FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

Shirley Roslan

---

Happy New Year to all of you!

This will be my last article for Gazette as Association President because I will not seek re-election in January. We had to deal with hurricane Irma. We also had to deal with the fire that destroyed the unit on Lot 163 and claimed the life of Joe Pratico. We look forward to the new owners putting a beautiful new home on that property hopefully helping all of us move on from that tragedy. Thanks to all of you for your support, and sometimes for your patience, over the last year.

On Monday, January 8th we will hold our Annual Unit Owners Meeting. There will be an election so a quorum is vital. If you are unable to attend, please, fill out your proxy and bring it to the office. Good luck to the new Board. Let's all try to support their efforts to run Glenwood in 2018.

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

It seems we have to bring up this subject AGAIN! Speeding is, once again, out of control. Not only residents but their guests. Is it going to take a tragedy to get this problem under control? Unless we slow down and start paying attention to what we're doing that's exactly what is going to happen. So, make sure no one is coming before you just back out of your driveways and SLOW DOWN!

Travel Update

Carol Smerker & Joyce Herbort

---

A new flyer is out but I will have more after our next travel meeting! There are a lot of day trips planned and some overnights. January 19th is the Hallelujah Girls at Broadway Palm Theater. Or how about the Civil War reenactment on Jan. 20th. The musical Chicago is coming, The Kumquat Festival, Pippin at the Show Palace, Hermanns Royal Lipizzan Stallions, Phantom of the Opera, Giraffe Ranch where many animals roam free.

Many more are listed, so take a look at the travel board!

FROM THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Catherine Cutting, President

Happy New Year to all!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Here we are in 2018. The years pass too fast for those over 55 years of age. I remember when I couldn't wait to be 21. That was 50 something years ago. I hope 2018 is a healthy, happy year for all our residents.

This is my last article for the Gazette as President of the Social Committee. First and foremost, I would like to thank those who have supported me these last few years. Andrea LaPlante, Jan Kearney, Carole Fariel and, Janet Green, who served as my Vice President during my first term as President. This is a challenging position to say the least. A supportive team is crucial to the success of the Social Committee. The support of my team members has been most important during my tenure.

Upcoming schedules of meetings and events will be forthcoming as the community completes the transition of leadership.

Thank you all.

An idea for our Social Club!

Carol Smerker

I will be printing out an idea for a Craft/Tag sale and hope to find some interest. This could benefit the Social Club as well as individuals. The sale would take place in February or March. Each of you will get a flyer and a notice will be put on the board to sign up for a table. Only you are 'in charge' of your items. Maybe we could pull this off if we pull together. We are a community and each has a part to play, we can make it fun!

FROM THE OFFICE

There will be no trash pick-up on Christmas Day Monday, December 25th or on New Year's Day Monday, January 1st.

IN MEMORY OF

The Mad Hatters Luncheon will be on Tuesday, January 2nd. The venue was unknown when this copy was due so check the bulletin board for more details.

SINGLES LUNCHEON

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

More bad news about cigarettes

You probably know that smoking is bad for your health, but have you considered its impact on the environment? Among other things, it's a major cause of litter.

A report from the U.K.-based Greyhaze notes that more than 176,000,000 pounds of cigarette butts are discarded in the United States each year, amounting to 30 percent of all litter. More than 4.5 trillion cigarettes are littered around the world each year.

In addition, Greyhaze reports that more than 3.2 million cigarettes or cigarette butts were collected on beaches and inland waterways around the world in 2009, not including some 18,000 lighters, 74,000 cigar tips, and 36,000 tobacco pouches. The report notes that fish eat cigarette butts, mistaking them for worms and other food, and a single butt can kill a fish living in one liter of water.

Afraid of ghosts? Not everyone is

Would you buy a haunted house? Surprisingly, some homebuyers would be willing to live in their very own Amityville horror. Realtor.com's Haunted House Real Estate Survey of 1,000 people found that 30 percent are receptive to the thought of sharing living quarters with ghosts, 25 percent "might" be, but 42 percent would reject the idea outright.

Ghost-friendly buyers did list some caveats, though. Forty percent would expect a price cut on a haunted house, and others said extra space or a good neighborhood would increase their chances of accepting such a deal. Still, 28 percent of people in the survey said they've already lived in a haunted home, citing inexplicable noises, creepy feelings, or seeing objects move or disappear.

Listen to your internal clocks

The "clocks" in our bodies are important to maintaining good health—and messing with them can cause big problems. Three researchers recently won the Nobel Prize for their work studying how these clocks influence every cell in the human body. According to the NPR website, pulling an all-nighter for work or school, or jet lag caused by a transatlantic flight, can cause blood pressure to go up, disrupt hunger hormones, and increase blood sugar levels. You can overcome these problems over time, but a regular schedule that throws off your body clock can lead to such health problems as weight gain and Type 2 diabetes.

Late-night snacking can also disrupt your body clock. When darkness falls, your "master clock" advises other clocks not to eat. When you override that command, the pancreas starts releasing insulin to break down the food. This can reset the pancreas' clock and take it out of synch with other clocks in your body. The takeaway? Pay attention to the clocks inside your body for better health.

Did you know that January is also...

Book Blitz Month. This is a time for authors of all genres to put themselves out there and promote their work. For the rest of us, it's a time to celebrate literacy, set personal goals to read more, and curl up with a good book.

National Braille Literacy Month. Developed in the 19th century by Louis Braille, this tactile system allows visually impaired and blind individuals a way to read, write, and learn.

International Creativity Month. Whether you're a homemaker, student, employee, employer, or retiree, this is the month to challenge yourself and your usual way of doing things. Try something new, explore, innovate, broaden your horizons of expression, and create something.

Hot Tea Month. Black, white, green, herbal, oolong, Darjeeling, Ceylon, chai—the list can go on for several pages. There are thousands of teas and blends to try. Find a new favorite and warm up with a cup of fragrant goodness this winter.

Self-Love Month. Many of us have already promised to become better at being better this year. Why not start by showing yourself some TLC? Find a way to honor, appreciate, and love yourself this January.

Universal Letter Writing Week, Jan 8-14. Since 1971, the Universal Postal Union has held a letter writing competition for young people age 15 and under. The event is a way to promote both literacy and the development of composition skills throughout the world. The theme of this year's contest asks writers: "Imagine you are a letter travelling through time. What message do you wish to convey to your readers?"

Healthy Weight Week, Jan. 16-22. This isn't about diets or the latest weight loss trends. A healthy body image is the key to establishing realistic goals and strategies that will help you to achieve and maintain a healthy weight and body mass. Factors such as age, bone structure, height, and physical ability should also be considered when developing personal health standards. Check in with your physician before making any changes to your diet, nutrition, and activities.

National Sunday Supper Day, Jan. 14. The second Sunday in January is a time for families to gather in the home and around the hearth and reconnect over the evening meal and hopefully establish a new monthly habit in the year ahead.

National Plan for Vacation Day, Jan. 31. There's a disturbing trend that the average American worker fails to use any or most of their vacation days. Let's change that in 2018. Set aside time in your schedule on this day to plan a getaway.
