Knock, knock who is there? Not a health agent.

Michael Crofts
FL Licensed Independent
Health Insurance Agent

Medicare has very strict rules prohibiting the enrollment into most products via door-to-door sales. Still many seniors are experiencing unsolicited calls and visitors. Making a decision about your health coverage is important and should be done every year, but not by someone who shows up on your doorstep or is cold calling you. At Best Plan Choice, we encourage you to find out how good a full-service health agency can be for you. We work directly with individuals, groups and communities to bring our services to you, at your request.

During the annual enrollment season for Medicare health coverage (Oct 15-Dec 7) we host seminars with free coffee and dessert (see our enclosed insert or call 855-BOOMER65). Throughout the year, we are available to present every available plan, assist you with customer service issues or become your agent if you need one.

Are you debating if you need Medicare Part B? We can show you how to save money on your Part B premium each month. Do you need financial assistance? We can help you apply for Medicaid or extra help for the high pharmacy costs you may have. Is your spouse still working to provide health insurance for you? We may have options which will start their retirement sooner. We will provide a complete needs analysis during a personalized appointment so you can make the best plan choice for you. As always, our services are without charge or cost to you. Call us at Best Plan Choice, where Clients become Friends, and Friends become Clients!

SHUFFLEBOARD

Well we're slowly getting back into our shuffleboard routine. The first week of October we had 5 people here to play, but since it was so hot we only played 2 games. The 2nd week of October only 3 people showed up, but we planned to go ahead & play. Well it started raining at 3 PM and came with thunder so we called it off. Hopefully next week will be better and we'll be out on the courts shuffling. If you want to try your luck with us bring a quarter and try to get to the shuffleboard courts by 2:45 on Monday so I know how many courts to set up. See you there!

For Over 3 Decades!

Monthly

National Gratitude Month. You don't have to wait for Thanksgiving to show your gratitude and appreciation. There's something to be grateful for every morning you wake up. This November, challenge yourself to greet each day with an attitude of gratitude.

National Healthy Skin Month. Summer is long gone, but you should still be wearing sunscreen and taking other steps to keep your skin hydrated this time of year. Make an appointment with your dermatologist for a skin check and find out what you should be doing to ensure that the largest organ of your body stays healthy.

National Inspirational Role Models Month. What better way to show our gratitude this month than by honoring those who've offered us the foundation of a good example? Keep that legacy alive by committing to passing along that example to others.

National Novel Writing Month. If penning a novel is on your bucket list, this is the month you can check it off. You have 30 days to crank out a masterpiece of 50,000 words. For inspiration, ideas, and more information, visit: <https://nanowrimo.org/>.

Weekly

American Education Week, Nov. 12–16. Each year the National Education Association highlights the value of our public school system and the tireless efforts of those involved with it. This is an opportunity for parents and community leaders to learn more about their local schools and get involved to ensure their ongoing success.

National Hunger and Homeless Awareness Week, Nov. 10–18. Since 1975, the week before Thanksgiving has been designated to raise awareness to the issues surrounding hunger and homelessness. To learn more, or find volunteer opportunities in your area, go to <https://hhweek.org/>.

National Game and Puzzle Week, Nov. 18–24. What better way to entertain the crowd during the week of Thanksgiving when several generations of family converge under one roof? Grab a deck of cards for a friendly game of Go Fish, dust off the checker board for a tournament with bragging rights until next year, or help your Aunt Liz work a crossword puzzle. Make your home "Game Central" this week.

National Deal Week, Nov. 19–25. The day before Thanksgiving kicks off the holiday shopping season. This week many retailers will offer deep discounts on just about everything imaginable. Whether you prefer to shop online or stand in line at a store at 3 a.m., make sure you get the best deal possible.

Busy as a bee—even when the bees are sick

Honeybees are hard workers—even when they're sick. The (e)Science News website reports that researchers using radar technology have learned that honeybees continue to seek and collect honey for their hives even when they're suffering from infections or viruses.

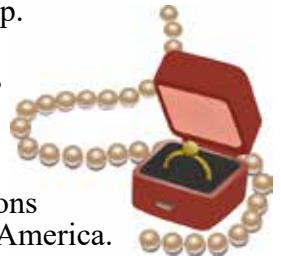

The scientists mounted tiny, lightweight transponders to bees' thoraxes, enabling them to track individual bees using a radar signal. Studying the flight paths of 78 bees, the researchers found that although the sick bees didn't fly as far or as long as their healthy counterparts, they continued their search, suggesting that bees are hardwired to seek and procure honey even when they're ill.

