WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

December Message from the Recreation Board

Happy Holidays! We hope everyone enjoyed their Thanksgiving and will celebrate Christmas safely. Thanks to everyone for their understanding and patience during these trying times of COVID-19. We have had to make some changes to our original plans for the 2020-2021 season. We have decided to cancel the Pancake breakfast and the Christmas Potluck for the month of December. We will be decorating the clubhouse for Christmas on Sunday Dec 06 at 2 pm and are looking for volunteers to help, so come on down to the clubhouse and get in the holiday spirit. In lieu of the potluck, we will be holding a Christmas Happy Hour on Dec 11 from 4-6 pm. Bring your beverage of choice and a snack to munch on or share and welcome in the holiday. We will also need volunteers to take charge of the Luminaire set-up and distribution on Dec 24. In the past Marquis Guimmond organized this but he will not be here this season. Tickets for the New Year's Eve party will be available for sale on Dec 1st through the 21st from Mary Redding at #431 and at the coffee hours. Tickets will be $5.00 per person. No outside guests will be allowed. Family members staying at your coach during this period will be eligible to attend. The party will be limited to 48 tickets, so if you want to attend get your tickets early. Social distancing and masks will be required for all events. Enjoy the holidays and stay safe.

National Sobriety Day, Dec. 11. Recovering alcoholics have a day to celebrate their victory and control over alcoholism.

Christmas Day, Dec. 25. Christian observance of the birth of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem.

Visit the Zoo Day, Dec. 27. The presents are all unwrapped, so why not go to your local zoo and visit the animals? If the zoo isn't open, look for online options offered by many zoos around the country.

Numbers In The News

Health care is changing—will consumers adapt?

Health care is becoming more dependent on phone calls and artificial intelligence to treat patients instead of relying primarily on in-person appointments. The public may not be ready, though. A Harris poll, reported on the Xtelligent website, found that only one in five consumers would trust AI-generated health care advice, although responses were different between generations. Among adults 18–34, 22% say they would trust AI guidance, but only 10% of adults 65 or older say the same.

When it comes to phone appointments, a third of consumers actually prefer receiving health care advice over the phone, compared to 30% who prefer in-person visits, 25% who prefer online advice, 6% who prefer mobile apps, and 5% who prefer AI. Women are more likely to prefer the use of a phone for health care advice than men (36% to 28%).

The AI market for health care is expected to increase at a compound annual growth rate of 50.2% between 2018 and 2025, from $2.1 billion in 2018 to $36.1 billion by 2025.

More attention to health during outbreak

The COVID-19 outbreak has Americans paying more attention to their health, according to a study by Rally Health, Inc. Its survey found that 43% say the outbreak has motivated them to focus on their overall health more than before. Forty-nine percent are more aware of their physical health, and 44% are paying more attention to their mental health.

Many people are striving to take more control of their health these days as a result. Twenty-four percent are eating more healthfully, 21% are exercising on a more regular basis, and 21% are paying closer attention to their mental health — depression, stress, and the like.

December Monthly

Buckwheat Month. Despite its name, buckwheat is not a type of wheat—in fact, it’s not technically a grain at all. Buckwheat is one of the six pseudo grains that are not part of the Poaceae cereal family but are considered grains due to their similar uses from a culinary and nutritional perspective. Buckwheat has a rich history in Asia, where it is used for traditional noodles such as soba, and in Eastern Europe, where it is used to make a type of porridge called kasha.

National Impaired Driving Prevention Month.

Sponsored by Mothers Against Drunk Driving. Take personal responsibility this holiday season by making a plan for a safe ride home before your celebrations begin. Designate a nondrinking, unimpaired driver. Take a taxi, a bus, or a train. Use a rideshare app like Uber. If you’re a host, provide an alternative to your guests, such as festive, nonalcoholic drinks.

National Tie Month. Neckties originated when Croatian soldiers wore silk scarves; at the time, they were called cravats. Take a selfie in your favorite necktie and post a picture of yourself rocking that business-professional-with-a-little-bit-of-edgy-personality look.

Universal Human Rights Month. Universal Month for Human Rights began in 1948, when the United Nations wrote a document called the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. This happened after the Second World War, because the UN wanted to prevent future atrocities. It created the document to properly define what human rights would be protected universally.

