Manager Marilyn Sisti's Message

Just a few items to discuss, first I want to thank all of those who have cleaned up their homes, yards and carports. For those who have not and have been given notice please be aware that ELS has now given us permission to send those who are violating the rules to the attorney. These are items that some of you have on your carports that do not belong, indoor furniture, mattresses, etc. We are trying to make this the best and cleanest park it can be.

I want to bring your attention, now that you get the Monthly Media, that the vendors that are advertised in there are not vetted by the magazine. We have had problems in my other park with vendors who are just trying to rip off the residents. If you need someone reputable please ask the office or ask your neighbor.

I will mention this again, please do not purchase another home in the park unless you get permission from the office to do this. It is in your best interest as well as ours.

If you have any concerns or questions, please let me know.

Administrative Assistant's Message

I appreciate all who have given me their update information. For those who have not, please consider that we have no one to contact in case of fire or other emergency.

For all our northern neighbors, who will be leaving, please be sure we know who to contact about weeds that are getting out of control. This time of the year they are growing very fast, so please everyone try to keep up with them. Thank you!

This is one last opportunity to get your free "partridge pea" plant. They will be arriving in early April this year. This will assist us in keeping the mole cricket problem under control and allow for decent yard growth. They are easy to care for.

I thank one and all who have worked hard to make our park one that people are interested in living in. Daily, I hear from people who are interested in living here, that we have a lovely, clean park and how friendly everyone is.

HAPPY 95 JANE - WE LOVE YOU!!!

Happy Birthday!

March Is...

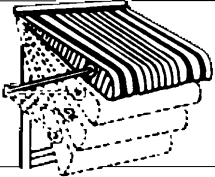

American Red Cross Month. The American Red Cross plays a vital role in rebuilding communities hit by disaster and providing critical support and resources at home and abroad. As President Barack Obama said in a presidential proclamation in 2011, “During American Red Cross Month, we celebrate our nation’s humanitarian spirit, and we recommit to providing relief and hope in times of crisis.”

Music In Our Schools Month. Sponsored by the National Association for Music Education, Music In Our Schools Month is an annual event that engages music educators, students, and communities from around the country to promote the benefits of high-quality music education programs in schools. The program began as a single day of celebration in New York in 1973 and became a month-long salute to school music in 1985.

National Kidney Month. Kidneys filter 200 liters of blood a day, help regulate blood pressure, and direct red blood cell production. But 1 in 3 Americans is at risk for kidney disease due to diabetes, high blood pressure, or a family history of kidney failure. During National Kidney Month, the National Kidney Foundation offers health activities to promote awareness of kidneys, risk factors, and kidney disease.

Singlehood: The pros and cons for your well-being

Is staying single better for your health? While many studies tout the positive health benefits of getting married, not every single person is necessarily looking at a short, unhappy life. From the book Singled Out: How Singles Are Stereotyped, Stigmatized, and Ignored, and Still Live Happily Ever After, by Bella DePaulo (St. Martin's), come these possible advantages offered by the single life:

- Weight. Married people tend to gain weight during the first few years after their wedding, according to the Health Psychology journal—possibly because they no longer worry about attracting partners.
- Exercise. Similarly, single people tend to exercise more, at least according to one University of Maryland study. Perhaps married people are too busy to exercise, or feel less pressure about it.
- Friendships. Singles generally have a wider circle of friends and work harder at maintaining their relationships, says a University of Massachusetts at Amherst study. They tend to do more volunteer work and stay closer to their siblings as well.
- Stress. Couples are more likely to worry and argue about money, and suffer from credit card debt, according to one 2014 survey. Single people may do less housework, leading to less stress about keeping their homes neat.

On the other hand, singles face some health risks of their own. They're more likely to smoke, and according to a 2012 study by Emory University, their mortality rate in the months following heart surgery is three times higher than that of married folks. And since they're 5 percent more likely to develop heart disease, that's not a risk to ignore.

A good laugh and a long sleep are the best cures in the doctor's book.

—Irish proverb

Chemistry and humor: A dangerous mixture?

You don't have to be a scientific genius to get a laugh from these jokes, but a little knowledge of physics and chemistry will help:

- Never trust atoms—they make up everything.
- Did you hear about the guy who read a whole book about helium in one sitting? He couldn't put it down.
- What do you do with a bunch of dead chemists? Barium.
