a long line, so he waits and waits, until he finally gets his flowers.

He picks up his girl and they go to the dance. There is a long line into the dance, so they wait and wait. Finally, they get into the dance.

The guy offers to get the girl a drink. She asks for punch, so he goes to the drink table, and he waits and waits—but there is no punch line.

Proud mothers

Three women were sitting around a table playing bridge and bragging about their sons.

“My Freddie,” said Margaret. “Everyone should be so lucky to have a son like my Freddie. Once a week he brings me a huge bouquet of flowers, he’s constantly bringing me out to restaurants to eat, if I so much as hint that I want something the next morning it’s on my doorstep.”

“That’s very nice about your Freddie,” said Gertrude. “But with all due respect, when I think about the way my Sammy takes care of me, it just can’t compare. Every morning as soon as I wake up, he greets me with bacon and eggs and freshly brewed coffee. Every day at noon he comes over and cooks me a gourmet lunch, and at least once a week he brings me to his house for supper. He truly treats me like a queen.”

“Well,” said Barbara, “I don’t want to make any of you feel bad or anything, but wait until you hear about my Harry. Twice a week he pays someone $200 an hour just so he can lie on their couch and talk to them, and who do you think he speaks about at those prices?” Barbara smiled. “Me! All he talks about is me!”

To truly laugh, you must be able to take your pain and play with it.