Copper bracelet suggests vast ancient trade network

An ancient copper band unearthed with cremated human remains in Georgia suggests that Native Americans may have traded across greater distances than previously was thought, according to the EurekAlert website. The band, a little wider than a bracelet, came from the Great Lakes region some 1,500 miles away. Scientists were able to determine the band's origin because copper sources have a unique chemical makeup.

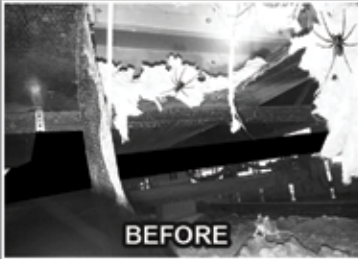

The fact that the Native Americans were cremated is also significant, because cremation was unknown in the Southeast United States during the time period the bracelet dates from—some 3,500 years ago—but was commonly practiced in the Great Lakes region and other northern regions. This suggests that our ancient ancestors may have had connections across large distances, allowing for wide trading networks across North America.

The question is one of judgment. For the distinguishing element of science is not intelligence but judgment. Or perhaps it is simply luck.

—John M. Barry

Is it a headache—or a brain tumor?

Is that headache a sign of a serious medical problem? Maybe, but don't panic. A severe headache makes many people worry that they have a brain tumor, but according to The Cut website, the time to worry about brain tumors is when you have a headache combined with vomiting. These types of headaches come on suddenly, often at night, and feel worse when you're lying down. Over time they'll create other symptoms—numbness, weakness on one side of the body, and speech and vision difficulties.

More likely, a severe headache is either a migraine or a cluster headache. Both of these tend to appear in one side of the head. Some 36–44 million Americans suffer from migraines, which can last up to 72 hours. Cluster headaches also occur on one side of the head, and come in waves—people may have up to eight per day. They're more painful than migraines, but they're also over more quickly, lasting from 20–45 minutes.

Seek treatment, but don't worry yourself sick about brain tumors.

Doctors shortchanging patients, study says

Doctors are busy people—sometimes too busy. A study conducted by the University of Florida found that patients, on average, have only about 11 seconds to tell their doctors what's wrong with them before the doctor interrupts, sometimes sidetracking the interview. That may have something to do with the study's other finding—that doctors identified the patient's reason for the visit correctly only about 36 percent of the time.

The researchers offered several explanations for the situation: physician burnout, time constraints caused by the necessity of dealing with health insurance issues, and limited training in patient communication skills for physicians trained before 2004 (after that, training put more emphasis on communicating with patients).

Surprising sources of pain

The causes of pain aren't always obvious. Consider these unexpected sources:

- Back pain. Taking your vitamins? Chronic back pain can be caused by low levels of vitamin D. Another possibility: constipation caused by blockage in the colon. Eat more fruits, vegetables, and fiber for better digestion. (Source: Prevention magazine)
- Headache. Cheese may be the culprit. A substance called tyramine in cheese can trigger headaches. Also, low blood sugar can create a headache even before you realize you're hungry. A snack like whole-grain crackers with peanut butter can bring quick relief. (Source: the WebMD website)

Take a cold shower—for better health

Showers keep you clean, but a cold shower can be good for your health. An article on the Success website spells out the benefits of taking cold showers:

- Immunity. Scientists believe there's a correlation between cold showers and increased production of an amino acid called glutathione, which boosts the immune system, gets rid of toxins, and eases stress.
- Better skin health. A hot shower removes important oils from the skin, making it dry and itchy. Cold showers reduce skin inflammation. They also prevent your hair from becoming brittle.
- Muscle recovery. There's a reason why athletes soak in ice baths after a tough game. The cold water helps speed their recovery time and relieve soreness quicker.
- Better moods. Cold showers may prevent depression, according to researchers at Virginia Commonwealth University. Decreasing the temperature of your water and then spending two or three minutes under cold water sends a lot of electrical impulses from the nerves in your skin up to your brain, which could have an anti-depressive effect.

Climate change strategy a mixed bag

Scientists scrambling for a solution to the problems caused by climate change have come up with an intriguing idea: shooting tiny particles high into the atmosphere to scatter the light of the sun.

The Science magazine website reports that sulfur dioxide gas can cool down temperatures by reacting to water vapor and forming droplets that scatter sunlight. It happens during major volcanic eruptions, such as the eruption of Mount Pinatubo in the Philippines in 1991 and the eruption of El Chichon in Mexico in 1982.

Scientists have used computer modeling to project the effect of injecting light-scattering aerosols into the stratosphere.

Unfortunately, the probable results appear mixed. Although the model predicted that corn harvests would increase 6.3 percent due to reduced heat, other crop yields would fall because of diminished sunlight, and the strategy would likely have no effect on yields for crops like soybeans, rice, and wheat. Scientists continue to study the theory in hopes of finding a viable approach to managing climate change.
