The Dunedin Chorus

The presentation of music from Broadway shows occurred on February 23. You likely saw many of your friends and neighbors from Glenwood in attendance. The third and final concert of this season is April 5 at 3:00 in the Dunedin Community Center. Much of the music for this concert is patriotic and often directly from the five military services. If you are a veteran and still have some or all of your uniform, please wear it proudly as you are asked to stand when your music is played.

Glenwood is proud to have been designated a Golden Angel supporting group as our generous donations were given in a combined check. Thank you!

Appreciation of our volunteers

If you get into the Clubhouse for business or pleasure, you probably noticed the new Social Committee bulletin board. The retired cork board was 41 years old and would barely support pins or staples! Carol Fariel relentlessly pursued the purchase of a new board and the correct size was finally delivered. It came on a semi 18 wheeler,, so Carol and Georgia Fox met the driver in a golf cart at our gate area to make delivery a bit easier for the large truck.

Getting it to the Clubhouse was only a part of the project! Rick Geary, Joe Buswell, and Jim Wildes removed the old one, used it as a template to cut the hole for the light switches in the new one, hung it, and even found old matching paint to make the slightly smaller edge meet the old paint line. These three men had excellent training in their other life to complete a task with the tools on hand, quickly, and in perfect condition! Thank you!

Have you visited the garage area recently? Joadee Edwards has been excellent from her early days in that activity to keep the inventory neat, price items correctly, and tirelessly serve the residents who donate and shop there. Jim Wildes is present every Saturday and is so helpful to haul, lift, and sell items on the west side.. We suggest that you visit often, and thank Joadee and her volunteers for their efforts to fund the Social Club treasury so generously.

Finally for this issue, there is the Bingo Committee, Under the chairmanship of Jeanne Burket, Barbara Mucci and Beth Pickett are also on the committee and attend every week. They purchase and set up the materials needed, prepare the snack table, make popcorn, clean up the entire area, and even invest in more cards than most of the other players to make the prizes quite generous. Yes, they sometimes win too! Shirley Roslan comes very early each Thursday to make coffee, prepare the playing materials, and clean up after the event. Thanks to each of you also!

The April issue will note other volunteers who make life in Glenwood a little richer!

Sunshine Fund

In your last delivered Gazette, late in January, was a contribution envelope for each resident asked to donate $5 to increase the Sunshine Fund balance. The Sunshine Fund is a part of the Social Committee treasury. For new residents, this fund donates a $50 gift to the immediate family of a deceased owner in good standing. They may use the gift in any way the family chooses. It began in the early days of Glenwood when deaths occurred. Funerals in previous and distant home towns were more common than they are currently.. The family might choose flowers, a charity, or a gathering here in Glenwood. On February 6 only 64 of the 242 units of Glenwood had contributed so it is requested that you participate if you have not done so. A sign near the Glenwood office door points to the placement slot for your donation. Thank you for your generosity.

MAD HATTERS LUNCHEON

By Jan Kearney

We went to 18 on the Rocks with Glenna Fasold and Linda Geary. We had a nice turnout and saw some friends we hadn't seen for a while. In March we will be going to O'Keefe's Restaurant on Ft Harrison in Clearwater with Marge Giroux as our hostess. We look forward to seeing a lot of you there next month.

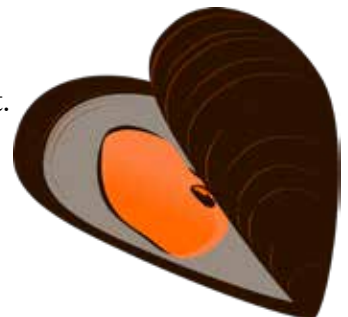

We need someone to sign up for next month. Do you have a special restaurant that you enjoy, call them to see if they take reservations? Sign up at Club House and then let us join you for lunch in your special restaurant. Then call me, so we can make a poster to let ladies sign up to join you. Looking forward to hearing from you about your special hide-a-way.

Singles Luncheon

Karen Creamer will be our host for the Singles Luncheon on Friday, March 13th, 2020 at 12:30 PM.

We will be going to Lulu's Oyster Bar and Tap
500 1st St. Indian Rocks Beach

Vegans

Is veganism in the United States on the rise? Although the Indiana Daily Student website reports that only 3% of Americans identify as vegan, there's evidence that it's becoming more and more mainstream. A Harris Poll survey found that one in five Americans at least sometimes eat vegan when dining out, and data from Impossible Foods shows that more than 50% of millennials and Gen Z members eat plant-based meat at least once a month, compared with one in five baby boomers.

Studies suggest that the slow rise of veganism is linked to concerns about the environment, a desire to address animal welfare, and overall health—although nutritionists point out that meatless burgers aren't necessarily healthier than beef because they include more salt and saturated fat.

The business of forgiveness

A marketer and a retail merchant, who attended the same church, struck a business deal together. The marketer heard that the merchant wanted to expand his operation, so the marketer offered the merchant a line of credit on goods to be sold in the store.

Soon after the merchant had used the line of credit, he fell on hard times. Business was bad, and he was unable to pay off his debts. The marketer was troubled. Not only had his first deal with the merchant gone sour, but now it seemed that he might never recover the thousands of dollars owed to him.

In his heart, the marketer knew that the merchant was an honest man who just did not have the resources to settle the debt. The marketer didn't want to contribute to the ruin of the merchant, so he followed his heart and forgave the debt. Soon afterward, the merchant went bankrupt and closed his store.

Years passed. One day, the daughter of the bankrupt merchant visited the marketer. She offered him a small diamond-studded bracelet—a family heirloom—as partial payment for her father's debt.

The marketer explained to the woman that the debt had been long forgiven. But the woman insisted that he accept the offering—if not as payment, then as a token of appreciation. The marketer humbly accepted.

Several days later, he took the bracelet to a jeweler to be appraised and was astonished to learn that its value equaled the amount of the merchant's debt. The marketer returned to his office and entered "Paid in Full" into his ledger—next to the merchant's name.
