Sixth Street Party!

February 29th was a beautiful day for the annual Sixth Street Party! There was food and drink and music and balloons and dancing and Santa Claus even showed up!

The Sixth Street party tradition started years ago as a birthday celebration of Fred Clyne and Ed Simmons, neighbors and good friends. After Ed passed, Jane and Fred kept the party going. Thanks for all the great memories!

Tragically, Jane passed away suddenly on March 4th from complications during surgery. We will cherish the memories!

BBQ

The clubhouse was filled to capacity when Bud served up his great BBQ on March 7th. This is the fourth year Bud has made BBQ, and he donates the proceeds to the Association. Thanks to Pam and Bud, all the folks who helped serve, and Bud's sister for the ever-popular beans!

Carolyn Carr is puzzled about this.....

I go to the grocery store and buy a lb. of sliced ham wrapped in plastic, a loaf of bread in a plastic bag, a gallon of milk in a plastic jug, a pack of napkins wrapped in plastic, a Greek salad in a plastic container, a plastic bottle of mustard and a plastic bottle of ketchup, and they won't give me a plastic bag to carry it home because the plastic bag is bad for the environment?!

Several other park folks help with collecting monies, Pat G. and Darlene O. Carolyn C. helps with odds and ends as do several others.

The best ones are the attendees that support the event. All are welcome as well as guests. Come, enjoy the fellowship and catch up on current happenings!!!!

Honeymoon Park Neighborhood Watch News

It was reported to me on Tuesday afternoon, March 10 that there was an incident that happened in the park that I want to make the Neighborhood Watch residents aware of. One of our lady residents was walking to the pool along East Street, and she noticed a parked car off to the side of the road near the green golf practice area, facing towards the clubhouse. In usual park friendly fashion she gave a wave to the driver thinking it was a park resident, and continued walking. In a short time the car pulled up beside her and the elderly male driver with grey hair, asked where she was going. She replied to the pool. He asked, where is that, can I come with you. Can I drive you somewhere, you are pretty. She then realized that this was no one she recognized from the park, and she replied she was meeting her husband at the pool and promptly walked away. The car then proceeded towards the park exit on Curlew road.

This incident was reported to the sheriff's office, and they will be on the look- out for a red sedan, possibly a Toyota Corolla or similar sized vehicle, with a driver matching the description. Fortunately nothing more came of this incident, and hopefully this will not happen here again.

Please keep an open eye as this person may come back. Should you see a suspicious vehicle parked, matching this description, please call the sheriff's office immediately. If possible note

This is the time of year that many children are visiting here on Spring break and we would not want to have any of them accosted by such an individual. Let's keep a watchful eye and maybe he can be caught.

Honeymoon Book Club

In February we did a book swap. Everyone who brought a book got to take home a different one.

Our book club met on 3/25 to discuss "The House of Broken Angels". We are moving our April meeting to 4/8/20 at 1 pm so we can meet one more time in Snowbird season. Our April book is set in Dunedin! It is "Strands of Truth" by Colleen Coble, and is available in downtown Dunedin, on Amazon and at the library. April will be our last meeting of the season. See you in November!

Ann Marie Anthony

My friend John in Indiana shared some stories

One year I decided to buy my mother-in-law a cemetery plot as a Christmas gift. The next year I didn't buy her a gift. When she asked me why I replied, "Well, you still haven't used the gift I bought you last year."

And that's how the fight started.

My wife sat down next to me as I was flipping channels. She asked "What's on TV?" I said, "Dust."

And that's how the fight started.

I rear-ended a car this morning....the start of a REALLY bad day! The driver got out of the other car, and he was a dwarf!! He looked up at me and said, "I am NOT Happy!" So I said, "Well, which one are you then?"

And that's how the fight started.

My wife was standing nude, looking in the bedroom mirror. She was not happy with what she saw and said to me, "I feel horrible: I look old, fat and ugly. I really need you to pay me a compliment." I replied, "Your eyesight's damn near perfect."

And that's how the fight started.

After retiring, I went to the Social Security office to apply for Social Security. The woman behind the counter asked me for my driver's license to verify my age. I looked in my pockets and realized I had left my wallet at home. I told the woman that I was sorry, but I would have to go home and come back later. But the woman said, "Unbutton your shirt." So I opened my shirt revealing my curly silver hair. She said, "That silver hair on your chest is proof enough for me,” and she processed my application. When I got home, I excitedly told my wife about my experience at the Social Security office, and she said, “You should have dropped your pants. You might have gotten disability too.”

And that's how the fight started.

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

Well, as of this day, March 15th, the whole world has been turned topsy-turvy! The Coronavirus has changed everything!

Schools and businesses all over the country have been closed for at least 2 weeks. All kinds of events have been canceled, from church services to basketball games, even Disney, Universal, and Busch Gardens. Apparently our Canadian friends have been instructed by their government to return home immediately. For some reason there has even been a run on toilet paper!

We are instructed not to panic, but the virus is all they talk about on the news. I refuse to acknowledge that I am in the “at risk” age group! Aside from “social distancing” which we kind of have no choice about as everything is being canceled, I have just about washed the skin off my hands!

Till we meet again, stay well and we will see each other again in the fall.
