THANK YOU:

here were many activities held in our park during the month of December. A big thank you to all of our volunteers who made these activities possible and to all who participated.

Don Halker for organizing our beautiful Christmas parade. A joyous time and fun for all. Don has also volunteered to be the new summer activities chairman. Thanks Don!!

Thank you to Sheila-Arlene and Tim Adams, chairpersons, Jim and Janet Wagner cochairpersons and their committee for a wonderful Christmas Eve celebration. Thank you Leo Girouard and his kitchen crew for the refreshments. Thank you to all who were a part of the Christmas program. A special evening spent with friends, family and neighbors.

Thank you to John Cmiel for printing all the lovely tickets for our functions. John prints all our tickets for activities throughout the year.

Thank you to John Cmiel and Judie Zacharias for being chairpersons for the collection of donations for our veterans in need. This year we collected socks and toiletries as well as cash donations to buy gift cards. The collection box was overflowing. Thank you all for your generosity.

Thank you Harriet Ha-Sidi for organizing the collection of blankets for the migrant workers. Makes us realize why we celebrate the Christmas holiday.

Thank you to Bing Bingham and his Christmas Elves who helped decorate the front entrance to our park and to all the residents who decorated their homes so beautifully for the holidays. Thank you!!

Thank you John Cmiel, Judie Zacharias, Leo and Rita Girouard for arranging so many interesting trips for our residents to enjoy. We all look forward to see what will be offered each season. Be sure to look on the bulletin board in the clubhouse to see what is available.

A big thank you to Ed and Marylou Belliveau for scheduling our dance bands from November to April. Ed and Marylou are always looking for new bands for us to enjoy. Most Continued on page 6 of our entertainment must be scheduled a year in advance. A thank you also to the couples that volunteer to supervise the individual dances, making sure the doors to the clubhouse are open for the band to set up, and making sure all is locked up after the dance. We all enjoy the dances and forget that they don't just magically happen!!

GOLF CARTS:

To children under the age of 16 allowed to drive the golf carts.

A few jokes submitted by Rosemary McGrath:

y grandpa started walking five miles a day when he was 60. Now he is 97 years old and we have no idea where the hell he is.

The only reason I would take up walking is so I could hear heavy breathing again. Every time I start thinking too much about how I look, I just find a pub with a Happy Hour and by the time I leave, I look just fine.

BOCCE:

President Bing Bingham would like to thank all the Bocce players who prepared the court for our new season. The court looks great!!

Please sign up for the Men vs Women Bocce Tournament

Play begins Monday January 14, continues Friday January 18, finals on Monday January 21.

Cutoff for signups Jan 9 when team draws will be held

Hotdog barbecue to be held Jan 21st after award presentations

Bocce dues of $3.00 are now due. Dues must be paid in order to participate in the tournaments.

Dog Owners:

hank you for being a responsible pet owner. In the past there have been complaints of dogs running loose and leaving their waste behind. These complaints are not intended for the majority of dog owners who walk their dogs on a leash in the pet section, and pick up any "deposits". The pet section welcomes these dogs and enjoys meeting them and their owners. They bring a smile to our faces.

RUMMAGE SALE:

Saturday February 16th

Our annual rummage sale will be held Saturday Feb 16-9AM to 1PM. Collections will begin Thursday Jan 17th and will continue on consecutive Thursdays from 9AM-11AM at the clubhouse. Large items will be collected on Friday Feb 15th . Please contact chairpersons Marylou Belliveau or Chuck LaCrosse to schedule pickup. Set up for the sale will be Friday Feb 15th. Bingo will not be held that evening. Please note: No TV's except flat screens that work! No sofas, or large appliances such as fridges, stoves, washers and dryers! Our volunteers do not need back or leg injuries.

Our baked goods table is always a favorite and don't forget the jewelry counter. Your donations to both of these tables is greatly appreciated.

HOMEOWNERS ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION

The rest is history

his is the time of year we dream big, vow to make changes, create goals, and promise to transform into a new and improved version of ourselves. Then we allow life and other responsibilities, naysayers, doubt, and fear to veer us of course.

