Golden Crest Park Fun Sports Day March 24, 2018:

By: Art & Jean Taylor

Although a smaller turnout this year (56) than expected, a great time was had by all. The participants were out there like gladiators, battering both physically and mentally the challenging games. After the games, everyone was talking about their abilities and prowess.

We would like to thank all the games captains and participants. A special thanks to Randy and Shirley Boudreau who donated the “jelly bean guess jar”, Marquis Guimond and Bert Fitzgerald for the great job on the “tube steaks” and the Recreation Committee who spent time in the kitchen preparing the treats for the luncheon.

Jean and I would like to send out a BIG thank you to Neil Seely for stepping in on short notice to run the day’s activities. Thank you, Neil.

Golden Crest Golf Tournament – March 20, 2018:

Golden Crest Golfers League held its final golf tournament for this winter season at Dunedin Sterling Links on Tuesday March 20, 2018. We had 8 teams participating under sunny and warm skies. The winning team of the tournament with a score of – 5 under Par, was the team Captained by Marquis Guimond. The ladies team winner with a score of +2 over par was a team captained by Linda Payne. The team members are as follows from left to right.

The Men’s team is:

The Alan Nelson Memorial Award for 2018

This award is presented annually to a Golden Crest Tuesday morning golfer who has embraced the game of golf as a senior.

Al Nelson, a former longtime resident of Golden Crest and a Past President of the Golden Crest Home Owners Association, was an avid golfer until his early 90's. He was a regular Tuesday morning participant at St. Andrews Golf Links (now Dunedin Sterling Links) and always encouraged new owners to join in. This year's recipient of the award is Herb Hendricks, Coach #400, on the left, and is pictured below receiving the award from Nels Auger.

Health benefits of coffee for (almost) everyone

Is coffee good for you? Bad? The arguments go on and on, but a meta-analysis of 127 studies on the question by the University of Catania in Italy has found that drinking coffee is associated with the following health benefits:

- Decreased risk of breast, colorectal, colon, endometrial and prostate cancers, among others, from 2-20 percent depending on the cancer type.
- Five percent reduction in risk for cardiovascular disease.
- An approximately 30 percent lower risk for both Type 2 diabetes and Parkinson's disease, thanks to coffee's ability to improve enzymes that regulate glucose and insulin metabolisms.
- A lower death rate.

Coffee's natural antioxidants reduce free radicals that can damage cells and cause aging. It's also an anti-inflammatory that calms you down so you don't overact to stress.

One group that should avoid coffee, however, is pregnant women. Coffee, the study notes, can increase the risk of miscarriage.

Be ready to donate

Are you nervous about donating blood or signing up to be an organ donor? You don't have to be. An infographic from Work The World explores some of the common misconceptions about blood and organ donations. They include:

- Age. There is no age limit on organ donations. In fact, the oldest known donor to date was a Scottish woman of 107 who donated one of her corneas after death. The main factor is the health of the organ and the donor.
- Organs. A single organ donor can improve or save up to eight lives. Donating tissue can save even more.
- Blood type. All blood types are needed, even the most common ones.
- Tattoos. Got a tattoo? That won't prevent you from donating blood as long as you're otherwise healthy.

Did You Know That May is Also...

Asthma and Allergy Awareness Month. The flora in full bloom make May the take-action month for those living with asthma and allergies. To gain insight and learn about events and advocacy efforts targeting these conditions, visit the Asthma and Allergy Foundation of America website at www.aafa.org.

National Barbecue Month. Grilling only hamburgers and hot dogs just won't do. This month, get in touch with your inner pit master and fire up your skills

National Photography Month. Take a photography class, view an exhibit at an art gallery or museum, get inspired, and capture life's moments one frame at a time. There's an entire world to explore on the other side of the lens.

Brain Tumor Action Week, May 6-12. Frequent seizures, headaches, impaired vision, or speech difficulties are a few of the warning signs of the possibility of a brain tumor. This year, nearly 79,000 people will receive a brain tumor diagnosis. To learn more, visit the National Brain Tumor Society website at braintumor.org.

American Craft Beer Week, May 14-20. Roughly 98 percent of the 6,000 breweries in the United States are small, independent, and passionate about the art of beer making. This week craft brewers in every state will showcase what they do best in events that will delight the palates of beer drinkers everywhere.

