FROM THE PRESIDENT

I would like to thank our residents for their cooperation in abiding by the recommendations of the CDC. Please keep in mind that we are vigilant in keeping this community safe. We are currently in the middle of another surge. We will post any changes we believe are necessary to keep our residents safe.

Unfortunately, it is again necessary for the Board to ask residents to pick up after their pets. There has been a significant increase in the practice of not picking up after pets. If you witness someone who is ignoring this practice, please call the office. We will follow up with the resident.

We again need to ask residents to follow the 15 miles per hour speed limit. We have several residents who walk around the community, and ride their bikes, and golf carts at different times during the day and night. Obeying the speed limit is essential. Your cooperation is most appreciated.

We want to offer a huge “Thank You” to all who assisted our staff with the clean up from Tropical Storm Eta. It is the spirit of these people that make Glenwood what it is. Thanks again!

The Board of Directors is currently preparing the 2021 budget meeting, and the January unit owners meeting.

BINGO

Card sales begin on Thursday evenings at 6:00 pm. All regular games in a book with 3 cards on a sheet is $3.00, 6 cards on a sheet is $6.00.

We have 3 special games, bonanza, triangle & speedy each $1.00. All games can be played for as little as $6.50.

The cookie jar is a 50/50 game where the player contributes 50 cents, when you bingo on the number selected for the evening you will win what is in the cookie jar plus that game's winning for the evening. 1/2 of the total collected is payout to the winner & 1/2 goes toward purchasing bingo supplies. If a player does not wish to contribute 50 cents they must contribute 25 cents to defray the cost of supplies. Bingo is self-sufficient and we must buy all supplies.

Card sales will close at 6:45 and bingo will begin at 7:00.

Bingo will have some restrictions this year to follow the guidelines by Pinellas County that are listed in the September Gazette & on the windows on either side of the doors entering the clubhouse.

No coffee or snacks will be provided at this time.

Come join us, win some money, wave hello to your neighbors & have fun.

NEEDLEWORK CLASS

After some serious thought I have decided not to start the needlework class until after the New Year begins. I'm thinking of our health as a group, and also thinking of those to whom we donate our goods.

We were unable to donate the items we created for Easter, ducks and bunnies and lap robes, and afghans. I was told they would call when they were able to accept our gifts. I'm storing most of them in my already over-crowded closet.

If you would like to make some small animals or toys, we can hopefully distribute them in the spring along with our ducks and bunnies. These children have very few toys for playing. We may also give the Afghans and lap robes in the spring, if you would rather make a bigger project.

Thanks
Barbara Strachan

Bereavement Committee

We are sorry to report we lost another member of our community.

We offer our condolences to Joadee Edwards, Mardee Ingham and Leasley Ingham, the three daughters of the wonderful, beloved Charlotte Elliott who passed away on October 6, 2020. We will miss her beautiful smile!

Please stay safe and in good health. If you know of someone who has passed, please call and let us know.

Thank you,
Jan Kearney and Marge Giroux

A few short ones

A police officer was interviewing a bank teller after the bank had been robbed three days in a row. The officer asked, "What did he look like?"

The teller responded, "He looked better every time he came here."

Teacher: "Which book has helped you the most in your life?"

Student: "My father's checkbook!"

A doctor got a phone call from one of his colleagues. "Hey, we need a fourth for poker." The doctor replied, "I'll be right there."

His wife asked him, "Is it serious?"

He replied, "There's already three doctors there and they need me."

Speed limit

A state police officer parked by the side of the highway spotted a car driving only 22 miles per hour. He started up, turned on his lights, and pulled the car over.

As he approached the car, he saw the driver was an elderly woman with three friends, one next to her in the front seat and two in the back. "What's the matter, officer?" the driver asked. "I wasn't speeding."

"No, ma'am," the officer said, "but you were driving much lower than the speed limit, and that's just as dangerous."

"But the sign back there said 22," the woman said.

The officer chuckled and explained that 22 was the route number, not the speed limit, which was 65. Embarrassed, the woman apologized and thanked the officer.

Then he peered into the car. "Ma'am, are your friends all right? They all seem a bit frightened."

"Oh, they'll be all right in a minute, officer. We just got off route 157."

Smart lawyer

A man went to his lawyer. "My neighbor owes me $500 and he won't pay up. What should I do?"

"Do you have any proof he owes you the money?" asked the lawyer.

"Nope," replied the man.

"OK, then write him a letter asking him for the $5,000 he owes you," said the lawyer.

"But it's only $500," replied the man.

"Precisely. That's what he will reply and then you'll have your proof!"

Online shopping frustrating

Online shopping isn't new, and it's growing in use due to the coronavirus pandemic. Still, it's not a snap for everyone. The Retail Dive website reports that 40% of shoppers struggle with simple tasks on retail websites, and 52% of those who have difficulty abandon their shopping carts before checkout.

Instead of contacting customer service, most frustrated shoppers—52%— simply go to another site. Only 26% seek assistance from the original site.

Who's having the most trouble? Surprisingly, it seems to be the younger generation. Forty-six percent of Gen Z consumers have struggled with shopping online, followed by millennials (41%), Gen Xers (40%), and baby boomers (33%).

The reason for 'no'

Once a bird was searching for a home to lay her eggs so they'd be safe during the coming rainy season. In her search, she saw two trees, so she went to ask them for shelter.

When she asked the first tree, it refused to give her shelter. Disappointed, she went to the second tree.

The second tree agreed, so she built a nest and laid her eggs. Then the rainy season arrived. The rain was so heavy that the first tree toppled over and was carried away by the flood.

The bird saw this and laughed. "This is your punishment for not offering me shelter."

The tree smiled. "I knew I wasn't going to survive this rainy season. That's why I refused you. I didn't want to risk yours and your children's lives." And it drifted away.

The bird got tears in her eyes. Now that she knew the reason, she felt gratitude and respect for the tree.