As you follow your bliss and explore your passions, draw inspiration from the following individuals who found success in spite of the odds against them:

- Fred Astaire. He sang and danced his way into our hearts on the silver screen, but his first audition for a major studio was a bomb. The executives were underwhelmed by his performance and offered this critique of Astaire: "Can't act. Can't sing. Slightly bald. Can dance a little."
- Wayne Gretzky. Widely regarded as one of the greatest pro hockey players, Gretzky was considered too slow and too small at the start of his career. The popular opinion was he'd never be a success in the NHL.
- Sir John Gurdon. He is a pioneer in the fields of nuclear medicine, cloning, and cellular development. Among his many honors are a cancer research facility named in his honor and a Nobel Prize. Yet Gurdon finished last in his prep school biology class because his ideas about science were not aligned with the curriculum of that time.
- Im Dong-Hyen. This South Korean archer has won medals and set records. He even competed in the 2004, 2008, and 2012 Olympics—despite being legally blind.
- George Lucas. There wasn't a single studio in Hollywood interested in Lucas' script for Star Wars. He endured four years of rejection before an executive at 20th Century Fox decided to give Lucas a chance—not because he liked the script, but because he liked Lucas's film American Graffiti.

What you know

CEO was asked by a new hire for any words of wisdom that would be helpful in developing a successful career. "Never lose your sense of curiosity, and always be on the quest to learn something new," was the executive's reply.

"When I first started here," the executive continued, "I never imagined that I would one day become the CEO. In fact, I wasn't sure if the job I had was a good fit, so I worked in different departments over the course of a few years. Then I became curious, and everything I learned led me on a quest to learn more.

"I talked with the salespeople and learned about the market for our products. I toured the factories and saw how the products were assembled. I even traveled around the world to visit different vendors who supplied materials for everything we manufacture.

"Being successful," the executive said, "is not about what you study or what you read or what you think. It's about what you know."

Coffee aids in kidney disease fight, study says

mong coffee's health benefits may be a reduced risk of death from kidney disease, according to the Healthline website.

A study recently written up in the journal Nephrology Dialysis Transplantation examined data from 4,863 Americans.

The subjects were divided into four groups. Group One consumed the amount of caffeine in one cup of iced tea per day. Group Two took caffeine equivalent to one cup of coffee per day. Group Three had one or two cups, and Group Four had multiple cups per day.

Subjects in Group Two, researchers found, had a 12 percent lower risk of dying from kidney disease. Group Three showed a 22 percent lower risk, and Group Four, which consumed the highest amount of caffeine per day, saw a 24 percent lower risk.

Scientists caution that caffeine poses other health risks, and patients on fluid-restricted diets should take coffee into account of their daily fluid intake. Cream, creamers, and syrups can also cause problems for people with kidney disease, including increased phosphorus and potassium levels. Check with your doctor, as always.

Water might help reduce women's UTIs omen who suffer from frequent urinary tract infections (UTIs) may find relief by simply drinking more water, an article on the WebMD website advises.

A yearlong study in Europe followed 140 premenopausal women who experienced recurring UTIs at high rates. At the beginning, the subjects drank less than six eight-ounce glasses of water per day. As the year went on, half the participants drank slightly more than six glasses, while the rest kept to the same regimen.

Researchers found a significant reduction of UTIs among the women who drank more water per day. The average number of UTIs among subjects in the first group was 3.2, but dropped to 1.7 for women whose water intake increased.

"Drinking more water to improve one's health is probably safe and, if tap is used, pretty inexpensive," said one doctor (who was not involved in the study). "Producing additional urine—and thus increasing voiding frequency—may raise one's awareness of the importance of keeping the bladder as empty as possible, which can help reduce UTIs."

A New Year's resolution for fiscal fitness

Tost New Year's resolutions revolve around getting fit. Although that frequently means losing weight, one area you want to fatten up is your money supply. Here are some simple resolutions for adding some healthy heft to your overall financial profile:

- Pay down your mortgage. You can save more than $63,000 on a 30-year, $200,000 mortgage by paying just $100 more a month.
- Save 10 percent. Put aside 10 percent of your income for long-term investments and retirement savings before paying any bills.
- Track your expenses. Record every dollar you spend, for at least one week. You'll get a clearer idea of where the money goes and what you can cut back on.
- Energize your house. Look for ways to make your house more energy efficient. You'll save on heating and cooling costs and help the environment.
- Stay home. Resist the temptation to eat out. Cook more meals at home. Instead of going to the movies, stream a video, read a book, or a play a game with your whole family.
- Don't rely on credit cards. Credit card debt can eat up your savings and your future. Start reducing your debt, and don't buy anything on credit if you don't have the money to pay the bill off promptly.