Garden Meditation Day, May 3. Gardening is good for the soul, and so is meditation. Take time out of your busy schedule to quiet your mind and spirit by smelling the roses, curling your toes in the grass, or napping in the shade of a tree.

International No Diet Day, May 6. Take a break from your diet today and figure out if it's the best thing for you. This day is less about indulgence and more about loving yourself while embracing healthy and positive attitudes toward nutrition and eating.

World Lupus Day, May 10. Lupus is a chronic autoimmune disease that can lead to pain, inflammation, and damage in any part of the body. Since 2004, organizations throughout the world have used this day to raise awareness and emphasize the need for funding and research focused on a cure.

Armed Forces Day, May 19. On the third Saturday of May, citizens around the world pay tribute to the women and men serving in their nation's military branches. Look for parades, exhibits, and events in your area.

Don't Fry Friday, May 25. As we embark upon this long holiday weekend and many warm and sunny days ahead, the American Cancer Society wants you to remember to make protecting your skin from harmful UV rays part of all your outdoor activities.

A lesson in diplomacy

If you've ever had to deal with the thoughtless behavior of someone, you'll appreciate this story about the great composer and pianist Franz Liszt.

The virtuoso musician once found himself at odds with an important member of his audience. The czar of Russia, Nicholas I, made a late entrance during Liszt's concert. Even after being seated, the czar continued to speak with members of his entourage. Liszt realized that Nicholas had no intention of ending his discourse, so he stopped playing and bowed his head.

Noticing the silence, Nicholas dispatched one of his aides to find out why the pianist was no longer playing.

"Music herself should be silent when Nicholas speaks," Liszt replied.

After that, Liszt was able to finish his recital with the czar's full attention.

The daily residue

A man was seated on the bus having an animated conversation with someone via cell phone. He fumed. He swore. He shouted and swore, a lot more.

The other passengers dared not look at him for fear of being on the receiving end of his ire.

"I need to get off here!" he shouted as he raced to the front of the bus and disembarked.

"Excuse me sir," the bus driver said to the man, "you left something behind."

The man stood outside of the bus checking his pockets. He then asked, "What did I leave?"

"A very bad impression," the bus driver replied as he closed the door and drove away.

Every block of stone has a statue inside it, and it is the task of the sculptor to discover it.

Bad dog

A dog ran into a butcher shop and stole a prime cut of meat. The butcher caught up with the thieving pooch on the street and noticed that the dog was wearing a nice collar and tags. The butcher walked the dog back to its owner who just happened to be a lawyer with an office on a nearby street.

“Tell me something,” the butcher asked the lawyer. “If a dog steals a roast from my store, can I demand compensation from its owner?”

“Certainly,” the lawyer replied.

“In that case,” the butcher said, “you owe me $15. Your dog ate my best roast.”

“That’s only fair,” the attorney said as he wrote out a check to the butcher.

“Why, thank you!” The butcher was gleeful at having triumphed so effortlessly. He left the lawyer’s office and went back to his shop.

His mood quickly soured when the lawyer dropped off a letter for the butcher that evening. It contained an invoice for a $150 consultation fee.

Survey looks at who argues about money

Money is a major cause of conflict and stress in many relationships, but it affects some couples more than others. In a survey by CompareCards.com, a subsidiary of LendingTree, only 15 percent of respondents said they fought about money with their partner.

The survey found that 20 percent of members of Generation X (ages 35-54) argue about money, followed by 17 percent of millennials (18-34), and only 9 percent of people over 55.

The health of the relationship may influence money squabbles. Eight-two percent of the couples who claimed not to fight over money described themselves as “extremely satisfied in their relationships,” but just 59 percent of people who do have arguments felt the same way.

One way some people avoid financial conflicts is by hiding purchases. Thirty-seven percent of survey participants said they have bought things without telling their significant other, and 11 percent said they have a private bank account, credit card, or loan that their partner doesn’t know about.

Three steps to better heart health

Improving your heart health doesn't have to mean two-hour gym workouts or a diet of kale and water. The Mayo Clinic website offers three easy steps to keeping your heart in good shape for a long, healthy life:

- Eat five. Five servings of fruits and vegetables a day can boost your heart health. Include fruits and vegetables in all your daily meals, and snack on them instead of, or at least in addition to, chips or other junk food.