Weekly

National Handwashing Awareness Week, Dec. 6–12. Handwashing is more important than ever these days. Remember to wash your hands when they are dirty and before eating; do not cough into your hands; do not sneeze into your hands; and do not put your fingers into your eyes, nose, or mouth.

Hanukkah, Dec. 10–18. The Jewish Festival of Lights remembers the rededication of the second Jewish temple in Jerusalem in 165 BCE.

Gluten-Free Baking Week, Dec. 13–19. This special time brings awareness to the predicament of dealing with gluten allergies around the holiday season. People allergic to gluten should not have to go without the savory deliciousness of all kinds of desserts.

Kwanzaa, Dec. 25–Jan.1. A celebration based around seven major principles which are, according to its founder Maulana Karenga, a communitarian African philosophy: unity, self-determination, collective work and responsibility, cooperative economics, purpose, creativity, and faith.

Calm your ocean

A master and his disciple were strolling on the beach by the ocean. It was a cold day and the wind was blowing strongly over the ocean, raising very high waves.

After walking for some time, the master stopped and asked: “What does the choppy ocean remind you of?”

“It reminds me of my mind and my rushing and restless thoughts,” answered the disciple

“Yes, the stormy ocean is like the mind, and the waves are the thoughts,” the master agreed. “The mind is neutral like the water. It is neither good nor bad. The wind is creating the waves, as desires and fears produce thoughts.”

“How can I calm the waves of my mind?” the disciple asked.

The master smiled. “You don’t calm the ocean by holding the water and not letting it move. What is necessary is to stop the wind. Your thoughts, desires and fears are like the wind, and you need to calm them down, and not let them rule your life. You learn to control them by controlling your attention and focus, and then the ocean of your mind would become calm.”

“And how do I do that?”

“First, learn to calm down the wind in your mind,” the master explained. “When you can control your mind and make it peaceful, you will have more control of your life. However, don’t focus on changing the outside world. Focus on changing and calming your inner world. After you are able to control your inner world, you would be able to control the world around you.”

Build the road

Born on the lowest rung of India’s caste system, Dashrath Manjhi worked in the coal mines of Gehlaur village.

One day his wife was injured. The nearest doctor was in a town 34 miles away, and Manjhi’s wife died.

Because of this, Manjhi decided to make a new roadway through a ridge of hills to make his village more accessible.

For 22 years, using only a hammer and chisel, Manjhi worked until he completed the road, which reduced the distance between the start and finish areas from 34 miles to 9.3 miles.

That’s a sign of dedication.

If a child is to keep alive his inborn sense of wonder, he needs the companionship of at least one adult who can share it, rediscovering with him the joy, excitement, and mystery of the world we live in.

—Rachel Carson

A few short ones

A police officer was interviewing a bank teller after the bank had been robbed three days in a row. The officer asked, “What did he look like?”

The teller responded, “He looked better every time he came here.”

Teacher: “Which book has helped you the most in your life?”

Student: “My father’s checkbook!”

A doctor got a phone call from one of his colleagues. “Hey, we need a fourth for poker.”

The doctor replied, “I’ll be right there.”

His wife asked him, “Is it serious?”

He replied, “There’s already three doctors there and they need me.”

Speed limit

A state police officer parked by the side of the highway spotted a car driving only 22 miles per hour. He started up, turned on his lights, and pulled the car over.

As he approached the car, he saw the driver was an elderly woman with three friends, one next to her in the front seat and two in the back. “What’s the matter, officer?” the driver asked. “I wasn’t speeding.”

“No, ma’am,” the officer said, “but you were driving much lower than the speed limit, and that’s just as dangerous.”

“But the sign back there said 22,” the woman said.

The officer chuckled and explained that 22 was the route number, not the speed limit, which was 65. Embarrassed, the woman apologized and thanked the officer.

Then he peered into the car. “Ma’am, are your friends all right? They all seem a bit frightened.”

“Oh, they’ll be all right in a minute, officer. We just got off route 157.”

Smart lawyer

A man went to his lawyer. “My neighbor owes me $500 and he won’t pay up. What should I do?”

“Do you have any proof he owes you the money?” asked the lawyer.

“Nope,” replied the man.

“OK, then write him a letter asking him for the $5,000 he owes you,” said the lawyer.

“But it’s only $500,” replied the man.

“Precisely. That’s what he will reply and then you’ll have your proof!”