Save money at the grocery store

Tou have to eat—there's no getting around it for long. You don't have to sink all your money into your next trip to the grocery store, though. The Reader's Digest website shares these tips for saving money on groceries:

- Know your store's coupon policies. Many stores offer their own printable coupons on their websites. Some allow you to use that coupon with a manufacturer's coupon (that's called "stacking"). Ask your store what it allows and what's off-limits.
- Join loyalty programs. You can get discounts and money back on your purchases through your store's loyalty program. Sign up and check all the rules so you get maximum value from it.
- Look for final markdowns and clearances. Many grocery stores place clearance items in a designated area, or use special stickers to help shoppers identify them. Find out what your store does, and keep an eye open for food you can use.
- Be careful with multiples. They can trick you into spending more than you want. For example, if a sign on a bag of chips says "Two for $5," and a single bag of chips is $3.29, you're getting a good deal (if you want chips). On the other hand, a sign that promises "10 for $10" for ramen noodles when they're individually priced at $1 apiece isn't offering any savings. Do the math, and be choosy.

Many folks think they aren't good at earning money, when what they don't know is how to use it.

Monthly

Financial Wellness Month. Are you saving enough for retirement? Are you saving at all? Will you owe the IRS money this year toward your 2018 taxes? What are your financial goals for 2019? These are just a few of the questions to ask yourself while you review your spending habits and determine your preparedness for any "rainy days" ahead.

Get a Balanced Life Month. It's the start of a new year. Use this new beginning as time to review, reconsider, streamline—and maybe even eliminate—the unnecessary commitments, responsibilities, and activities that fill your days.

Get Organized Month. It's cold outside, and more than likely you're spending more time indoors fretting that there's nothing to do. Here's an idea: Don't wait for spring to purge your work and living spaces of unnecessary clutter and unused or unwanted items. There's no better time than the present to restore a sense of order to your life.

Learn to Ski and Snowboard Month. If saying "yes" to new adventures tops your to-do list this year, why not start things off right by developing your ski legs? Go online to learntoskiandsnowboard.org to find information on destinations, deals, and other considerations.

man was diagnosed with a rare but fatal illness and was told he had one year left. Because he believed he had nothing to live for, he refused treatment, quit his job, withdrew from the company of family and friends, and began to drink heavily and adopt other self-destructive behaviors.

Two years later the man realized he'd outlived his initial diagnosis. He made an appointment with a new doctor, who ordered lab work and a battery of tests. The results were shocking: He'd been misdiagnosed.

As he sat in the doctor's office trying to make sense of the news he'd received, his thoughts turned to how he'd been infected with hopelessness and wasted his days over the past few years. He knew he could never reclaim that time, but he vowed to live a more purposeful life starting that day.

He stopped drinking and took an active role in maintaining his health. He returned to work and spent time with family and friends. He even made the effort to do things that he'd always dreamed about.

His advice to those who might be sick or troubled or simply down on their luck is to make every day count for something meaningful and good. Life is too precious for wasted days.

It's all about the journey

Inspirational author and minister Steve Goodier often shares a version of this story to remind us to enjoy the journey as we set out to explore our horizons.

Armed with shovels, two young boys were hard at work, digging a hole in the corner of their backyard. Their older siblings came over to find out what they were doing.

"We're explorers!" one of the youngsters shouted. "We're digging a hole to the center of the earth."

Their older siblings began to laugh. One said, "I hate to tell you this, kiddo, but you won't make it."

"You'd need a lot more than those shovels if you really wanted to go deep into the earth," the other sibling added.

"It doesn't matter," one of the younger boys replied. "We may not get far, but we sure did find some treasures."

In his outstretched palms were a live worm, a shiny rock, an old skeleton key, and a nickel.
