FROM THE PRESIDENT

---

Thank you to all our residents who continue to follow CDC guidelines for COVID 19. We are proud to say that we have not had any victims here at Glenwood. Please continue your commitment to this situation.

REPAIRS AT GLENWOOD The Board of Directors has been very busy during the last few months. We felt that there were a number of issues that we could address during this period of shutdown. We have completed repairs to the clubhouse roof and the solar panels. Inside the clubhouse we have painted the kitchen, the main entertainment area of the clubhouse, and the rest rooms. We have replaced the carpet in the hallways and the office. We have also stripped and waxed the clubhouse floor. We have also updated the electronics in the office. We have completed repairs to the shuffleboard courts, and we have replaced tables in the pavilion. We have also sealed the decking around the pool.

Last, but not least, we have done extensive trimming to the trees in the park. Individual residents have also joined with this vendor to do personal trimming. We have engaged with several new vendors during this period of repairs, resulting in considerable savings, and improved satisfaction.

Well done Board Members.

HURRICANE EVACUATION It's that time of year again. Manufactured homes are not safe during high winds and events. When an evacuation order is given, YOU MUST EVACUATE! Glenwood residents will receive a robo call advising that you must evacuate. You must find a safe shelter (hotel or motel, out of the area, public/pet friendly or special needs shelter. Additional information is available on www.pinellascounty.org/emergency. Glenwood residents are designated as zone "A", Indian Rocks Baptist Church is the designated shelter. Please remember to have supplies ready in preparation for evacuation. Those residents with pets can shelter at Largo High School. RESIDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO USE THE CLUBHOUSE AS A SHELTER LOCATION.

Please have a safe, healthy and fun summer

JUST FOR GIGGLES

The people at Starbucks managed to arrange a meeting with the Pope at the Vatican. After receiving the papal blessing, the Starbucks official whispers, "Your Eminence, we have an offer for you. Starbucks is prepared to donate $100 million a year to the church if you change the Lord's Prayer from 'give us this day our daily bread' to 'give us this day our daily coffee.'" The Pope responds, "That is impossible. The prayer is the word of the Lord. It must not be changed." "Well," says the Starbucks man, "we anticipated your reluctance. For this reason we will increase our offer to $300 million." "My son, it is impossible. For the prayer is the word of the Lord, and it must not be changed." The Starbucks guy says, "Your Holiness, we at Starbucks respect your adherence to the faith, but we do have one final offer... We will donate $500 million a year - that's half a billion dollars - to the great Catholic Church if you would only change the Lord's Prayer from 'give us this day our daily bread' to 'give us this day our daily coffee.' Please consider it." And he leaves. The next day the Pope convenes the College of Cardinals. "There is some good news," he announces, "and some bad news. The good news is that the Church will come into $500 million. "And the bad news, your Holiness?" asks a Cardinal.

"We're losing the Wonder Bread account."

CLUBHOUSE

Residents still in Glenwood found their first opportunity to return to a Clubhouse event on June 13! The Directors opened with an invitation to have coffee and pastries on Saturday, June 13. Those who were comfortable returning to a limited event, spread over a large room, found that Grace had brought baked goods from Publix and JR Hall remembered how to prepare a good pot of coffee. Rick Travis picked up pastries and 41 residents gathered to visit and enjoy the occasion. Catherine Cutting spoke on behalf of the BOD with a few announcements. Particularly pleasing to the 3 new owners present, we still have an invitation to evacuate to the Indian Rocks Baptist Church if any hurricanes threaten our safety. Owners with a pet should go to either Largo High School or the old Suncoast Hospital on Indian Rocks Road. Coffees on Saturday and cards may begin to meet in the Clubhouse as individuals feel comfortable gathering in small groups. The outdoor activities are also welcome to re-convene. We feel blessed that our community has been spared from Covid19 illness and we can begin to enjoy our neighbors and our facilities. Judy Lee.

Paul Revere's Ride

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow - 1807-1882

---

Listen, my children, and you shall hear

Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere,
On the eighteenth of April, in Seventy-Five:
Hardly a man is now alive
Who remembers that famous day and year.

He said to his friend, "If the British march
By land or sea from the town to-night,
Hang a lantern aloft in the belfry-arch
Of the North-Church-tower, as a signal-light,—
One if by land, and two if by sea;
And I on the opposite shore will be,
Ready to ride and spread the alarm
Through every Middlesex village and farm,
For the country-folk to be up and to arm."