- Move 10. Add 10 minutes of physical activity a day to your routine. This can add up to 60 minutes a week to your exercise regimen, reducing your risk of heart disease by as much as 50 percent.

- Sleep eight. Make sure you get at least eight hours of sleep a night. Ample, restful sleep is important to keeping your heart healthy.

Learn what gout is all about

Gout—one of the most common forms of inflammatory arthritis—is on the increase. It affects approximately 8.3 million Americans, 50 percent of whom have three or more attacks a year.

According to an infographic on the Doctor-Patient Communication Tools website, gout is caused by a buildup of uric acid in the blood, where it collects in a joint and then crystallizes. About two-thirds of uric acid in the body is produced naturally, and the other third is an effect of diet. However, genetics plays a larger role than diet in the amount of uric acid in the body.

Talk to your doctor. Although limiting alcohol and other foods can help, dietary changes may not be sufficient. In many cases, medication is necessary to reach and maintain the proper level of uric acid in your body.

Distant galaxy not as large as thought

For years, astronomers believed that the Andromeda galaxy, some 3.5 million light-years from Earth, was much larger than our own Milky Way—and that it would someday gobble up our galaxy. Recent research reported on the Sci-News website, however, suggests that Andromeda's size is roughly equivalent to ours, a mass of 800 billion solar masses.

Scientists analyzed the orbits of high-speed stars in Andromeda and found that the distant galaxy has less dark matter than previously estimated, lowering their measurements of its mass. The two galaxies will still eventually collide in about 4 billion years, but the new findings radically transform astronomers' knowledge of our local galaxy group.

Hospitals in the U.S.—a snapshot

The American Hospital Association conducts an annual survey on hospitals in the United States. The latest survey includes these numbers:

- Total number of all U.S. registered hospitals that meet AHA's criteria for registration as a hospital facility: 5,534
- Number of U.S. community hospitals (defined as nonfederal, short-term general, and other special hospitals): 4,840
- Nongovernment nonprofit community hospitals: 2,849
- Investor-owned for-profit community hospitals: 1,035
- State and local government community hospitals: 956
- Federal government hospitals: 209
- Nonfederal psychiatric hospitals: 397
- Other hospitals, including nonfederal long-term care hospitals and hospital units within an institution such as a prison or school infirmary: 88

Self-driving cars rising in drivers' acceptance

Are you eager to buy a self-driving car? More and more Americans are warming up to the idea. A study by AAA last year found that 78 percent of Americans were scared of the idea of riding in a car that drives itself. A more recent survey saw that figure drop to 63 percent.

Age makes a difference in attitude. Sixty-eight percent of Baby Boomers said they'd feel worried in a driverless car, and 70 percent of Gen Xers expressed concern too. However, fewer than 50 percent of millennials said they'd be frightened of riding in a self-driving vehicle.

Overall, half of drivers in the survey said they want their next car to have some self-driving features, like being able to stop on its own or stay within lanes on the highway.

Clutter is the top target of kitchen remodelers

Thinking of renovating your kitchen? Tidiness is the biggest trend this year, according to the 2018 Houzz Kitchen Trends Study. The study found that 75 percent of homeowners named decluttering their counters as their No. 1 priority, followed by 66 percent who want to put things away and 49 percent who are focused on recycling.

The biggest issue? Storage, cited by 93 percent of survey respondents. That was followed by space planning (38 percent), entertainment (32 percent), and cleanliness (32 percent).

The survey notes that homeowners are also interested in pullout garbage bins, organizers for dishes and utensils, and wine bars.

The notorious outlaw

A cowboy walked into a bar and ordered a whiskey.

“Where is everybody?” he asked the bartender after noticing the place was empty.

“They’re down at the courthouse,” the bartender replied. “They’re gonna hang a fella.”

“A hanging? Is it a famous outlaw?” the cowboy asked.

“How did he get such a strange name?” remarked the cowboy.

“They called him that on account he wears brown paper chaps, brown paper boots, a brown paper hat, and a brown paper vest,” said the bartender.

“That doesn’t sound like much of a cowboy or an outlaw if you ask me,” the cowboy replied. “What did he do to get into so much trouble?”

“Rustling.”