Then he said "Good night!" and with muffled oar
Silently rowed to the Charlestown shore,
Just as the moon rose over the bay,
Where swinging wide at her moorings lay
The Somerset, British man-of-war:
A phantom ship, with each mast and spar
Across the moon, like a prison-bar,
And a huge black hulk, that was magnified
By its own reflection in the tide.

11590 US HIGHWAY 19 N CLEARWATER, FLORIDA 33764

Meanwhile, his friend, through alley and street
Wanders and watches with eager ears,
Till in the silence around him he hears
The muster of men at the barrack door,
The sound of arms, and the tramp of feet,
And the measured tread of the grenadiers
Marching down to their boats on the shore.

Then he climbed to the tower of the church,
Up the wooden stairs, with stealthy tread,
To the belfry-chamber overhead,
And startled the pigeons from their perch
On the sombre rafters, that round him made
Masses and moving shapes of shade,—
By the trembling ladder, steep and tall,
To the highest window in the wall,
Where he paused to listen and look down
A moment on the roofs of the town,
And the moonlight flowing over all.

Beneath, in the churchyard, lay the dead,
In their night-encampment on the hill,
Wrapped in silence so deep and still
That he could hear, like a sentinel's tread,
The watchful night-wind, as it went
Creeping along from tent to tent,
And seeming to whisper, "All is well!"
A moment only he feels the spell
Of the place and the hour, and the secret dread
Of the lonely belfry and the dead;
For suddenly all his thoughts are bent
On a shadowy something far away,
Where the river widens to meet the bay,—
A line of black, that bends and floats
On the rising tide, like a bridge of boats.

Meanwhile, impatient to mount and ride,
Booted and spurred, with a heavy stride,
On the opposite shore walked Paul Revere.
Now he patted his horse's side,

Now gazed on the landscape far and near,
Then impetuous stamped the earth,
And turned and tightened his saddle-girth;
But mostly he watched with eager search
The belfry-tower of the old North Church,
As it rose above the graves on the hill,
Lonely and spectral and sombre and still.
And lo! as he looks, on the belfry's height,
A glimmer, and then a gleam of light!
He springs to the saddle, the bridle he turns,
But lingers and gazes, till full on his sight
A second lamp in the belfry burns!

A hurry of hoofs in a village-street,
A shape in the moonlight, a bulk in the dark,
And beneath from the pebbles, in passing, a spark
Struck out by a steed that flies fearless and fleet:
That was all! And yet, through the gloom and the light,
The fate of a nation was riding that night;
And the spark struck out by that steed, in his flight,
Kindled the land into flame with its heat.

He has left the village and mounted the steep,
And beneath him, tranquil and broad and deep,
Is the Mystic, meeting the ocean tides;
And under the alders, that skirt its edge,
Now soft on the sand, now loud on the ledge,
Is heard the tramp of his steed as he rides.

It was twelve by the village clock
When he crossed the bridge into Medford town.
He heard the crowing of the cock,
And the barking of the farmer's dog,
And felt the damp of the river-fog,
That rises when the sun goes down.

It was one by the village clock,
When he galloped into Lexington.
He saw the gilded weathercock
Swim in the moonlight as he passed,

And the meeting-house windows, blank and bare,
 Gaze at him with a spectral glare,
 As if they already stood aghast
 At the bloody work they would look upon.

It was two by the village clock,
 When he came to the bridge in Concord town.
 He heard the bleating of the flock,
 And the twitter of birds among the trees,
 And felt the breath of the morning breeze
 Blowing over the meadows brown.
 And one was safe and asleep in his bed
 Who at the bridge would be first to fall,
 Who that day would be lying dead,
 Pierced by a British musket-ball.

You know the rest. In the books you have read,
 How the British Regulars fired and fled,—
 How the farmers gave them ball for ball,
 From behind each fence and farmyard-wall,
 Chasing the red-coats down the lane,
 Then crossing the fields to emerge again
 Under the trees at the turn of the road,
 And only pausing to fire and load.

So through the night rode Paul Revere;
 And so through the night went his cry of alarm
 To every Middlesex village and farm,—
 A cry of defiance, and not of fear,
 A voice in the darkness, a knock at the door,
 And a word that shall echo forevermore!
 For, borne on the night-wind of the Past,
 Through all our history, to the last,
 In the hour of darkness and peril and need,
 The people will waken and listen to hear
 The hurrying hoof-beats of that steed,
 And the midnight message of Paul Revere.
